Attention, Firemen!—Members of Goldsboro Fire Company, No. 1, are requested to assemble at the Mayor's Office to-morrow (Tuesday) night at 8 o'clock, sharp. Business of importance.

It is said that the Republicans are using money in the interest of John E. Stanley and Henry E. Perkins who have ventured out as "independent" candidates in the first ward. Beware of them, fellow Democrats!

We are indebted to Messrs. S. B. Parker and Jas. N. Wood for the first strawberries of the season. They were delicious. Mr. Parker shipped 45 quarts to New York on Saturday, and Mr. Wood begins shipping to-day. The crop bids fair.

Mr. Eugene G. Harrell, Secretary of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, has our thanks for the compliment of a certificate of membership for 1886, with a cordial invitation to be present during the summer session, which will be held at Mt. Gov. Seales has reprieved until the 1st of June, George McNaair, the negro youth who was sentenced to be hanged at Jacksonville, Onslow county, May 7, for rape. The reprieve is granted in response to a petition, in order that McNaair's attorneys can show cause why a commutation of sentence should be granted.

On behalf of Mr. M. W. Britton, the faithful typo who has served this department of the MESSENGER for the last 14 years, we make a polite bow to that clever gentleman Mr. Walter Barnes, of Cogdell & Barnes' bakery, for a treat given him of a most delicious mince pie. Mr. Britton knows good pie when he tastes it, and Messrs. Cogdell & Barnes' bakery deserves the cake for splendid pies.

On Saturday Col. R. R. Bridges and other officials of the Atlantic Coast Line, established a depot on the Wilson & Fayetteville road, and marked out streets for the new town which is spring up at that point. It is twelve miles from where the new road turns away from the main line toward Contentnea, and that makes it about fifteen miles from Wilson. The new town is named Watkins.

The case of John Henry Hollowell and wife, charged with incendiarism, was up at Mount Olive before Justices E. A. Wright and F. A. Simmons on Friday last. Messrs. W. G. Burkhead and W. R. Allen appeared for the prosecution, and Messrs. C. Aycock and W. S. O'Brien for the defense. A nol. pros. was entered at the request of the attorneys for the prosecution, they abandoning their case for want of sufficient evidence.

Raleigh News-Observer: Died, at her home near Gatesville, Gates county, yesterday, Mrs. Mary J. Roberts, in the 68th year of her age, after an illness of two months. She was a lady estimable in all the relations of life. For many years she had been a faithful member of the Methodist church. She was the mother of Gen. William P. Roberts. He received the tidings of her death yesterday afternoon and left for Gatesville on the evening train.

E. D. Tannehill's excellent Comedy Company, in their world-renowned musical comedy-oddy, entitled "An Evening on the Bristol," on a night on the grand "played" by the same troupe to large and successful houses for several seasons, through the United States, Great Britain and Australia, will appear in Goldsboro, on Friday night, the 21st inst. We can promise our theatre going friends on that occasion one of the most enjoyable entertainments ever given in Goldsboro.

The thirty-third annual meeting of the Medical Society of the State of North Carolina, will be held in New Bern, May 19, 20 and 21, 1886. Business of great importance is to be transacted; the meeting promises to be a large and interesting one. All members are requested to be present. Essays entered for prizes should be forwarded to Dr. R. L. Payne, Lexington, N. C., signed with nom de plume, name and nom de plume forwarded to Secretary. Excursion rates on all the railroads.

On Sunday, the 25th ult., a Sunday School was organized west of Mill Creek, in Johnston county, near Mr. Needham Stevens, by Mr. E. B. Hood, of the Falling Creek section. The school started with 35 pupils, the most of whom are children. Mr. Hood made a few appropriate remarks urging the little boys and girls to attend the Sunday school. Mr. J. F. Grantman conducted the singing exercises which were very good. He also made a short talk and told of the great good that young people may gain through the influence of a good Sunday school.

The decision of the Supreme Court in the Durham graded school case renders it impossible to longer maintain our graded school by the present method of taxation, and the Trustees are now considering ways and means by which the future prosperity of the school may be assured. To this end a committee consisting of Messrs. L. F. Dortch, Henry Lee and J. A. Bonitz, will meet this evening to devise and recommend some plan by which the funds necessary can be secured. The Trustees are firmly convinced that the school cannot be abandoned or even reduced from its present standard, without serious detriment to Goldsboro.

Alderman, of our Graded School, will be the Superintendent, assisted by a competent corps of teachers. Let every teacher in the county take advantage of the benefits to be derived from the Institute.

THE manager of "The Pic-Nic Party" to be given at the Opera House to-night, requests us to say that ladies need not have the least hesitation about patronizing their show, as nothing bordering on vulgarity or coarseness will be tolerated. They propose to give a first-class, musical entertainment at popular low prices, and everybody is guaranteed more than the worth of his money.

REV. W. M. ROBEY, of Charlotte, arrived in the city Saturday en route to the General Conference, which convenes his week in Richmond. He occupied the morning and evening and the two able sermons were listened to by large congregations. MR. AND MRS. H. J. WHITEHEAD, of Elizabeth, N. J., left for their home on Friday last after having spent several weeks in the city and at the home of Col. M. K. Crawford, in Fork township. This lady and gentleman made many friends during their stay among us and our people will be glad to have them visit our city again next season. Mr. Whitehead's health was greatly benefited by the trip, we are pleased to learn.

MISS IDA SERVEN has postponed her reading until to-morrow, when she will appear at the Opera House matinee and night. We can promise all a most enjoyable affair. Miss Serven comes here highly endorsed. She is a teacher of elocution and acting and stands at the head of her profession. Matinee begins at 3 o'clock; prices 15 cents for Graded School children, and 25 cents for adults. The prices for the evening entertainment will be 20, 25 and 35 cents.

CONSIDERING the inclemency of the weather quite a large audience gathered at the Opera House last Wednesday evening to hear the temperance lecture by the distinguished representative of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop. The lecture was an able presentation of the question under consideration; the arguments used were powerful, and the strong reasoning faculty displayed by the lecturer elicited the wonder and admiration of the audience.

AFTER a prolonged illness, Mr. Wm. R. Hyman, father of Mr. T. F. Hyman, of this city, and of Mr. F. C. Hyman, of Smithfield, died at the home of the last named gentleman on Thursday last. In view of the scarcity in money matters the following prices for seats will be charged: General admission, 50 cents; children, 25 cents; gallery, 25 cents.

EARLY this week, Messrs. Hess, Bell & Co.; general State agents for the Armistead, Adams Root & Co. agents to Danville, Va., in the interest of the sterling preparations which, during the past few months, has been used so extensively and has given such thorough satisfactions in this city. These gentlemen will "stand good" for anything they may promise or agree to do in this line; besides that they are backed by a firm (Messrs. Armistead & Sons, of Richmond) whose reputation for reliability and square dealing is too well known to require comment at our hands.

FROM the Argus, of Saturday, we learn that "Our young friend and townsman Mr. Geo. K. Denmark, who is at present in Richmond, entered the competitive examination for Bookkeeper in the Departmental Service, held at Norfolk, Va., on the 19th of March, and he has just been notified that, on a scale of 100 he carries off 73 30 points, entitling him to a preference in this department of the Civil Service Commission in case of any vacancy occurring. We are not surprised at all at George's success, for we knew him to be thorough, but we are truly delighted at it."

THE present session of the Colored Graded School will close with an exhibition and concert at the Opera House, Wednesday evening. The programme is varied in character and quite extended in quantity. The public generally are invited to attend at the following prices of admission: Adults, 25 cents; gallery, 15 cents; children, other than those belonging to the school, 15 cents. The proceeds are to be devoted to the building fund. The Superintendent says: "We desire to have a building ample in all its appointments and furnishings to begin school in next session. In this we should have the assistance of the whole city of Goldsboro. By patronizing our exhibition and concert all may help and at the same time be richly repaid for the outlay."

AGENTS AGENTS!—Why handle old books when new books can be had that all want? Just what you need is given along with Exclusive Territory. Write A. H. WHEELER, Greensboro, N. C., and get books from him and not pay freight from New York or Philadelphia. Enquire about Family Bibles also if no agent is near you. Salary paid after a trial.

THE ELECTION TO-DAY.

Let Every Democrat Do His Duty and Support the Nominees.

The election for nine Aldermen of this city, to hold office for the ensuing year, takes place to-day, and there is every indication that eight out of the nine Aldermen chosen will be Democrats, elected as the regular nominees of the party. Our Democratic friends cannot afford just now to give encouragement to party disorganization by permitting any other result. Whatever objections there may exist to any of the candidates should now be brushed. They are the nominees of the party and as such entitled to a party support.

The Republicans are encouraging so-called independent candidates in the first ward, and we learn that an opposition composed of several elements will unite on one or more independent candidates in the fourth ward. See to it, fellow Democrats, that every independent candidate who may offer himself a willing sacrifice, is decently and deservingly voted to stay at home.

We regret that the result of the ward meeting in the fourth ward was so close a contest between the several gentlemen whose names were being pressed, and that on the result a count there exists some dissatisfaction. Objections should have been stated at the ward meeting, and protest of irregularities then and there entered. After the meeting adjourned, objections came too late, and the following decision of the Executive Committee is as it should be:

Wayne County, City of Goldsboro. To the Petitioners of the 4th Ward: The Democratic Executive Committee for the City of Goldsboro respectfully report. That after a thorough investigation of the facts concerning the charges of fraud preferred against the nominations of the Fourth Ward, we think there were grounds for complaint, but not sufficient to justify a new nomination ordered. We therefore declare J. J. Robinson, J. W. Lamb and H. M. Strouse the legal nominees for the position of Aldermen of the Fourth Ward of the City of Goldsboro for the ensuing year.

W. H. HUGGINS, B. M. PRIVETT, M. J. BEST, Dem. Ex. Com.

Goldsboro, N. C., April 30, 1886. The opposition complain of irregularities, and even the committee thinks they had ground for complaint, but not sufficient to justify a new nomination. The fact that the meeting was called and organized by Capt. Owen Holmes under a misapprehension that he was the Executive Committeeman for said ward, when Mr. W. S. Farmer was the committeeman, would have been valid objection at the organization of the meeting, but when, upon motion of Mr. John W. Bryan, said meeting chose its permanent Chairman and Secretary, that action made valid all subsequent proceedings, regardless of the fact that the meeting had been called to order in improper form.

The candidates deserve a united Democratic support and ought to receive it.

FAIR PREPARATIONS.

Directors of Departments, Floral Hall Committee, Etc.

The officers of the Eastern Carolina Fair and Stock Association are giving due attention to the preliminary preparations for the third annual Fair, to be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, November 3d, 4th and 5th, and they hope to make it the most successful exhibition of this section, if not of the entire State.

A distinguished Southerner, whose name will be announced later, will be secured to deliver the opening address. J. A. Bonitz, Esq., was appointed on the part of the Directors, to select the orator.

The following are the Directors of the various departments: A—Farm, garden and orchard products, W. A. Deans.

B—Live stock, J. W. Lamb. C—Pantry supplies, R. B. Bassett. D—Poultry—J. E. Edgerton. E—Manufactured textiles, Henry Weil.

F—Ladies' work, &c., I. S. D. Sauls. G—Crochet and knit work, Henry Lee.

H—Paintings, &c., J. M. Hollowell. I—Floriculture, Dr. J. D. Roberts. K—Machinery, O. R. Rand, Jr. L—Minerology, &c., A. S. Sasser. M—Trial of speed, Dr. M. E. Robinson.

The Floral Hall Committee is composed of the following ladies: Miss Carrie Dorche, Superintendent; Miss Sue Collier, Miss Lou Borden, Miss Jennie Wilson, Miss Kate Edgerton, Miss Mattie Rosenthal, Miss Mary Dorche, Miss Rebecca Humphrey, Mrs. Sol. Weil, Mrs. H. P. Dorche, Mrs. J. N. Greene and Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, Jr. The ladies always perform their part of the work faithfully, and we have no anxiety whatever upon this score.

We would again impress upon our farmers the importance of their cooperation in making the exhibit a complete success. Their assistance is needed and is most earnestly invited by the Association. We have in this section fertile soil and successful farmers, but how are strangers who require ocular demonstration to know this when the agricultural exhibits at our Fairs so often fail to produce the proof? Let our farmers, in the interest of their section and in their own interest, determine that the display of farm products at our next Fair shall be commensurate with the fertility of our soil and with their knowledge of agricultural and horticultural art.

A CARD.

In the investigation of the charge of Arson against J. H. Hollowell and others, we appeared for the prosecution, and moved for the defendants. At the close of the evidence for the State the counsel for the defendants moved to dismiss the warrant because there was no evidence. This the Magistrate declined to do. Upon the examination of the defendants' witnesses, however, the circumstances that looked suspicious were fully explained, and it was upon this ground we moved for the discharge of the defendants. We understand it is reported we said on that occasion it was a malicious prosecution. This is not true. We have never said, and do not believe the prosecution was malicious. We think it is due to ourselves and our clients to say this.

W. R. ADAMS, W. G. BURKHEAD, Attorneys. Ladies, Misses and Childrens Underwear at remarkably low prices to our stock. M. E. CASTEX & Co.

ARTHUR SPRUILL INSANE.

His Strange Conduct Accounted For.

A young man named Arthur Spruill, located in Snow Hill somewhat over a year ago, for the purpose of practicing law. Coming well endorsed, of confidence and esteem of all good citizens. Reports dating from his integration have recently gained circulation and among these was a charge of forgery. Soon after, Mr. Spruill disappeared from Snow Hill, and nothing was known of his whereabouts until the following item appeared in the Washington Progress of last week:

"From Mr. W. S. Dickinson, who resides in Chocowinity township, about six miles from town, we gathered the arrest and confinement of Mr. Arthur Spruill, a young lawyer from Snow Hill, Greene county. Mr. Dickinson was in his field at work on Friday last, when he heard a voice calling in pitiful accents to an imaginary friend to come back and not leave, then pleading not to be shot, that he would surrender. Mr. Dickinson's curiosity was aroused and he proceeded to a piece of woods from whence the sounds proceeded, and there found a man acting so strangely as to leave no doubt of his being insane. The stranger wrote his name, Arthur Spruill, and from his incoherent talk, it was learned that he had been practicing law at Snow Hill. It was also surmised that a slander suit recently tried in Greene county was the cause of his present demoted condition. Mr. Dickinson cared for the maniac at his house Friday night, and on Saturday morning brought him to this town and lodged him in jail. We believe Mr. Spruill originally came from Washington county, and is connected with the best families in that section."

TRAIN GOING NORTH.

Table with columns: DATE, No. 47, No. 44, Daily. Rows: Lv. Wilmington, Ar. Warsaw, Ar. Goldsboro, Ar. Weldon, Ar. Rocky Mount, Ar. Tarboro, Ar. Weldon.

Our recent articles on immigration, designed to induce Northern capitalists and settlers with means to invest and locate in North Carolina, has brought in quite a number of letters of inquiry from parties who contemplate seeking homes in the South, asking for description of places for sale. We have also had numerous offers from land owners who wish to dispose of portions, or all, of their surplus lands, but with no definite description of lands, or prices.

This has induced us to establish the Messenger Real Estate Agency in connection with this office, and our Mr. J. HOWARD BROWN will give to this department his personal supervision. In order to reach the desired class we have arranged to run an advertisement in some 1,000 newspapers in the Northern and Western States, offering to mail specimen copies of the MESSENGER and to furnish such information as may be desired, to all who will apply, and in this way we hope to reach the most desirable class of people and to bring the advantages of North Carolina before the very people who seek homes in the South. The MESSENGER will also be placed on file in a large number of Hotels, public Reading Rooms and Real Estate Exchanges in other States, and thus the advertisements of all wishing to sell lands will receive the greatest publicity.

Our advertising rates are $5.00 for a two inch advertisement, to be inserted in our weekly edition every alternate week, for three months. In addition to this we will enter the lands so offered upon our printed circulars containing list of lands for sale by the Agency, and endeavor to secure a purchaser by giving these circulars a large distribution.

We invite correspondence with land owners in all parts of the State, as our Agency is for the whole State, and we shall give no preference to
