BUTLERS UNDER $1,000 BONDS

No Attempt Made to Substantiate The Charges.

Ex-Judge Adams, Under Cross-Examination for Hour, Tells Freely His Connection With Citizenship Court. Audience Applauds His Testimony.

Ex-United States Senator Marion Butler and brother, Lester Butler, were given a hearing yesterday afternoon before Justices D. H. Collins and J. M. Wolfe on the charge of criminal libel brought by Ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams. They were bound over to Superior Court in bonds of $1,000 each.

The trial was held in the county court house and two or three hundred people went there to hear the evidence. In a hearing in which the attorneys for the defendants were allowed the broadest latitude possible Judge Adams comes out without a blot or blemish on his character. On the other hand his acts as chief justice of the Choctaw Chickasaw court were shown by his own sworn testimony to be upright and honorable in every particular.

For more than an hour Judge Adams was on the witness stand, and he underwent a cross-examination the like of which has never before been witnessed in Greensboro. He was frank and to the point and it was evident that he wanted to disclose everything in connection with his official conduct and his private acts as well. He was questioned as to how much money he has made since early manhood, how his living expenses have ranged, whether or not he kept a horse while in Oklahoma, even asking him what were the expenses of his wife in attending the funeral of her mother. He was asked what was the largest fee he has ever received as an attorney. To every question he had a prompt reply except where he could not remember the item of expense.

The examination was even carried into politics and ex-Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson, who conducted the cross-examination, tried to show that Butler was responsible for Adams being elected Judge of the Superior Court and for his election as chairman of the Republican party. Adams testified that he had never been intimate with Butler, and that he sent him word not to come to the State convention two years ago.

Attorneys for the prosecution said that they had not objected to the broad range of the cross-examination because they wanted to show that they had nothing to conceal. They objected to the time consumed in asking questions that they claimed had no bearing on the case.

No evidence was offered by the defense. E. J. Justice and W. S. O'B. Robinson made speeches for the defense and J. A. Long and C. M. Stedman spoke for the prosecution.

Judge Adams' conduct on the witness stand met with such favorable reception with the crowd that Justice Collins had to threaten to have those who cheered arrested and put in jail. Ex-Senator Butler was arrested in Sampson county Tuesday night. He gave bond for his appearance in Greensboro yesterday. Lester Butler was arrested in Wake county and brought to Greensboro yesterday in the custody of an officer. After reaching Greensboro he gave bond and was released.

The trial began at 3 o'clock and it was after 6 o'clock before it was concluded. When it was asked if the State was ready for trial, J. A. Long asked for time to get a statement from the secretary of State, showing the Officers of the Caucasian Publishing Company. It was admitted that Marion Butler and Lester Butler are in control of the paper and the hearing was begun.

J. A. Long read the warrant, which contained matter published in the Caucasian of four different dates relative to a bribe Judge Adams was alleged to have received while Judge of the Indian citizenship court. The prosecution offered copies of the Caucasian containing the article given in the warrant. The defense objected to the introduction of the papers as testimony until it had been proven that the papers were circulated in Guilford county. Judge Adams was put upon the stand to prove that the papers were circulated in the county.

THE "FUNNY PAGES."

They Seem to Be Nearing the End of Their Career.

The "comic supplements" of the Sunday papers, that have too long been known as the "funny pages," seem to have about reached the end of their career, and at least one paper has had the courage to announce its determination to cut them out.

The Boston Herald makes the following statement, that we believe will be generally endorsed:
"Today the Herald abandons the comic supplement. That accompaniment of Sunday newspaperdom has had its day. We discard it as we would throw aside any mechanism that had reached the end of its usefulness, or any 'feature' that had ceased to fulfil the purpose of attraction. Comic supplements have ceased to be comic. They have become as vulgar in design as they are tawdry in color. There is no longer any semblance of art in them, and if there are any ideas they are low and descending lower.

"Many protests come from the public against a continuance of the comic supplements. Parents and teachers object to them. Most discerning persons throw them aside without inspection, experience having taught them that there is no hope for improvement in these gaudy sheets. The supplements no longer amuse an intelligent public; they serve mainly to depress persons of taste, and distort such growing taste as may struggle for the light in others. The colored comic supplement is the clown of the newspaper establishment. The Herald believes that a great newspaper no longer needs a clown. Perhaps it never needed one, but all newspaperdom seemed to think 'the comic' a necessity, and so the colored supplement came into being and acquired the habit of living."

"The colored supplements of the newspapers have not kept pace with the steady improvement in the art of illustration. This defect is due to technical and commercial limitations no less than to a poverty of imagination on the part of persons whose function it has been to provide the pictures. While illustration in other branches, in books and magazines and daily papers, has been showing a great advance, the colored supplements have been going backward. The Herald, giving careful consideration to the subject, has arrived at the conclusion that the time has come when, in the interests of the public taste, the 'comic' colored supplement should be abandoned."

Appreciated.

Allow me space in your columns, please, to express my appreciation—and testify to that of the many—of the excellent service rendered by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, last Tuesday night in serving the public tree with flash-light election returns.

N-r-r-did we—all of us—fail to realize and appreciate the public spirit and efficient service of the chief operator, Miss Cox, and her assistant Miss Fields in taking and handling the returns.
And, too, I must compliment, how efficiently Mr. Harduit handled the stereopticon slides.

ROOSEVELT VERY CHEERFUL.

Tells How And Why Taft Was Elected.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The President was in a very cheerful frame of mind today and told the newspaper men that the election of Mr. Taft wholly carried out a prophecy made by him in a letter written to Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, on October 26 last.

Over one thousand telegrams and many letters of congratulations on the result of the election poured into the White House today for President Roosevelt. He was busy all day reading these letters and dictating replies to them.

The President said there seemed to be some doubt throughout the country regarding the meaning of the word "frazzle" which he used recently in referring to the campaign by saying: "We've got them beaten to a frazzle." He explained that it was a common word in the South and that he had used it since he was a boy. "To those who do not know what it means by the word 'frazzle,'" said the President, "the best definition I can give is to refer them to the election returns."

President Roosevelt today gave his interpretation of the victory of the Republican party yesterday when he said:
"This administration has meant a steady effort and progress which should never be allowed to deviate into an unwise radicalism on the one hand, nor into an unwise conservatism on the other. The nomination of Mr. Taft was a triumph over reactionary conservatism and his election was a triumph over unwise and improper radicalism."

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold only in its fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail from Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

FIFTEEN YEARS FOR MORSE.

The Young Napoleon of Finance Will Be Old When He Again is Free to Filibuster with Banks.

New York, Nov. 6.—Morse was sentenced to fifteen years, today, in the Federal prison in Atlanta by Judge Hough.

Curtis, convicted with Morse, succeeded in having his sentence suspended. Judge Hough said: "I feel that the ends of justice can best be served without imposing a prison term on the defendant Curtis. Curtis did not embark on illegal transactions to benefit himself, but made his first false step when he became subject to the master mind of his employer. He knew his acts were wrong, but was unable to break away from his master's hold. His noble efforts to reform met with little consideration at the hands of a supine board of directors. He continued his illegal path, hoping against hope that an end would come and the bank would not suffer, and he has sustained total financial ruin through the collapse of the bank."

The judge then sentenced him to five years, and immediately suspended the sentence. He said Morse had fathered the illegal scheme to use the bank's funds for his own special purposes, and he then gave him fifteen years, as above recorded.

"IN THE NEAR FUTURE"

Hitchcock Says Complete List of All Contributions Made to Republican Campaign Fund will be Made Public.

New York, Nov. 4.—In a statement tonight Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican National Committee, announced that a complete list of all the contributions made to the Republican campaign fund would be made public in the near future.

Mr. Hitchcock will leave the latter part of this week for Chicago to settle up the business of the campaign in that city. Returning he will stop at Hot Springs, Va., where he will visit William H. Taft, the President-elect, for a few days and then come to New York to close up the national headquarters here.

Mr. Hitchcock was in communication with Mr. Taft by long distance telephone today and Mr. Taft invited Mr. Hitchcock to visit him at Hot Springs. Mr. Hitchcock said that from the reports he has received from State leaders, he was confident Montana and Colorado were safe for Taft. Mr. Hitchcock also said that he had received a telegram from State Chairman Hayward of Nebraska saying that he had not given up that State for Bryan. Maryland is regarded as close by Mr. Hitchcock, while advices from Missouri said that Hadley, Republican, had been elected Governor, and the State would probably go to Taft.

FERTILIZER TRADE

Talk of an Independent Combire Against the Established Trust.

New York, Nov. 6.—There are sharp cuts in the price of sulphuric acids as the result of the entrance of the Tennessee Copper Co. manufacturers sulphuric acid, into the field, by which the entire fertilizer trade is disturbed.

It appears that the Copper Company made a contract with the Germofozt Fertilizer Company to sell the entire output of sulphuric acid of the Copper Company. The Germofozt is an independent company, and immediately began business with other independent companies, offering sulphuric acid from four to five dollars a ton below the prevailing prices, which the Copper Company opposes.

There is now talk of a combination of independent fertilizer companies with the Germofozt as the nucleus.

BABY GIRL CRIED AND SCRATCHED

All the Time—Torturing Eczema! Covered Her Body—Could Not Sleep—Doctor Said Sores Would Last for Years—Skin Now Clear!

"I take great pleasure in telling you that a great help it was for me to use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for my baby niece. She was suffering from that terrible torture, eczema. It was all over her body but the worst was on her face and hands. Her hands were so bad that she could not hold anything. She cried and scratched all the time and could not sleep night or day from the scratching. I had her under the doctor's care for a year and a half and he seemed to do her no good. I took her to the best doctor in the city and he said that she would have the sores until she was six years old. But if I had depended on the doctor my baby would have lost her mind and died from the want of aid.

I used all the remedies that everybody told me about and I tortured the child almost to death. Then I saw in the paper how Cuticura was the thing for irritating skin. I bathed her with warm water and Cuticura Soap and used the Cuticura Ointment. She was cured in three months. Now her skin is as clear and smooth as it could be. I shall recommend the use of Cuticura wherever I see the skin in bad condition. Alice L. Dowell, 4789 Easton Ave., St. Louis, Mo., May 2 and 20, 1907."
