CLEANINGS HERE AND ELSEWHERE.

The Leland Opera Company are heading this way.
Senator Vance is to lecture in Boston during the coming winter.
Read Dr. Talmage's sermon of yesterday on the third page of this paper.
Wilson Superior Court will not open until Wednesday, the 3d of November.
Senator Ransom delivers the address at the Rocky Mount Fair, on the 11th of November.
Mr. C. B. Aycock spoke at Fremont on Saturday. He is doing noble work in this campaign.
We direct attention to the new advertisement of Messrs. Best & Thompson in this paper.
The meeting of the County Board of Education has been postponed to Monday, the 8th of November.
Judge Seymour will preside over the convention of Northern settlers to be held at Raleigh during fair week.
The Michael Strogoff Company, one of the largest to visit Goldsboro this season, will have the Opera House on the 11th of November.
We regret to learn that our estimable friend and countyman, Mr. Gray C. Harris, of Fremont, is quite sick. Hope he may soon be himself again.
The earthquake shock on Friday was pretty general throughout the same section of country visited by the shock last August. There was a shock at 3:45 a. m. and another at 2:30 p. m.
There will be a meeting of the North Carolina Board of Pharmacy held in Raleigh, October 26th and 27th, for the purpose of examining candidates for license to practice pharmacy.
The negro Harris, one of the parties charged with complicity in the Chapel Hill murder on the night of the 9th, has been captured in Danville, Va., and returned to this State. Pat Brewer and the others are still at large.
A few days ago the Democrats gave a big barbecue at Harper's Mill, Greene county. Over 600 people were there, and of these 100 were Stroums and 100 Harpers. Messrs. Clement Manly and Darden, of Greene county, spoke.

See to it that John R. Smith is kept out of the Sheriff's office.

Unless you do, you may regret a repetition of the days of 1869, 1870 and 1871, when money changers and speculators had full possession of the court house. Up, oh, people! All together! Stand firm! Down with John R. Smith's Sheriff aspirations.
We learned that Mr. W. G. Broadhurst stated in Duplin that he would not vote for John R. Smith, but kept "mum" as to the rest of the ticket he would vote for. Mr. Broadhurst should face the music, and tell the people on which side he will vote. They are entitled to know it. Will he vote the Republican ticket, or will he vote the Democratic ticket? That's the question.
Mr. J. Y. Joyner addressed a meeting of the citizens at Dudley on Friday. He is a forcible speaker, and handles the issues of the campaign with telling effect. Sheriff Crantham spoke at Mount Olive Friday night, and we heard good reports. Mr. C. F. R. Kornegay also made a good talk. Mr. W. G. Burkhead had been announced for both these appointments, but was unable to get here.
Letter in Charlotte Observer on Judge Boykin: "This gentleman, though young in years, is an accomplished jurist, and has advanced ad valtem to a reputation as a judge seldom achieved except after many years service. He possesses great powers of generalization and analysis, and what is rare on the bench, his quickness of perception runs apace with his dispatch of business."
Mr. J. T. Bagwell is delivering regular Sunday afternoon lectures in the Academy of Music, of Charlotte. A male quartette furnishes the music and the lectures are largely attended. The subject of the first one was: "Religion is to Man as He Conceives It." The subject of the one of last Sunday was: "Comparative Religion: Some Resemblances and Contrasts." He is doubtless engaged in preaching very comfortable doctrine.
There are in this State 984 United States pensioners, of whom 470 are invalids of the war of 1861-'5; 180 widows of that war; 2 minors; 92 dependents; 16 survivors of the war of 1812; 230 widows, war of 1812. Of the soldiers of the war of 1812 yet alive there is one each in Alamance, Ashe, Brunswick, Burke, Cabarrus, Davidson, Davie, Mitchell, Rockingham, Stokes, Swain, Warren, Washington, Watauga, Wayne, Yancey.
There are now in the State 1,236 convicts, of whom only 164 are white and 1,069 colored. There are 1,197 men and 96 women. Of the men 159 are white and 1,038 colored, while of the women 61 are colored, and only 5 are white. These convicts are scattered at work all over the State on six railroads in course of construction, in Hyde county at the penitentiary farms, &c., while only 250 of the total number are in the penitentiary building. The number of convicts is rather less than the average for several years past. There is unquestionably a diminution in crime of all kinds in the past two years.

FLORA MOORE
At the Opera House Monday Night.

Our community will have an opportunity of enjoying something really excellent next Monday night, at the Opera House, when Miss Flora Moore, who is quite a favorite here, will appear in her charming comedy success "A Bunch of Keys." Miss Moore has a very strong support and the hotel scenery, all of which will be used, is new and handsome. The New Orleans Pionne says:
"The demand for light entertainment has made the success of such light comedies of dramatic architecture as 'A Bunch of Keys.' Mr. Hoyt, the author of Bunch of Keys, has succeeded in striking the popular fancy. He claims nothing for his work which it does not possess. 'A Bunch of Keys,' as given at the Academy in the presence of a very hilarious audience, is a delightful mixture of fun and nonsense, making no pretensions to literary excellence, continuity, style or anything else. It is full of laughable situations, all of which are cleverly executed by a company of capable people, and it serves to pass away an evening very pleasantly, which is more than can be said of many other recent productions of this class. One of the best enterprising introductions of songs and specialties, all of which have the rare merit of being bright. Miss Flora Moore is a hustling, bustling, young lady, full of life and animal spirits, a neat and lively dancer, a sweet and melodious singer, and altogether a capital southerner. She may not be the whole life of the performance, but she comes pretty near it. Her songs are rendered with nice effect, particularly the negro melodies."

MILTON AND DOLLY NOBLES
In "The Theatix" at the Opera House Last Friday Evening.
Not a very large audience, but the largest of the present season, attended the performance of the Milton Nobles Company, in "The Theatix," at the Opera House, last Friday evening.
Milton Nobles, author and actor, who is such a favorite among theatre-goers, fully sustained his reputation in the dual role of "Carroll Graves, a New York Bohemian," and "Jim Bludsoe, the Phoenix that sprang from the ashes of Carroll Graves." Mr. Nobles' style is peculiarly his own, and his versatility was shown in the disguises that he assumed during the play.
Dolly Nobles, as "Sadie, the Flower Girl," as "Ethel Elmore, the actress," was just as pleasing as ever, and was a general favorite with the audience. A storm of applause greeted her when she rushed in the burning building, and rescued her lover from the flames.
Miss May Bardell, as "Katie Moran, a French premier from Cork," did her part well, as did Miss Florence Vinton, as "Alice Blackburn," although the latter did not have much acting to do.
Max Fehrmann, as "Moses Solomon, the Jew that Milton Drew," was splendid, and called forth repeated outbursts of hearty laughter by his comical imitations of the genuine Chatham street Jew.
The literary support, was very good, and the audience was highly pleased with the evening's entertainment.
Mr. Nobles is now engaged in writing a new play, and will probably appear again this season in our city, when a larger audience than that of Friday evening will, most likely, greet him.

KINSTON ITEMS.

Gathered By Our Regular Reporter.
Mrs. C. W. Harper has moved her military department from Gordon to Queen street, nearly in front of Dr. A. R. Miller's.
The protracted services going on for the last two weeks at the Methodist church, closed last Sunday. Nine came forward and assumed the vows of the church. Others are expected to join soon. Rev. N. M. Journey, the pastor, worked efficiently and faithfully for the salvation of souls.
D. R. Jackson, of Kinston, and Mrs. Sallie A. Wood of LaGrange, were united in marriage at LaGrange, Oct. 10th, by Laura Alexander and Kinston, officiating.
Miss Ida B. Meacham has accepted a situation in Snow Hill as teacher. The heater for the Methodist church has arrived, and will be put up immediately.
The Baptist association for this district will convene in Kinston, Tuesday, Oct. 26th.
There are 384 whites and 507 colored children, between the ages of six and twenty-one years, in the Kinston graded school district—of the whites, there are eighty more males than females, and thirteen more females than males of the colored.
Both races together, there are five more males than females. Total No. 891.
The addition of the cornet in the Methodist choir, adds considerably to the volume of music, but, for old-fashioned, genuine, heart-felt religiosity, Mr. Thomas is the human voice. Noting the fact, his son can beat it.
Mr. Thomas B. Cox joined the Discipline church last week.
The fourth and last quarterly meeting for this station was held by the presiding elder, J. T. Harris, Oct. 23rd and 24th.
The following are the names of those who joined the M. E. church Oct. 17, viz: Misses George Dukes, Clyde L. Latta, Alexander and Marietta Sutton, D. C. Alexander, John E. Cameron, Arthur Harrell, Adje Traylor and J. D. White.
Our town clock is now too slow.
Hon. Wm. A. Smith, of Johnson county, spoke here Friday night in the court house. He was introduced by Dr. H. D. Harper in a stirring little speech of fifteen minutes length. A large crowd was present, and Mr. Smith was brim full of wit and humor. He spoke about one hour. Every body appeared to be pleased, except, perhaps, a few of the enemy, whom he denominated "dyalappers" bobbing up, here and there for comfort. He spoke Saturday at LaGrange. The Democratic candidates are confident of success in this county.
Friday evening, the 22d inst., we experienced another earthquake shock, which lasted 20 seconds. It occurred about ten minutes to 3 o'clock. Caused our large court house to tremble, and the inmates to feel a little nervous.
Next Friday, the 29th is the day. Hon. Z. B. Vance will be here then. After diligent search and inquiry, the "daddy," of the "ticket to please everybody" can nowhere be found. He'd better keep incoog.
Dry and dusty.

MARRIED.
