King Bros. & Co., cotton factors, Cincinnati, have failed. There have been no earthquake shocks at Charleston, S. C. since Friday.

A hurricane on the northwest coast of France caused much damage.

The Court of Claims begins the trial of the French spoliation claims next Monday.

E. J. Rowell killed his brother, E. L. Rowell in Barnwell, S. C. The murderer has been arrested.

Circumstances point to a conspiracy on the part of a band of negroes against the whites at Danville, Va.

There were no earthquakes in Charleston Sunday. All the churches in safe condition, were filled by large congregations.

Charles O'Donnell, a well-known nitroglycerine manufacturer, at Findlay, Ohio, was killed by an explosion at the refinery in that city, Monday.

The switchmen's strike at Minneapolis, Minn., shows no signs of weakening. Railroad men are arming their new employees and are determined to move trains.

The Provincial Grand Lodge of Masons of the United States and the Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction, Scottish Rite, 33d degree, met in Washington yesterday.

President Cleveland will attend the Fair at Richmond, Va., to-day; the following Wednesday he goes to New York to attend the inaugural ceremonies of the Bartholdi statue.

The knit goods manufacturers' association of Waterford and Cohoes, Conn., owning twenty-five mills and employing seven thousand operatives, voted last night to close their mills.

Mrs. Adelbert Baker, aged thirty-five years, of Portland, Maine, dropped dead Monday evening while dancing at a ball there. She was formerly an actress with the Fancy Marsh Company.

The storm centre of Monday, moving south of Pensacola, has moved slightly to the southwest and is now central south of Louisiana. High northern winds are reported from the coasts of Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. Severe northeast gales are indicated for to-night off the coast of Texas.

Mr. Manning, of Louisiana, our new minister to Mexico, passed through El Paso on Saturday on his way to his post. He found awaiting him at El Paso a special car which had been sent on from the city of Mexico for his accommodation. "There seems to be a universal desire in Mexico to be as friendly and kind as possible."

In Pine Bluff (Ark.) on Saturday night the gambling den of John Young, one of the principal streets, was the scene of a terrible affray, in which four men were wounded, one of them mortally. (Gip Clarke, a white sport, went into this gambling den and after a brief exchange of angry words with Pat Cole, a negro gambler, the firing commenced. Clark was shot badly in the mouth and Cole in the arm, John Bailey, who had nothing to do with the affair, and Jim Jones were struck by stray bullets, the former in the hip and the latter in the left side fatally.

In Philadelphia Saturday night a man about twenty-five years of age entered a saloon at No. 235 south Twelfth street and, ordering a drink of whisky, sat down at one of the tables. He drank the liquor and then quietly took out a revolver, placed it against his temple and fired. He died ten minutes later and the body was removed to the station house.

In Baltimore, on the 2d inst., a crowd of about 100 men, from New York, were arrested at the Merchants' national bank for stealing $50 from a person who had just received it from the paying teller. On Tuesday Hand pleaded guilty and Burke stood trial, which ended in conviction. On Wednesday Judge Duffy sentenced each to the penitentiary for ten and a half years at hard labor.

Ex Speaker Randall was seen Monday at his residence on Padie Heights in Philadelphia, sitting up but still showing symptoms of his recent sickness. He said: "I am much improved in health and my only difficulty now is in use of my limbs, which are very weak. I have not thought of returning to Washington until about the middle of November, when I shall go there with my family."

The commissioner of agriculture on Wednesday, received a telegram from Dr. Salmon chief of the bureau of animal industry, saying that "the investigations of the past week show that pleuro-pneumonia is widely scattered among the cattle of Chicago. He is perfecting arrangements to secure quarantine of exposed animals and slaughter of diseased ones. In this work he has the hearty cooperation of the state cattle commissioner of Illinois. A new quarantine notice has been issued, in which the penalties provided by the national law are set forth."

In Shenandoah, Penna., Wednesday morning, a girl named Hennessy, living with her parents on Coal street, went into the basement of the house, and, seeing at the foot of the stairway what appeared to be a bar of iron, attempted to pick it up. "The bar turned out to be a lead pipe which conveyed the family supply from the water main to the rear of the house. She then opened a door, and when the light shone in she found herself standing on the brink of a cavern, about eighteen feet in diameter and perhaps a hundred feet deep. The whole bottom of the basement had fallen into the workings of Oakdale colliery." The people in the neighborhood are greatly excited.

Henry Zeigler and Minnie Devor were married two years and a half ago in Cincinnati. Their married life proved very unhappy, and several separations and reconciliations occurred. Four weeks ago his wife went to Indianapolis and procured employment in the laundry of the Brunswick hotel. The husband arrived a few days ago, a reconciliation followed and they went to live together again, occupying a room at the National hotel. At an early hour Sunday morning Zeigler, in a petty dispute, drew a revolver and, disregarding the woman's tears and prayers, fired three shots into her body. Zeigler then cut his throat with a pocket knife, and fired a bullet through his head and expired almost instantly.

THE SABINE-PASS DISASTER.

Cattle Growing Wild from Thirst--The Extent of the Great Storm.

BEAUMONT TEX., October 18.—A new danger seems to have sprung up in the vicinity of Sabine that has secured the searchers for unfortunates. The cattle have become dangerous wild animals, the watering-pools have been filled with sea-water, and the cattle are wild with thirst. The committee of citizens who left here Saturday night on the tug-boat Estella, which had a schooner in tow carrying $1,000 worth of provisions for the sufferers at Sabine Pass and Johnson's Bayou, returned at a late hour last night. They reached Sabine Pass early Sunday morning and found about 100 persons still living there, reluctant to leave the site of their former homes. They are occupying the few houses that withstood the storm. One half of the food and clothing taken up by the committee was distributed among these sufferers, who were in great need of everything. The remainder was sent up to Johnson's Bayou by the barge Popsy, as the tide and channel would not permit of the Estella's going up river. The committee are unanimous in their statements regarding the absolute destitution of the survivor. They say they never saw such suffering for the necessities of life as exists at Sabine and Johnson's Bayou. The committee ascertained that the total number of persons who lost their lives was 102—of these 64 were colored and 38 white. Only sixty-one bodies have thus far been recovered and buried. Scores of searching parties continue to hunt for bodies of missing friends.
