—Thanks for an invitation to attend a concert at Glenwood Academy, on the evening of the 29th inst.

—Mr. Thos. W. Swan left specimens of his late pear crop on our table the other day. They are superior to the best California pear.

—Mr. H. B. Eilers, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Wilmington, died there last Friday night, aged 70 years.

—The "Bunch of Keys" was played for one entire season at the Comedy Theater, New York City. It enjoyed a run of over 200 nights.

—Senator Vance speaks at Kinston to-morrow (Friday). It is very much regretted that he could not speak also in this county during the present canvass.

—Give one day to your State and county, and let that be Tuesday next. Work for the success of the entire Democratic ticket from morning till sunset.

—The Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City was not sold on Monday for lack of sufficiently high bids. The sale has been postponed until some time in December.

—Our townsman, Dr. J. F. Miller, is not only an excellent physician, but is likewise hard to beat in raising the biggest sweet potatoes we have seen this season.

—Mr. Bryan W. Cobb will attend at Trenton during Thursday and Friday next. Our delinquent friends in that section will please make a note of this.

—Judge Fowle speaks at Pikeville on Saturday. There will also be a mass meeting at Mount Olive on Saturday, at which Messrs. I. F. Dortch, C. B. Aycock and others will be the speakers.

—Avoid the Republicans of 1886. Keep John R. Smith out of the Sheriff's office. See to it that L. M. Powers and W. G. Broadhurst do not misrepresent you in the Senate. Vote the entire Democratic ticket.

—Weldon News: On Saturday night last a colored girl, about fourteen years old, was burned to death by the explosion of a kerosene oil can. She was filling a lighted lamp at the time and the oil ignited, causing the explosion.

—Newbern Journal: Information was received in the city yesterday of the death of Mr. Rufus W. Bell, an esteemed citizen of Carteret county, which occurred at his residence yesterday morning in the 65th year of his age.

—The blockade-runner North Heath was sunk in the Cape Fear River near Wilmington during the war, and afterwards an obstacle to navigation, has been raised and 112 tons of her materials were sold at auction last Saturday.

—Mr. Rom. M. Johnson will attend the following appointments in the interest of this paper, viz: Wilson's Mill, Friday, 29th; Selma and Smithfield, Saturday, 30th; Wilson, Wednesday, November 3d, and Friday, November 5th.

—Isaac M. Powers, colored, and Wm. G. Broadhurst, are the Republican ticket for the Senate in Duplin. Democrats of Wayne and Duplin, see to it that Mr. Broadhurst does not have the satisfaction of going to Raleigh by any such combination.

—Snow Hill Enterprise: Rev. Mr. Herman was the recipient of a very handsome present, a nice new buggy, from some of his many friends in this county. It is to be hoped that the Conference will return him to this place for the next year.

—The Superior Court of Jones county will convene at Trenton next Wednesday, November 3d. Judge Clark has notified the Sheriff that he will not be on hand until Wednesday, so jurors and witnesses need not be present until that day.

—The County Board of Education will not hold its meeting on Monday. The meeting has been postponed to Monday, the 8th of November, and it is hoped that all of the school census returns will by then be in the hands of the County Superintendent.

The Democrats of New Hanover county, with the pluck that is characteristic of them, nominated a full county ticket and a legislative ticket composed of Mr. J. B. Higgins for the Senate, and Hon. A. M. Waddell and Mr. John W. Reilly for the House.

—Mrs. J. H. Sasser, by the way a most excellent housewife, and the wife of one of our most industrious citizens, has sent us a bushel of the nicest and cleanest jam potatoes we have seen this season.

—Col. Gardner, chief engineer of the Atlantic Coast Line, commenced Monday the survey of the southward extension of the Short Cut. The line will run from Fayetteville to Moss Neck, and will run from thence to the Pee Dee River bridge, where a junction with the W. C. & A. road will be made.

—The Raleigh News and Observer says: The creator of the fair will be Rev. George W. Sanderlin, of Wayne, a gentleman as familiar with agriculture and the methods best adapted to this section as any man we suppose, in the State. He will make an admirable address, we are sure, and one which everybody who is interested in agriculture should hear if possible.

—The Raleigh News and Observer says: Mr. R. W. Best represents the United States Department of Agriculture at the Fair, under special instructions from Hon. Norman J. Colman, the Commissioner. He is to make observations upon the general progress of agriculture in the State, and give special attention to the wants of agriculturists so far as the department is able to supply them.

—The Argus says: One of the New Arlington Hotel guests from the North went on a shooting excursion the other day, on the hunting land reserved for visitors to the hotel, and returned with forty-eight quail, two rabbits and a squirrel. These are fair returns for one day's shooting. Our Northern sporting friends should "make a mark here," and pay Goldsboro and the New Arlington a visit.

—Bear in mind that in 1869 and 1870 county tickets, juror and witness tickets, were selling at forty to fifty cents in the dollar; and that the county tax was then fifty cents on the $100 valuation. Now it is only twenty-seven cents. Mr. Job Warwick tells us that he sold a juror ticket of $2.10 to Dan Dillon for fifty cents. Will you go back to the days of 1868-70, fellow-citizens? No. A thousand times, no!

BE NOT DISMAYED. Let Every Democrat of Wayne Do His Duty.

There are some who discouragingly point at the result of the election in 1882, and fear that some of the Republican candidates will again succeed, as this is "an off year." Nonsense, fellow Democrats! There is no comparison. Then the Democrats made no canvass. There was lack of organization. There was too much affiliation with the Republicans. The Democrats of Wayne, were not sufficiently aroused, under the belief that the Republicans were not aroused. The result proved that it was a serious mistake.

Not so now. The issues have been fairly and intelligently presented. The record of the candidates dissected. The battle is being opened, fought, and the white men of Wayne are thoroughly aroused. They will vote on Tuesday, and they will vote right, and we look in full confidence to a routing Democratic victory.

Now let us briefly glance at the vote of 1882 and 1884. In 1882 Mr. A. T. Grady secured only 2122 votes. Col. J. P. Cobb 2653, giving Grady a majority of 67. Surely this can be overcome. In 1884, Gov. Seales received 2,791, York 2,500, a Democratic majority of 296. Here is food for reflection.

In 1882, John R. Smith received 2,114 votes, and Mr. F. M. Aycock 2,100. Only 14 majority for Smith. In 1884, Smith received 2,585, and Aycock 2,715. A majority of 180 for Aycock. Mr. Deane received 2,468 and Grantham 2,728. Dobson 2,609 and Gardner 2,754. These figures show that Wayne is a Democratic county, and there is no cause to feel discouraged. Let everybody do his duty, and the entire Democratic ticket is sure of victory.

THE CAMPAIGN. The Close of the Canvass in This County.

As the canvass in this county draws near its close, popular interest is hourly growing. The people are waking up to the fact that the contest is a live and important one, and must be dealt with that sound, common sense which can always be depended upon to settle questions fairly, and in the interest of the people. The canvass on the Democratic side has been equalled in the interpretation of gentlemen to the people. The musical selections have been culled from the most popular airs of the day, and rendered by cultured vocalists. Miss Moore, on the occasion of her previous appearance here, made hosts of friends and she will doubtless receive a flattering greeting.

The ladies of Floral Hall committee are reminded of the meeting to be held this (Thursday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at Whitaker's bookstore. The duties of this committee are "to have the management and general control of Floral Hall and to solicit and encourage every one to exhibit." They have nothing whatever to do with judging articles placed upon exhibition. The committee is composed of Miss Corinne Dortch, Superintendent, Mrs. Sol. Well, Mrs. H. P. Dortch, Mrs. J. N. Green, Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, Jr., Misses Sue Collier, Jennie Wilson, Kate Edgerton, Lou Borden, Mattie Rosenthal, Mary Dortch and Rebecca Humphrey.

COMPARE the record of the two parties whose candidates are before you for your votes. Both of these parties have been in power in North Carolina and in Wayne county. Examine carefully, if it is possible that you are in doubt. After you finish your examination, then ask yourself the question "which of the two has bestowed the greatest benefits upon the people?" And then vote according to your convictions. The Democratic party is willing to abide by this test. And well it may, for honestly applied this test would defeat our opponents so overwhelmingly that they would be obliged to abandon the g. o. p. and seek new colors under which to sail.

WORTHY OF NOTICE. Ladies Dress Goods in all the leading shades and latest fabrics, also Silk Velvets, Astrachan and Fur Trimmings to match at prices that will astonish the most fastidious and closest buyers, at M. SUMMERFIELD & Co.

SUMMER GOODS.—Refrigerators, Ice Cream Freezers, (White Mountain) will be sold cheap at FUCHTLER & KERN'S.

THERE is a movement among the merchants on East and West centre streets, between Walnut and Chestnut, to start young water works. That is to say, they propose to purchase a force pump and hose for the purpose of sprinkling the street in front of their respective places of business. A good idea.

The last of the series of Democratic mass meetings during this canvass, will be held in the Opera House this (Thursday) evening. Col. E. D. Hall, the Mayor of Wilmington, and Maj. Wm. A. Smith, of Johnson, and others will be the speakers, and excellent and enthusiastic addresses will be expected. The meeting will be held in the Opera House and everybody is most cordially invited to attend.

The lovers of pure, unadulterated fun, without vulgarity and dramatic action that never flags, will hail with delight the approaching engagement of the "Bunch of Keys" Co., on Monday next. Miss Flora Moore is the star, supported by a cast of artists not equalled in the interpretation of gentlemen to the people. The musical selections have been culled from the most popular airs of the day, and rendered by cultured vocalists. Miss Moore, on the occasion of her previous appearance here, made hosts of friends and she will doubtless receive a flattering greeting.

REV. GEO. W. SANDERLIN, of Be-ton, one of the most successful farmers in this entire section, delivered an address at the opening of the State Fair, Tuesday morning. The News and Observer says: "The address was listened to with the closest attention and was liberally applauded. It abounded in graceful phrases and there were some vigorous hits at popular errors and follies." Mr. Sanderlin has been invited to deliver the address at our Fair next week and we hope that he will accept the invitation.

EXPLANATION. About the Powers-Broadhurst-Brogden-Person Tickets.

The "MESSENGER Job Office," like the Sun that shines for all, "prints for all." We print for Democrats and we print for Republicans; we print for white and print for black. This is business. And having said this we deem an explanation necessary. The following tickets were printed by us on Tuesday:

For the Senate—10th District: ISAAC M. POWERS, WILLIAM G. BROADHURST.

For the House of Representatives: BUCK L. BLACKMORE.

For the Senate—10th District: ISAAC M. POWERS, WILLIAM G. BROADHURST.

For the House of Representatives: JOHN B. PERSON.

To our astonishment, we hear it charged that the tickets are a Democratic trick, and the sin of issuing same, or rather coupling the names of William G. Broadhurst, C. H. Brogden and J. B. Person with that of Isaac M. Powers, who is a colored man, is laid on the shoulders of this writer, evidently for the purpose of relieving Mr. Broadhurst of the odium that is running on the ticket with a negro.

We take this method to assure our friends that we had no hand in getting up the Broadhurst-Powers ticket, and are quite confident that no Democrat had anything to do with it. We only printed the tickets for a committee of Duplin county colored men, who came endorsed by Mr. Dobson, and the latter gentleman paid us for the tickets.

Ordinarily we guard the sanctity of our job office, with the same grave-yard secrecy that was characteristic of the Republican party during the days of their Union League midnight meetings of 1868, '69 and '70. We would not even now make this explanation but for the dastardly effort made to leave the impression that "the ticket is a Democratic trick," and we violate no secrecy in stating the facts we are about to state.

The tickets above printed are the work of the Republican Executive Committee of Duplin county, determined upon at their meeting held in Kenansville on Monday last, and Mr. Dobson will bear us witness, and we feel quite sure will do us the justice to relieve this office from the charge, brought for a selfish purpose, that "the tickets are a Democratic trick."

On Saturday Mr. Dobson had some printing done in our office for the Duplin Republicans. He then assured us that on Tuesday he would want us to print the Duplin tickets. On Tuesday he told us that he expected the order by the noon mail. Shortly after the arrival of the train from the south he told us that the parties were "then in the city, and would call at this office to place the order for their tickets." At about 2 p. m. the colored delegation mentioned by Mr. Dobson, headed by Isaac M. Powers, Middleton and others, called at this office, and contracted for printing the tickets above given, also the Republican county ticket of Duplin. We proceeded to do the work. An hour or two later, while the tickets were being printed, Mr. Dobson came to this office, and after a brief consultation with the colored men referred to, he changed the remainder by taking off the name of W. G. Broadhurst. These are the facts of a plain business transaction so far as it concerns this office.

On Wednesday morning Powers called again and again placed his order for another lot of tickets with the names of Broadhurst, Brogden and Person on them, which he says was decided upon at their Kenansville meeting.

We make this statement in simple justice to this office, and with no malice towards any one.

What We Are Indebted to the South For. There appears in our columns to-day the advertisement of the well-known (and universally used in the Southern States) Simmons Liver Regulator. Years ago it was its way into every household of the South by pure, sterling merit. It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. The medicine is becoming widely known in the North, and wherever used the demand for it has steadily increased. It is a family medicine, containing no dangerous and deleterious qualities, but purely vegetable, and so gentle in its action that it can be safely given to any person, no matter what age—the centenarian or the crowing youngster. Working people are often in that miserable state of health which really renders them unfit for labor; but they haven't time to take medicine and be sick. Simmons Liver Regulator can be taken without causing any loss of time, and the system will be built up and invigorated by it. The Regulator promotes digestion, dissipates nasty sick headaches, and gives a strong, full tone to the system. In malarious climates it is invaluable, both protecting attack from the disease and expelling the poison after it has entered the system. It has no equal as a preparatory medicine, and can be safely used when a doctor cannot be called in. Persons of the very highest character and eminence have given Simmons Liver Regulator their cordial and hearty endorsement. It
