HE IS RISEN JULIA H. PORTER.

Very early in the morning, Ere the light shone in the east, Ere the stars announced the dawning Of the day—at God's behest; Early to the tomb of Jesus Came the loving watchers near; But two shining ones approached them, Saying, "Jesus is not here!"

"He is risen!"—Lord of glory!
"He is risen!"—earth to bless!
Risen with the wings of healing. Risen-Lord of righteousness Vanquished now are sin and satan! Conquered, man's last cruel foe! Christ hath Death's strong fortress taken,

That the world his peace may know. Peace which passeth understanding; Peace that earth takes not away; Peace within the soul abiding. Ruling all with gentle sway. Strength by which to battle daily With the powers of hell and sin; Grace to conquer in the conflict, If his Kingdom we would win.

MISTAKEN IDEAS.

Early in life the thought occurs that to throw off the guidiance and direction of parents and friends, to be selfdirected, is manly. To adopt the habits, the manners, the course of life of companions, however objectionable that course may be, is manly. Thousands, tens of thousands, have been ruined by imitating what are wrongly termed manly habits.
