MARCH OF AGE-WORN VETERANS.

Cheered By a Continuous Mass of People That Lined the Streets For Blocks.

Every State and Territory Was Represented in the Column, Besides the Potomac Division, Made Up of the Old Guard of Washington, D. C.

TAFT AND FORAKER PRESENT.

(Special to the ARGUS.)

Toledo, O., Sept. 2.—Cheered by a continuous mass of people that lined the streets for blocks, 25,000 age-worn veterans of the Grand Army bravely covered the route of the big parade today. The parade was the big spectacular event of the national encampment and in honor of the occasion the day was observed as a general holiday in Toledo. The city departments, the banks, and many commercial institutions were closed. During the early hours of the forenoon the railroads and interurban lines brought thousands of new visitors into the city from points in Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. Before 9 o'clock the downtown streets were thronged. Along the line of march at every available point viewing stands had been built and soon they began to fill with spectators.

The parade formed on Sixteenth street. The line of march led through Madison avenue, thence to Collingwood street, Jefferson and St. Clair streets and Michigan avenue, thence to Fifteenth street, where the veterans were dismissed. The official reviewing stands were located in Madison avenue between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets. Occupying seats on the official stand were the governors of several States, the city officials of Toledo and a number of invited guests of prominence. One stand was fitted for the most part with delegates to the G. A. R., and affiliated organizations and their friends. Another was occupied by disabled veterans who were physically unable to stand the strain of the march. Tears fell from the eyes of many a white-haired soldier as he gazed at his old companions marching past the stand. A hush, almost of silence, marked the passage of the army at this point.

In the formation of the parade, Toledo Post, G. A. R., was given the place of honor, that of escort to Commander-in-Chief Charles G. Burton. The line was headed by a squadron of mounted police, followed by the commander-in-chief and his staff. Then came a number of carriages containing several of the past commanders-in-chief and other distinguished guests.

Every State and territory was represented in the column, besides the Potomac division, made up of the Old Guard of Washington, D. C. Massachusetts, New York, Ohio and Illinois were the best represented in point of numbers. Illinois was the first in line and was followed by the departments of the various States in the following order: Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Maine, California and Nevada, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Vermont, the Potomac, Virginia, Nebraska, Maryland, Michigan, Iowa, Indiana, Colorado and Wyoming, Kansas, Delaware, Minnesota, Oregon, Kentucky, West Virginia, South Dakota, Washington, Arkansas, New Mexico, Utah, Tennessee, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, Montana, Idaho, Arizona, Georgia, Alabama, North Dakota and Oklahoma.

Ohio, as the host of the encampment, brought up the rear. Preceding the Ohio veterans were the Battle-Flag division of the National Association of ex-Prisoners of War. At a conspicuous point in Madison avenue the veterans were greeted by the sight of a "living flag," composed of 3,500 school children.

The decorations along the line of march were the most magnificent ever seen in Toledo. During the night the final decorative touches were made, and this morning the centre of the city blossomed out in one great display of flags and bunting. Streamers of red and yellow, the official colors of the G. A. R., and flags and pennants of the national colors were the conspicuous features of the decorative scheme. An enthusiastic feature of the day was when Hon. Wm. H. Taft, Republican candidate for President, appeared and reviewed the parade. He arrived on an early train from Middle Bass, Lake Erie, where he has been fishing.

Tonight there will be a G. A. R. muster, followed by many camp fires. Messrs. Taft and Foraker will be present this afternoon at a reception and an effort is being made to have them reconcile their differences.

A QUESTION OF HUMANITY.

Attempt to Usurp Completely a Realm That Should be Exclusive.

In the Charlotte News of a recent issue—August 24—appears the following under that paper's Raleigh correspondence that should be taken note of by every fair-minded citizen of North Carolina:

"It develops that in the course of lengthy resolutions adopted by the North Carolina Association of the Deaf, just adjourned here, rancor, engendered by the feud that has disturbed the administration of the affairs of the State School for the Deaf and Dumb, at Morganton, cropped out forcibly in that an investigation is called for to determine whether the elimination of deaf teachers is the result of progress against foggyism, or the battle of the strong against the weak, a battle which it is declared should not be waged at the expense of a generous public. The adoption of the oral method of instructing the deaf by teaching them to actually speak and to read speech from the movement of the lips has created no end of trouble in the Morganton institution for some time, especially when it came to dropping from the faculty certain of the old deaf and dumb members of the faculty to give place to experts in the new method of instruction.

"The resolutions adopted declare that since the State board of internal improvements holds that it has no authority to investigate methods of instruction at Morganton, there should be provision made for such investigation by the legislature or other proper authority and that it is the unalterable belief of the members of the association, representing educated deaf mutes from all parts of the State, that the combined system should be used if the greatest happiness and usefulness of the students of the institution are to be considered. The reading of signs and fingerspelling should by all means be continued, says the association, through the resolutions adopted, which will be presented to the next session of the legislature, and may come up for investigation by that body."

Commenting on the above movement the Morganton News-Herald, which is on the scene, has the following, which the ARGUS endorses in full:

"We don't pretend to know much about it, but from our view—'up a tree'—the educated deaf teacher is better suited to teach the deaf than anyone else. It stands to reason—it is natural—that there is more sympathy and a better understanding between student and teacher, hence more rapid progress of the deaf student under the deaf teacher. We don't know that there has been any feud over the administration of affairs at the State School for the Deaf and Dumb here, but it does look like there is an undercurrent at work somewhere to 'root out' the deaf and dumb teachers to give places to the 'more progressive,' as some are pleased to term them. As for us we shall espouse the cause of the deaf teacher, for we honestly believe he is the best suited for teaching the deaf, and we are glad to see them organizing for self protection.

"Let's be progressive but progress in the right way. It is alright in many cases to have hearing teachers to teach the deaf and dumb, but let's not eliminate the deaf and dumb teacher. The oral department of the deaf and dumb school is alright—no one is kicking against that—but let us not do away with or look lightly upon manual training by the deaf and dumb."

THE VERMONT ELECTION.

Republican Plurality 28,000 Against 31,557 in 1904.

Republican Plurality the Smallest in a Presidential Year Since 1892,

When it Was Followed by a Democratic National Victory—Falling Off in Four Years of About Eight Per Cent.

(Special to the ARGUS.)

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 2.—The Republicans won the election in Vermont yesterday by carrying the State for Lieutenant Governor George H. Prouty, of Newport, for governor, by about 28,000 votes over James E. Buske, of Burlington, his Democratic opponent. The plurality was the smallest in a presidential year since 1892, when it was only 17,936, and was followed by a Democratic national victory, but it was larger than in 1888 and only slightly less than in 1900. There was a falling off in four years of about 8 per cent in the Republican vote, while the Democratic vote fell off about 2 per cent.

The Independence League appeared for the first time and polled about 1,000 votes, while the Prohibition and Socialist vote remained about the same. An unusually large number of local contests for members of the Legislature, although bringing out a heavy vote and resulting in Democratic gains in the lower branch of the Legislature apparently had no bearing on the gubernatorial fight.

As Vermont is the first State to vote during the presidential campaign, there was much interest throughout the country, in the size of the Republican plurality.

The ARGUS is most sincere in wishing them life's fullest measure of happiness and prosperity.

WAR IMPENDING

Holland Was Her Ire up Against Venezuela and Means Business.

(Special to the ARGUS.)

New York, Sept. 2.—H. A. Hyde, a prominent electrical engineer of Amsterdam, says that Holland is preparing for war with Venezuela and that if Castro does not apologize he will be made to do so.

He says there is great excitement in Holland over the situation and that a wave of martial feeling is sweeping the country.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, dispirites and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness. It is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with wetting, depend upon it, the cause is kidney trouble, and the remedy should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar samples. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

BUSY DAY FOR VETERANS.

Women's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., Daughters of Veterans and Other Auxiliary Bodies Held Business Sessions Today.

Toledo, O., Sept. 2.—The continuous round of receptions, reunions, excursions, parades and other features of entertainment that the veterans of the Grand Army and their friends have enjoyed since the first of the week gave way this morning to a season of work. Promptly at 10 o'clock the business sessions of the forty-second annual encampment opened in the Valentine Theatre. The auditorium had been elaborately decorated for the occasion by the ladies of Toledo.

Commander-in-Chief Burton called the gathering to order and delivered his annual address. The session was devoted chiefly to the annual reports of the several officers and standing committees, including those of Adjutant-General Jere T. Dew, Senior Vice-Commander L. F. Griffith, Inspector-General C. D. R. Stowits, and Judge Advocate General L. W. Collins. New officers for the year, including a commander-in-chief, will be chosen at the concluding session of the encampment tomorrow.

The Women's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., Daughters of Veterans and other auxiliary bodies held business sessions today at which reports for the year were presented and discussed.

Four campfires are scheduled for various parts of the city tonight, including a monster campfire of Commander-in-Chief Burton, at the Valentine Theatre, at which several of the past commanders-in-chief are to speak.

MOREHEAD FOR CONGRESS.

Everybody Down This Way Thought He Was a Democrat.

In Greensboro yesterday the Republican congressional convention of the Fifth district nominated Mr. John M. Morehead, only son of the late Col. Jno. L. Morehead, of Charlotte, and a grandson of the historic Governor Jno. M. Morehead, to make the race against Mr. A. L. Brooks, the Democratic nominee.

Mr. Morehead is well known down this way, and better known on the seacoast, where, at Morehead City, he has a beautiful summer home, and to all of us his nomination from a Republican convention comes as a real surprise, and we would hardly believe it—or at least that he was affiliating with them—were it not for the following telegram over his own name, sent from New York, where he was on business when the news of his nomination was wired him:

New York City, Sept. 2, 1908. Gilliam Grissom, Greensboro, N. C.

Express to convention my appreciation of honor conferred. Will undertake the race, believing that our Charlotte platform and nominees will appeal successfully to a public long since exhausted and disgusted with the agitation and introduction of disturbing factors by the Democratic politicians in their desperate search for an issue for the coming election. I believe a conservative and business administration will be demanded, and the Republican party can await the result with confidence.

JOHN M. MOREHEAD.

SUSPECT ARRESTED.

Atlantic City's Board Walk Shooting Mystery is Still Holding the Lime Light.

Atlantic City, Sept. 2.—A man was caught in the tenderloin district today who is suspected of shooting Charles B. Roberts, the Baltimore millionaire, who was shot on the board walk while chair riding with Mrs. Williams last week.

The police refuse to give out the man's name or even officially admit that the arrest is connected with the Roberts case; but a detective inadvertently let out this much. The chase created great excitement, and is now the talk of the hour.

HON. F. H. BUSBEE.

His Remains Will Reach Raleigh This Afternoon.

The Funeral will be From Christ Church at Half Past Five O'clock This Afternoon and Interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

Raleigh News and Observer, Sept. 4.

The remains of Hon. Fabulus H. Busbee are expected to reach this city at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The train bearing his body left Chattanooga on time yesterday and will reach Richmond this morning. There the body will be met by a committee from the Raleigh Bar composed of Mr. A. B. Andrews, Jr., Mr. W. H. Pace and Mr. Murray Allen. Leaving Richmond at noon they are expected to reach Raleigh at 4:10 with the remains. The funeral will be held from Christ church at 5:30.

Mr. Busbee's death occurred at Seattle, Washington, where he had gone to attend the meeting of the American Bar Association. He was taken sick while riding through the Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming, and on reaching Seattle was confined to his bed. He grew rapidly worse and died Friday afternoon, the report of his death reaching here Friday night. Mr. Busbee was a comparatively young man and previous to this trip had appeared in good health and the news of his death was a great shock to his friends and admirers throughout the State.

The body will be met at the Union depot by all the members of the Raleigh Bar. At 4:10 this afternoon the members of the Bar will meet at the Supreme Court Building for the purpose of attending the funeral. The Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina is also called to meet in special communication in the Grand Lodge hall at 3:30 for the purpose of attending the funeral.

INSTANT RELIEF OF ITCHING HUMOR

Limbs Below the Knees Were Raw—Feet Too Swollen to Get Shoes On—Sleep Completely Broken by Intense Itching and Burning—Well in Two Days and Says That

CUTICURA IS AMONG HIS HOUSEHOLD GODS

"God bless the man who first compounded Cuticura. Some two months ago I had a humor break out on my limbs below my knees. They came to look like raw beefsteak, all red, and no one knows how they itched and burned. They were so swollen that I had to split my drawers open to get them on and could not get my shoes on for a week or more. I used five or six different remedies and got no help, only when applying them the burning was worse and the itching less. One morning I remembered that I had a bit of Cuticura and tried it. From the moment it touched me the itching was gone and I have not had a bit of it since. The swelling went down and in two days I had my shoes on and was about as usual. I only wish I had used the Cuticura Remedies in the first of my troubles. They would have saved me two or three weeks of intense suffering. During that time I did not sleep an hour at a time, but was up applying such remedies as I had. Henceforth the Cuticura Remedies will be among my household gods, rest assured. George B. Farley, 50 South State St., Concord, N. H., May 14, 1907."

FOR HAY FEVER.

Per-na is Sometimes Used With Excellent Results.

A CASE IN POINT.

MISS MAYME E. SMITH, 441 East Mound St., Columbus, Ohio, writes:

"I have used Peruna for catarrh and hay fever. The results being remarkable, I can highly recommend it to all who are suffering with the above diseases. I am happy to be able to say it has helped me wonderfully."

What is known as hay fever is in reality endemic catarrh, a catarrhal condition of the nose, throat, sometimes the bronchial tubes, induced by some local irritant.

The irritation is generally due to vegetable emanations of some sort. Hay has been suspected as being the cause of this malady, hence its name, hay fever. It has been attributed to rag weed and other vegetation also. It is a very capricious disease, coming and going. A medicine that will help one case may not help another. Such treatment has always been very uncertain and unsatisfactory.

Peruna helps some cases without a doubt, although it is not claimed to be an infallible remedy for such cases.
