AN IMPORTANT MOVEMENT.

The State of North Carolina, through its Legislature, has during the past five years generously expended a liberal sum of money in publishing to the world the advantages in soil, climate, natural resources and possibilities of development, offered to the immigrant or capitalist seeking a field for skill, industry or investment.

Then the same liberal State Government seconded this effort by establishing an efficient and thoroughly equipped Immigration Bureau, that has, through its efficient commissioner, followed up these appeals to the sight, by information to the mind, and this work has resulted in a flood of letters of earnest inquiry from nearly ten thousand separate heads of families, farmers, mechanics, capitalists, who were reminded of the existence within the boundaries of a single State, not two hundred miles from the National Capitol, of a variety of soil, climate, natural productions and possibilities, possessed by no other single State in the Union, and capable of fostering within its own borders a population equal to that in the British Isles.

Springing from the seeds thus sown and from a knowledge gained by observation and investigation, there are today within the geographical limits of North Carolina, some in each county, a large population of Northern families representing every Eastern, Middle and Western State and Territory, who are working out homes and fortunes for themselves, and sending out satisfactory accounts to their friends and former neighbors.

They decided to invite co-operation from every man who has settled in North Carolina from any other State and to that end propose to call a meeting at Raleigh, on the 26th of October, at the time of the State Fair, and there compare experiences and publish to the world their verdict of the desirability of North Carolina as a home for settlers; also to invite all, elsewhere, who are contemplating immigration to this State, to meet them at this convention.

COMMISSIONER BLACK.

All the batteries of the Republican party are turned on the Commissioner of Pensions. It is charged that he is a pensioner and an office-holder. Let us see. We believe that if a full examination of the books for several years were made that it would be shown that there was a time when the Republican party was not altogether as unanimous as now in condemnation of this sort of thing.

One Leonidas C. Houk, a Republican Representative from Tennessee, is now serving his fourth term in the Congress. He is a pensioner on the Government. His physician made a very strong affidavit, and then withdrew it in order to modify the statements there made. Now Houk is a terrible partisan. Black has been a good enough Democrat, but Houk has excelled all Tennesseans in his fiery zeal.

The sneak pretences of Republicans are here seen in all their meanness. What irritates these partisans is the fact that a Northern soldier was put in charge of the Pension Office, and the additional fact that he went right to work to establish the slippery ways of his Republican predecessors.

COMPLIMENTS TO A NEWS-PAPER MAN—IS IT AN ADVERTISING SCHEME? The candidacy of George William Childs, editor and proprietor of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, for the Presidency in 1888, first given publicity in the Baltimore Daily News of May 27th, followed by the Philadelphia Times, June 5th, has been largely taken up by the newspapers of Philadelphia, New York and the Western States, and by them magnified into a genuine newspaper Presidential boom.

MR. CHILD'S OWN VIEW OF IT. "During the last fortnight a number of our contemporaries have been good enough to print very kind and handsome things of the proprietor of the Public Ledger, and have connected them with his name with the highest executive office in this country."

OF course such expressions are very gratifying to Mr. Childs as exhibiting a strength of personal regard for which he is at a loss to make adequate acknowledgment. That is the one light in which he prizes them, and he prizes them very highly.

POWDERLY ON STRIKES. General Master Workman Powderly denies that he has been captured by the communistic element; and, further, that there is any truth in the rumor that his views in regard to strikes, &c., were overruled at the Cleveland Convention.

THE Treasury Department has received a letter from Mr. John D. Keiley, Jr., saying that the papal delegates, on their way to Baltimore, conveying the insignia of his high office to Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore, will arrive in New York on or about Sunday next on the steamer Servia, and requesting that their baggage and effects be passed free of duty; that the usual courtesies in such cases be extended to them, and that the committee from St. Michael's Association appointed to receive them have the use of the revenue cutter for the purpose of meeting the steamer and escorting the papal delegation to the Pennsylvania railroad station at Jersey City.

himself personally and of his great enterprising and successful Ledger? Why has he not told our people that his great heart was large enough and his kindly impulses strong enough to embrace the whole country and make all our citizens glad with a knowledge of his princely benefactions and kindly interest in mankind? Will not Mr. Childs make a journey through the South and learn of our people in their homes, their hospitable disposition towards the makers and promulgators of public sentiment. He will then expand the field of his usefulness, and the Public Ledger and its achievements and successes will become household words, and Mr. Childs will join Col. McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, in setting before the people North the true sentiments of our people, and counsel us in our rapid advance towards prosperity and success.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Senator Vance on the Pacific Railroad Forfeiture. The President's Reception—Mrs. Cleveland's Beauty and Self-Possession.

WASHINGTON, June 16. The House finished the Legislative bill this afternoon, having passed it at 4:25 o'clock. There were no memorable incidents in today's session. The war question came up in connection with Pension Office salaries, and Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, showed that the Democrats did as much fighting as the Republicans.

THE SUPREME COURT. North Carolina has reason to be congratulated that she has given birth and reared to man's estate so many sons who have reflected honor on her, but she owes to no one a debt of gratitude, strictly speaking.

MR. HISCOCK denied in the House of Representatives last Monday, that he had been mistaken in his estimate of expenditures and revenue of the Government.

for the consideration of the Tariff bill. I also saw Mr. Breckinridge in the House late in the day. He is detained for the same reason. Senator Vance will go out to-night to take his place. Mr. J. W. Powell will make a visit to Sampson, starting home to-morrow. He will be gone probably ten days.
