

...L. Office—Correspondence of the Messenger, solicited from all parts of the country. In all cases we require the name and address, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. We cannot return a rejected communication. All communications, for publication, on business, must, to insure attention, be addressed to the Editor. Advertisers in a paper largely circulated—a paper which maintains right principles in all things—a paper the organ of a great party, the intelligent 'whites' of the locality in which it is published; and such a paper, the DAILY MESSENGER is conceded to be by all men whose opinion is worth having.

Daily Messenger.

GOLDSBORO, JUNE 29, 1869.

THERE are men who desert the altars of a Lost Cause round which they once stood with the blood in their hearts panting for libation, and who kneel to offer thanks at the altars of successful wrong. There are men who trample under foot the very standards that once floated proudly over them. There are men base enough to lift their hands against the very rights for which they once uplifted words. We are not such. For us principle is principle, right is right—yesterday—to-day—tomorrow—for ever, submission to might, is not surrender of right. We yield to one, but shall never yield up the other.—F. THURMAN.

Railroad Extortions.

It is to be hoped that the pecuniary success of the numerous railroad excursions, taking place in various portions of the South this summer, may have the effect to awaken in our soulless railroad corporations, some consciousness of their own interest, if not a public spirit of liberality.

Railroad fare and rates of freight are entirely too high for the country, either to prosper or to read either, whereas a proper reduction on both travel and freights, would infuse new life into enterprise, and not only benefit the roads hereafter, but at once double and treble the present amount of their receipts. The people demand these reductions, and the subject is one which the railroad authorities may very well and profitably consider.

Is Democracy a Failure?

The new radical paper, The Independent, published in the city of New York says, it is and uses its own assertion as a reason or excuse for its attempt to overthrow our Republican form of government as bequeathed to us by our fathers, for its wicked attempt to establish an Imperial government on its ruins.

We propose in this article to see if Democracy is a failure. In the year of grace 1801, Thomas Jefferson, the first democratic President, took the helm of State. He remained in the Presidency eight years, followed by James Madison for eight years and James Monroe for eight years. Then was a break for four years. Andrew Jackson held the Presidency for eight years; Van Buren four years.—Then the Harrison-Taylor term four years. Polk four years; Taylor-Fillmore four years, and Buchanan four years.—To recapitulate:

- | | |
|----------------------|----------|
| Jefferson, | 8 years. |
| Madison, | 8 " |
| Monroe, | 8 " |
| Van Buren, | 4 " |
| Polk, | 4 " |
| Pierce, | 4 " |
| Buchanan, | 4 " |
| 48 years. | |
| Whig and Republican. | |
| John Q. Adams, | 4 years. |
| Harrison-Tyler, | 4 " |
| Taylor-Fillmore, | 4 " |
| Lincoln-Johnson, | 4 " |

Go back with us to the year 1801

when the first democratic President took the chair of State and see what the United States were at the time. The youngest nation of the globe, consisting of but 13 States, with a population of about three millions of inhabitants; our commerce in the feebleness of infancy; our flag, the glorious stars and stripes so little known, and so little respected, that the Barbary Powers on the Mediterranean sea, preyed upon our commerce in these waters with impunity, till the brave B. S. Smith and Ucaator taught them the danger of continuing that course of conduct.

The centers of the States from New York south was then our western frontier. Let us now compare the country as it was, when the people bled and died with fanaticism, and their judgment warped by hatred of the Southern portion of our common country, placed the political power in the hands of the Radicals—our population had increased to about thirty millions, the States to near thirty, our commerce second to none, dense forests had given way to rich cultivated fields, villages and cities had sprung up where the wild Indian and their game once roamed unrestrained by civilization. Temples for the worship of the Most High; schools, semin-ries, colleges, all these are found in the land once lighted by the council fires of the savages. Look at the means of traveling, compare the old turnpikes with the railroads of to-day, the stage coaches, or rather wagens with their three miles an hour gait, with the railroad cars, in their 25 to 30 miles an hour. Compare the six horse teams and broad tire wagens of olden time, with the freight trains on the railroads now, as the means of transportation. Compare the old way of communicating intelligence, with the telegraph. Go upon the farm and compare the sickle with the reaper, the scythe with the mower, the flail with the threshing machine, the old wooden plow with the iron. Go into the mechanic's shops and you will see as many and as marked improvements there as on the farm. Go upon the ocean, the Lake, and river, and see the superiority of steam over the old sails.

These great improvements were developed and brought into practical use under the mild and cheering administration of the Democracy.

Who can deny it? Look at the list of Presidential terms given in this article and see!

The democrats have held the government 48 years to their opponents 20 years. Again the opponents of Democracy have held but 20 years and those so in between, that they were never able to make a single mark that benefited a nation, or that any party might be proud of, till they got possession of the government in 1861, and of that mark, look what our country has done since. We have never been able to make a single mark that benefited a nation, or that any party might be proud of, till they got possession of the government in 1861, and of that mark, look what our country has done since. We have never been able to make a single mark that benefited a nation, or that any party might be proud of, till they got possession of the government in 1861, and of that mark, look what our country has done since.

A Change in the Cabinet.

Very much to the astonishment of the officers of the Navy Department, the doors of that office were this morning thrown open to receive a new Secretary.

On this occasion New Jersey has a place in the Cabinet, and Gen. M. C. Ross, formerly Attorney General of that State, is the new incumbent.

Mr. Bore was introduced the new Secretary to the principal officers of the Department.

Mr. Bore assigns as the reason for his retirement the multiplicity of his private engagements and the state of his health.

The new Secretary was born in New Jersey, and has always lived in that State. He is a graduate of Princeton College, and has always followed the legal profession. He resigned the position of Attorney General of the State of New Jersey, of which he was appointed by the present Governor, in order to assume his new position. He is of a robust figure, between fifty-five and fifty years of age, and is widely known by what is called a good and kind man, with a frank and genial face of a convivial cast. Secretary Ross, after being introduced to the bureau chief of the Navy Department, proceeded to the Executive Mansion, accompanied by Mr. Bore, who has taken the oath of office before Chief Justice Carter, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.—Washington Express.

In pursuance of notices published in the morning papers of this city, the subscribers of the National Intelligencer will be furnished with the Express until further notice. It is proposed that the resumption of the Intelligencer shall suffer such a delay as is incident to a change of location.

The following telegram was sent from here last night through the Associated Press: "The following announcement was issued tonight from the National Intelligencer office: 'Temporary arrangements have been made to merge the National Intelligencer with the WASHINGTON EXPRESS. The necessary preparations for the separate publication of these newspapers in morning and evening editions are in progress of perfection. The immediate cause of this change is referable to a strike among the printers on the Intelligencer, which the proprietors of the paper were unable to arrange.'

To which is added also the following item: "It is said that a stock company, with a considerable capital, is now forming to carry on the Intelligencer in connection with the Express, and that a meeting of prominent and wealthy citizens of Washington has been called for Saturday evening next to accomplish this purpose.—Washington Express.

SCANDAL IN HIGH LIFE.—On the 18th ult., a young lady aged fourteen, living in a very aristocratic region in this city, was taken suddenly ill, and appeared in such extreme pain that she finally became alarmed and sent for a physician. He came in all haste, and after glancing at the patient, requested the parents to leave him alone with her. They did so, and in half an hour another young lady opened her eyes for the first time on this world of sorrow. She made such a noise coming into the world that the parents' attention was attracted, and the doctor informed them that they had better send for a nurse, as mother and child were doing as well as could be expected. Great exertions were made, but in vain. On being closely questioned, the young mother placed the paternity of the stranger upon a lad of fifteen, who was then at school. Charley was sent for, and blubbered like a baby. There was then in the room a father, a mother and a child, whose united ages amounted to only twenty-nine.—A. F. Express.

MANHOOD. IN THE YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years law of the system, the lack of rest, the effort of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is moved from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary versions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give rest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inward upon them selves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menes is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and raising the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are protracted and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change soon elude to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancy creates the gray hair waiting for its victim.

H. L. M. D. S. EXTRACT BUCHI, for weak nerves arising from excess or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms, Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty in Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling Dread at the sight of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Lingering Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Open Erosion of the Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hoarseness, Flushing of the Face, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Headaches of the Eyes, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Irritability, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves, no Repose of mind, no Ear, excess, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—where this Medicine invariably removes soon for low Loss of Power, Fatuity, and epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Broomfield Asylum, this medicine had for two patients, reason had for a time left them, and both died of Ileus. They were of both sexes and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful cases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylum, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sad and a quietude, neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rare and articulate.

"With what weal measures woe Despair Low sufferer's grief beguiled."
While we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consumption, HELMOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHI. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and the best testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

CAUTION! We desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of, snuff generally, that since the war, certain individuals have been unable to find a manufacturer for their snuff, with themselves obliged to counterfeits the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks, so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and where going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn to public against the imposition practiced upon them: as they are the losers thereby. It will be found upon comparison that Lorillard's snuff is "ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and successful process known to correct the health, passing through age, strength and purging and is warranted not to contain any deleterious or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of the many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best in the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast), or Fresh Snuff (Extra Snuff) is desired.
