STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, RALEIGH, December 19, 1885. Messrs. Harper & Brothers, New York:
DEAR SIRS—At a meeting of the State Board of Education, held on the 8th inst... "Swinton's Language Primer," "Harrington's Graded Spelling-book"—complete in one volume—and "Harper's Copy Books," Grammar Course, were added to the list of text-books recommended to be used in the public schools of the State, on terms indicated by correspondence on file in this office. Yours truly,
S. M. FINGER, Secretary State Board of Education. TESTIMONIALS. W. A. BLAIR, rofessor of English Grammar and English Lit rature, State Normal, Winston, I am very much pleased with "Harrington's 20 Speller," and have adopted it in our school at High Point. I have never believed in copybooks, but shall use Harper's. We use Switch's "Language Lessons" and "English Grammar" in our graded school here, and like them

20 H. L. SMITH, Principal Selma Academy, Selma, I have carefully examined "Harrington's Graded Spelling-book," and am much pleased with it. HUGH MORSON, Raleigh, N. C.

After a careful examination I have introduced into my classes "Harrington's Graded Speller" and "Harper's Graded Copy-books," and am very much pleased with them. I regard the speller as greatly supporter to any gard the speller as greatly superior to any book of the kind I have yet seen. I have also examined "Swinton's Language Series," and am so much pleased with it that I shall introduce it as soon as practicable

5 M. J. Goldsmith, Penman and Consulting Accountant, Atlanta, Ga. I have carefully examined "Harper's New Graded Copy-books," and find them very pracgrading. They come nearer my ideal of public school requirements than any other books with which I am acquainted, and I take pleasure in recommending them.

Harper's Bazar ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR is the only paper in the world that combines the choicest literature and the finest art illustrations with the latest fashions and methods of household adornment. Its weekly illustrations and descriptions of the newest Paris and New York styles, with its useful pattern-sheet supplements and cut patterns, by enabling ladies to be their own dressmakers, save many times the cost of subscription. Its papers on cooking, the management of servants, and housekeeping in its various details are eminently practical. Much attention is given to the interesting topic of attention is given to the interesting topic of social etiquette, and its illustrations of art needle-work are acknowledged to be un-equalled. Its literary merit is of the highest excellence, and the unique character of its humorous pictures has won for it the name of the American Punch.

THE ENGRAVING IS

WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER! Magnificently Executed and Tastefully Wrought in 6. Colors.

The portaits of the commanders are clear and striking, accurate and life-like. They were produced TAKE NOTICE by eminent artists from photographs furnished by the surviving heroes, and by the relatives and friends That I am prepared of those deceased. The engraving is superb in the display of art, clear and vivid in outline, to do all sorts of reand the grouping of the portraits at once convince the mind that the artist possessed an originality of pairing of Watches conception never before equalled. The Historic Gray Uniform, the Gold Buttons, Stars and Braid on Collar, (denotguarantee satisfaction | ing rank), stand out in bold relief from the beautiful back ground, each portrait is made in imitation of a large Imperial Cabinet Photograph (4 x 6 inches,) distinct in every respect from the portraits surrounding it, yet so superior in conception, execution and harmony of colors that it My work the past defies criticism.

The Commanders represented on the engraving are: guarantee of what Robert E. Lee, T. J. (Stonewall) Jackson, G. T. Beauregard, Fitzhugh Lee, Joseph E. Johnston, A. S. Johnston, Stirling Price, J. A. Early, J. B. Hood, R. S. Ewell, James Longstreet, Wade Hampton, W. J. Hardie, A. P. Hill, J. E. B. Stuart, Braxton Bragg, E. Kirby Smith, J. C. Breckinridge, Leonidas Polk and Admiral Raphael Semmes. Only a few of these great heroes are now living, and all of them were great, as Commanders of the Armies of the Confederacy, and they thus became endeared to the hearts of the people of the South. Every Confederate Veteran served under one or more of these Gallant Leaders, and they and every true Southern Patriot should possess one of these elegant souvenirs. The engraving is appropriate for the parlor, library, hall or office, and will compare favorably with the finest paintings. The Portraits are Printed on one sheet of Heavy Plate Paper, beautifully Tinted (ready for framing), size, 22 x 29 inches, and will be sent to any address on receipt of Price, $2.00.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS

The portraits represented on your engraving, are regarded as the best, of the Confederate Generals, which have been issued. Very respectfully, * * The portraits are good, and very much better than any I have yet seen thus grouped.—CUSTIS LEE.

* * * The likenesses are good.—G. T. BEAUREGARD. * * * The portraits of the Confederate Leaders represented on your engraving are good.—JAMES LONGSTREET.
* * * The likenesses are excellent —FITZHUGH LEE.

Having secured the exclusive control of the above beautiful engraving for the Southern States, by purchasing the whole edition, we have decided to present a copy to each of our subscribers, until the edition is exhausted, in the following order:-First, we will send out one copy to every subscriber now on our books whose account is paid up in full to January 1st, 1887, or beyond that date. We owe this to our subscribers who have by prompt payments and liberal support in the past, made possible the great success of the Messenger. Second, we will send out one copy of the Engraving to each of our present subscribers who will between now and Dec. 1, 1886, settle their subscription accounts to at least January 1, 1887. We will inform any of our friends whose account with the MESSENGER is behind, just how much, is due up to next January. Third, to all new subscribers who will send us in two Dollars for one year's subscription to the Messenger, in advance, we will present a copy of the engraving free.
