FACTS OF THE RAID TO GREENVILLE.

DEAR SIR, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th inst. and in reply to inform you that the facts of the raid to Greenville are as follows: On the 18th inst. a party of about 1000 men, under the command of General Sherman, entered the State of North Carolina and proceeded to Greenville. They were met by a small force of our militia, and a battle ensued. The result was a complete victory for the Federal forces.

On the 20th inst. a party of about 1000 men, under the command of General Sherman, entered the State of North Carolina and proceeded to Greenville. They were met by a small force of our militia, and a battle ensued. The result was a complete victory for the Federal forces.

THE NOVEMBER TERM OF THE COURT OF

will be held at Raleigh, N. C., on the 23rd inst.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Information has been received here that the steamer Kate, after successfully running the blockade of Wilmington, ran upon the obstructions in the Cape Fear river. The collision knocked a hole in her hull. She was then forced to stop in a sinking condition and sunk in low water. The Captain and crew were saved. The Kate had a large and valuable cargo, part of which consists of iron and will be saved.

A Millon and a Half to be Accounted for.

The Treasurer of this morning says that an absence of vouchers for the sum of one million and a half of dollars has been discovered in the Medical Purveyor's department. An official investigation now progressing, will, it is believed, not reveal any criminality but informality and looseness in the administration of the affairs of the Purveyor's department.

Loss of a Brig and a Schooner.

The Charleston blockaders had the schooner and brig Rany Lewis ashore at New Inlet, near Wilmington, on Monday. Capt. Gardner and eight of the crew were drowned while attempting to reach the shore. Only two of the crew saved. The brig lies out of range of the blockaders, the schooner was turned by a load's crew of thirteen Yankees, all of whom were afterwards captured by our cavalry.

Attack on Fort McAllister.

The Savannah papers this morning say that two abolition gunboats and one mortar boat attacked Fort McAllister, Georgia Point, on the Aqueduct River, yesterday morning. After a fierce engagement the boats retired. Our loss, three men slightly wounded. The works are still in perfect order.

More Confederate Steamers Lost.

The Nassau dispatch of the 12th report the loss of the steamer Kelpie, fifty miles off the coast. She was run into, abandoned and soon after sunk. She was one of the three light draught steamers built expressly on the Clyde to run the blockade. The Diana, one of the others, not having been heard from, is also supposed to be lost.

Army Movements in the Southwest.

A letter in the Atlantic and Register, dated Asheville 15th, says our army has been on the qui vive for the week past anticipating an attack upon the enemy. It is now believed that the attack will be made to-day. Information has been received that the attack will be made to-day. Information has been received that the attack will be made to-day.
