FORTY YEARS IN SERVICE.

If the dead "father of the Senate" had lived until March 4 he would have served 35 years in the Senate, besides serving eight years in the House. His publican persuasion are keeping their congressional career began on March ears close to the ground and sayin' 4, 1865, and the civil war was then in nothin'. progress. Petersburg and Richmond were still held by the Confederacy. From that time to the day of his death William Boyd Allison served his country in Congress, a period, ad told, of 44 years. In length of service the annals of Congress furnish no parallel

Nor was his service one of routine. and a Republican. He was perhaps as until the last few years was supposed to be in-He was a leader of the cautious sort. much a patriot as a leader can well be in a party-governed country. At any rate he did not hesitate to vote independently when his information and conscience called for such action on his part.

until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors promounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken nternally in doses from 10 drops te a teaspoontal treatment.

on financial questions, and soon after he took his seat in the Senate he became a member of the Senate finance committee of the committee of appropriations, and in these two capacities he handled all the great money questions that came up during his long

But is was by virtue of his position as chairman of the Republican caucus and chairman of the steering committee that he became in fact and in name the leader of his party and of the Senate. He was never aggressive, but still he was controlling. He selected his own associates when the steering committee was appointed, and with them he determined what bills should be considered and what should not be. This committee is not known to the law, and yet it is the most powerful single agency in the land. It loses a directing hand in the death at an advanced age of the Iowa Senator. He was in his 80th year, and another link with the civil war period of the Republic is gone.

His death will be apt to seat in the Senate after March 4 Governor Cummin, who belongs to the LaFollete or reform school of the Republicans. Governor Cummins is an ardent tariff revisionist, and he would fight in the Senate side by side with the wellknown and irrepressible Wisconsin

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol for Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I nom weigh more than I ever did in my life and amiin better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benifited. Yours truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by M. E. Robinson & Bro.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

In a single century, since Madison's presidential term the Electoral College has increased from 175 to 483. This growth is an index of the grewth of the country-growth in population and new states. This year the electoral vete is larger by seven vetes than it was in 1904. The increase is due to the admission of Oklohoma. In the Madi-For Vice President-Jno. W. Kern, son campaign of 100 years ago only thirteen states took part, while this year forty-six states will be represented in the electoral college. The popular vote of the nation in 1824 was but 352,-000. This year the popular vote may reach 14,000,000, and yetsthe suffrage is no wider, if so wide, as! it was in

The election of 1824 is memorable because in it no man received a majority of the electoral votes cast. The election of 1876 was a hodge-podge of partisandispute and rancor, and in the end the man that was not elected was put in the White House. But in 1824 the election was confessedly inclusive. Andrew Jackson did not receive either a majority of the popular vete or of the electoral vote, but he outran any one of his three opponents. The election was thrown into the House of Representatives, where John Quincy Adams was elected president. The people took the matter into their own hands and Jackson was twice elected, and some day he could have had a third term.

But the country was very small in 1824. Jackson's popular vote was 155,-872; Adams'. 105,321; Henry Clay's, 46,587, and William H. Crawford's 54,-282. Many a state now casts more votes than the country did in 1824.

When Adlai E. Stevenson seeks the Democratic nomination for governor in Illinois and Judson Harmon in thio it means that there is to be a fight in these states.

All the Gold IN GEORGIA Could not Buy-

Roding. Ga. August 27, 1986. Museus, E. C. DaWITT & Co.,

Gentlemen:

In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. Some physicians told mait was Dyspepsia, some Consumption of the Lungs, others said consumption of the Bowels. One physician said I would not live until Spring, and for four long years I existed on a little boiled milk, soda biscults, doctors' prescriptions and Dyspepsia remedies that flooded the market. I could not digest anything I ate, and in the Spring 1902 I picked up one of your Almanacs as a poor emaciated Dyspepsia wreck will grasp at anything, and that Almanac happened to be my life saver. I bought a fifty cent bottle of KODOL DYS-PEPSIA CURE and the benefit I received from that bottle ALL THE GOLD IN GEORGIA COULD NOT BUY. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. I still use a little coessionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic. and a good tonic,
May you live long and prosper.
Yours very truly,
C. N. CORNELL
