Mr. Mike Woods, the efficient tax collector of this city, is after the delinquent tax-payers with a sharp stick. Mr. Woods is the best tax-collector Goldsboro has ever had.

We are requested to announce that Elder D. N. Gore will preach at the Primitive Baptist church on Saturday next, at 11 o'clock a. m., and also on Sunday, at 10 a. m. The public are invited.

The last New York South is filled with descriptions and illustrations of Asheville, N. C. Mr. Hinton A. Helper is doing big work for North Carolina through the columns of that enterprising paper.

The Raleigh Visitor's contribution fund in aid of Front Street M. E. Church, Wilmington, amounts to $100. We will Goldsboro and the surrounding section do for the same cause? The Messenger solicits contributions.

The many friends of Mr. Bowden Grantham, who was formerly a well-known citizen of this county, will learn with pain his death, which occurred at his residence in Greene county on the 2d inst., aged 65 years. He had long been a zealous Mason and was buried with Masonic ceremony.

Fayetteville News: Mr. A. Fremont, recently in the employ of Mr. H. A. Carter, has received an appointment in the Wilmington postoffice under Mr. Oscar Parsley, and he left yesterday to begin his work. There were about twenty applicants for the position, and the appointment is well received.

A meeting of the Democratic Central Committee has been called, to be held at Raleigh the afternoon of Wednesday, the 10th inst. The following are the members of the committee: R. H. The Oldham Publishing House, Winston, N. C., offers to send The Weekly Sentinel three months free to the first person who applies from any postoffice in North Carolina, where it now has no subscriber. Find out from your Postmaster, if any one takes The Sentinel at your office, and if not, write to the Publisher, claiming the prize, and send the names of five reading men at your office. The subscription price of The Weekly Sentinel is $1.50 per year. It is an attractive and interesting illustrated weekly family newspaper that ought to be read in every home in North Carolina.

The Hebrew Feast of Purim begins this year on the evening of the 19th of March. The Feast derives its origin from the story of Esther, so beautifully told in the Old Testament, and is commemorative of the deliverance of the Jews through her instrumentality from the hatred of Haman. The date of this event is set down in the Jewish chronology as B. C. 353.

The feast is preceded by the feast of Esther, when the orthodox Jews abstain from food and drink from sunset to sunset in celebration of the three days fast of Esther before she presented herself before Ahasuerus to defeat the plot of Haman. Services are held in the synagogues, and the Gilgith is read with appropriate prayers.

The Argus says: It is indeed a pleasure to us to be able to announce the fact that yesterday the Primitive Baptist congregation of this city liquidated the last debt upon their church here, which, it will be remembered, they purchased from the Methodists upon that denomination's building their new brick church, St. Paul. This order of Baptists here was made quietly but unceasingly working to pay for their church ever since they purchased it, and yesterday our townsman Mr. Stephen W. Isler, on a learned casualty that there was a small balance due on the edifice, generously and unsolicited sent them around a check for the needed amount; so that their church to-day is out of debt, and it is, perhaps, the only church in the city that is out of debt. Hence if there are any of our affluent citizens who may feel disposed to follow the generous example of Mr. Isler they need not be at a loss for an opportunity.

Those who attended the concert and exercises at Pine Forest Academy on Friday last came away well pleased with the entertainment. The pupils acquitted themselves handsomely and in a manner that reflected credit on Mr. W. H. Hand, the principal of the school. There was quite a large attendance and the Portis' orchestra furnished excellent music.

Wilmington Star: The claim of fees of the Atlantic Coast line, heretofore at Richmond, Charleston and Wilmington with local claim agents at each point, have been concentrated in the general office at Wilmington, which will be the general claim department of the Atlantic Coast line. It will be in charge of Mr. W. G. Pulliam, late of Richmond, and E. J. Thrope, for some time past chief clerk in the office of the general superintendent.

COURT WEEK.

SECOND day of Lent.

OUT, out with the tramps!

FLAG drill and festival Friday night.

SLIGHT snow-fall yesterday morning.

Mrs. F. L. CASTEX left Tuesday to visit her mother at Tarboro.

REGULAR meeting of Stonewall Lodge, Knights of Honor, this (Thursday) evening.

MEETING of the W. C. T. U. this (Thursday) afternoon, over Mr. C. G. Perkins' store.

COL. JNO. N. STAPLES, of Greensboro, was in this city for a short while on Monday last.

THE Mikado party, to be given by the Presbyterian ladies, will be a novel and attractive affair.

RECEPTION of the old flag Thursday evening, of next week, March 18th, at 8 o'clock, at the Opera House.

ELSEWHERE in this issue will be found a roll of the rank and file of the old Goldsboro Rifles, which was afterwards known as Co. A. 27th North Carolina Regiment.

THE splendid grand piano of the late Prof. Kuehnert is to be raffled-off for the benefit of Mrs. Kuehnert at 300 chances of $1 each. The instrument is an imported piano of magnificent tone and in fine order, and is well worth over $300 in cash. Dr. L. H. Reid has the matter in charge.

PROF. MEEHAN has consented to open another course in dancing on Monday next, for children in the afternoon, and for young ladies and gents at night. The Professor is a clever, courteous gentleman and is master of the terpsichorean art. He will doubtless receive a very liberal encouragement.

PROF. AND MRS. P. P. CLAXTON, and her sister, Miss Annie Moore, are pursuing their studies at Leipzig, Germany. Several of Miss Annie's former pupils have received letters from her, greatly to their delight. They all hold her in great esteem and one of the little ones requests us to say to Miss Annie, through the MESSENGER, that she must hurry and come back.

MRS. J. W. GULICK is prepared to accommodate a number of boarders at her residence on John street. Mrs. Gulick's hospitality and her proficiency in culinary matters warrant us in saying that all who may be numbered among her guests will get something good to eat and plenty of it, as well as comfortable lodging. The location is very convenient to the business part of the city.

We were shown some days since a specimen of oil painting, executed by Mrs. D. Whitfield, which reflected great credit upon the taste and skill of this lady. The painting of flowers is her specialty, and she displays the attributes of the true artist in depicting upon canvass, wood or metal, the beauties of glade and garden. Mrs. Whitfield is prepared to execute orders in this line and will take pleasure in showing specimens and naming prices.

SURVIVING members of the old Goldsboro Rifles who favor a re-union on the 18th and who propose to be present at that time are requested to communicate their views and intentions to either of the following gentlemen: Capt. S. D. Phillips, Capt. T. W. Slocum, L. D. Giddens, Esq., Col. J. A. Washington, and Dr. W. H. H. Cobb. Members residing in the city are invited to meet with the present organization this (Thursday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Armory.

REMEMBER the festival to be given Friday evening, on the second floor of the Weil building by the ladies of the Baptist Church. Oysters, chicken salad, ice cream, cakes, and other delicacies that go to tempt the appetite will be provided at reasonable prices and we hope that a large number will be present to enjoy the feast. During the flag drill the same evening, on the third floor of the same building, an intermission will be given so that those in attendance may have the opportunity of patronizing the festival.

TRAMP, tramp, tramp! Nightly the solemn tramp of the professional bum is heard and the evening zephyrs are laden with the pathetic tones of "can't you give me a little something to eat?" Forced to ply his trade under cover of darkness, through fear of falling within the grasp of the watchful police; confronted by terrified women and children—and yet how much sweeter to this type of wanderer is the bread of idleness than that which is earned by the sweat of the brow! Seriously, the visits of tramps to our city are becoming altogether too frequent, and are more objectionable than ever from the fact that they now to the best of the fact that they now result in frightening at night, which results in frightening women and children where there is no man in the house. We do not charge our police with lack of vigilance in this matter, but we do insist that if the present force is insufficient to suppress the evil, that the authorities should, for awhile at least, put on extra force at night for the detection of the marauders. We do not like to recommend severity, but if nothing else will do let them be arrested under the vagrant act and put to work in the county work house, and thus be taught that idleness is not tolerated in this community and is very little efficacious in simply having the police to escort them to the city limits.

THE GOLDSBORO GRADED AND HIGH SCHOOL.

Report of the Superintendent for the Sixth Month.

The report of Prof. Alderman for the sixth month of the present term shows a total enrollment of 603 pupils, a gain of 98 over the previous month. The average attendance is 90 per cent. The following is the

ROLL OF HONOR:

Girls—Lula Steward, Lois Keaton, Mabel Grant, Cattie Fulghum, Melb Allen, Alice Jones, Sadie Kirby, Eliza Robinson, Eula Brogden, Sara Pearson, Lula Sherard, Dora Randolph, Susette Pearsal, Riddle Hill, Emma Whitfield, Mattie Nash, Barbara Isler, Mary Hicks, Mary Gulley, Elise Fullerton, Hattie Farrior, Norma Bonitz, Lillie Johnson, Susie Dannenberg, Mary Hardison, Blanche Hage, Jellie Sherard, Carrie Latham, Minnie Grant, Edna Waitt, Mary Bassett, Luella Hicks, Mand Peacock, Estelle Parker, Annie Hardison, Mattie Griswold, Zeffie Rich.

Boys—Geo. Howell, Albert Rosenhal, Geo. Whitfield, Bunzlum Isler, Willie Bassett, Charlie Smith, Leslie Weil, John Ward, Rufus Kelley, Willie Brogden, Harvey Howell, Frank Hyman, Earl Howard, Freeman, Walter Sumner, Isaac Dees, Robert Hage, Willie Hightower, Eddie Kleinert, Frank Latham, Geo. McClellan.

In this connection it may be proper to state that the Trustees fear that for want of sufficient funds they will be compelled to reduce the present term to a nine months' session. This course has not yet been fully decided on, but unless aid can be secured from sources not now assured, a reduction of one month will become necessary.

The future of the school was likewise considered at a recent meeting of the Trustees. In view of the recent decision of the supreme court it was deemed impossible to keep up the school under its present charter and system of raising revenues; but it is the opinion of the Board that the good and welfare of Goldsboro, to say nothing of duty to the children, will permit of letting the school go down. The Board has the matter under advisement, and we trust and hope that some plan may be found by which the efficiency of the school will not be greatly disturbed.

The community will also learn with regret that Maj. H. L. Grant has seen fit to resign as a member of the Board. The vacancy has not yet been filled.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to tender my sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Masons and other good friends of this city for their great and overwhelming kindness to me in this, the darkest period of my life. I cannot express the gratitude I feel to Dr. L. H. Reid for his tender and unremitting attention to my dear one. My mind is in a very perturbed state, and I can give but feeble expression to my feelings. I can only pray the dear Lord to bless you, one and all, and return you a hundred fold for what you have done for me.

Respectfully and gratefully, BERTA A. KUHNERT.
