Newspaper Laws.

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice by LETTER, (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, state the reasons for its not being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the Postmaster responsible to the publisher for the pay.

2. Any person who takes his paper from the Postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

3. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until pay ment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it be taken from the office or not.—There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the Postoffice. The law proceeds on the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.

HAND-BOOK FOR COUNTY OFFICERS:

A Guide for Justices of the Peace and Other County Officials.

Revised, Enlarged and Improved!

THE SECOND EDITION OF THIS work, greatly enlarged and improved, will be ready for delivery to subscribers on the 10th of September. It has been delayed thus long, in order to add to its usefulness, by publishing

All the Acts of the last Session of the General Assembly, relating in any manner to County Officers, or County Police.

The Publishers have spared no expense in getting up this edition; the text and the forms have been carefully prepared and arranged by a member of the Raleigh Bar, of acknowledged ability and great experience in preparing legal forms and codifying laws.

Justices of the Peace, Judges of Probate, Sheriffs, and all other County Officers, will find in the HAND-BOOK the law prescribing their powers and respective duties, together with forms and precedents necessary to a proper and systematic discharge of their duties. No Justice of the Peace, or other County Officer of ordinary intelligence can possibly err, or fail to fill his office with credit to himself, who will make the Hand-Book his guide, however inexperienced he may be in the practice, procedure and forms of law.—The edition contains over THREE HUNDRED LARGE SIZED PAGES of closely printed matter, on good paper, with a table of contents and a full and exhaustive index to the text, and over inserted with the text, and immediately following the provisions of the law to which they apply.

In order to place the Book within the reach of every officer and business man of the State, the publishers offer the same at the following reasonable prices:

One Copy in paper cover,	$2.00
" " " cloth,	2.25
" " " law binding,	2.50

When sent by mail 25 cents must be added.

Upon the receipt of price, the book will be at once mailed or sent by express, as subscribers may direct. Address

MANHOOD.

IN THE YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the bloom has fled the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is moved from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions, of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the monthly is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for weaknes arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms, Indigestion to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty or Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dispeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves, no Repose of manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients, reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption! The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rare y articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

While we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences, HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Price $1.25 per bottle or six bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications
