OUR PIKEVILLE LETTER.

Pointers That Prove The Progress of This Live County Town.

Social, Personal, Business And Educational Happenings of the Week Ended Today.

Miss Phoebe Rose, of Fremont, is here, the guest of Miss Lizze Smith.

Mrs. Effie Wiggins and children are here from Greene county visiting relatives.

His friends are glad to welcome home on a short visit Mr. Emmett Smith, who is engaged in the railroad service.

Mr. A. J. Garris, of Parktown, has been here during the past week looking after his farming interests in this section.

Mr. Lonnie W. Jackson has returned from Virginia, where he acted as substitute mail clerk during the holiday season.

Mrs. Aman and little daughter, of Richlands, have been spending the holidays with Mrs. Silas Smith, Mrs. Aman's sister.

The latest business venture made in our town is a barber shop, opened by Mr. Cullen Langston in the store next to Howell's market.

Pikeville welcomes in her midst the family of Mr. Allen Edgerton, who moved here last week from Fremont. Mr. Edgerton will operate a saw mill a short distance from town.

Mr. W. L. Garris, of Bucks Swamp township, is enjoying a visit from his brother, Mr. I. P. Garris, who, accompanied by his wife, came from faraway Kansas to spend Christmas at his old home.

In a guessing contest carried on by the firm of Messrs. Hosea Bros., Mr. J. B. Smith was the lucky contestant and won the prize of $5, he coming within seven of estimating the number of peas in a large glass bottle.

Miss Beulah Crawford entertained a large crowd of friends on Thursday night at a New Year's party and with hilarious enjoyment the guests celebrated the "passing of the old and the coming of the new year."

The colonial home at Col. W. B. Fort, near Pikeville, which is noted for its old time Southern hospitality, has, during the holidays, welcomed party after party of guests gathered in honor of his daughter, Miss Pearl, who is now at home from her art studies in South Carolina.

The postoffice will in a few days be moved from its present quarters into a building erected expressly for this purpose by Postmaster W. T. Haleson. He is lying west of Mr. W. L. Ezze's residence, and recently purchased by Mr. Haleson from Col. W. B. Fort. The new building measures 20 feet by 16, and is to be equipped in a modest, yet convenient and attractive manner.

On Friday night the music department and the elocution classes of the Pikeville High School gave a miscellaneous entertainment in the new school building. A long and varied program was very creditably rendered, and all members—including the first efforts of the young musicians, the selections of more advanced pupils, and the comical recitations and sketches—afforded much enjoyment to the large audience that filled the auditorium to standing room.

Pikeville, N. C., Jan. 2, 1909.

WILL ERECT NEW CHURCH NEAR CITY.

Free Will Baptists Have Purchased Lot On Park Heights For Sanctuary.

The Free Will Baptists will erect a church, work on which to be started at once, on a site just purchased at Park Heights, through the Real Estate Hustler E. L. Edmondson. The church will be a medium-sized structure and will be handsome in appearance.

Elder D. R. Stafford, of Pikeville, was in the city Friday and stated that the church would be completed within the next few months.

Interesting Wedding Thursday at Fremont

Miss Lizzie Aycock Becomes Wife of Mr. Henry T. Whitley. Bride is Niece of Ex-Gov. Aycock.

A wedding of more than ordinary local interest occurred here at the early hour of 8:30 a. m. Thursday, when Mr. Henry Whitley and Miss Lizzie Aycock were made husband and wife. Only a few special friends were present. The ceremony was performed by Elder James Woodward, a leading Primitive Baptist divine of Wilson, and a great-uncle of the bride.

Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Whitley left on the north bound train for Washington, New York and other northern cities. After ten days they will be at home to their friends in this place.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Lou Aycock, and a niece of Ex-Governor Aycock. She is held in highest esteem by our people, because of her lovable disposition and charming manners.

The groom is a member of the firm of Dees & Whitley general merchants, and is a fine business man, enjoying the respect of his many acquaintances. Fremont, Jan. 1, 1909.

Eureka Happenings.

Miss Bettie Barden spent a few days at Saratoga this week.

Miss Annie Crow is spending the holidays with her parents in Goldsboro.

Miss Beulah Martin, a student of the State Normal at Greensboro, is at home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Barnes, of Wilson, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Overman.

The Christmas Tree at the M. E. church was quite an enjoyable affair on Christmas Eve.

Mr. Claude Martin, of Goldsboro, spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin.

Miss Bettie Beeton, of Fremont, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Benton this week. Mrs. Benton returned home with her.

Mr. Arthur Overman entertained eight of his friends at dinner Christmas Eve. "Ye old time 'possum and tater" was the principal dish.

Miss Emma Mumford, of Wilson, returned home Saturday, after spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Polly Mumford, who has been quite sick.

The Bazaar, under the management of the ladies of the Methodist church, was quite a success, and they tender their thanks to the friends who so kindly sent articles.

Prof. E. B. Phillips went up to Hickory for the holidays. Mrs. Phillips and Miss Phillips will return with him, and make their home at Eureka. We gladly welcome them to our town. They will be heard at Mr. W. A. Martin's for a while.

Mr. John Goff and Miss Fannie Watson were quietly married on last Thursday, December 24. This was quite a surprise marriage, as both were attending school until it closed for the holidays. Our best wishes for a happy life for this young couple.

ATTEMPTS TO TAKE HER OWN LIFE.

Mrs. A. C. Reid After Telling Neighbor She Intended To Kill Herself Takes Morphine and Carbolic Acid.

Mrs. A. C. Reid became despondent Friday morning about 9 o'clock, at her home on East Ashe street, and sent for her neighbor, Mrs. L. M. Nash, whom she told she intended to kill herself. Mrs. Nash pleaded with Mrs. Reid and finally made her promise she would not carry out her threat until Mrs. Nash was able to go to her home and return. Mrs. Nash thus sent word of Mrs. Reid's despondency. Upon returning, Mrs. Reid told Mrs. Nash that she had kept her promise, but a few minutes later the despondent woman was a would-be suicide. She slipped from the room, and took a large dose of morphine and carbolic acid. Physicians were summoned at once and at a late hour that afternoon there were hopes of her recovery. No motive has been assigned why Mrs. Reid should attempt such a rash act.

MRS. REID REGAINS CONSCIOUSNESS.

Gives No Motive For Rash Act Friday. Physicians Worked For Hours To Save Life.

Mrs. A. C. Reid, who attempted to take her life Friday morning at her home on East Ashe street, regained consciousness at a late hour that night, but so far Mrs. Reid has not told why she attempted such a rash act. The physicians worked for hours and finally saved her life by using artificial respiration methods.

It is now thought that the despondent woman took a dose of laudanum, followed by a weak solution of carbolic acid, which hid all traces of the former. She has refused to tell what poison she used in the attempt to end her life.

HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE AT NOON

House Occupied by Clude Grantham Badly Wrecked by Blaze.

Fire Thursday noon nearly destroyed the house of Steward John W. Bryan, of the State Asylum, located on Virginia street and occupied by Mr. Claude Grantham. The blaze originated in the kitchen and Mrs. Grantham gave the alarm at once, with the result that the majority of the household effects were rescued by the ladies in the neighborhood, who hastened to the burning building.

Goldsboro's firemen added another victory to their string by the manner in which they confined the flames to the house, in which the fire originated.

A humorous incident of the fire was the remark made by Mr. Bryan, the owner, to Mr. Ernest Dewey, through whom the house was insured. Mr. Dewey asked the former if he was the owner of the house. Mr. Bryan replied that today we are joint owners of this building.

The loss to Mr. Grantham will not exceed $100. Mr. Bryan's loss is estimated at $1,000, insured for $700.

This piano was awarded to the person holding the greatest amount of coupons, secured by purchases made since July 1st. The coupons held by Miss Johnson represented a total of $744.20.

THE HOOKLESS WAIST

Its Inventor is Entitled to a Rank Among Public Benefactors.

The Lounger, in Putman's.
To Hoboken belongs the greatest inventor of the age; for smokeless powder and noiseless guns are as nothing to "the hookless waist." A boon to women, you say. Not at all; a boon to men, for it is men who have to hook the waist of their wives and sometimes of their sisters and their aunts. For some occult reason the hooks on a woman's waist are so tiny that it is not only hard to see them but almost impossible to hook them. No sooner is one hooked than the other flies open. The eyes are usually made of a bit of thread which snaps at the slightest touch, and woe betide the man when this happens. When he mumbles words "unfit to print," his wife says she doesn't see what he is making such a fuss about. "If my arms were only a little longer," she adds, "I could do it myself." Then she puts her arms behind her and squirms her fingers up and down her backbone, but to no purpose. "Men are so clumsy," she snaps. "I will call the cook. She can do it without any fuss." So the cook is called from the pudding, and in a trice the trick is done. Every hook falls into place when she touches it, and what is more it stays there, in the meantime the husband has fled; but when his wife comes down stairs she tells him that there must be something the matter with his eyes—there is nothing in the world so easy as to hook a waist. So positive is she on this point that he begins to think he must be a "chump," and goes to his pipe for comfort. But this is all to be changed with the hookless waist. All a woman has to do is to put her hands behind her, pull a string and the thing is done. Do you wonder that I put the inventor of this device above the inventors of smokeless powder and noiseless guns?

Contract for Stables Awarded.

The contract for the City stables, in the rear of the Firemen's hall has been awarded to D. E. Glisson. The contract price is $800. Work on the foundation was started today. Mr. W. H. Godwin is in charge of the repair work on the Odd Fellows building, which was damaged by the recent fire.

CUTICURA CURED HIS SORE EYES

When 63 Years Old Eye-Balls and Lids Became Terribly Inflamed—Was Unable to Go About—Home Remedies and Professional Treatment were Equally Unsuccessful.

TOOK FRIEND'S ADVICE: HAS NO MORE TROUBLE

"About two years ago my eyes got in such a condition that I was unable to go about. They were terribly inflamed, both the balls and lids. I tried two more of our most prominent physicians, but my eyes grew continually worse. At this time a friend of mine advised me to try Cuticura Ointment, and after using it about one week my eyes were considerably improved and in two weeks they were almost well. They have never given me any trouble since. I was then sixty-three years old and am now sixty-five. I shall never fail to speak a word of praise for the Cuticura Remedies when I have an opportunity, and I trust that this letter may be the means of others being cured as I have been. G. B. Halsey, Mouth of Wilson, Grayson Co., Va., Apr. 4, 1908."
