

Goldsboro Messenger

GOLDSBORO, N. C. MONDAY, JUNE 21, 1886.

CLEANINGS HERE AND ELSEWHERE.

Mr. John Murphy has opened an ice house in this city. Maj. W. A. Guthrie, of Fayetteville will make his home at Durham.

Dr. J. S. Bizzell has located at LaGrange for the practice of dentistry. Regular meeting of Wayne Lodge, (Masonic) to-night for election of officers.

Mrs. H. H. Colquitt and Mrs. Carter, of Columbia, S. C., are at the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead.

Our city editor, Mr. J. B. Whitaker, Jr., left yesterday for the editorial excursion, en route for Washington.

The first cotton bloom of this season was placed on our table yesterday by Mr. James Hooks of the Fremont section.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Atlantic Coast Line offering reduced rates to various summer resorts.

Raleigh Visitor: Mrs. Dr. L. S. Burkhead, of Goldsboro, is in the city, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph G. Brown, on west Jones street.

Those who have daughters to educate will do well to read the new advertisement of Augusta Female Seminary in this paper. It is an excellent school.

In Currituck county prohibition was defeated by a vote of 459 against 366. Two townships, Fruitville and Poplar Branch, voted for it and three against it.

Mr. J. D. Daniels of this city advertises in this paper that he wants 7000 young foxes. They are intended to fill an order for some sporting club at the north.

The State Board of Education has sent its engineer, General Lewis, to make an accurate survey of the swamplands in Columbus county owned by that Board.

The new Warm Springs Hotel, at Warm Springs, is now nearly completed and will be open for the reception of guests on or about the 30th inst. See advertisement.

The closing exercises of LaGrange Institute last week were largely attended and highly creditable to teachers and pupils. We hope to be able to lay a full report of the exercises before our readers.

Capt. R. S. Southerland took charge of the Scotland Neck train Tuesday, to relieve Capt. Hassardshort, who will leave for England today, where he will remain for about three months, visiting relatives.

The advertisement of Raleigh Peace Institute appears in this paper. There is no better school anywhere in the South and parents having daughters to educate will do well to correspond with Messrs. Burwell & Son.

The Smithfield Herald reports many deaths recently in that county. Among the dead are Mrs. H. M. Johnson, Mr. A. P. Barbour, Mrs. Cassa Barbour, a son of Mr. W. C. Hamilton, Mrs. Elizabeth Ennis and Mr. B. B. Alford.

Two negro prisoners succeeded in making their escape from jail in this county, Friday night. One of them was jailed as a delinquent so-called "insolvent" taxpayer, the other for affray. Hope they left Wayne for societies good.

Mr. Patrick H. Winston, Sr., died at his home at Windsor, Bertie county, Monday last. He had two strokes of paralysis in a year and had been confined to his bed for six months. His end was peaceful. He was born in Franklin county, in this State, May 5th, 1820.

The Caucasian speaks of Capt. Swift Galloway as a probably candidate for Congress. Many of the Captain's friends in several counties of the district expressed a desire to support him for the nomination but he declined to allow his name to be brought before the convention.

Dr. W. W. Faison, Assistant Superintendent of the Eastern Insane Asylum, was married to Miss Jennie Faison on the 16th inst. The marriage took place at Duplin, N. C., the Rev. Dr. B. F. Marable officiating, the happy couple are now on their bridal trip north. We offer them our sincerest congratulations.

GOLDSBORO JOTTINGS.

Personal Mention and Items of Interest at Home. A FEW days left in which to list your taxes. MR. T. B. HYMAN is on a business trip to New York.

SUMMER commenced yesterday. So say the almanacs. COL. B. S. PARDEE made us a pleasant visit on Saturday.

MISS BETTIE SPICER is on a visit to friends in Sampson county. MISS BESSIE FANNING, of Durham, is visiting Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, Jr.

MISS CORA and Pettie Woodard are on a visit to their sister, Mrs. C. B. Aycock. MISS SUDIE KIRBY is on a visit to the family of her uncle, Mr. Geo. D. Green, in Wilson.

PROF. J. L. TOMLINSON, Superintendent of the Winston Graded School, was in the city on Saturday. MISS NELLIE WADDELL, who has been visiting relatives in this city, has returned to her home in Smithfield.

THE dining rooms and pantry of Mr. Jos. Lockamy were pilfered by some hungry rogue one night of last week. SOON the policemen will wage war against the badgedlives canines. If you value your dog's life provide him with a tax-paid collar.

PROF. PRICE THOMAS, Superintendent of the New Berne Graded School, passed through the city Saturday on a trip to the north. MISS KATE FIELDS and mother, who spent several days with friends in the city, left on Wednesday of last week for their home in Fayetteville.

THE train for the Teachers Assembly, at Black Mountain, will leave here about noon to-morrow. The fare for the round trip is only $10.25 from this point. OUR friend, Mr. Jas. A. Robinson, city editor of the Charlotte Evening Chronicle, stopped over with us from Saturday to Sunday en route home from the Press Convention.

PROCEEDINGS of the County Convention, held Saturday, for the selection of delegates to the State, Congressional and Judicial Conventions, will be found elsewhere in to-day's issue. SATURDAY morning, Mr. B. E. Smith let loose twelve carrier pigeons which had been sent him from New York by the owner. They arose about seventy-five feet and struck a bee-line for the North.

COL. C. J. NELSON returned last week from a visit to his son, Mr. Richard Nelson, at Selma, Alabama. The Colonel reports splendid crop prospects in the sections through which he traveled.

PROF. E. P. MOSES, having concluded his labors in the Teachers' Institute, left for Raleigh on Friday. Mrs. Moses and the little ones will remain here a few days longer, the guests of Mrs. Dr. Kirby.

THE Argus says that the Goldsboro Probation Club will appoint fifteen secret detectives, whose duty it shall be to ferret out and report to the grand juries of our county all violations of the present liquor laws. WE are requested to announce that the Ladies' Benevolent Association will meet at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Wednesday afternoon, July 7th, at 5 o'clock. The members are urged to attend and to go prepared to pay their dues.

WE were pleased to receive a visit from Prof. E. W. Kennedy, Superintendent of the Durham School, on Friday. His many friends here are always glad to see him. He left Saturday on a pleasure trip to Northern cities.

DR. S. WOODARD, of Black Creek, is attending at the bedside of his daughter, Mrs. Willis Edmundson, whose critical illness has been reported in our columns. We are gratified to learn that Mrs. Edmundson's condition is somewhat improved.

A PARLOR car is now attached to the A. & N. C. Railroad for the comfort and convenience of summer travelers. This is another evidence of President Bryan's progressiveness and of his disposition to afford passengers over his road as good facilities as are furnished by other lines.

THE Teachers Institute for whites closed Saturday, after a successful session. We hope that next year there will be a more general awakening on the part of our teachers to the benefits to be derived from the Institute and that the attendance will be much larger than it was this year.

A LARGE number of the Press Association left here Saturday on the excursion to Washington City, by the North Carolina, Richmond & Danville and Virginia Midland route. A special car to run through to Alexandria was attached to the regular passenger train on the North Carolina road.

WE learn that the W. & W. Railroad authorities have issued orders for the fast mail to take passengers for any station between here and Wilmington when the delay of said passengers at this point is caused by failure of the N. C. train to connect with the first South bound train.

THE work of erecting a tower and spire to St. Stephen's Episcopal Church is now going on. This has been contemplated for years and we are gratified that the wishes of the congregation are about to be fulfilled. It will doubtless be a great improvement to the appearance of this substantial edifice.

THE Colored Teachers' Institute, now in progress, is well attended; and the teachers are doing excellent work. ELDER D. N. GORE, of Raleigh, will preach in the Primitive Baptist church in this city, on Wednesday night of this week.

THE old well in front of Mr. Giddens' jewelry store has given another evidence of public spirit by having a well driven on the original site, to walk, eighteen feet deep which puts it, far below the sewer which necessitated the filling up the old well, and there is now a full supply of good water.

WAYNE COUNTY CONVENTION.

Delegates Instructed for Strong, Dortch, Clark and Galloway. A Convention of Democrats of Wayne county was held on Saturday for the purpose of choosing delegates to the State, Congressional and Judicial Conventions. The attendance was not as large as was hoped it would be, but the best of feeling prevailed and the proceedings passed off in most harmonious order. Only two townships, Grantham and Great Swamp, were not represented.

Shortly after 12 o'clock, Mr. J. A. Bonitz, Chairman of the County Executive Committee, called the Convention to order, by requesting F. M. Aycock, Esq., to act as temporary chairman. Messrs. J. A. Bonitz and Jos. E. Robinson acted as Secretaries, and on motion of Mr. W. R. Allen the temporary organization was made permanent.

Mr. Allen submitted to the convention a list of delegates to represent the county in the Congressional session, but on motion of Col. Louis Whitfield a committee of one from each township was appointed to select all the delegates to the several conventions.

The chair appointed the following committee: F. A. Daniels, A. L. Sasser, Dr. J. W. Faison, W. G. Broadhurst, C. W. Bizzell, J. W. Gardner, N. J. Smith, H. D. Finlayson, W. R. Hooks and J. B. Edgerton. The committee retired and subsequently reported as follows:

STATE DELEGATES. Swift Galloway, Josiah Rose, J. T. Hooks, H. J. Sauls, E. J. Ornam, W. C. Munroe, W. B. Fort, W. B. Thompson, F. A. Daniels, William B. Smith, W. G. Broadhurst, J. F. Oliver, James H. Best, W. T. Dortch, Jr., J. A. Bonitz, J. W. Bryan, Arnold Borden, A. B. F. Hooks, I. W. Hatch.

CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION. Goldsboro.—W. R. Allen, M. L. Lee, C. B. Aycock, N. O'Berry, Wash Lamb, W. G. Burkhead, W. F. Kornegay, O. Holmes, D. A. Grantham, W. H. Borden, T. B. Parker, W. T. Yelverton, Thos. Edmundson.

Col. B. G. Pardee, of Connecticut, who has done so much towards attracting attention to the wonderful resources of North Carolina, was also present and by invitation sat in the Convention. In response to calls, Col. Pardee made pleasing remarks, during which he called special attention to the meeting of natives of the North who have homes among us, to be held in Raleigh during the next State Fair. We shall refer to this subject later and will only say now that we hope all of our Northern friends who have found pleasure and profit in North Carolina will be present at the time and place stated, prepared to give their experience of living in our State, both from a social and business standpoint.

During their visit the editors enjoyed themselves by boating, fishing, bathing and visiting points of interest in the vicinity. On Thursday we went over to Fort Macon, which is now in charge of one man, a sergeant of the U. S. Army. Our mind wandered back to the days of '61, when so many of the brave men of this city and section, inspired by patriotic fervor, took possession of this defense in the name of the newborn Confederacy.

The editors were the guests of Messrs. Cook & Foster Brothers, the gentlemen proprietors of the large and comfortable Atlantic House. Add to the efforts of the proprietors to please, polite servants, clean beds, and last, but not least, tempting bills of fare with careful and palatable preparation of the "internal improvements," and you can form some idea how hugely the quill drivers enjoyed these hospitalities and how pleasantly they will ever recall the social features of the fourteenth annual session of our Association.

THE Atlantic Hotel is prepared to accommodate a very large number of visitors and we predict that this popular summer resort will receive liberal patronage this season. The sea breeze is invigorating and a wonderful appetizer (this is our experience) and we would advise our friends when over come by the languor of summer's heat to run down to the Atlantic and spend a while in recuperating their vigor while having a pleasant time.

A ball was given Friday night by the proprietors of the Atlantic, complimentary to the Association. The Democrats of Greene County are requested to meet in Convention, in the Court House at Snow Hill, on SATURDAY, JULY 17, at 12 o'clock m., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State, Judicial and Congressional Conventions. By order of the Ex. Committee. E. H. HORNADAY, Chairn. THEO. EDWARDS, Sec'y.

A Convention of the Democratic Party of Johnston county will be held in the Court House, in Smithfield, on SATURDAY, JULY 10, 1886, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State, Congressional and Judicial Conventions to be held in the near future. S. R. MORGAN, Chairman.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE. The Orations.—Address of Governor Scales.—The Degrees. DAVIDSON COLLEGE, N. C., June 17. The bright day and the attractions of the commencement exercises brought together this morning an audience of nearly a thousand persons. On the rostrum were Governor Scales, Rev. Dr. B. D. Anderson of Morganton, N. C.; Hon. William Robbins, of Statesville, N. C.; Rev. Dr. J. B. Shearer, of the Southwestern University, Clarksville, Tenn.; Rev. Dr. K. B. Mack and Colonel A. R. Banks, of Fort Mill, S. C.; Rev. W. S. Lacy, of Jonesboro, N. C.; and other dignitaries of Church and State.

The exercises began with the formal installation of President McKinnon and Professor Groves. Dr. McKinnon made an earnest appeal for the sympathy and co-operation of the Church to which the College belongs. Orations were then delivered by Messrs. C. S. Gilmer, of Greensboro, N. C.; Edward Mack, of Fort Mill, S. C.; D. F. Sheppard, of Long Branch, N. C.; S. C. Baker, of Sumter, S. C.; and B. E. Harris, of Concord, N. C. The orations were remarkable for their drift toward theology and morals and for serious earnestness in delivery.

In behalf of the Philanthropic and Eumenean Societies, Governor Scales presented medals as follows: Debauchery to F. P. Hall and W. S. Moore; Essayist to D. M. Phillips and D. F. Sheppard; Declaimer to W. J. Martin, Jr., and D. M. Province, and joint medal for best orator to Leonard White. Governor Scales reminded the medalists that there are prizes all along through life for such as are diligent to pay the price of persistent self-denying endeavor. He rejoiced in the good prospects for Davidson, and gives notice to all the other colleges in the State that Davidson may be equalled but cannot be excelled. He would have the young men forget the bitterness of the war and pride themselves on the whole land. Before the war he heard a Congressman from Vermont recount the glories of his section, and when one from South Carolina told of the advantages of his State, when Crittenden, of Kentucky, rose to say that he rejoiced in his country as embracing both these great sections of which the gentlemen had spoken. Let the young men, like Crittenden, regard the whole country as theirs. He would remind them that while the eggs and some other professions might be full, there was plenty of room in the highest and best of all professions—the ministry.

President McKinnon then presented diplomas to the members of the graduating class, and conferred degrees as follows: A. B. on Messrs. S. C. Baker, of Sumter, S. C.; L. M. Blue, of Laurinburg, J. S. Carson, of Charlotte, N. C.; J. M. Clark, of Jackson Springs, N. C.; S. S. Gilmer, of Greensboro, N. C.; B. E. Harris, of Concord, N. C.; E. Mack, of Fort Mill, S. C.; K. A. McLeod, of Patterson's Bridge, N. C.; J. A. MacMurray, of Gadsden, Ala.; C. W. Maxwell, of Davidson College, N. C.; R. A. Mickle, of Edisto Island, S. C.; J. W. Moore, of Huntersville, N. C.; W. L. M. Morris, of Concord, N. C.; J. W. Pliny, of Alexandria, N. C.; D. M. Phillips, of Greensboro, N. C.; R. D. Ross, of Pineville, N. C.; D. F. Sheppard, of Long Branch, N. C.; J. E. Watts, of Mooreville, N. C.; C. B. S. upon O. L. Clark, of Clarkton, N. C.; and G. M. McQueen, of Swan's Station, N. C.

Dr. McKinnon explained the meaning and value of these diplomas, and urged that the same assiduous fidelity to duty which had won these would win other prizes in the battle of life. He eloquently insisted that they should emulate the example of that old Roman soldier who stood at his post in Pompeii though the earth quaked beneath and the clouds rained fire, and like him be faithful unto death. The coronation day will come either here or hereafter.

The exercises were concluded by a touching valedictory from Mr. J. A. MacMurray, of Gadsden, Ala. MARRIED. At Duplin Road, on the 16th inst., by Rev. B. F. Marable, the bride, Miss Jennie Faison, to Miss Jennie Faison, late of Peace Institute.

At Seven Springs, N. C., on the 17th inst., at the residence of the bride's mother, Louis Whitfield, Esq., by Rev. Geo. McMillan, JOHN A. MCGEE and MISS MARY A. WHITEFIELD. DIED. Departed this life at the residence of her parents in this city, in the afternoon of June the 16th, Mrs. Debra Howard, infant child of Capt. R. P. Howell and Ella Douglas, his wife, aged 15 months. Heaven is all-potent, and she will be missed in heart can ever enter through the gates into the city and walk the golden streets of the new Jerusalem. Little Debra was pure, bright, winsome and amiable, and her death a bereavement to her parents and the death reaper reached down and plucked the tender bud and transported her to her mansion in paradise beyond life's toils and cares, where "No aching hearts are there, No fear-dimmed eye, no form by sickness wasted, No cheek grown pale through penury or No spirits crushed beneath the vows they made, No sighs for bliss unattained, No sad farewell is heard, No lonely wait for loving ones departed, No dark remorse is there or memory unattired, No smile of scorn, no harsh or cruel word To grieve the bereaved." GENTLE SYMPATHY.
