Capt. R. P. Howell, of Goldsboro, made a flying trip here last Wednesday evening, on the Smithfield Limited, returning at 7:30. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Becton and his visit was one of both business and pleasure.

Mr. N. J. Northam, of Wrightsville, spent Friday night and Saturday here at Oak Glen, on a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Will Crawford. He brought a bucket of the luscious bivalves, right off of the vine, which we enjoyed immensely, as we also did his visit.

The number of typographical errors in last week's items caused much amusement here, and we are at a loss to know whether our impaired chirographical attainments are at fault or an express package caused the mix up, or both. However, Brother, we will try to make our scribbling more legible.

We were invited to your city last Friday to take dinner with our dear old mother. We use the word "old" endearingly, for she is now younger than any child she has. In fact, she is the very youngest mother we ever had. Well, we do not know how many covers were laid, for we are not as well up in such matters as we are the number of Plymouth Rock eggs laid each day around the barn. However, when we sat down to that table and cast a wistful eye, backed up by a ready appetite, along the length of its burdened proportions we did not think of the number of covers laid as much as we did of our small capacity. And when we thought of our peas and cracklings at home, well, they looked like the proverbial thirty cents. We never live long enough to forget "Mother's biscuits," "Mother's bread," "Mother's coffee," or anything that "Mother" cooks—and, thank God, too, we never forget "Mother's" prayers, and we often think that when we go to the "bourne from which no traveler returns" those prayers will brighten the journey, and help to give us a more abundant entrance into eternal life. God bless the dear old mothers—still young, if everything save years.

The death of Mr. Arthur Brewer, which occurred at his home above Ebenezer last Saturday morning, removes a familiar landmark of the community. Since the death of his wife, his nephew, Mr. Andrew Brewer and wife, have occupied the house and he made his home with them. Not arising, as usual Saturday morning they called him to breakfast, and getting no response, entered the room and found him dead in bed. He ate a hearty supper the night before, and was in his usual health, and had not long been dead when found, as the body was still warm. He was a good citizen, a quiet and industrious man, and though a cripple all his life, he had succeeded above the average as a farmer, and was what is known as a good liver, making plenty to provide for himself and wife, having never had any children. While not a member of any church, he was of the Primitive Baptist faith, and attended that church when able. He was our friend, and we shall miss his kindly greetings, which always impressed us as being the expression of a warm, generous heart. Throughout his nature there ran a streak of humor which often kept him on the bright side of life, even under adverse circumstances, and was a means of dispersing gloom with those among whom he came in contact. He had passed the time allotted to man here, and would have been 73 years old next Saturday. He was buried in the family burying ground Sunday afternoon by the side of his faithful wife, who preceded him there years ago. May he rest in peace.

VISITING SPECIALISTS

Cleveland Institute of Medicine and Surgery,
Legally Chartered and Incorporated
CLEVELAND, OHIO.

Will Pay Their First Visit to Goldsboro, North Carolina, and Will Be at the Kennon Hotel.

FRIDAY, MARCH 12th.
TELL YOUR SICK FRIENDS,
ONE DAY ONLY
9 a. m. to 7:30 p. m.

FREE

This Institute, composed of a group of regularly graduated physicians and surgeons, licensed, legally chartered and incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio, sends at its own expense these eminent medical specialists in order to introduce the newest methods and discoveries in medicine and surgery, such as the system of treatment under X ray, Violet ray, Flinsen ray, Hydrotherapy, Etc., to give to those who call on the above date, consultation, examination, advice and all medicines required to complete a cure, absolutely free. These specialists will diagnose your case and give you the benefit of their skill and medical knowledge.

There is in this case no experimenting or guess work at your expense. You will be told whether you can be cured or not. If your case is curable they will put you under treatment immediately; if incurable they will give you such advice as may prolong your life. Their treatment always gives quick relief, and ultimately positively cures. Being prepared to cope with each individual case the human system is thoroughly cleansed of the disease in a natural and direct manner, and improvement is noticed at once; even the worst cases are treated without any inconvenience to the patient or the pursuing of his or her daily vocation.

If you are improving under your family physician, do not come and take up their valuable time, as they absolutely refuse to treat any one who is under the care of the local physicians. They wish besides to give each patient plenty of time and their undivided attention, but can not listen to long stories not pertaining to your trouble. They have discarded the old methods and remedies used for ages by the medical world, and which it would be folly to depend upon any longer, for they are not known to cure, as thousands die, depending on them for relief. The following list of diseases only are taken under treatment, to-wit: Diseases of the Nervous System, Heart, Stomach, Lungs, Kidneys, Catarrh, (purulent or dry), Consumption, Epilepsy, Deafness, Diseases of Women, Tumors, Pseudo Cancers, Piles, of a Chronic Nature only. They treat Deafness by an entirely new method, and hearing in many cases is restored at once. Catarrh in all its varied forms, like other diseases if once taken under treatment, is cured permanently to remain so and to never return. It matters not whom you have seen, or with whom treated, do not fail to call, as a visit will cost you nothing, and may restore you to health, or even save or prolong your life, as thousands of persons will testify by unassailable testimonials in all parts of the country. If you suspect Kidney Trouble, bring a two ounce bottle of your Urine for chemical and microscopic analysis.

REMEMBER—The free offer is during this visit only, and will not be repeated. Persons commencing treatment upon their future visits will be required to pay, but not one cent will be asked from those commencing treatment during this visit for any medicine necessary to effect a cure, irrespective of your position in life, or the number of those who come on above date. Whensoever, or by whom wanted, a positive guarantee to cure will be given under their system of treatment. Those having long standing and complicated diseases, who have failed to get well and become discouraged, are particularly invited to call.

NOTICE—Married ladies without their HUSBANDS, and minors without their FATHERS, will positively not be admitted to consultation unless accompanied by one of their local physicians.

USUAL CROP OF Cream - Separator SNARES AND TARES

If actual merit alone prevailed the De Laval cream separator would be the only one made, sold or used.

But the dairy farmer with his dollars is an alluring proposition to those who "need the money," so that every season brings with it a new crop of separator fakes and fables, with some of the old conjurers over again and always a few fresh ones.

Last year the new and improved line of De Laval machines literally swept the field. This year everybody has a "new" machine, which is the one thing they universally harp upon in their talk and advertising. But it is mostly bosh and nonsense. There is mighty little new to them. No more De Laval patents have expired so that there is nothing else "new" that they can lay hold of this year.

There's the usual crop of fakirs appropriating the facts of De Laval separator use and the endorsements De Laval separators have received, and quoting them as though they applied to their own inferior imitations of the standard cream separator.

There's the concern which makes an inferior disc separator and speaks of the "disc" separator being "the machine which has won out universally in Europe, the home of the disc separator." True, but it was the De Laval that has done the winning out in Europe, as it has in America.

There's the political separator concern, with the new "year" or "cents" trademark, whose claims it is to be hoped nobody ever believes, and which manifestly practices the circus man's theory that the great American public ever likes to be fooled.

There's the only concern which has stuck to the abandoned De Laval "hollow bowl" of 30 years ago, but will this year desperately join the procession of 10 year back De Laval imitations with a "disk bucket bowl" machine.

There's the "Trust," striving to complete its monopoly of dealer and farmer, harvesting much costly separator experience, largely at the expense of buyers-for-use, through trying to build a cream separator like ordinarily made farm machinery.

There's the "mail order" outfit, with their cheaply made machines, bought here and there, not made by themselves or sold under the real manufacturer's name, all claiming the earth, and many of the things that should be below it.

But the merry lot changes and dwindles every year. They gradually drop out and leave their unfortunate patrons helpless with trashy machines. More will fade away this year. The dairy farmer, like the creameryman, is coming to know something of separators. He doesn't swallow mere "claims" so easily. Ninety-eight per cent of the world's creamerymen use De Laval machines. The percentage of farm users content with nothing else is always increasing.

There isn't a single reason why every man who buys a cream separator this year should not buy a De Laval. There are many reasons why he should. The best costs no more than the various grades of inferior imitating machines.

A De Laval catalogue may be had for the asking. A De Laval machine may be tried for the asking.
