Joseph Opperman, of Galveston, Texas, 37 years of age, died Sunday. His father was away on his wedding trip, and it is said that the son was in love with the lady whom his father married.

Serious damage is being done to the hop crop of Central New York by vermin and the blight known as shoney dew. The hops are not yet in the blow, and the full extent of the damage cannot yet be told.

Dr. Amos N. Bellinger, who killed Stephen Reilly, a prominent colored democrat in Charleston, S. C., in October, 1885, was committed to the charge of murder Thursday after a second trial, continuing three days.

The St. Regis and Coughawaga Indians, professional champions and ex-champions respectively of Canada, played a very exciting game of lacrosse at St. George, Staten Island, Friday. The St. Regis won by 3 goals to 0.

A telegram from Shelburne, N. S., states that the Dominion cruiser Terror has formally seized the Portland fishing schooner City Point, which was forcibly detained at Shelburne Thursday for an alleged violation of the fisheries treaty.

In no other medical preparation have the result of the most intelligent study and scientific inquiry been so steadily and progressively utilized as in Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases.

At Wilmington, Del., Saturday, Charles Reynolds, proprietor of the Malta House, was dangerously stabbed by a stranger giving the name of Edward Burns. Reynolds was endeavoring to eject Burns from his saloon. Burns was drunk.

Judge Deady at Portland, Oregon, Thursday decided that one common carrier cannot be forced to do business for another. This settles the controversy between the Northern Pacific Express company and Wells, Fargo & Co., and bars the latter company from the Northern Pacific road.

The committee which has been conducting the impeachment trial of Alderman Theodore Rudzinski, of Milwaukee, on the charge of having made incendiary speeches to mobs during the recent labor troubles, has decided to recommend a vote of censure, but that he be permitted to retain his seat.

Advices from Belgrade, the capital of Servia, say that the Servia peasantry generally are rioting. They refuse to pay the taxes levied since the unsuccessful war against Bulgaria, and ill-treat the tax collectors. Their hostility to King Milan's government is continually fermented by the opposite party.

One hundred and twenty five of the passengers of the Italian steamer Iniziativa, which arrived at New York Thursday, were transferred to Hoffman Island, in the lower bay, owing to the fact that the small pox patient who was taken to the hospital Thursday had not been insulated from the rest of the passengers.

Hon. Theodore Hart, member of the Pennsylvania legislature and editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette, was convicted of libel at Wilkes-Barre Friday. The libel complained of was published some months ago, to the effect that a Mrs. Patrick Hart, residing near Pittsburgh, on account of the unhappiness of her married life, had attempted suicide.

About the first of June in Barren county, S. C., John A. Steedly was publicly cowded by W. T. Connelly and A. L. Ott, for circulating slanders derogatory about Connelly's sister Emma. At Hunter's Chapel Church Sunday, while the Sunday-school was in session, Steedly was shot and killed by Emma Connelly, who gave herself up to the authorities after the shooting.

The failure figures for the six months just closed are surprisingly favorable in view of the adverse conditions which have prevailed in trade circles. Messrs. R. G. Dun & Co. state that for the first six months of 1886 the failures amounted in number to 5,106, as against 6,004 first six months of 1885. The liabilities of the failures amounted to $30,434,000 for the first half of 1886, as against $74,722,000 for the first half of 1885, showing a decline in the number of failures of $48, and in amount of liabilities $24,288,000.

A dispatch from Pittsburg says intelligence was received there Thursday of the arrest in Washington of Peter Zingerle, a crank who left there Tuesday with the avowed purpose of killing the French minister, Lewis Theodore Roustan. Zingerle is a Frenchman, and for some time past has imagined that Minister Roustan had wronged him. The Washington authorities were notified to be on the lookout for Zingerle, and on Wednesday evening he was discovered lurking about the minister's residence with a loaded revolver in his possession. He was arrested and is now in jail at Washington.

THE PYTHIANS.

KINSTON ITEMS.

Borrowed From the New Berne Journal.

Crops in this section are reported to be doing and looking unusually fine, and so to be weeds and grass.

It is distressingly dry in Lenoir county at this time. Just now there is not a liquor saloon in the county.

"Old John Frosty," one of Kinston's exiled bar-keepers, has turned up in his old business at White Hall, in Wayne county.

J. A. Mathews, Esq., recently prohibited from doing business at Kinston, has opened a saloon at Bell's Ferry, in Pitt county.

Chas. F. Dunn and Owen W. Parrott, late in the whiskey business here, are at their old places, furnishing customers with pork, flour and other groceries without even the smell of red liquor.

The universal crank, with a pocket edition of a book, "How to teach people to attend to their own business," was in Kinston last week. He gave away several of his books to prominent Kinstonians.

E. P. Mangum, A. M., has been engaged to teach with L. L. Chestnut and Miss Cynthia Tull in Kinston Institute. Mr. Mangum graduated at Chapel Hill in 1885 and has since taken a post-graduate course.

Political aspirants with red nose are not seeking nominations this year for the legislature. Prohibition, if it destroys trade in Raleigh, will, at least improve the personal appearance of our legislature. So compensation is found in all things.

Our old campaigner, Lewis Grady, "turned State" evidence, and went over to the prohibitionists in our recent local option election. However, before doing so, in expectation of getting the prohibition nomination for sheriff, he providently laid aside 301 bottles of red liquor for campaign finances.

Judges J. G. Price, a distinguished magistrate of the Neck township, recently joined in holy wedlock a loving couple, using the identical ceremony by which President Cleveland was made twin. The Judge says the ways of the President, in everything, are worthy of all imitation and adoption.

Knowing our liability to rheumatism, Dr. Joseph P. Cummings, kindly furnished us with a small Irish potato to be carried constantly in our pocket. During the recent wet weather there has been going on in our system a "h-l of a time" between the potato and the rheumatism, with victory, thanks to the doctor, on the part of the potato. All hail to the Irish potato!

THE TURN OF THE TIDE.

Let the people thank God and take courage. The Washington D. C. Star says:

"Mr. Cleveland will beat everybody in 1888," said representative Miller, of Texas, to a Star reporter the other day. "Public opinion is in his favor, and no one can beat him. If the election occurred this fall he would be elected by an immense majority."

"Will he be strong in the convention?" asked the Star.

"Yes. Machine politicians can't succeed in a fight against well defined public sentiment. With Mr. Carlisle second on the ticket they would get the largest majority ever given to any ticket."

There is considerable talk of this sort among democrats in the House. It seems to be acknowledged on all sides that the turn of the tides towards Mr. Cleveland's re-nomination, and that already it has got out of the control of the politicians.

A BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVING

REPRESENTING

20 TWENTY 20 PORTRAITS 20

OF THE MOST FAMOUS

Confederate Commanders.

THE ENGRAVING IS

Magnificently Executed and Tastefully Wrought in 6 Colors.

The portraits of the commanders are clear and striking, accurate and life-like. They were produced by eminent artists from photographs furnished by the surviving heroes, and by the relatives and friends of those deceased. The engraving is superb in the display of art, clear and vivid in outline, and the grouping of the portraits at once convince the mind that the artist possessed an originality of conception never before equalled.

The Historic Gray Uniform, the Gold Buttons, Stars and Braid on Collar, (denoting rank), stand out in bold relief from the beautiful back ground, each portrait is made in imitation of a large Imperial Cabinet Photograph (4 x 6 inches), distinct in every respect from the portraits surrounding it, yet so superior in conception, execution and harmony of colors that it defies criticism.

The Commanders represented on the engraving are:

- Robert E. Lee, T. J. (Stonewall) Jackson, G. T. Beauregard, Fitzhugh Lee, Joseph E. Johnston, A. S. Johnston, Stirling Price, J. A. Early, J. B. Hood, R. S. Ewell, James Longstreet, Wade Hampton, W. J. Hardie, A. P. Hill, J. E. B. Stuart, Braxton Bragg, E. Kirby Smith, J. C. Breckinridge, Leonidas Polk and Admiral Raphael Semmes.

Only a few of these great heroes are now living, and all of them were great, as Commanders of the Armies of the Confederacy, and they thus became endeared to the hearts of the people of the South. Every Confederate Veteran served under one or more of these Gallant Leaders, and they and every true Southern Patriot should possess one of these elegant souvenirs. The engraving is appropriate for the parlor, library, hall or office, and will compare favorably with the finest paintings.

The Portraits are Printed on one sheet of Heavy Plate Paper, beautifully Tinted (ready for framing), size, 22 x 29 inches, and will be sent to any address on receipt of Price, $2.00.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

- The portraits represented on your engraving, are regarded as the best, of the Confederate Generals, which have been issued. Very respectfully, WADE HAMPTON. The likenesses are good.—G. T. BEAUREGARD. The portraits of the Confederate Leaders represented on your engraving are good.—JAMES LONGSTREET. The likenesses are excellent.—FITZHUGH LEE.
