Newspaper Laws.

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice BY LETTER, (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, state the reason for its not being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the Postmaster responsible to the publisher for the payment.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the Postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed for it, is responsible for the pay.

3. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until payment is made.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be sent to a certain time and the publisher omits to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the Postoffice. He cannot proceed on the ground that he did not pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the office, or removing and having them uncalled for is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.

V. Worcester's Primary Dictionary.

Dr. WORCESTER'S ILLUSTRATED ROYAL QUARTO DICTIONARY, first published in 1860, is a massive volume of 1854 pages, and contains considerably more than one hundred thousand words in its vocabulary, with their pronunciation, definition and etymology. It is illustrated with small, neat wood-cuts, and is enriched by more than a thousand excellent articles on Synonymes; in which five thousand synonymous words are treated, and accurately and concisely illustrated by short and well chosen examples.

"The new and authentic etymologies, the conciseness and completeness of the definitions, the nicety with which the different shades of meaning in synonymes are distinguished, and the conscientious accuracy of the work in all its departments, give it, in my judgment, the highest claims to public favor."—William Cullen Bryant.
