THE GOLDSBORO DAILY MESSENGER.

THIS is the only "Daily Paper" published between Wilmington, N. C. and Petersburg, Va., and Raleigh and Newbern, N. C., contains all the latest news, Market Reports, Local and State News and general Intelligence. Our aim is to encourage and aid the building up of a Southern Trade and Industry, and we have the satisfaction of knowing that our efforts have not been without success.

Our large and constantly increasing circulation and being located at Goldsboro a point of untold facilities enables us to issue one of the first Dailies in the State, and we give our advertising friends a corresponding advantage.

RATES OF ADVERTISING as low as any other Daily in the State. Address J. A. BONITZ, Publisher.

NEW STAY LAW.

An Act Suspending the Code of Civil Procedure in certain Cases.

Section 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That all writs of summons shall be commenced by the issuing of a summons.

Section 2. The summons shall run in the name of the State be signed by the Clerk of the Superior Court of the County having jurisdiction to try the action, and under the seal of the Court, and shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which the defendant resides or may be found. It shall be returnable to the sheriff of the County of the Superior Court of the county in which the defendant resides, or one of the sheriffs of the county in which the defendant resides, and shall be returnable to the sheriff of the County of the Superior Court of the county in which the defendant resides, or one of the sheriffs of the county in which the defendant resides, and shall be returnable to the sheriff of the County of the Superior Court of the county in which the defendant resides, or one of the sheriffs of the county in which the defendant resides.

Section 3. The defendant shall appear and answer to the summons on or before the third day of the term to which the action is brought, otherwise the suit shall be discontinued by the Court at the cost of the plaintiff.

Section 4. The plaintiff shall file his complaint in the Clerk's office on or before the third day of the term to which the action is brought, otherwise the suit shall be discontinued by the Court at the cost of the plaintiff.

Section 5. The defendant shall appear and answer to the summons on or before the third day of the term to which the action is brought, otherwise the suit shall be discontinued by the Court at the cost of the plaintiff.

Section 6. The plaintiff shall file his complaint in the Clerk's office on or before the third day of the term to which the action is brought, otherwise the suit shall be discontinued by the Court at the cost of the plaintiff.

Section 7. That all writs of summons in civil actions now in the hands of the Sheriff or Clerk shall be returned by said officers to the next term of the Superior Court and such writs together with all writs of summons in civil actions heretofore returned in which no final judgment has been rendered, shall be placed by the Clerk in the docket of the Superior Court at the next ensuing term, and the pleadings in such actions shall be continued according to the rules prescribed in this act.

Section 8. No sale of any property, real or personal, under execution issued from any court in this State, shall be valid to pass title unless the property is either real or personal, shall bring three-fourths of the value thereof, and on return of such execution the sheriff or other officer shall make return of the amount and the balance of whether the amount was equal to three-fourths of such value.

Section 9. In order to ascertain the value of the property, exposed to sale, under the preceding section, it shall be the duty of the creditor and debtor each to choose one appraiser, who shall be a citizen of the county in which the property is situated, to examine and appraise the property to be exposed to sale and execution and shall certify such appraisement to the sheriff or other officer; and in case such appraisers shall not be able to agree upon the valuation of any property, they shall choose a third person, and the appraisement of the three or a majority of them shall be taken as the true value thereof, and in case either party fail to make the choice, the sheriff shall make the selection for him or her. Such appraisement, certified as herein directed, shall be returned by the sheriff with the execution to the court from which it issues. Provided, That no proceedings under this section shall prejudice the lien of any creditor, or discharge the sheriff from any liability for the safe keeping of such property.

Section 10. That no property shall be sold under any deed or mortgage, until the debt secured in said deed or mortgage, are reduced to judgments according to the provisions of this act.

PROSPECTUS OF THE RECONSTRUCTED FARMER

A Monthly Magazine Devoted to the Farm, the Garden, and the House hold. PUBLISHED at TARBORO', N. C.

BELIEVING that all other professions are mainly dependent on success upon the advancement and development of our Agricultural resources; and that this result can be accomplished by the dissemination of useful and practical information among our Farming community, the subscribers have determined to commence an early day the publication, at Tarboro', N. C., of a practical Agricultural Journal, to be called

The Reconstructed Farmer. Filled and practical writers from every section of the country will be among its regular contributors; judicious selections will be made from all the leading periodicals of the day, bearing upon the different subjects to which it is devoted, and no pains or expense will be spared to render it in every respect worthy of public patronage.

The Reconstructed Farmer will contain 32 pages of valuable reading matter, and will be published in the very best style of the art, the Publishers being determined that it shall not, in this respect, be surpassed by any other similar Journal in the country.

Price of Subscription $2 per annum, payable upon receipt of first number; Liberal Deductions made to CLUBS. The rates of advertising will be unusually low, there is presenting unequalled advantages to all classes and conditions of business.

The public generally, and Farmers especially, are earnestly requested to come forward in aid of the proposed publication.
