Miscellaneous.

Important to Ladies.

Women are everywhere using and recom-mending Parker's Tonic because they have earned from experience that it speedily overcomes despondency, indigestion or weakness in the back or kidneys, and other troubles peculiar to the sex.

"I have long been a sufferer from female complaints. Have tried physicians and advertised remedies, but without any relief what-

With but little hopes of receiving any ever. With but little nopes of receiving any benefit, I bought a bottle of Parker's Tonic. The effect of that one bottle was so satisfactory that I kept on using it, and am to-day well and strong. It certainly is the remedy for suffering women and my acvice to all is to use it."—MRS. N. DOUGLASS, 504 West India street., Chicago, Ill.

Parker's Tonic [Prepared by Hiscox & Co., N. Y.]

Bold by all Druggists in large bottles at One Dollar. june19-wswlm

- OFFICE OF-

Superintendent Public Instruction

OF WAYNE COUNTY, N. C.

Notice to Teachers of Wayne County: Public examination of all applicants for Teachers' Certificates will be held in the Court House of Wayne county at Goldsboro, N. C., on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 8, 9, and 10, 1886.

Thursday, July 8, white applicants will be examined. Friday and Saturday, July 9 and 10, colored applicants will be examined. Examination will be commenced each day at 9 o'clock, A. M., and close at 5 o'clock, P. M. All applicants for Teachers' Certificates will govern themselves accordingly. E. A. WRIGHT, Sup't Pub. Ins. Wayne Co.

BEST GOODS! Lowest Prices!

- Very large Stock of -

GENERAL : MERCHANDISE

Dry Goods, Hats, Boots and Shoes, Hardware, &c.

Family Groceries OF VARIOUS KINDS.

I HAVE THE GOODS YOU NEED

WILL SELL AT LOWEST PRICES CALLAND SEE ME! J. C. EASON.

Goldsboro, N. C., May 6-3m

SUMMER

Send in Your Orders for

Ginger Ale, Sarsaparilla, Soda Water, California Pear Nectar, And the Latest Thing Out,

TONIC BEER

You will find all the above Drinks to be Good, or No Charge.

GROCERIES

I am still leading in Low Prices in Groceries My Stock is complete. Call and get prices before buying and I know I will sell to you. Respectfully,

R. E. PIPKIN. Goldsboro, N. C., Mar. 22, 1886.-1f

Having accepted the general agency for Burnham Bros.' Improved Standard Turbine Water Wheel

I am now prepared to offer any one hav-ing water power special inducements to buy the Burnham Wheel, which is the Best and Cheapest

Water Wheel in the market. For prices, &c., address the undersigned, general agent for the counties of Wake, Harnett, ohnston, Sampson, Duplin, Onslow, ones, Craven, Carteret, Pamlico, Beaufort, Edgecombe, Nash, Wilson, Greene, Pitt, Lenoir and Wayne. ery respectfully,

O. R. RAND, Jr. Goldsboro, N. C., Feb. 11,'86.-tf

North Carolina.) In Superior Court. Duplin County. \ May 25th 1886. Harper Williams,

Obed Maready,

Order of Publication, TO OBED MAREADY

WHEREAS the above named Plaintiff, Harper Williams has commenced an action against you in the Superior Court of Duplin County for the purpose of foretherefore, you are required to be and appear before the Judge of our Superior Court, at a court to be held for the County of Duplin at the Court House in Kenansville, N. C., on the 1st Monday in September next and answer or demur to the complaint which will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of said Superior Court within the first three days of said term, and you can take notice that if you fail to answer said complaint within the time required by law, the Plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint. Hereof fail not.

Given under my hand and seal of said court, at office in Kenansville this 25th day of May, 1886. R. C. BROADHURST, Clerk Sup. Court. FAISON & FAISON, Plaintiff Atty.

FIVE HUNDRED SHARES STOCK in the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, in lots to suit. Apply to J. A. PRIDGEN, Chmn. B'd Co. Commis'rs, Kinston, N.C.

Unrequited.

When the sun it is high o'er the earth, love, And the sweet woodland sounds greet min-Then my beart is happy with mirth, love, And I joy that to me thou art dear. It is sweetest of music, thy voice, love, And the sun shining down on thy face

Is a picture that makes me rejoice, love-

When the sun it is bright in its place.

And the sounds of the woodland are still'd When the eventide quiets abound, love, Then I weep for the hopes unfulfilled. And I sigh that my heart is so weak, love, My heart that is thy heart for aye, And I grieve for the words thou'lt not speak,

At the shadowy close of the day. Oh! the sun is so strong in its light, love, And the moon sheds its beams, ah! so soft That my heart it is swayed by their might,

As the maid who hath listened too oft. So in sunshine I'll welcome thy smile, love, In sunshine I'll greet thee with cheer-But the shadows are mine to beguile, love. With the vainest regrets and a tear.

-Flora N. Montgomery.

WORSE DEVILS THAN THE DIVIL.

The Devil was one day sitting on a stone, on the side of a solitary country road, and he appeared to be in some great trouble. His head rested on his hand, his eyes were fixed on the ground before him, and his face was very sad in short, he really seemed to be in sore

Along the road comes Old Mag, the ortune-teller, and (as everybody called her and feared her as such) the country witch. "Halloo, master! You are very sad to-day. What's the matter?" "I guess I have reason to be sad," answered the Devil. "Working so hard, and vet gaining nothing.'

"How is that?" asked Mag. "Do you know that old couple over vonder?" and the Devil pointed to a lonely farm-house out a piece from the grinned the Devil sadly. "Oho! that's what worries you," laughed the fortune-teller. "A very nice, peaceable old couple, that won't let you get between them. Is that it?"

"The old man and woman over there? Certainly I know them." "A nice, peaceable old couple, eh?"

"That's it, exactly! I have been working very hard for all the years they are living together (and it is now about forty) to sow discord between them, but all in vain. They live on quietly in spite of me. I don't like to give up the project after having gone to so much trouble about it; and yet I almost despair of ever gaining my point.'

"What will you give me if I do for you what you cannot do?" asked Mag in her own taunting way. "You bring discord between that good old couple? "Yes, I." "How long will it take you to do it, do you think? "O. a day or two." "You do in so short a time what I ould not do in all these forty years?" "Yes," laughed the old sinner, "to this world smarter than himself." "If you can bring about what you say, I will make you a present of a pair of new shoes.'

"Agreed!" said the old witch. "This is Thursday. Meet me here again next Saturday noon and I will get the shoes.

"Well, what have you got to say?" asked the woman, calling her back.

truth, whether you like it or not!" "Well, what is it?"

hem off. anxiously.

But the sooner you do it, the better." She turned again to leave the house, when the woman called after her, asking whether there were no charges.

"No, ma'am, I take nothing for this. May God preserve you from harm!" As the old witch passed through the gate she said to herself with a chuckle: ever was any such business in our line south of Goldsboro and North of Goldsboro....

for the old man."

"Who are you?" asked the man ab-

"I am Old Mag, the country fortuneteller." "I have no business with you. Go the different lays. If it's a bit of sneak right to exclude objectionable persons. your way and let me in peace," and the man turned away from her to take up in that line, find out where they are

"I did not come here to tell you your fortune," persisted Mag, "but to warn you against certain danger." "Get out o' this! I'll not hear another word. "Well, then, be murdered, for aught I care," said Mag, turning abruptly to walk away.

"Murdered? Who talks about murder?" "I do, and so do other folks, too."

"Am I to be murdered, you say?" "Yes, you." "Who wants to murder me?"

"Nobody else but your own wife." "You're a liar, and be confounded!" "Hem! well that needs to be proved. heard people say so and I thought it ght to come and warn you. You could do well to have an eve on your exclaimed the man, almost in a fury. I heard people say so and I thought it and the breath to lose its freshness. right to come and warn you. You would do well to have an eye on your wife and to try her, anyhow."

"How will she murder me, and why?"

"She will try to cut your throat with your razor, while you are asleep, so people say, and that as soon as she gets chance. Why she wants to do it, I don't know." "I will try her," said the man sullen-

"If it is false, then I will settle with "I only tell you what I heard people say. Try her yourself and you will see. Good-day, sir." With this Mag left, saving to herself: "The old gentleman is all right, too. I will soon have my shoes. At noon, when the man went home for his dinner, he watched his wife closely. Noticing that she viewed him, now and then, in a stolen, distrustful way, he grew suspicious, and began to look and act sour and sharp. "Aha!" thought his wife, "I see the trouble coming already.'

After dinner he lay down as usual to take his nap; but this time to try his wife. Having shut his eyes he soon began to snore, and thus pretended to be most sounding asleep. His wife kept on doing her work after dinner as usual until she heard him snoring. Then she went into the room in which he wa lying on the lounge, and to find out whether he was sleeping soundly enough for ner purpose, she managed to make a noise by upsetting a chair. He did not stir, but snored away as strongly as

On tip-toe she went to the bureau. opened it cautiously, and took out her husband's razor. naving removed it from its case, she again stepped on tiptoe up to where her husband was lying. She stooped down towards him, holding the razor in her hand to cut the hair away from his throat: when, to her greatest dismay, he jumped up, seized her hand, from which the razor dropped to the floor, and in his rage hurled her into a corner of the room. The story now goes on to tell us that from this time forward the old couple never had a day of peace, so that at last they had to separate.

The next day about soon Old Mag came along the same road. She found the Devil sitting on the same stone, waiting for her. When he saw her approaching he got up, climbed over the fence, and putting the shoes to the end of a long pole, made ready to hand

"Why, old fellow, what do you mean?" laughed the witch. "Are you afraid of me?

"Indeed, I am and ought to be," answered the Devil; "you did in one day what I could not do in forty years. the nose in order to give it that bloated, That beats me! I have reason to fear | blotchy appearance so noticeable in you. Here, take your shoes; you have earned them well for your skillful and successful work.

Dear readers, I will not go bail for the truth of this story, just such as it is; but a truth it is. There are such devils in human form, that through their malice succeed in leading others into sin, thus bringing misery and death to the soul and doing what Satan himself, maybe, could not do. To such devils show the Devil that there are persons on this world smarter than himself."

as these Jesus says: "Woe to him through whom scandals come. It were better for him that a millstone were put about his neck and be cast into the sea.' -Luke 17, 2.—The Guardian Angel.

Inspector Byrnes.

Be sure to bring them along." With best-advertised man in New York?" it glued to him, his black enameled teeth, is doubtful whether one well-informed his cheeks plastered with rouge, white studying how she could best fulfill the Devil's errand. man in the first five hundred would an-and umber, his "bald wig" fastened to his head with "joining-paste," and we The next morning, Friday, she went is the advertising done in this case. It may wonder, indeed, how he can find to the farm-house "to try her luck," as is not P. T. Barnum, or Jake Sharp, or spirit or even ease to utter his words .she said. It was just as she wished. Ald. Jaenne, or Ed Stokes, or anyone Cornhill Magazine. She found the old lady alone peeling you would be likely to think of, so expotatoes for dinner, while her husband quisitely is the publicity achieved for was out in the field digging stumps. the man who gets a lion's share of it. Mag bade her good-day and then began: That man is Inspector Byrnes, of the "I am Old Mag, the country fortuneteller. Maybe you would like to have there has not been an important arrest once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's in New York city to speak of to which Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the "I have nothing to do with fortune- his name has not been attached in a poor little sufferer immediately. Depend uptellers. Clear this house immediately," heroic light. The headquarters reporter and the woman motioned to show Mag of a newspaper telephones down: "Byrnes has made a big arrest—will "Just as I expected." said Mag. "Be- give out the news at 8 o clock to-night." gives tone and energy to the whole system. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILcause I am a fortune-teller I dare not be | Somebody is sent up to get the news. | DREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is listened to, but wast be driven from the Byrnes is chatting with the superintendfemale nurses and physicians in the United house. Couldn't I foresee that you ent. The other reporters are there. States, and is for sale by all druggists throughwould treat me thus? If you will not "Follow me, gents," says the great dehear me, then bear the consequences," tective, and all the scribes do so, down thus saving she turned to leave the a narrow passage and through three swinging doors into the eminent sleuthhound's private room. You are always led into it by a roundabout way, and "Nothing, if you don't like it!" re- vet you are let out of it through one olied Mag. in a sharp tone. "How- door, plump into the main hall. That ever," she continued, softening her is part of the business. The reporters voice, "I didn't come to get angry, take seats, and produce pads and penthough I knew well enough that I would cils. The inspector lolls on a leather Wilmington - to - Washington - City be thus treated. I came to tell you the lounge. A marvelous tale of detective adventure, adroitness, perseverance, and cunning rolls from his lips. The story MONDAY, JULY 12, 1886! "There are great trials and troubles is true, and is printed with more or less waiting you. All I can say, they will completeness. That is why he is the awaiting you. All I can say, they will completeness. That is why he is the best-advertised man in New York. He ROUND TRIP $7.00! and there is only one way of turning is shrewd enough to give trustworthy information to the press interestingly. "What way?" asked the woman rather | That is next to the greatest secret of his day, July 12th, at 4 o'clock P M. Arrive success, which is that he is a born poli- at Washington Tuesday, July 13th, at 11 "It is a somewhat odd way, and you tician. He is a well-built, broad- A. M. Returning, leave Washington City may not believe in it," continued Mag. | shouldered man, of average height, with | Saturday, July 17th, at 5 P. M. Arrive When your husband is sound asleep, a round, heavy face, low forehead, pro- in Wilmington, N. C., July 18th, at 9:30 you must take his razor and cut a hair truding cheek-bones, and black, stiff A.M Giving the Excursionists four days away here from his throat," and the witch pointed to her own throat to show the woman the place.

"If it won't do any good, it will at least do no harm to try it," thought the captain of a station, then of the Broad- tol and other public buildings. Also giv-

Somebody asked Inspector Byrnes one he said, "but I tried to. It's all bloody guff—regular French funny business, got up to goose the public. If there scotland Neck " " 700 Scotland Neck " " 700 "So far my bargain is all right. Now the day for it has passed by. We don't do any stage-property, dime-novel dis-She took a round-about way, so as guising nowadays, unless it may be to closing a certain mortgage deed executed by you on the 19th day of February, 1883, and duly recorded in Book 34, page 208 him, "to warn you of a danger that is threatening you."

There's a job been done; it's such and the crooks threatening you." such a kind of a job, and it's done by an old hand, or it's clumsy and bungling, as if a greeny had done it. Well, we've got the crooks dead to rights on the train The Manager reserves the work, we look around among the crooks Good order will be maintained. and where they were when the job was Special Coaches Reserved for White People done. Then we narrow it down to one, and when when we get the dead wood on him we give him the collar. Just so chase your tickets early, as we will not we do if it's a job of any sort. Each crowd coaches. Tickets and all informa-

> What makes the breath so fragrant, pure? What makes the rosy gums endure?
> What makes the teeth so pearly white?
> What makes the mouth a dear delight?
> 'Tis SOZODONT, that precious boon
> Which none can use too late, too soon.

It Is Never Too Late to cleanse the teeth, and render the breath odoriferous with Fragrant SOZODONT.

"SPALDING's," celebrated Glue, useful

"Making Up" for the tage.

Making up the face, as it is called, is an art in itself; by it the old can be made to look young, or at least younger. and the young old. By these arts the famous Dejazet, when 80 years old could play successfully a young page. For-merly a burned cork, a piece of chalk and a pot of rouge was all that was necessary; now your well-graced actor has his "make-up" box, or dressingcase, containing stores of violet powder, Fuller's earth, chrome yellow, blue, crayons, umber, cosmetic, black enamel. "joining paste," with other pleasant

All have their purpose. Are you the hunted villain skulking from justice in the woods, you must rub your cheeks and chin thoroughly with thick blue powder, to leave the idea that you have not been able to shave for a week. Or should you be an aged crone or hag, a few blue streaks on the arms or hands suggest the well-marked veins of old age. To be par icularly youthful and lover like you must whiten your face Real Estate Agency thoroughly, rouge well up to the eyelids. and then draw a little brown streak under the eyes, which lends brilliancy. An old man has a very disagreeable task before him. He must rub his cheeks and chin well with Fuller's earth; then with a camel's hair brush proceed to make three dark streaks between the eves, with long lines from the nostrils to who contemplate seeking homes in the the corners of the month; then get on what is oddly called his "white bald wig," the bald portion of which is fixed to the forehead by "joining paste." A striking additional effect is produced by giving the effect of teeth being wanting, but with no definite description of lands which at first sight seems an almost im- or prices. possible thing to do. But in your "makeup" box you find your black enamel, with which you paint over a couple of teeth; in a few minutes it sets and hardens, and a most satisfactory and disagreeable evidence of old age is the re-

A mode of attaching whiskers was the old-fashioned one of hook ng them on to the ears. But there is an article called "crape-hair," which is gummed on there is the more rough-and-ready mode comedy characters, such as Bardolph, etc., it is necessary to alter the shape of drunkards. You must first gum on to the end of the nose a piece of wool, press it down to the shape and size required, then powder it well with rouge to match the rest of the nose and cheeks. The cheeks may also be enlarged in the same way. The other, and, perhaps, the better way, is to take a little powder, mix it with water, and work it up into dough, fix it to the nose with a spirit gum, mold it to the shape and size required, and then powder it with rouge to match the cheeks, etc. Blotches, warts and pimples may be made by sticking on small pieces of wool and coloring them either brown or red."

We may thus fancy our unhappy actor complete, his woolen nose stuck on with If anyone were to ask, "Who is the gum, his eyebrows and whiskers well

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and

FIFTH GRAND

— And - Return! —

Special Train leaves Wilmington Mon-"Just as you think." answered Mag. way squad, and next of the central office wisit Congress, now in session.

Special arrangements have been day if he had ever read the life of Vid- made to have Round Trip Washington ocq, the great Parisian detective. "No," tickets sold for this train from points

South of Goldsboro, to Washington City and return..... Wilmington to Washington City and return Morehead City to Goldsboro and return

Parties taking other than the said train will be charged regular fare. A Refreshment Car will be attached to Remember the Day and Date. Purman has his own line, and we know the men in each line."—Cor. Utica Observer. Agents or the undersigned. Tickets also for sale at C. W. Yates' Book Store. W. H. HOWE, Manager, No. 1022 McRae St., Wilmington, N. C.

Ho! For The Mountains

The Seashore!

Centre store under Opera House.

Miscellaneous. CATARRH Gives Relief at once and Cures COLD in HEAD CATARRH, HAY FEVER Not a Liquid, Snuff or Powder. Free from injurious agreeable. Price 50c. at Druggists; by mail, registered, 60 cts. Circulars free. ELY BROTHERS, Druggists, Owego, N. Y.

THE MESSENGER

GOLDSBORO, N. C. Our recent articles on immigration, designed to induce Northern capitalists and settlers with means to invest and locate in North Carolina, has brought in quite a number of letters of inquiry from parties South, asking for description of places for sale. We have also had numerous offers from land owners who wish to dispose of portions, or all, of their surplus lands,

This has induced us to establish the Messenger -: - Real -: - Estate -: - Agency in connection with this office, and our MR. J. HOWARD BROWN will give to this department his personal supervision.

In order to reach the desired class we have arranged to run an advertisement in some 1000 newspapers in the Northern to the cheeks, and when dry can be and Western States, offering to mail spec-As regards the nose there is an elegant way of treatment, namely by fitting on a well modeled paper-macke one; but there is the more rough-and-ready mode trimmed and combed like real whiskers. Imen copies of the MESSENGER and to furhope to reach the most desirable class of of dealing with it. We read in one of people and to bring the advantages of the text-books on the subject the follow- North Carolina before the very people ing grave directions: "in some low- who seek homes in the South. The MESsenger will also be placed on file in a large number of Hotels, public Reading Rooms and Real Estate Exchanges in other States, and thus the advertisements of all wishing to sell lands will receive the greatest publicity.

Our advertising rates are $5.00 for a two inch advertisement, to be inserted in our weekly edition every alternate week, for three months. In addition to this we will enter the lands so offered upon our printed circulars containing list of lands for sale by the Agency, and endeavor to secure a purchaser by giving these circulars a large distribution.

We invite correspondence with land owners in all parts of the State, as our shall give no preference to any section. The mountains present attractions for some, the middle section for others, and the seaboard, for still others. We are now in correspondence with parties looking for large tracts for colonization, and with manufacturers seeking factory privileges and inducements for investing capital on joint account with established or projected enterprises. We also expect to organize excursions from the North and West of farmers and others wishing to visit North Carolina, and shall afford them unusual facilities direct them especially to the lands listed and advertised by this Agency.

The Messenger Publishing C.mrany, Real Estate Department.

J. HOWARD BROWN.

L.D. GIDDENS in plain figures. Goldsboro, N C., WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER

My work the past 20 years is ample may be expected in the future, and you satisfactory. of Clinton, a Watchmaker of skill and experience, assists me

-MY STOCK OF-Jewelry, Watches, and Silverware, 7 00 is first-class and is offered at hard times

Thankful for past liberal patronage I respectfully solicit a continuance of the L. D. GIDDENS.

ATTENTION!

Having received the agency for the

for the counties of Wayne, Sampson, Duplin, Greene, Lenoir and Johnston, we would respectfully invite the attention of Ginners and Farmers to their usefulness. They are highly recommended and

SUPPLY A LONG-FELT WANT. Every Ginner and Farmer should have For prices and particulars call on or

HENRY LEE & CO.,

Wholesale Grocers.

Goldsboro, N O

Lagrange Collegiate Institute

LAGRANGE, N. C.

Prepares for Colleges and the niversity.

Modern Languages a specialty

Four teachers and two assistants. One of the best and cheapest chools in the State.

For Catalogue containing full particulars, address the Principal.

A. R. MORGAN, LaGrange, N. C.

THE NEW ARLINGTON HOTEL,

A First class Summer and Winter Resort. Large, well Ventilated Rooms. Appointments all Modern. Cuisine second to none in the State House a half square from Depot. Rates from $2.00 to $2.50 per day. Parties en route to Mountain or Seashore should make the ARLINGTON a resting place. L. A. DODD, Proprietor.

GREAT REMNANT SALE! To Last Only Two Weeks.

AT ONE FOURTH THE ORIGINAL PRICE.

To close out our Stock of Remnants we have concluded to offer for sale, for 2 weeks. Agency is for the whole State, and we commencing Monday. May 24th, our entire stock of remnants in Dry Goods, consisting of > Cashmeres, Silks, Buntings, Nunsveiling, Mohairs, Lawns, Prints and White Goods.

At 25 Cents on the Dollar of the Original Price.

This is a rare chance to buy BARGAINS. Those who call early will be able to select the choicest goods at a nominal price.

Every piece of goods will be marked with number of yards it contains and selling price

Respectfully,

H. WEIL & BROS.

to do all sorts of repairing of Watches and Jewelry, and guarantee satisfaction

Owing to the recent fire at my old stand I am temporarily located in the Weil Building, next door to L. D. Giddens, and in order to reduce my stock before moving back to my old stand, which is now undergoing repairs, I will sell Simpson Prints at 5 cents per yard; Checks at 61 cents per yard; Rockingham Sheeting at 6 cents will find my prices per yard; Hess' Shoes at $5.50-that sold at $6.50; Cutaway and Square Cut Suits at $18.00—that sold at $22.50; and all other goods at reduced rates in proportion.

Mr. Frank Giddens, Goldsboro, N. C., may31-tf J. D. FARRIOR.

New Crop New Orleans Molasses! BEST GRADES OF SYRUP!

Best Grades of FLOUR. COFFEE and SEED IRISH POTATOES, CANNED FRUITS and VEGETABLES Staple and Fancy Groceries, Royster's Fine Candies, Tubs, Buckets, Crockery, Glass and Tin Ware, Cheap for Cash!

WILLIS EDMUNDSON'S NEW GROCERY STORE,

KORNEGAY BUILDING, WALNUT STREET.

N. C. Phosphate Dr. W. H. FINLAYSON, COPROLITE MANURE Keeps pure and Fresh Drugs and Brown's Best and Cheapest Pertilizer Discovered

Building Lime and Agricultural Lime. Send for Circular and Prices. FRENCH BRON., Rocky Point, N. C.

Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help all, of either sex, to make more money right away than anything else in this world Fortunes await the workers absolutely sure. Terms mailed free. TRUE & Co., Augusta, Main nov9-ly

Goldsboro, N. C.,

I will sell Patent Medicines ten per cent less than usual price.

Call on me; I am always about my place of business, and will take pleasure in waiting on any one in need of anything in my line. Respectfully, dec10-tf Dr. W. H. FINLAYSON

WHITE MOUNTAIN Ice Cream Freezers!

Sold very low, at HUGGINS & FREEMAN'S