Board. They may have made some mistakes but they are all honest, and worthy officials and no charge of mismanagement or fraud can be laid at their feet. The present complication and shortness in the county finances were the result of oversight, not altogether the fault of the Commissioners, but date back to the insufficient tax levy made by the Board of Magistrates in 1884. Messrs. Hooks, Thompson, Loftin. Stevens and Johnson have indeed well and faithfully served the county during their administration.
