Among those who have already secured dates are such well-known favorites as Milton Nobles, The Strangers of Paris, the celebrated Patti Rosa, the Michael Stragoff and Minnet Carnival Co., Kate Castleton, Barry & Pay, Myra Goodwin, Florence Brindley, Oliver Dond Byron, Countess Rhea, Frederick Ward, and others.

KNIGHTS of Honor, loan us your ears! In conformity with the new law in regard to Assessments, notices will be issued on the first of each month of the number of Assessments required, and these must be paid on or before the last day of the month.

This accounts for the issuing of a call for two Assessments on the first of this month and we have been requested to make this explanation for the benefit of all concerned.

The new arrangement secures regularity, if nothing more. Only one call per month, and that on the first day, with the last day of the month as the last day of grace.

OUR citizens will have the opportunity this (Thursday) evening for enjoying a Lawn Party and for indulging in reasonable delicacies at moderate prices.

The affair, which will take place in front of Gen. W. G. Lewis' residence, on William street, and will be given by the ladies of the Episcopal church. Money is needed to help defray the expense of the handsome tower which is now in course of erection and we bespeak for the ladies a liberal patronage.

Go with your sweethearts, go with your wives, go with your children and participate in the enjoyment of the evening and thus assist the ladies in their laudable enterprise.

OUR NEXT FAIR. The Premium List Ready for Distribution.

The Premium List of the third annual exhibition of the Eastern Carolina Fair and Stock Association has just been issued from the MESSENGER presses, and the Secretary is busily engaged in circulating them throughout Eastern Carolina, besides mailing many to other parts of the State and other sections of the country.

It is more than probable that the names of some who take an interest in the Fair will be missed in the distribution, and to any and all such we would say that the Secretary will cheerfully and promptly furnish a copy upon application.

The premiums cover a wide range, embracing farm, garden and orchard products, live stock, pantry supplies, poultry, manufacturer's textiles, ladies' fancy work, painting, drawing, floriculture, etc.

The most valuable premiums are, very properly, placed in the agricultural department, $25.00 being offered for the largest yield of cotton upon one acre; $10.00 for second largest. Also $20.00 for largest yield of cotton upon one acre without the aid of fertilizer.

There are $10.00 premiums for corn, wheat, tobacco, and baled crabgrass, and $5.00 premiums for oats, rye, rice, potatoes, etc.

Valuable premiums are offered in the live stock department, both for thoroughbreds and other than thoroughbreds. Pantry supplies and ladies' work generally receive marked attention.

The premiums offered by the association number over six hundred and fifty, and these are supplemented by one hundred and thirty special premiums offered mainly by the business men of Goldsboro.

The purses for the races aggregate $1,025, there being two purses of $225 each, one for trotting and one for running.

Excursion rates to the fair will be extended by all the railroads entering the city, and it is the purpose of the managers to secure, if possible, excursion trains at very low rates of fare.

Special attention will be paid to securing regularity in the running of the train between the grounds and the city.

Remember the dates and do not confuse them with those of other fairs. The Goldsboro Fair will be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, November 3rd, 4th and 5th, 1886.

Strenuous efforts will be exerted to make this the largest, grandest and most successful fair ever held in this section of the State.

Again we urge the people of this entire section, and especially the ladies and farmers, to co-operate with the managers in the accomplishment of this result.

A VOICE FROM THE DEMOCRACY. GOLDSBORO, N. C., Aug. 2, '86.

Editor Messenger:—As a Democrat I am curious to know why it is that Mr. John H. Hill, our Democratic Postmaster of this city, still retains the two Republican clerks in that office, viz: Messrs. J. Newton Green and J. M. Swaringen.

Mr. Hill has had charge of our post office for nearly twelve months, and yet he retains these men in his employ. Is it possible that with a "city full" of true, tried and efficient Democrats, young and old, he can't find two who are competent to be put into that office as his clerks?

As far as I know he has not had even one Democrat in training for a clerkship in his office since he took charge. CITIZEN.

PRO-OR-ANTI.—Our prices are the same to both. At Einstein's Dry Goods Emporium.

NOTICE.

Mr. H. T. McLeod is no longer authorized to act as Agent for this Office, to receive money, or to transact any business for the MESSENGER. Messrs. R. M. JOHNSON and BRYAN W. COBB are, for the present, our only travelling representatives.

SAMPSON JOTTINGS.

Paragraphs Caught on the Fly by our Clinton Reporter.

County democratic convention September 1st.

Judge Boykin leaves this week for the eighth Judicial district.

Mrs. Dolly McCullin, of this county, has recently celebrated her one hundredth birthday.

Some of our farmers are cutting tobacco. The crop is considerably injured.

An election will be called in Clinton at an early date, for the purpose of extending the corporate limits of the town.

Mr. Jas. T. Murphy, who holds a position in the Treasury Department at Washington, arrived here last Sunday, and will spend a few days with friends and relatives in Clinton.

Mr. Murphy is accompanied by his wife. Great dissatisfaction is expressed at the manner in which the chairman of the county executive committee was chosen last Saturday.

Who is responsible for such unusual proceedings, Mr. Chairman? The refreshing rains that have visited various sections of our county within the past few days have greatly improved crops, and revived the drooping spirits of the farmers.

Everybody feels decidedly encouraged at the present outlook.

Many Sampsonians are attending the Fruit Fair at Fayetteville. No town in the State surpasses old Fayetteville in hospitality, and all visitors there are assured of a most cordial welcome.

We know the fair will be a grand success.

The gratifying intelligence reaches us that Duplin county, in her primary meetings Saturday last, elected a committee of delegates who favor Col. Green's re-nomination.

People will appreciate the services of a good and true man. Wharton J. Green will most assuredly be returned to Congress.

Never in our experience have we seen a convention so quiet, so orderly, so harmonious as the one assembled in Clinton last Saturday.

Composed almost entirely of the hard-working yeomanry of old Sampson, its proceedings were characterized by a unanimity of feeling quite unusual in this day of discord and dissatisfaction.

Every township in the county was represented, and the endorsement of Hon. Wharton J. Green, without a dissenting voice, by these representatives of the democratic party, was a fitting and deserved compliment to an honest, high-minded, manly North Carolinian.

The farmers of the Third Congressional District have in Col. Green, a true and tried friend; he has ever endeavored to advance the agricultural interests of the country, and to protect, in every particular, the laboring man.

What man in the district has done as much? Farmers! workmen! you whose labors deserve the richest reward, look after your interests; trust them with one who fully sympathizes with you, and who feels and knows that you are the very life of our country, and with one accord, rise in your majesty, and place your standard in the hands of him who has already successfully borne it to victory twice, and again with his accustomed zeal and ardor will he enter the field, and the victory is yours. DIED.

In Grantham township, Wayne county, N. C., on Monday night, August 2d, the little son of Wm. M. and Etta Blackman, aged 8 months.

At the residence of her husband, near Mt. Olive, N. C., on the 24th of July, 1886, MARY PRITCH, beloved wife of W. B. Pritch, aged 29 years. She was personally known to most of our possessors of those principles which constitute the qualities of a good Christian, a noble wife, an affectionate mother, and a devoted friend to all who knew her.

She left a sorrowing husband and four little children to mourn her loss. How sad and yet how true, that "the good die evergreen." Sweet one, thy bowyer is ever green. Thy sky is ever clear. Thou hast no winter in thy year. R. B. B.
