A FATAL BUILDING.

Lives Lost in Tearing Down the Exposition Building in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, August 14.—The work of tearing down the main building of the late exposition has proved a more troublesome and serious undertaking than its construction. The building, 1,500 by 900 feet, was the largest in the world, and cost something over $1,000,000. When the exposition closed it was sold to Steers & Co. for $40,000. The firm has since work several lives have been lost and many persons wounded. Yesterday one man was killed and to-day one more met with the same fate and another was fatally wounded. This morning, while the contractor with a party of men was tearing down a seventy-five foot span of trestle, the trusses gave away and the mass of lumber fell to the ground with a tremendous crash carrying with it two men—Victor Polick, aged 28, and Fritz Shultz, aged 21. William Casey, aged 55, who was working beneath, was struck by the heavy beams and instantly killed. Polick was badly injured about the head, jaw, and right arm, and internally, and Shultz received severe but not fatal, injuries to his arms, legs and jaw.

A CADET AND THREE SEAMEN LOST.

Sad Drowning Accident on the Voyage from Portsmouth.

FORTRESS MONROE, Va., August 14, 1886.—The schooping Constellation, which anchored three miles below last night, came to the roads this morning, and in conversation with some of the cadets your correspondent learned the following additional particulars of the accident:—The ship left Portsmouth on Monday, August 2, and on Tuesday morning had a strong breeze. She was making some thirteen knots an hour. The cadets were sent aloft about ten o'clock on their usual morning drill, when Cadet O. S. Schley, of Indianapolis, missed his footing and fell from the ice foretopmast rigging, a distance of one hundred feet, striking on the vessel's rail and falling into the water. Orders were at once given to man the lifeboat and bring the ship up in the wind, which was now half a gale. In the meantime the crew of seven men were in the lifeboat, which, through misconception of the orders of the officer of the deck, was prematurely let go and at once swamped. Four of her crew managed to cling to her sides and hold on until they were rescued, but the other three—Emil Olsen, A. Carsen and M. Doland, coxswain of the boat—were drowned before assistance could reach them. Schley was a bright young man about eighteen years of age and a nephew of Commander Schley, of Arctic fame. The loss has cast a gloom over the entire ship's company.

CRIME IN ILLINOIS.

A Brutal Father Lynched for Murdering His Son.

EFFINGHAM, ILL., August 14.—A rumor was circulated here yesterday that a terrible tragedy, followed by lynching had occurred near Georgetown, twenty miles south of here. The names of the parties could not be learned. The information was that a party were threshing grain, when a young boy, about one year old, was accidentally backed his father's hand with a knife he was using to cut bundles with. This so enraged the father that he gathered his son up and threw him into the threshing, the boy being literally cut to pieces. The father, upon realizing what he had done, at once took flight. He was soon captured by the machine hands and neighbors and lynched, being hanged from the thresher.

A YOUNG MOTHER COMMITS SUICIDE.

Information has reached this city that a Mrs. Foster, of Rockingham county, N. C. committed suicide under the following circumstances: She had recently given birth to a child and was doing well. On Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey, her father and mother, went to see her and supposing she was all right retired for the night. Some time during the night they heard the child crying and went to the room to look after it. To their surprise they found that the mother had left her bed and could not be found in the house. They became very much alarmed and began to search for her about the place. After searching some time, the body of the unfortunate woman was found behind the barn and a pistol lying near by told the sad story. She had taken her own life. The child was only about three weeks old and that the mother should have committed suicide under such circumstances is remarkable.—Register.
