ENGLAND aristocratic Government bullies little Greece. Greece will probably outlive the English aristocracy.

WASHINGTON (D. C.) has a seven-million-dollar land suit. Two court decisions only make room for a third yet to be pronounced.

SUCH eminent Englishmen as Morley, Freeman and others of literary and political fame are forming an association, the object of which is to promote home rule in England and Scotland.

THE Secretary of the Treasury tells the Senate on enquiry that $5,000,000 is the amount of bonds called for payment on February 1, 1886, which are held by National banks as a basis for circulation.

COL. "PAT" DONAN, of Dakota, well known in this State and still better known in the Southwest as an editor, is interested in a big "find" of gold in Honduras with a Chicago pool.

SENATOR RANSOM'S eulogy on the late Vice President, delivered in the Senate on last Tuesday, was ably written and admirably delivered.

THE Mexican Government is considering two matters of importance. It is probable, says a City of Mexico dispatch, that the Mexican Government will propose to the United States the holding of a special monetary conference in relation to the legalized depreciation of the Mexican dollar in the United States as compared with the Bland dollar.

"A DISPATCH from Rome says that the Monitor de Rome, the organ of the Vatican, expresses annoyance and disgust at the opposition displayed in the Queen's speech to the sundering of the legislative union between Great Britain and Ireland.

MR. GLADSTONE'S LATEST TRIUMPH. Not many moons ago the Parnellites voted with the Tories and overthrew the Liberal Government in Great Britain.

THE key to the situation is the treatment of the Irish. When the Liberal leaders appeared unwilling or unable to grant the concessions demanded by the Irish Nationalists, the latter joined their forces in a curious but practical alliance with their hereditary enemies.

THE Washington correspondent of the Richmond State writes on the 26th of the eulogies in memory of Vice President Hendricks: "Mr. Ewart's speech was a gem, and was very highly commended. The remarks of Mr. Ransom, of North Carolina, will probably read better than those of any other gentleman who took part in the eulogies, though his power of delivery is not so good as that of some others."

THE OHIO MUDDLE.

The truth would seem to be that the Democrats cheated the Republicans out of the Hamilton county Senators, and that then the Republicans tried to bulldoze the Democrats out of their ill-gotten victory.

Now this is very naughty in both parties. The Democrats, under the influence of the McLean crowd, did a gross wrong, but they did it under the forms of law. If there is one thing which estops a Republican, it is this: Whenever they have essayed a piece of sublimely deviltry, they have disguised their villainy behind legal forms.

The Ohio Democrats of the Kid or McLean school have been apt pupils. The Republican Senators, who are in the minority and trying by revolutionary methods, strained rulings and the like, to obtain a majority, are reversing the whole history of their party.

The proceedings in the Ohio Senate have been a burning disgrace to both parties.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW.

At a recent meeting of the Committee on Labor of the House of Representatives statements were made that the spirit of the eight-hour law was being openly violated, ignored or evaded in certain of the Government departments, and Chairman O'Neill was empowered to present to the House a resolution of inquiry, directed to the various Secretaries, asking in direct terms whether the law was being enforced by them.

"I believe that the law is a sound and good one, and that it should be enforced to the letter. I have no information regarding instances of its violation or evasion, but if such instances are presented to me I will see that the abuse is remedied and the full spirit of the law enforced, which I understand to be to pay men in the Government employ for eight hours work daily what is paid outside of the Government employ for a full day's work. The Government cannot afford to set the example of non-enforcement and non-observance of its own enactments."

The President added: "I appreciate the effect upon the mechanics of the country of the constantly increasing use of labor-saving machinery, and I can think of no more practical relief for the unemployed surplus labor than the occupation by it of the public lands. I do not hesitate to say that I am heartily in favor of any feasible plan for the encouragement and assistance, if need be, of prospective American settlers upon the public domain by the general Government."

The President then expressed his views upon the subject of the occupation of vast tracts of public land by foreign capitalists.

Not many moons ago the Parnellites voted with the Tories and overthrew the Liberal Government in Great Britain. On Tuesday evening the Parnellites, concluding that turn about was fair play, voted with the Liberals and overthrew the Tory Government.

The key to the situation is the treatment of the Irish. When the Liberal leaders appeared unwilling or unable to grant the concessions demanded by the Irish Nationalists, the latter joined their forces in a curious but practical alliance with their hereditary enemies.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Ransom's Fine Eulogy on Hendricks.

Burying a Congressman—A North Carolina-Descended Actress. (Star Correspondence of the Messenger.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The Senate devoted the day to eulogies upon the late Vice President. The galleries were filled at an early hour with a well dressed and intelligent audience.

Some confusion in the galleries which took place on the evening of Mr. Ewart's long oration slightly disturbed the opening of Gen. Ransom's, but the President pro tem. (Senator Harris) soon restored order, and Gen. Ransom proceeded to deliver a most beautiful tribute to the virtues, abilities and services of the late Vice President. He spoke for fifteen minutes and was heard throughout with close attention and manifest pleasure.

White Marsh, Washington county, and Mt. Prospect, Union county, are discontinued, the mails going respectively to Plymouth and Waterloo.

Mr. Ingalls' resolution in the Senate today to direct an enquiry by the Library Committee of the subject of having busts of the Vice Presidents and Presidents pro tempore of the Senate placed in the corridors and vacant niches of the Senate chamber was adopted.

The House will devote next Tuesday to eulogies upon the late Vice President Hendricks. A silver smile stole over the House of Representatives today when the Chaplain returned thanks that our "silver and gold have been multiplied."

The average Virginian knows how to take care of himself. My friend, Judge John T. Harris, of Mecklenburg, a prominent ex-Congressman, is counsel for all four of the contestants in this Congress, and Gen. Eppa Hunton, of Alexandria, also a noted Representative, is counsel for all four of the contestants. Judge Harris says Mr. Frank Hurd will win his seat.

Representative Skinner introduced a very important bill to establish a lightship off Cape Hatteras. He has been active this session in the introduction of measures for the protection of vessels on the North Carolina coast.

Yesterday the House Committee on Education reversed its action in approving Mr. Ham, of Georgia, clerk, Mr. Merchison, of South Carolina, a friend of Chairman Aiken, who is confined at home by illness, was appointed on the strength of a telegram from Mr. Aiken.

It is reported that the Mormons are thinking of buying a tract of land of one million acres in extent in one of the Sandwich islands, and emigrating there in a body. This would be a most happy solution of the Mormon problem. The bestly morals of these religionaries would make an elegant fusion with the loose living and leprosy of the natives of Hawaii, and in a very few years we should have an end at once of the Mormon religion and the Sandwich Islanders.
