

Goldsboro Messenger

GOLDSBORO, N. C.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1886.

CLEANINGS HERE AND ELSEWHERE.

Good bye old year! The financial exhibit of the country for the year just closed will appear next week.

A fire at Wilson did some damage to the graded-school building, and narrowly missed destroying it.

Messrs. J. F. Southern and Co. offer horses and mules for sale, either for cash or on time. See advertisement.

Oliver Doud Byron on Thursday of next week. The usual low season rates over the several Railroads.

We shall begin revising our books next week. Have you paid up your rent? Don't neglect doing so at once.

The Mendelsohn Quintette Club will appear in this city on the 12th of January. It will prove a grand musical event.

Every business needs an occasional "booming," and the beginning of the year is a good time to begin advertising.

Miss Harrison, of the Salem High School faculty, who has been visiting in the city, stopping at Mrs. Dr. Finlayson, left for Clinton on Tuesday.

Mr. Jas. R. Hatch, of Mount Olive, on Tuesday captured and returned to the penitentiary authorities at Raleigh, Geo. Williams, an escaped negro convict.

The first copy of The Anti-Prohibitionist, the Anti-Prohibition Committee, publishers, is on our table. The paper is printed in Wilson, but is issued from Goldsboro.

We desire news items from all quarters. Our correspondents are requested to hand in their communications so as to have them reach here either Friday or Tuesday.

Miss Rhea appears in this city on the 24th of January, and Madame Janish on the 14th of February. It is such a compliment to Goldsboro to have such distinguished actresses to visit here.

The "Social Glass" is to be presented in the Academy building at Fairsons, by the Faicon Amateur Company, this (Thursday) evening. The Wilmington harpers will furnish the music.

Dr. Talmage's sermons will continue to be a feature of the MESSENGER during the year 1887. They are splendid family reading, and worth many times the yearly subscription price of the paper.

The Board of County Commissioners and County Board of Education will meet on Monday the 3d of January. The Board of Education will have an important meeting on that day, as the school apportionment is then to be made.

The next meeting of the Wayne County Farmers Club will be held at the court house, in this city, to-morrow (Friday) at 11 o'clock. The same subject chosen for discussion at the last meeting—"drainage"—was continued for this meeting.

Last week we stated that a lady teacher could find employment in a private family. We did not then anticipate the big bonanza under-taking. Every mail, from all quarters, brings applications, and to save ourselves further trouble of having to reply and postage expenses, we now inform all applicants that the place is filled.

Newborn Journal: Dr. J. L. Nicolson, of Richlands, is in the city. He brings the news of the death of Mr. Frank Thompson, which occurred suddenly at his home near Richlands yesterday morning. Mr. Thompson was one of the most successful farmers in Onslow county. He represented the county once or twice in the General Assembly, and was about sixty-six years old.

The World's Representative Comedy Company will give a matinee at the Opera House in this city on Saturday the 8th of January, commencing at 2 o'clock p. m. It is a large and splendid organization, and such of our country friends as may wish to witness a real enjoyable entertainment should avail themselves of the opportunity. Prices 25 cents, children 15 cents. Reduced rates over the Railroads.

A recent decision of the Supreme Court of North Carolina declares unconstitutional the law which prohibits any railroad corporation operating in his State, from charging more for the transportation of freight within the State, than for an equal distance on any part of its line outside of its State. The court held that the law is invalid, and that it undertook to regulate commerce between the States, thus assuming a prerogative of the general government.

The cotton circular of C. L. Greene & Co., dated Dec. 24, estimates the American crop of 1886-'87 at 6,350,000 bales. These figures are based on reports classified by States, by ports and by interior towns, and are somewhat below the preliminary estimates. The world's supply of cotton September 1st is stated at 1,116,000 bales, making the supply for the current year 7,466,000 bales, being 1,000 bales less than for the previous year. There was an average increase of consumption of 11 per cent. last year over the year before, and the increase for the current year is estimated at 3 per cent. It is estimated that the surplus at the end of the current year will be about 870,000 bales.

We learn with more than ordinary assurance that Capt. W. H. Green, for some years the efficient Superintendent of the R. & D. Railroad, has had his merits as a railroad manager recognized by being promoted to the position of General Superintendent, embracing also the North Carolina division from Goldsboro to Charlotte and the Western Carolina Road, which situation was formerly filled by Col. A. Andrews whose promotion to the Presidency of the Company has already been noticed in these columns. Capt. Green is a self-made man, who worked up his way from the ruttle to that of Master of Transportation and again to that of Superintendent. Merit will not go long un-rewarded. Capt. Green is a clever and ur-tuous gentleman, and he has the good welfare of North Carolina at heart.

Wilmington Star: Mr. E. J. Thorpe, who during the past year has held a position in the General Freight and Passenger Department, has been appointed Private Secretary to Mr. H. Walters, General Manager of the Atlantic Coast Line. We chronicle this merited promotion with real pleasure. Mr. Thorpe is admirably fitted for the duties of his new position, and will acquire himself with credit there, as he has always done in every place heretofore held by him.

GOLDSBORO JOTTINGS.

Personal Mention and Items of Interest at Home.

FAREWELL old year; welcome new. LET "boom" be the word for Goldsboro next year.

MISS ADA HUMPHREY, of St. Mary's, is at home for the holidays.

The young men gave a German at the Armory Christmas night.

MR. J. H. SMITH left Tuesday for his post at Paint Rock, Tenn.

MISS CARRIE JONES, of Hillsboro, is on a visit to Miss Flora Waitt.

THERE was service in St. Stephen's Episcopal church Christmas morning.

MRS. J. W. LAMB is spending the holidays with relatives in Wilmington.

OLIVER DOUD BYRON, in the "Inside Track," Thursday evening of next week.

MISS STELLA MILLARD, who is teaching at Graham, is at home for the holidays.

MESSRS. TIM CARNEY and Clarence Morris, of Durham, were in the city on Monday.

MAJ. W. A. SMITH, of Johnston, was in this city Tuesday, in his usual good health.

MISS ZIBBIE COX, who has been visiting relatives at Clayton and Carey, has returned.

THE REV. DR. A. KEYSER, of Baltimore, is in the city, the guest of E. Rosenthal, Esq.

MR. H. C. LEWIS, of the New Arlington, spent Christmas in Danville, Va., his former home.

JOHNNIE COX, Charlie Grainger and Charlie Edgerton returned to the Davis School Tuesday.

KATE CLAXTON, in "The Two Orphans," at the Opera House this (Wednesday) evening.

MISS MARY ASHLEY and SUDIE KIRBY, of Peace Institute, are spending the holidays at home.

MRS. LAURA JONES, who is teaching at Boston, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Millard.

MISS MARTHA DRIVER, of Norfolk, who has been visiting Miss Lullie Miller, returned home Tuesday.

The Italian harpers will furnish music at the Opera House to-night for the Kate Claxton entertainment.

MISS BESSIE and Hattie Griffin, of Rocky Mount, spent Christmas with their cousins, Messrs. Griffin Bros.

MISS LIZZIE SMITH is at home for the holidays from her duties as teacher of music in Teachey's Institute.

PROF. JAMES PRIGDEN, of King's Mountain High School, is spending the holidays with his parents in the city.

MR. HAYNE DAVIS, of Statesville, a student of the University, spent Christmas with his friend, Mr. Logan Howell.

QUITE a party are coming down to the Claxton entertainment from Wilson, Fremont, Rocky Mount and Smithfield.

The reception at the Armory Tuesday evening by the young men of the city to the Social Cooking Club, was a very pleasant affair.

MR. FRED A. HESS, who has been writing a series of interesting letters for the Argus from Florida, is a guest at the New Arlington.

MR. SAMUEL EASON will become a partner in his father's business on January 1st, and the firm will be styled J. C. Eason & Son.

The schedule on the Midland Road was changed on Monday. The train leaves here for Smithfield at 11:55 a. m. and arrives at 3:30 p. m.

The dedication exercises of the new Hebrew synagogue to-morrow afternoon will attract a large attendance. The public are cordially invited.

MR. WARRIE JONES, of Kenansville, spent Tuesday with his cousin, Mrs. C. T. Carroll, in this city, on his return from home to the Davis School.

WHEN we turn over new leaf Saturday morning, may we have the courage and strength to keep them fairer than the ones we turned 12 months ago.

JOHN SPRER gave a party at the residence of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Spicer, on Monday evening, which was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

THE comings and goings during the holidays have been too numerous to keep pace with. So we hope you will pardon us if "upon our list your name is missed."

A MEETING of the District Stewards of the Newbern District will be held at the Methodist District Parsonage in this city on Tuesday next, January 4th at 12 o'clock m.

THE Rifles had two target practices on Christmas day. Lieut. T. H. Bain was awarded the company badge, and Mr. W. T. Harrison was awarded the Eastern Carolina Fair badge.

MASTER WILL FREEMAN, who is at home for the holidays from Georgetown College, will give a party to his young friends this (Wednesday) evening at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Freeman.

We learn that the Goldsboro Rifles are considering the idea of going into the National Encampment at Washington City, in May, and competing for one of the many valuable prizes that will be offered. Why not?

UNDER Republican rule it happened seldom that the Government found itself indebted to its postmasters, and hence we record with pleasure the fact that a few days ago our town-fellow, Maj. H. L. Grant, formerly the efficient postmaster of this city, received a check for over $300, balance found to be due him by the Postoffice Department.

HOWORTH'S Hibernics and Specialty Company held the boards of the Opera House Monday night. The entertainment failed to come up to the expectations of the audience and fell short of its reputation established here last year.

MR. CHARLES A. STEVENSON, the husband of Miss Kate Claxton, is recognized by the profession as one of the foremost actors on the stage. Miss Sarah Jewitt is one of the original cast in "The Two Orphans," and she is charming.

REV. DR. J. R. BROOKS, the new pastor, preached at St. Paul Church Sunday morning, and made a favorable impression upon his hearers. The Dr.'s party arrived Tuesday afternoon, and were welcomed at the parsonage by several ladies of the congregation.

THAT Goldsboro needs water works has long been apparent. What we want now is a practical plan for securing them. Bring forth your suggestions, gentlemen, compare them, adopt the best, and then act in concert and the greatly desired improvement will be forthcoming.

At the home of the bride, in this city, on Thursday evening of last week, Mr. Luther Maxwell and Miss Ida Langston, daughter of Mr. B. J. Langston, were united in marriage, the Rev. J. T. Harris officiating. We wish them happiness and prosperity.

ON Wednesday evening of last week Mr. John O. Carroll was married to Miss Fannie E. Hicks, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hicks. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents and was performed by Rev. C. J. Nelson. To the newly married couple we extend best wishes.

MRS. DR. GEO. W. BUTLER, of Maranham, Brazil, S. A., accompanied by her two-year-old son, little Norwood, arrived in the city Tuesday evening, on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Humphrey. The thrill of joy that pervades a home upon the return of a long absent loved one is difficult to describe. Indeed it needs no description with those who have experienced it. We rejoice with these good people in their rejoicings and most heartily wish Miss Rena, as she is accustomed to calling her, a happy visit to our city—her former home.

THE entire community joins us in offering best wishes for the good, bright and happy to the talented and popular superintendent of our Graded School, Prof. E. A. Alderman, and his accomplished young bride, Miss Emma Graves, daughter of Prof. Graves, of the University. The happy event was solemnized this (Wednesday) morning in Chapel Hill, the Rev. Dr. Jenkins, of Raleigh, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Alderman are expected to arrive in the city this afternoon and a reception will be given them at the residence of Capt. R. P. Howell this evening.

MR. L. A. DODGE, of Boston, who recently spent a few days at the Arlington Hotel in this city, writes this to Gen. Dodd: "I wish I was sitting in your comfortable hotel before a good fire on Christmas day, instead of being here, tossed about in the chilly blasts, off the New Jersey shore. I have been at a good many hotels in North Carolina and Virginia since I left your town, but at no place have I found so comfortable a house or so good a table as I found with you. I shall certainly be with you again before the winter closes—say in February."

THE following are the newly elected officers of Stoweall Lodge, Knights of Honor: Dictator—J. C. Eason; Vice Dictator—J. B. Whitaker, Jr.; Assistant Dictator—W. H. Huggins; Reporter—Wm. Taylor; Financial Reporter—F. W. Smith; Treasurer—R. P. Fonville; Chaplain—R. P. Howell; Guide—D. P. Haskett; Sentinel—W. W. Wade; Medical Examiner—Dr. W. H. H. Cobb; Trustees—T. W. Sloucomb, R. P. Howell, J. W. Lamb; Representative to Grand Lodge—W. H. H. Cobb; Alternates—W. H. Huggins. The installation of the above officers will take place on the second Thursday evening in January, at which time a full attendance of the members is desired.

THE Kate Claxton Company to appear at the Opera House this (Thursday) night, comes here direct from Norfolk, where they played Monday and Tuesday nights before delighted audiences. The Virginian says: "Miss Kate Claxton, supported by Mr. Chas. A. Stevenson, presented the 'Two Orphans' to a large audience last night, and were well received. Miss Claxton, as Louise, the blind girl; Mr. Stevenson, as Jacques Frochard; Mr. Jas. L. Edwards, as Chevalier de Vandrey; and Alice Leigh as Mother Frochard, were beyond criticism in their respective parts, and taken as a whole it was far superior to the majority of the plays to which Norfolk has been treated this season." The company should receive a flattering greeting.

WALTER BINGHAM. Scales Offers Reward for his Apprehension.

RALEIGH, Dec. 27.—It is rumored that Walter Bingham, the murderer of Miss Lizzie Turlington, has been captured in Canada. Gov. Seales issued a proclamation Saturday night offering a reward of one hundred dollars for the capture of Bingham.

The Raleigh News and Observer, of Wednesday, says in this connection: "Various rumors have for the past two days been current in the city to the effect that Walter Bingham had been arrested. They are not authentic. No information has been received from any source concerning him. He seems to have entirely eluded all efforts to apprehend him, whether intentionally or not. Various theories are advanced as to his whereabouts, but nothing is known. It is generally supposed that he is near Council Bluffs, Iowa, but a letter from a former North Carolinian at that place says he has not been there."

THANKS! The Selma correspondent of the Smithfield Record says: "A good paper does much to build up a place. Instance: Goldsboro. What enterprise, or set of men have done more to build that place from a village to a thrifty young city than the MESSENGER, under the able management of that prince among editors, J. A. Bonitz? Has any place ever gone backward which had one or more live newspapers in it? I think not."

DEDICATION SERVICES.

Of the Hebrew Temple of Oheb Shalom.

The handsome Temple of our Hebrew friends is completed and is to be dedicated with becoming ceremony to-morrow. The public are invited to occupy all such seats as are not specially reserved for the member of the congregation and invited friends from the distance.

Services will begin at 11 p. m. The pastor Rabbi Marx Moses, will be assisted in the religious exercises by Rev. Dr. A. Keyser, of Baltimore, who first organized the Oheb Shalom congregation. The Hon. Simon Wolf of Washington City, formerly Consul General of the United States to Egypt, is expected to be present as the orator of the day. The musical exercises will add additional charms to the occasion. The congregation choir, which is a most excellent one, will be greatly strengthened by the presence of Mrs. David Kahweiler.

There is to be a banquet and ball at the Armory at night in honor of the occasion, and complimentary to the invited guests. Neither efforts nor expense have been spared to make the banquet a most delightful affair. The Raleigh harpers will furnish the music, and we feel quite safe in saying that nothing has ever been witnessed in Goldsboro that excels it.

About 500 invitations have been sent out to parties at a distance, and we are pleased to learn that over $1,000 has been realized from the sale of banquet tickets. The managing committee are: Sol. Einstein, Chairman; A. Lehman, Sol. Weil, Jos. Isaacs, M. Summerfield, Asher Edwards and Alfred Kern.

THE DAVIS SCHOOL.

Its Marvelous but Gratifying Success.

The largest military boarding school in North Carolina, and one of the largest in the South is the Davis School, LaGrange, N. C. This institution is first-class in every particular. The buildings are all new and well equipped. The faculty is composed of eight professors.

Besides the usual branches, there is a Department of Art in charge of an artist. There is also a Practical Business Department in which Book-keeping, Banking, &c., are taught. A special feature in the school is Penmanship. If parents want their sons to write a good hand, Davis School is the place to send them. While Davis School offers these special courses of study, there is a regular course of study, for boys and young men are prepared for any College or University, or for business.

The School is managed on business principles. Before sending a son there, a father can read the register of the school, and know what the cost will be. There is no extra charge for Latin, Greek, French, German or the Sciences. The school has its own Doctor. In case of sickness there is no charge for medical attention or medicine. Washing, wood, and lights are furnished free of charge. The location is wonderfully healthy. There has never been a death in school. With all these advantages, the rates are very low.

The success of this excellent school is highly gratifying. But very few people even in this immediate section, have any conception of the magnitude of the Davis school and of the good work it is doing. The efforts of Col. Davis cannot be too highly appreciated. Read the advertisement in this paper.

RECOGNITION OF SERVICE.

Mr. John W. Thompson's Resignation Declined.

Mr. J. W. Thompson, who has been Secretary and Treasurer of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company for nearly thirty years, and on account of continued ill health tendered his resignation on the 8th inst. as Secretary and Treasurer of the Wilmington & Weldon, Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta, and other railroads under the control of the Atlantic Coast Line, the same to take effect January 1st, 1887. A meeting of the Board of Directors was held in Wilmington on the 14th inst., at which the President, Hon. R. R. Bridgers, laid the resignation before them. A motion was made, which was carried unanimously, that the resignation of Mr. Thompson be laid upon the table and that he tendered a leave of absence until July 1st, 1887, with no reduction of his salary during that time, in the hope that, in the mean time, he may be fully restored to health and able to resume his duties.

At the same meeting of the Board of Directors Mr. J. F. Post, Jr., was elected Assistant Treasurer and Assistant Secretary and clothed with authority to sign checks and drafts and in fact all other papers to which Mr. Thompson's signature has heretofore been necessary.

Mr. Thompson will, early in January, leave the city, and without fixing himself in any permanent abode, will visit Goldsboro, Wilson and other places. We doubt not that absolute relief from the care and labor of his present onerous duties will prove beneficial, and we hope to be able shortly to chronicle a decided improvement in his condition.—Wilmington Review.

MARRIED.

At Burgaw, on Wednesday, the 22nd inst., Mr. JAMES H. COLVIN and Miss LILLIAN, only daughter of Mr. James P. Moore, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends.

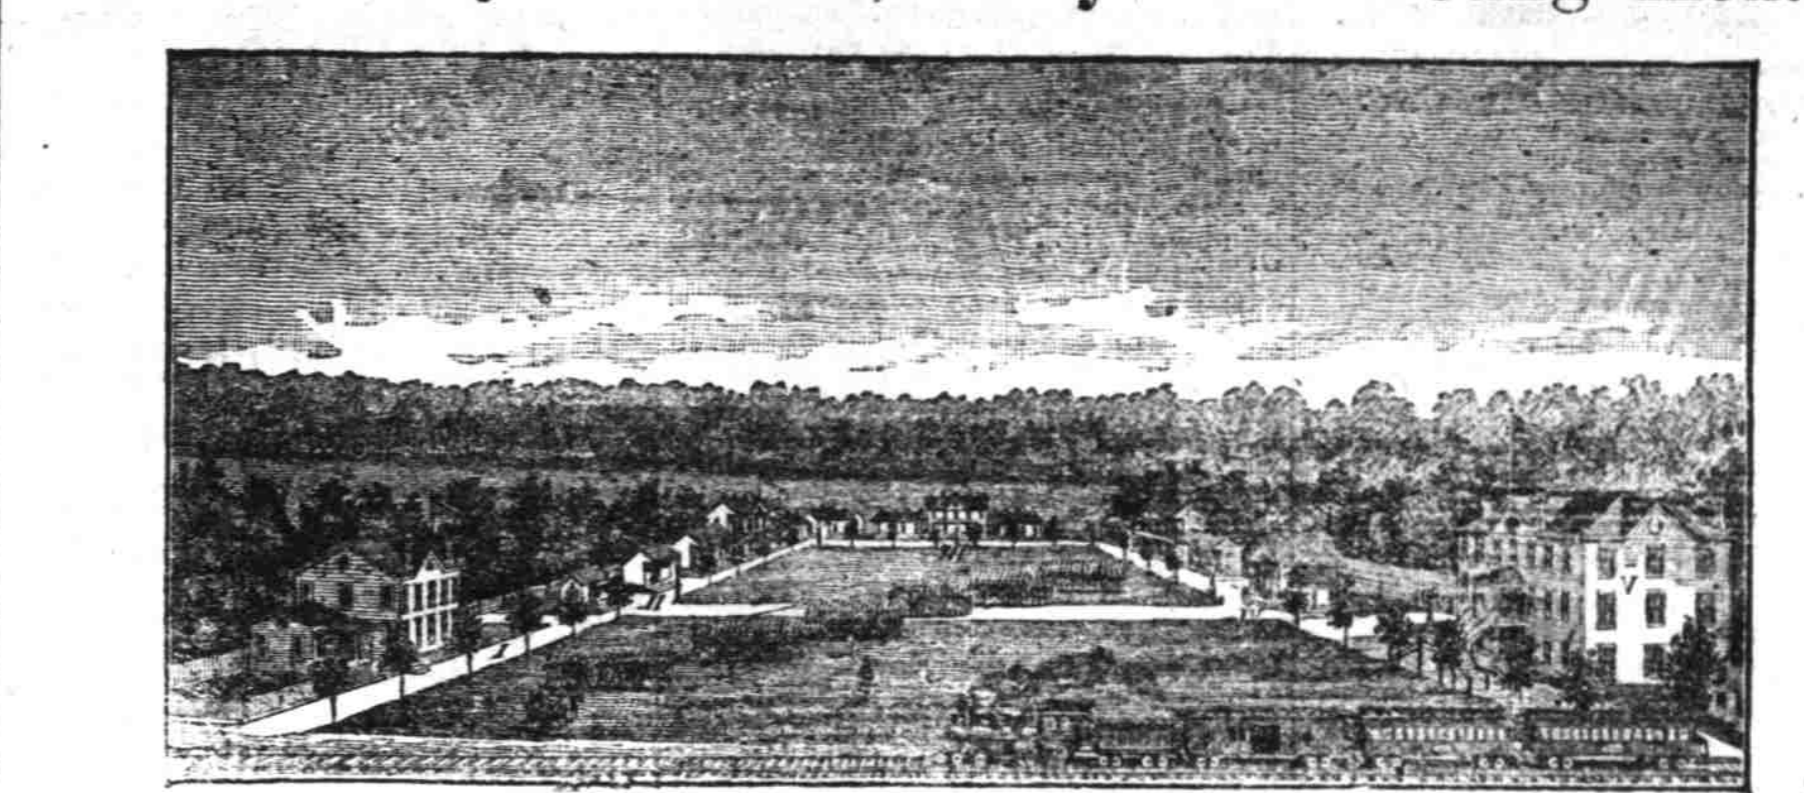

Mr. Thompson was with the bride.

COME ON WITH YOUR WHEAT.
