GOLDSBORO, N. C. THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1886.

LEARNINGS HERE AND ELSEWHERE.

A large party of Raleigh people will go to Morehead next Saturday.

Robt. J. Oliver, of the Milton Advertiser has sold that paper to E. W. Faucett, its editor.

The Harnett county convention instructed its delegates to cast the votes of that county in the State convention for Hon. Geo. V. Strong for Supreme Court Judge.

Mr. J. R. Ray has been re-commissioned as State organizer of the Knights of Labor for this State. He is one of the first to be re-commissioned since the Cleveland convention, all having been revoked by that convention.

We publish to-day the address of President Battle, delivered before the graduating class of the South Carolina College, at Columbia. We are quite sure that it will be read with both interest and profit everywhere in North Carolina.

The first anniversary of the North Carolina Baptist orphanage, at Thomasville, will be celebrated July 28th. Rev. J. L. Carroll, D. D., of Asheville, will preach the sermon. Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of Wilmington, and Rev. J. D. Hufham, D. D., of Scotland Neck, will deliver addresses.

One of the last batch of pension votes, says the Carolinian, is that of James Carroll, and was put on the ground at the time the claimant received his wound he was engaged in plundering the neighborhood of Watanga, N. C., and was hunted down by the home guards. That will make Watanga sore for Cleveland.

Mr. H. Mahler, of Raleigh, this year shipped grapes five days earlier than last season. His first shipment was made last Tuesday, to Boston. The variety of grape shipped was the Talmon. His vineyard is made beautiful by a rich crop of grapes and the product thereof has a reputation in the New York and New England markets.

A negro living with Mr. John Coppedge near Wadesboro, is suffering with imaginary hydrophobia. He has terrible spasms, foams at the mouth and gnashes his teeth. He has not been bitten by a dog of any kind, but has all the symptoms of a well developed case of that fearful malady and is expected to die of his imaginary complaint.

A handsome and elegantly arranged observation car has been placed on the Western North Carolina Railroad between Asheville and Old Fort. This car affords a fine opportunity for passengers to view the beautiful mountain scenery in crossing the Blue Ridge. The wheels of the car are made of paper, and its construction is something new on the western road.

The signers of the call for the convention of Northern Settlers to be held in Raleigh some time during the next State Fair, request all Northern Settlers in the State to write to Mr. J. T. Patrick, State Agent of Immigration, giving the name of the State from which they came and if they desire copies of invitations sent to friends in the North to give their names and post office address, also.

New banks have been established at the following places in North Carolina, during the past month. Asheville—French Broad Bank, cap. $20,000. C. E. Graham, Pres.; Wm. E. Breese, Treas. High Point—National Bank of High Point, No. 3-490; cap. $50,000. Wyatt J. Arnold, Pres.; C. W. Worth, Cash. Mount Airy—Planters' Bank, cap. $25,000. J. M. Matthews, Pres.; G. D. Hensley, Cash.

Raleigh has had two baby shows and very jolly affairs they were. The first was held Thursday evening at Tucker Hall and the last Saturday, at same place. At the latter place fourteen children were displayed. Master Wm. R. Pace was the male winner and Miss Carrie Woodard the female. One was given a silver knife and fork and the other a gold ring. Both baby shows were under the auspices of the Governor's Guard.

Recently, says the News-Observer, there have been several attempts made to wreck trains on the North Carolina Railroad near Walnut creek, south of the city. Train No. 50, from Goldsboro Friday, ran against a tie which had been laid on the track, but it was not sufficiently near the middle of the track to do any damage. No. 51, the same day, in turning a curve at the same place, saw another tie on the track. The train was stopped and the obstructions removed.

The Argus of Tuesday says: The sad intelligence reached this city by telegram yesterday of the death, at her home in Faribault, Minn., of Mrs. J. B. Moll, aged about 43 years. Mrs. Moll was a sister of our esteemed countryman, Mr. N. H. Gurley, of Fork township, where she was married to her home there, soon after the late war, and moved with her husband to Minnesota. She was a most estimable lady, and her death will be deeply deplored by a wide circle of relatives and friends in this section.

To-day will be a gala day in Raleigh. On the various lines of railway some days ago handbills were circulated, extending an invitation to participate in the installation of the buildings at the State Experiment Farm, by the Governor, assisted by the Grand Master of Masons, F. H. Busbee. The arrangements made are complete. The procession for the fair grounds at 9:30 a. m. The speaking commences at 10 a. m. The corner-stone will be laid by the Governor and Grand Master. After the exercises of laying the stone addresses will be delivered by Gov. Scales, Mr. Randolph Harrison, commissioners of agriculture, Virginia, Mr. Montford McGehee, and commissioners of other States and also members of the State board of agriculture and other prominent gentlemen. At 12:30 the regular exercises will close and the young people will have dances and other amusements, making a people's midsummer holiday. The large buildings of the State exposition and the agricultural society will be thrown open to visitors and an abundance of ice water will be provided free of charge. Various refreshments will be for sale. There will be no charge for admittance. The Governor's Guards will attend in a body. Jackson's silver cornet band will furnish the music. Special round-trip rates have been secured.

Gen. Cox's strength two years ago in the Wake county convention was about thirty-five. The News-Observer thinks that he has now at least ten votes more than he then had.

GOLDSBORO JOTTINGS.

Personal Mention and Items of Interest at Home.

JUDICIAL Convention at Smithfield to-day.

The Baptist Sunday School is now held in the morning.

MR. GEO. W. BUCHER is on a visit to his family in Baltimore.

MISS MARY (John) HILL is visiting friends in Petersburg, Va.

MISS FLORA WHITLOCK, of Tarboro, is visiting Miss Hattie Spier.

MISS MARY E. ROBINSON is on a visit to relatives in Kinston.

MISS MELBA ALLEN is on a visit to her grandmother in Petersburg, Va.

MISS MARY H. ROBINSON is visiting Dr. Geo. J. Robinson, at Smithfield.

REV. DR. THEO. WHITFIELD, of Newbern, was in the city on Monday.

We regret to learn that Mrs. W. W. Slocumb has been quite sick for some days.

MRS. A. B. HOLLOWELL and children are visiting relatives in Nash county.

AN excursion from Durham to Wilmington passed through here Tuesday afternoon.

MISS MARY PAGE, of Moore county, is visiting Miss Lizzie Giddens, on her way to Toisnot, N. C.

A COLORED excursion from Wilmington, about six hundred strong, visited the city Monday.

A PARTY at Mr. Jacob Rosenthal's Tuesday evening was greatly enjoyed by the young people in attendance.

DISINFECTANTS may be secured at the Mayor's office, without charge. Go and get a supply and use liberally.

THE dollar excursion of Messrs. Hollowell & Peterson to Morehead City Tuesday morning was quite largely attended.

We are pleased to learn that Col. I. F. Dortch, who was taken sick while on a visit to his family in Raleigh, continues to improve.

NINETY-NINE persons visited the Eastern Colored Insane Asylum on Monday—the day of the colored excursion from Wilmington.

NEXT Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, Rev. Dr. L. S. Burkhead will hold services in the street near Mr. D. Creech's store, in Webbto'wn.

MR. R. D. HOLT is busily engaged in replacing some of his old wooden stores near the market with brick ones. This is commendable enterprise.

REV. DR. BURKHEAD'S out door Sunday afternoon services, at the foot of James street, are largely attended and we hope will be productive of much good.

CAPT. W. T. HOLLOWELL and Mr. E. B. Borden, Jr., were the first of the Canada excursionists to return. They got back Monday evening and report that they had a splendid trip.

THE old and dilapidated stables, now unoccupied, located east of Borden, Jones & Co., are unsightly, and moreover a standing danger to valuable property in that locality. They ought to be removed.

MR. JOHN T. EDMUNDSON and family left yesterday morning on a visit to Greene county. We hope that John, whose health has not been good for some time, will be greatly benefited by a sojourn among the pines of his native county.

ON account of the large number of cases already on the criminal docket for the term of court which begins next Monday, all civil suits have been continued to the next term. This was done at a meeting of the Bar last Monday morning. Therefore, the presence of witnesses in civil suits will not be required week after next.

WORK was commenced Monday morning on the wind-mill near Little river bridge, which is being erected by the North Carolina Railroad for the purpose of pumping water into their tank at the above named location. We understand that it is to be 125 feet high. This is the mill that Joe Robinson and Jim Hollowell have been talking about for a long while.

THE Methodist Advance is now ready for business. The first two numbers, under the management of Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, have made their appearance, and if the paper is kept up to the high standard of the initial numbers it will deserve great success. We believe that it will grow better. We wish the Advance and its editors full measure of prosperity. Price $2.00 per year, in advance.

SOME of the congregation at the Methodist church Sunday, were stuck to the benches. We were among the number and we can't say that we like to have our attention riveted in that way, but that is to be expected, but we are bound, and you could not have heard a pin drop as we tore loose our Sunday coat from the tenacity of that seat's back. We suppose that something will be done to remedy this annoyance.

THE firm of Fonvielle & Sauls, grocers and shoe dealers, has been dissolved by the withdrawal of Mr. I. B. Fonvielle. The business will be continued at the same stand by Mr. I. S. D. Sauls, who has our best wishes for a prosperous business. We know nothing of Mr. Fonvielle's intentions but indulge the hope that he will soon be engaged in some profitable enterprise in our city. We don't want to lose such a clever and enterprising citizen.

A PLEASANT time is in store for the young people and for all who may attend the Lawn Party to be given tomorrow (Friday) evening, by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, in the delightful grove in front of Dr. W. J. Jones' residence. There will be an abundance of good things and they will be dispensed at considerations in keeping with the average summer excquer. So, you see, it will not cost you much to write one of the fair sex to accompany you in your strolls near the overhanging boughs, admiring with you the beauties of the starry firmament and join you in partaking of the delicacies that will be served upon the occasion. You will have a good time. Go!

THE ladies of the Methodist church will give a social, at the parsonage, this (Thursday) evening. Ice cream and other things of like nature will prove very palatable this warm weather, and we hope the ladies will have the pleasure of serving a large number.

CAPT. T. W. SLOCUMB informs us that a special train will be run over the Midland road to-day for the accommodation of delegates to the Judicial Convention and any others who may wish to go to Smithfield. The train will leave here at 10 o'clock, a. m., and returning will leave Smithfield at 3 o'clock, p. m. The fare for the round trip is $1.40. The kindness of the Wilmington & Weldon authorities in running this special, will, no doubt, be highly appreciated by the delegates.

SCOTT'S CRIME.

Sheriff Denson Arrives with a Requisition.

Sheriff S. J. Denson, of Hamilton county, Kansas, arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon with a requisition for the colored man, Henry T. Scott, who was arrested several days since by Sheriff Grantham. Scott is charged with the murder of his father, near Kendall, Kansas, and the horrible deed is said to have occurred about the first of this month. Scott was known as Henry Brown out there and his true name, together with information that led to his arrest at this place, was obtained from a younger brother, who is confined in the jail at Syracuse as an accomplice in this crime.

Sheriff Denson had been away from his home for several weeks and knew but little of the particulars of the tragedy. From what we can gather, it seems that there was a conspiracy by the brothers to kill the father in order to obtain money with which to remove to other parts. After the death of the old man, suspicion pointed to foul play and his body was taken up for examination, when it was found that he had been shot in the head with a pistol ball. We understand it, the younger brother charges Henry with the shooting. Sheriff Denson will leave to-day, with his prisoner, for Kansas.

LETTER FROM FREMONT.

Editor Messenger:—I think that it has been conceded that this section of the county is entitled to the next Sheriff. We have a man that is fitted in every capacity for that office, with business qualities sufficient, firm in what we believe to be right, liberal enough, though he knows how far to go, and when to say yes, or no.

He has a kind and generous feeling for his fellowman and would not oppress any one willingly, but would strenuously endeavor to make all pay their taxes, therefore making the burden equally upon all. He would make a sheriff that the people would esteem and love. Being too modest to bring himself forward, or make any exertions for the office, we announce his name in the person of B. F. Aycock. With Dortch for Congress, and Aycock for Sheriff, this county would be fully aroused from centre to circumference, and would poll one of the largest votes it ever has.

Crops are improving rapidly since the rains and if seasonable from now out may come in very well.

Mr. M. T. Johnston is putting up a new store house.

The well borer is in town looking after good water.

Our merchants have been gloomy over the crop prospects, but their faces are beginning to brighten again, since the rain has ceased, and they are issuing more orders.

Our present beef man is the one who a few years ago, in a case here, called for Turner's Almanac to show Judge Faircloth the law bearing on the case. He wound the Judge up.

WRECK OF THE SCHOONER LEW WILLIS.

Our correspondent from Nags Head sends us the following account of the recent disaster:

On the 13th inst., about 12 a. m. the Schooner, Lew Willis, capt. John Shannon carrying the mail between Nags Head, Manteo, Roanoke Island and Elizabeth City, was capsized and two lives lost, a young lady and child. She had on board sixteen passengers, and when she capsized her boat took on as they thought all of the passengers and left. The boats from the Revenue Cutter Stevens then put off for the wreck and found the girl which they immediately took on board the Cutter and for two hours worked hard to resuscitate but without avail.

While this was going on, on board the Steamer, the officers and men of the boats crew were having quite an exciting time at the wreck.

On their return to the wreck, Ed. Mayo Pilot rapped on the boats bottom and thought that he heard a voice in answer, which was reported to the officer in charge, who then rapped and gave a very weak answer. Now came the order to cut a hole in the vessel's bottom and get them out. After cutting a hole in the bottom, they got an answer from the cabin. 'How many in there?' 'Three, but all drowned but me.' Then, after hard work, the bulkhead was forced and a woman found hanging to the birth with both hands, with chain just above water. She was a cripple and had not any use of her lower limbs. So a sailor told her how to place her hands on his shoulders and he swam from the cabin through the hole of the vessel to the hatch, where eager and willing hands pulled her up and carried her to the Cutter, where everything was done for her that could be until she was completely recovered. She was in the water and in this position for three hours and in this position for three hours and in this position for three hours.

Too much praise cannot be bestowed on officers and men for their efforts, as it was a hazardous undertaking, the wind and sea being very heavy.

The name of the rescued lady is Miss L. Willie Evans, of Manteo, Roanoke Island.

SOUND SENSE.

Cornelius—Why, Tom, you must be fixing to get married soon, to buy as many goods as this dull season of the year?

Tom—No idea of it yet, as Nellie told me I can't have her till Xmas but you see M. SUMMERFIELD & Co. are advertising their closing out sale, and I have taken advantage of it and bought these Goods for my few dollars—the best investment I ever made.

FOR THE SUMMER—Another line of very pretty patterns in Seersucker, Calicoes and Lawns, just received at HINSHAW'S.

DIED.

In Goldsboro, N. C., July 13th, 1886, little USA HAYWOOD, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Parker, aged one year, two months and eighteen days. The little babe suffered greatly for two months with cholera infantum. Its anxious mother did everything within her power to alleviate the suffering of her precious jewel, and if it were possible, to restore it to health; but He who "doeth all things well" claimed her for His own.

Her mother bled by weeping. Above thy darling sleeping, Nor fret with aught of earthly grief the stillness where she lies. Flowers in her little fingers. Where the rosy flush still lingers. For the angels are her playmates. On the plains of Paradise. July 19, 1886. HAYWOOD.
