The Week's Gleanings from Our Exchanges

Items of Interest the State Over.

Raleigh Visitor: A white man named A. F. Coard was run over and killed near the thirty mile post two miles east of Clayton last night by the freight and passenger train going west.

Asheville Citizen: Maj. Wilson informed us a few days ago that he was fully at work with his survey of the French Broad Railroad. The line runs down the right banks of the river as far as Newport.

The Charlotte Fair is a success. The Charlotte Observer says there is a great improvement in every department except one—that of machinery. There are many novelties and large crowds attend daily.

The Wadesboro Intelligencer says, Reb. J. W. Hutchinson has a fine cow, which, one day last week, presented him with a pair of calves, male and female. The calves are doing well, running and skipping about.

The blockade runner North Heath which was sunk in Cape Fear river near Wilmington during the war, and was afterwards an obstacle to navigation has been raised and 112 tons of her material were sold at auction last week.

Next year the Williamston and Tarboro railroads will extend its line from Bethel to Plymouth and thence to Hyde county, opening up a country rich in rice, cotton and corn. This will be good news to Plymouth and the people thereabouts.

Raleigh News Observer: Hon. John Goodie, of Virginia. This distinguished gentleman, we are glad to learn, has accepted the invitation of the Philosophical Society to deliver the address before the two literary societies, at the University Commencement on the first Thursday of June, 1887.

The Rockingham Rocket tells of the burning of a barn and contents belonging to Mrs. Seth Pool, a widow; of the burning to death of a little son of Mr. Daniel McNeill; of the capture of Doc Crawford, wanted upon a charge of robbing the store of E. N. Ingram, of Black Jack township, and of burglars at work in Mr. T. C. Leak's residence.

Danbury Reporter: We predicted should the first Sunday in October be unpleasant we might look for but one pleasant Sunday during the month; and that should the first Sunday be clear we might look for pleasant Sundays throughout the month. The first Sunday was clear, so was the second Sunday, and so was last Sunday.

Lumberton Robesonian: What has the Republican party ever done for the poor man? Taxed him and all others to the verge of bankruptcy. Catherine Leach, colored, on Friday night last at Shoe Heel gave birth to a child, destroyed its life and buried it in the garden.—Fayetteville dots: The Democratic candidates in this county are making things lively. They are met at every place of speaking by large and enthusiastic crowds.

Raleigh Recorder: The Baptist State Convention, colored, held a pleasant and profitable session in Winston last week.—The Second Baptist Church now has 468 members—101 of whom have been added during the past Associational year. This is one of the most vigorous churches in the State. Rev. C. L. Powell will preach a farewell sermon at Fair Bluff Baptist Church on the 5th Sunday in this month after that he will, with his family, start for Africa.

The Oxford Torchlight says: The report of the Baptist Orphanage, at Thomasville, showed that to this new enterprise, but little over one year old and almost without outside help, $15,000 has been given. Three buildings have been completed, the foundation of five others laid, and fifty children have been received. The orphanage owns 300 acres of land, and is said to have a number of one-story brick buildings, to cost about $1,200 each, and capable of accommodating about twenty-five children with matron and teacher.

Winston Daily: A special from Birmingham, Ala., dated Oct. 18th, says: Wm. H. Polk, a member of the bar, died last night with malarial fever. He was the son of Hon. W. H. Polk, who represented this country as Minister to Italy under President Tyler, and was also the nephew of James K. Polk, once President of the United States.—Miss Mamie Hatchett, of the Oxford Orphan Friend, is in the city in the interest of that good paper. At Durham last week she received 90 new subscribers and $200 worth of advertisements.

Wilmington Review: There was a double wedding at St. Paul's Lutheran church at 8 o'clock last night. Mr. J. G. L. Gleschen and Miss Louise Giameyer, and Mr. J. Duls and Miss Kathie Gleschen were the happy couples. They were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the pastor of the church, Rev. F. W. F. Peschau, in the presence of a host of relatives and friends. The building was crowded to its utmost capacity with friends to witness the impressive ceremony, and the throng was so dense that there were hundreds who could not obtain admittance.

A desperate crime was committed in Johnston county, in which Deputy Sheriff Berry Godwin was shot, and, it is now thought, mortally wounded by B. King. Godwin was serving a warrant upon King for failure to work a public road. At the time of the crime both men were in the pub road. King, as soon as Godwin had served the warrant told him he was under arrest, levelled his shotgun and fired. King stood only thirty yards away, and literally riddled Godwin with shot having fired both barrels. Even wadding and powder entered Godwin's flesh. King is under arrest and in jail. He is rather a desperado.

"My love, what magic spell is thrown upon your face? Its charm I own. Whence came thy pure and peary teeth? Thy rosy lips? Thy perfumed breath?" She said, in accents sweet and clear. "'Tis only SOZODONT, my dear."

The Atmosphere of Love Is a pure, sweet breath. This desideratum is one of the results of using SOZODONT, which not only invigorates and preserves the teeth, but renders the mouth as fragrant as a rose.

"SPALDING'S GLUB," handy about the house, mends everything.

Table titled 'THE VOTE OF WAYNE COUNTY FOR 1886' showing election results for various offices including State, Senator, House, Sheriff, Registrar, Clerk, and Treasurer across different townships.

BACKBONE AND THE LACK OF IT.

There were three young republicans in the spring of 1884. All three were hostile to the nomination of Mr. Blaine, but each pursued a different course after the Chicago convention had issued its ultimatum. Henry Cabot Lodge returned to Boston and remained in the harness of his party. John F. Andred joined the bolters fairly and squarely, announcing his purpose and reasons in terms which no one could misconstrue. Theodore Roosevelt, willing neither to surrender nor to bolt, and hoping to escape the consequences of any decided action, submitted to one or two equivocal interviews and then betook himself to his ranch in the far west. All three were candidates for office this fall. Mr. Lodge, who put the best face on his discomfiture two years ago has been elected a representative in Congress; Mr. Andrew who boldly placed himself in opposition, has made a decided success of his campaign for the governorship of Massachusetts on the ticket of his new associates, while Mr. Roosevelt, who was neither the one thing nor the other, comes in third in the race for mayor of New York city. There is no doubt that what the people like in a young man in politics is straightforwardness. They may not always approve his course or share his opinions, but they respect his possession of a backbone.

A FIVE THOUSAND DOLLAR KITCHEN.

The Lucky Richmond who Held a Paying Lottery Ticket. A representative of The State ascertained this morning that the lucky Richmond who held one-fifth of ticket 61,968, which drew the second capital prize of $25,000 in the last drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery was Mr. Colin Kitchen, who lives at No. 319 South Cherry street.

MR. MANNING'S GOOD FORTUNE.

A War Department Clerk Wins $5,000 and Gets a Start in Life. At the last drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery Company, Mr. John M. Manning, of this city, held a fifth ticket numbered 61,968. It cost him $1 and drew one-fifth of the second capital prize of $25,000.

A War Department Clerk Wins $5,000 and Gets a Start in Life.

At the last drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery Company, Mr. John M. Manning, of this city, held a fifth ticket numbered 61,968. It cost him $1 and drew one-fifth of the second capital prize of $25,000. "Yes," said Mr. Manning, when a Post reporter called upon him yesterday at his residence, No. 1106 Ninth street north-west, "I am the lucky man. I have already received my $5,000, and it is safe in bank. It came most opportunely. I am a clerk in the Surgeon General's office, War Department, and for the past three years I have devoted my spare time to the study of law. I graduated recently, and this gives me a start in life."
