Edenton Enquirer: There are some sixty business houses in Edenton, with about forty-eight occupied and doing well representing every line of business from the cradle seller to the undertaker.

Shelby News Era: The saw and grist mill and cotton gin of Messrs. Charles G. Washburn & Sons, located about six miles from Shelby was burnt.

Danbury Reporter-Past: We learn that Messrs. McKee & Co. are going right ahead mining for silver a short distance west of Danbury.

Wilmington Star: There was a big forest fire in Brunswick county Thursday, causing considerable damage to turpentine and timber lands.

New Bern Journal: The Secretary and Treasurer of the New Bern Board of Trade has turned over to Mr. T. A. Green $50.00 as a Thanksgiving offering to the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Raleigh News-Observer: So far this season the receipts of cotton at this market have exceeded the receipts of last season to the same date by about 4,000 bales.

Greensboro Patriot: Governor Scales set in his spacious and hand some office, looking at the map of the State. Placing a finger on the little town of Wentworth, Rockingham county, he smiled and said: "I was born there."

Charlotte Chronicle: There are four cases in the present Superior Court against the Richmond and Danville Company.

Greenville Reflector: We attended the Free Will Conference at Black Jack last Sunday. More people were in attendance than we ever saw gathered on a similar occasion.

Elizabeth City Economist: While the little schooner belonging to Capt. William Jereles was off the mouth of Newbegun Creek, bound for this city with a load of cotton, at about 8 o'clock Friday night, a white boy named John Carmine, employed by the captain as a deck hand, fell overboard and was drowned.

BLAIN SNUBS EDMUNDS.

An episode between Mr. Blaine and Senator Edmunds at the house of ex-President Arthur, prior to the funeral, occasions considerable comment.

On Sunday night last Senator Edmunds called at General Arthur's house and was shown in the parlor, where he was seated, when Mr. Blaine, accompanied by Colonel McMichael, descended from the upper part of the house, whither he had gone to express condolence with Mrs. McElroy and other members of the ex-president's family.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., November 24.—An important question was decided in the United States Circuit Court yesterday by Judge Howell E. Jackson.

The question arose under the laws of Congress of June 7th, 1862, and February 6th, 1863, imposing a direct tax on all lands in the United States and appointing commissioners to collect the same in the insurrectionary States.

The commissioners established a rule which virtually confiscated the property of all who were in the Confederate army. This rule provided that where the owner did not offer to pay the tax himself he would not be permitted to do so through any agent or friend.

THE BAPTISTS IN NORTH CAROLINA. In 1784 there were 42 churches, 47 ministers and 3,776 members.

AN IMPORTANT MOVEMENT. PITTSBURGH, November 24.—The K. of L. have begun an important movement among skilled iron workers by organizing an Association of skilled men at the Elbe Iron and Bolt Works.

THE ANARCHISTS. BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Nov. 25.—At 11 o'clock this morning Judge Scott granted a supersedeas in the Anarchists' case.
