GOLDSBORO, N. C. MONDAY, MAY 10, 1886.

CLEANINGS HERE AND ELSEWHERE. Pamlico county Superior Court this week. Greensboro voted the wet ticket last week. "Ostler Joe" has been set to music. It is a sort of Potterpourri. The Winston Sentinel comes to us now in shape of an eight page sheet. In Harnett county Wednesday, Rev. A. N. Betts and Mrs. Fannie Price were married. The General Chapter Royal Arch Masons meets in Fayetteville the fourth Tuesday in May. Col. S. L. Fremont died in Memphis last week. His body was taken to Wilmington for burial. Dr. Chas. J. O'Hagan, of Greenville, is at St. Louis, in attendance of the General Medical Convention. The Bank of New Hanover will be closed to-day, Memorial day being a legal holiday in North Carolina. The Chowan Baptist Association will meet at Columbus, Tyrrell county, May 11th, and continue in session until Thursday. Our local correspondents will oblige us by sending their contributions in by Tuesdays. It will better serve our convenience. At Durham five local option and two license commissioners were elected. Freeland was elected mayor, defeating Redmon by 14 votes. Smithfield Herald: J. D. Adams was elected Mayor of Clayton on Monday, and D. A. Fields at Pine Level. Read Extraordinary Offer and secure the Engraving of Confederate Commanders free. It costs every one except subscribers to the MESSENGER two dollars. At Point Caswell, Pender county, last Monday the entire Democratic ticket was elected by a good majority, and the "Bolters" ticket defeated. Mr. O. O. Vollers was elected mayor. The annual Commencement of Greensboro Female College takes place May 20th and 27th. Gov. Seales will present diplomas to the graduating class, comprising seventeen young ladies. The Greensboro Patriot, under the management of Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, has grown into a 36 column folio paper and a very attractive paper it is. It has also just entered upon its sixtieth year. In giving credit to the short article on the Educational bill, in our last issue, the printer made us say "Washington Review," when we of course meant our excellent friend, the Wilmington Review. The case of the Durham Blackwell Tobacco Co. vs. McElwee was heard at Person court last week and decided in favor of the Blackwell Company. This case has been in the courts for many years and has cost a small fortune. The commencement exercises of Ellsworth High School at Henderson will take place June 9th. The annual sermon will be preached by Rev. J. D. Arnold and the literary address will be delivered by Col. W. H. S. Burghwin. During commencement week at Davidson College the Trustees will elect a professor to fill the chair of English, Political Economy and Psychology. Communications should be addressed to Rev. J. Rumpale at Salisbury. Read the new advertisement of Mrs. E. W. Moore. She offers a very pretty and tasty display of millinery goods at lowest prices. We bespeak for her a liberal share of patronage. Her efforts to please and to succeed deserve the greatest encouragement. The attention of our readers is directed to the new advertisement of Messrs. Fuchtlcr & Kern, dealers in furniture and furnishing goods. The firm carries in stock one of the largest assortments of furniture in the State and they supply customers far and near. Raleigh News-Observer: Last evening Gov. Seales sent a telegram to Sheriff Posey, of Hendersonville, relieving Lewis Kilgore, a white man, until the 21st. Kilgore was to have been hanged to-day, for the murder of Mattie Henderson, a white woman. Fayetteville News: The recent river in the river reached twenty-five feet. We regret to announce that the old and well known druggist firm of J. N. Smith & Co. have to-day made an assignment to Dr. H. T. Ivy. The proprietors are Mr. William Bow and Mrs. Jane Smith. Mr. L. D. Giddens calls attention to his jewelry and watch repairing establishment. Mr. Giddens is a practical jeweler and has had over twenty years experience in the business. He is one of our most reliable citizens, and deserves a most liberal share of public patronage. The Kingston Free Press says Dr. H. Tull used a piece of medicine from Mr. W. W. Caraway's plantation, on a little negro child last Tuesday. She was bitten by a white oak snake, a species nearly as poisonous as the rattlesnake. The stone had the desired effect and the child is doing well. The graded school has on its roll 630 children, and its corps of 14 teachers are the equal of any set of teachers in the State. The pay roll for a ten months session for 14 teachers and 1 janitor, foots up $6,444 a year. The interest on the building debt is $700 a year, and insurance, fuel and other incidentals about $350 a year. It has been decided to hold the State Fair during the week beginning October 24th. The State and State Board of Agriculture this year give $3,000 in cash for premiums. The State will make a very elaborate display of its resources, almost equal to that at the Exposition. Arrangements are already actively in progress for the fair. The Goldsboro school receives about $1,300 from the common school fund. This will run the school about two months. Unquestionably every child will be entitled to this much free school, but after the public fund is exhausted, then it will be discretionary with the Trustees to regulate the admission of those whose parents do not contribute to its support while fully able to do so. And some regulations on that subject will be adopted.

The Commencement exercises at the University of North Carolina take place on the 2d and 3d of June. The address will be delivered by Hon. Augustus Van Wyck, of Brooklyn, and the sermon by Rev. Charles D. Hall, D. D., of New York. The marshals are C. F. Smith, B. F. Tyson, M. H. Palmer, F. M. Harper, A. Braswell, Jr., R. E. Costner, H. F. Shaffin, C. B. Southerland and G. W. Bethell. The Raleigh News-Observer says: A reporter interviewed Mr. W. C. Stronach, one of the directors of the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad. He attended a directors' meeting at New Bern Tuesday evening. He says the directors were greatly pleased with the condition of the road at present and with Mr. Washington Bryan's management as president. They thought he was doing all that could be done. Mr. Stronach said Mr. Bryan had much to contend with, but had certainly done a great deal of earnest, excellent work, which showed for itself.

We were pleased to receive a call this morning from our friend, Mr. W. S. Halliburton, of Durham. The re-election of Mr. J. W. Gulick as Mayor gave great satisfaction to his many friends in the city. REV. MR. BATTLE, of Wadesboro, preached at the Baptist Church yesterday morning and evening. THE Methodist pulpit was occupied yesterday morning by Rev. H. H. Gibbons; at night by Rev. E. L. Pell. PROF. PRICE THOMAS, Superintendent of the New Bern Graded School, passed through the city Friday, en route to Raleigh. MISS MILDRED LEE, of Virginia, a niece of Gen. R. E. Lee, says the Argus, is in the city on a visit to Mrs. W. S. O'Brien Robinson. YELLOW is the conspicuous color in prevailing fashions. This thing called fashion makes many an eye yell; in trying to follow its decrees. MR. J. F. SOUTHERLAND's trotter, "Ketty Girl," and Mr. F. K. Borden's runner, "Trollope," won purses at the Richmond races last week. THE Kittle Rhoades Company plays in Raleigh this week. They hold the boards of the Opera House here during the week of the Spring Races. THE little folks were obliged to postpone their picnic again Saturday on account of rain. It will take place next Saturday if the weather will permit. THE Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows meets in this city to-morrow. Capt. S. D. Phillips is the representative from Neuse Lodge and Mr. E. A. Wright alternate. THE many friends of that estimable lady will regret exceedingly to learn that Mrs. Diana Green was stricken with paralysis Saturday evening, and is now critically ill at her residence in this city. TO the fund that is being raised for the purpose of placing a pavement around Washington's tomb, at Mt. Vernon, the Goldsboro Graded School has subscribed more than any school in the State. THE next meeting of the Prohibition Club will be held to-morrow evening, at 8:30 o'clock, on the third floor of the new Kornegay building. All who favor local option are cordially invited to become members. THE party who borrowed a book entitled "Rural Life in England," will confer a favor by returning the same to Mrs. A. J. Galloway. Because of associations connected with it, it is valued far beyond its intrinsic worth. MR. N. O'BERRY, Chief Marshal of Memorial exercises, has appointed the following assistant marshals: Messrs. J. E. Robinson, F. K. Borden, F. L. Castex, Thos. Dr. Edmundson, W. T. Dortch, Jr., Dr. James Spicer and H. L. Finlayson. MR. GEO. D. BENNETT is in this city. We are pleased to learn that he will again make Goldsboro his headquarters and proposes shortly to erect new spacious stables. By fair and square dealing he has won the confidence of our people who will gladly see him again located in our midst. THE following business was transacted at the last regular meeting of the old Board of Aldermen: Application of C. T. Willis for transfer of liquor license to the old Odd Fellows' building, on East Centre street, was denied. The sum of $25.00 was donated to the Goldsboro (Chemical) Fire Co. The city attorney was voted $75.00 for last year's services. At the close of the meeting, the new Board was sworn in by Mayor Gulick. AGAIN has arrived the day which has been set apart for the manifestation of appreciation of the services and of honor for the memory of those men of the South who spilled their life's blood in defence of home and country. Stronger than words do these annual re-unions speak the reverence of a grateful people for their sleeping heroes. As long as beautiful flowers gladden the Spring time, may this beautiful custom of floral remembrance be as sincerely observed as now. The program of to-day's exercises may be found in another column of this issue.

ECLIPSE Steam Fire Engine Company has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Foreman, J. W. Lamb; First Assistant, R. D. Holt; Second Assistant, H. M. Strouse; Chief Engineer Joseph Strauss; Steward, Joseph Hardy; Secretary, Roscoe Lamb; Treasurer, A. B. Freeman. MRS. MARY RICHARDS, of Altoona, Pa., accompanied by Master James C. Jones, son of Mr. T. T. Jones, arrived in the city on Thursday last. Mrs. Richards will leave in a day or two on a visit to her old home at Washington, N. C., and Jimmie will spend sometime with his uncle and aunt, Mr. R. E. Jones and Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, Jr. The exhibition and concert of the Colored Graded School, at the Opera House, last Wednesday evening, which marked the close of the session, was very largely attended and bespoke praise for those concerned. The Superintendent, C. H. Hunter, of Raleigh, is courteous in department, earnest and efficient in the prosecution of his duties, and the school has prospered under his management. MRS. MARY T. LATHROP's temperance lecture, last Friday evening, was attended by quite a large audience. Like the previous lecture, it was a powerful appeal in behalf of the prohibition, full of forcible arguments, with less of pathos and more of reason than usually characterizes the efforts of female speakers. The meeting was presided over by Dr. J. F. Miller, who introduced the lady in a brief and appropriate speech. THE Pink and White party, given last Thursday and Friday evenings, by the ladies of St. Paul Methodist Church, was quite a success. The room presented a very bright and attractive appearance, and the decorations, full of flowers and garlands of evergreens, and with tables laden with pink and white ice-cream, etc. The prevailing prices for the nice pink and white things were sufficiently low to prevent the blues, so that we may say it was a rose-tinted occasion and very much enjoyed by the large number in attendance. In our article on "The Graded School" last week we were made to say, "The Supreme Court's decision on the Dortch bill and Judge Clark's recent opinion touching the Durham school affects the Goldsboro school in a most unfortunate and disastrous manner." We would have said "It is permitted to go down, and proposed that the sum of $6,000 be raised by voluntary contributions in its support. He thought it could be done and should be done. He wanted eight public spirited citizens to contribute the sum of $150 each; twelve more to donate $100 each; six to give $75 each; forty to give $50 each; fifty to give $25 each; and one hundred to give $10 each. Donations to be made in two notes payable the 15th of September and 15th of February next. Excellent speeches were made by Dr. J. F. Miller, Prof. E. A. Alderman, Messrs. J. E. Robinson, F. K. Aycock, Sol. Weil, J. B. Whitaker, Jr., T. B. Hyman, F. A. Daniels, and others, and Messrs. J. A. Bontz, I. F. Dortch and C. B. Aycock were requested to go among the audience and solicit contributions. In a little while $2054 was subscribed and several of those who contributed signified their willingness to do more if needed. On motion the following committee was appointed to solicit further contributions: J. F. Dortch, T. B. Hyman, J. E. Robinson, F. A. Daniels, W. T. Hollowell, Sol. Weil, J. A. Bontz, C. B. Aycock, John H. Powell, W. R. Allen, Henry Lee, W. A. Denmark, E. A. Wright, and J. S. Wilson, after which the meeting adjourned subject to a call from the Trustees of the school. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY. Programme of Exercises--Cost of Attendance, &c. The third annual session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly will be held at Mt. Mitchell Hotel, Black Mountain, from June 22d to July 7th, 1886, and promises to be an occasion of great mental profit as well as of physical recreation to teachers and the friends of education. We do not know what the railroad fare will be, but from a private letter from Mr. E. G. Harrell, Secretary, we learn that the necessary expenses for the entire time will not exceed twenty-five dollars, including two or three excursions to some of the noted resorts of the "Land of the Sky." The membership fee is $2.00 and admission is open to all interested in the advancement of our educational affairs whether they are engaged in teaching or not. THE GOLDSBORO GRADED SCHOOL.

The Meeting at the Opera House Thursday Night. Pursuant to call, a gathering of our citizens was held in the Opera House on Thursday night. The attendance was not as large as the friends of the school had hoped for but those who were there showed an earnest interest in behalf of the school that encourages us very much to be hopeful of its future. Mr. Bontz, as Chairman of the Trustees, called the meeting to order and requested Mr. W. H. Borden to preside over its deliberations. Mr. I. F. Dortch explained how disastrously the recent decisions of the courts affected the machinery of the school and that no remedy, so far as taxation is concerned, could be found until the next meeting of the General Assembly. Mr. Bontz gave a review of the workings of the school, its resources in the past, and its needs for the future. He hoped the school would be permitted to go down, and proposed that the sum of $6,000 be raised by voluntary contributions in its support. He thought it could be done and should be done. He wanted eight public spirited citizens to contribute the sum of $150 each; twelve more to donate $100 each; six to give $75 each; forty to give $50 each; fifty to give $25 each; and one hundred to give $10 each. Donations to be made in two notes payable the 15th of September and 15th of February next. Excellent speeches were made by Dr. J. F. Miller, Prof. E. A. Alderman, Messrs. J. E. Robinson, F. K. Aycock, Sol. Weil, J. B. Whitaker, Jr., T. B. Hyman, F. A. Daniels, and others, and Messrs. J. A. Bontz, I. F. Dortch and C. B. Aycock were requested to go among the audience and solicit contributions. In a little while $2054 was subscribed and several of those who contributed signified their willingness to do more if needed. On motion the following committee was appointed to solicit further contributions: J. F. Dortch, T. B. Hyman, J. E. Robinson, F. A. Daniels, W. T. Hollowell, Sol. Weil, J. A. Bontz, C. B. Aycock, John H. Powell, W. R. Allen, Henry Lee, W. A. Denmark, E. A. Wright, and J. S. Wilson, after which the meeting adjourned subject to a call from the Trustees of the school.

Jones, of Goldsboro, and myself were appointed a committee to select a time and place for a re-union of the surviving members of this regiment. I have had no correspondence with them, but take this method of suggesting some date in August next, to be fixed in the future, and Seven Springs in Wayne county, as the place, and invite a correspondence with the other members of the committee, or any other member of the regiment who may be interested in the matter, in regard to the advisability of the proposed re-union. With the exception of the companies from Hillsboro and Greensboro, all the companies that composed this regiment were from counties adjoining, or a few hours ride of the place suggested, and August is a season of the year when most of them can very conveniently spare a day or two for recreation and social enjoyment.
