GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH-CAROLINA.

FRIDAY, NOV. 28.

SENATE.

The Senate convened at 11 o'clock.
Sundry reports from Standing Committees were submitted.
Mr. Ellis, from the Select Committee to consider the bill to purchase clothing, etc., reported it back with a substitute, which was made the order of the day for Monday at 12 o'clock.
Mr. White introduced a bill, to amend an ordinance of the Convention making provision for the families of deceased and disabled soldiers. Relates to the prompt payment of bounty. Referred.
Mr. Ramsay, in resolution to refer to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, so much of the Governor's message as relates to salt.

The resolution to continue the operation of the ordinance of the Convention prohibiting the distillation of liquor from grain, was read the second time.
Mr. Lane was surprised that the Committee to whom the proposition was referred, had reported adversely thereon. He thought the question now was whiskey or bread. Between the two, he preferred bread. It was evident that if much more whiskey was distilled there would be no bread.

Mr. Sharp thought that a mere resolution could not extend an ordinance, but that a bill was necessary. Besides, he understood that a bill was now before the House, which would more fully accomplish the purpose desired by Mr. Lane. He moved the resolution be laid on the table—adopted.
The bill to amend an act incorporating the Lizzards Copper Company. Passed its 3d reading.
Also, the bill to amend the charter of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad Company.

The bill to amend the 9th and 12th sections, Chapter 101, Rev. Code was read, and
Mr. Murill offered a substitute repealing sections 7 to 13 inclusive, and proposing the appointment by the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of a Road Commissioner who should take charge of the keeping of the roads in good order. The substitute was rejected, and the bill passed with an amendment excepting from its operation Ministers of the Gospel, and allowing compensation to overseers of roads.

A message was received from the House proposing to elect forthwith an acting clerk, and concerning it.
An election was held but the vote was not announced.

A message was received from the House transmitting a report from the sub-committee on Finance. The bill to secure the property of married women on its second reading was formally passed over.
The bill for the better management of insolvent estates, on its second reading, was taken up and read the second time.
Mr. Lane thought the present law entirely inadequate. He thought instead of securing justice, it favored the note shaver, the sharper and others of that ilk.

On Mr. Warren's motion, the bill was laid on the table.
Mr. Ramsay moved that a message be sent to the House, proposing to go into an election for State Treasurer at 12 o'clock.
Mr. Lane desired that the message should not be sent. It was a fact well known that a number of Senators were absent, called away for different purposes, and he thought it would not be right to elect that officer during the absence of those Senators.

Mr. Murill concurred in the Senator's remarks.
The message was ordered to be sent.
Subsequently a message was received from the House refusing to concur in the proposition.
The bill in regard to the hire of slaves, on its second reading, did not pass.
The bill to prohibit for a length of time the distillation of spirituous liquors, amendatory of an ordinance of the Convention, on its second reading, was considered, and the bill reported by the Committee on the Judiciary offered as a substitute. After some modifications, the substitute passed its second and third readings.

At 11 o'clock the Speaker called the House to order.
Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lansdell.
The joint select committee to enquire whether the offices of Attorney and Adjutant General were vacant, consist of Messrs. Donnell, Shepherd, Beall and Judkins of the House; Messrs. Graham, Brown and Ramsay of the Senate.

Mr. Robbins presented a memorial from the citizens of Randolph county, praying a tax upon dogs.
Mr. Davenport presented a petition and a memorial in favor of allowing Wyatt, a free man of color, to enslave himself to C. A. Fotherstone of Gaston.
A number of reports were received from the several standing and select committees.

Mr. Worth presented a report from the Finance Committee stating that they had examined into the accounts of the Public Treasurer and had found all correct.

BILLS ON THEIR FIRST READING.
Mr. Bynum, for the relief of the Jailors of Edgecombe county. It was read the second time and laid on the table, a general bill for the entire State being on the Calendar.

Mr. Ingram, to exempt 50 acres of land from execution after 1st January, 1863.
Mr. Harrison, to have capital executions private.
Mr. Donnell, to admit proof of the handwriting of attesting witnesses in certain cases.
Also, to provide for the probate of Wills, &c., in the counties occupied by the enemy.
Mr. Headen, to provide manufactories of cotton and wool cards.
Mr. Walsler, to incorporate the Beattville Seminary.

Mr. Bumpass, that our representatives in Congress use their influence to procure the passage of a law allowing private soldiers $20 per month.
A message was received from the Senate proposing to make a verbal amendment in the resolution offered by Mr. Person on yesterday.
On motion of Mr. Fowle, the resolutions were laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

At a later hour Mr. Shepherd moved to take up the resolutions, which was opposed by Mr. Fowle, and supported by Messrs. Shepherd and McKay. After some debate Mr. Fowle withdrew his opposition, and the amendment was unanimously adopted.

BILLS ON THEIR SECOND READING.
To amend the 29th section 102d chapter Revised Code. Authorizes the County Courts to increase the fees of jailors to a sum not exceeding one dollar per day for each prisoner.
Mr. Peebles offered the bill, as a general law was uncalled for. He thought the present fee of $15 per month sufficient.

Messrs. Cowles and Worth supported the bill.
Mr. Peebles offered an amendment limiting the bill to the end of the war. Rejected and the bill passed its second and third readings.
A message was sent to the Senate proposing to enter into an election forthwith for an Engraving Clerk and nominating Messrs. John Moore, James J. Anderson, Duncan G. McLaue and Veil. The Senate amended by proposing two Engraving Clerks, which was agreed to.

The House voted, but the first election was declared informal, the House having voted for each candidate separately, while the Senate voted at once for both. Mr. T. H. Hill's name being placed in nomination, the House voted again, when Messrs. Moore and Hill were elected.

A message was received from the Senate proposing to enter into an election for Public Treasurer at half past one o'clock.
Mr. Love wished the election postponed, as many members were unavoidably absent for a few days.
The motion was rejected. Ayes 41, nays 44.
The matter ended here, as the House adjourned to Saturday morning 11 o'clock.

[From the London Star.]
THE FITTING OUT OF THE ALABAMA.
While the Alabama was in course of construction at Birkenhead, the American Consul at Liverpool made a representation on the subject to the custom authorities. Nothing came of it, and further representations were made, we believe, to the board of trade. This also proving ineffectual, the opinion of Mr. Collier, Q. C., was taken on the lawfulness of the proceeding, under the Queen's proclamation of neutrality. The learned gentleman's opinion was decidedly against the builders or owners of the vessel, and was, therefore, submitted to the Foreign Office. The law officers of the crown were then consulted on the matter, and their opinion, we understand, entirely coincided with that of Mr. Collier. It became, therefore, the duty of the Government to prevent the departure of the Alabama; but by the time this decision was arrived at she had left the Mersey, and, perhaps, commenced her career of desperation and destruction.

It is known that as many as nine other ships are being built or equipped in British harbors for the service of the Confederates. If they were to serve simply and strictly as vessels of war—if they were to be employed in the attempt to break the blockade, to recover New Orleans, to fight the Federals in the Southern rivers, or other legitimate arts of warfare—they would, nevertheless, be subject to arrest and detention.

DIED.
In this city, on Wednesday night last, the infant son of John and Mollie Spelman.

By the Governor of North Carolina.
A PROCLAMATION.
WHEREAS, in order to stop, if possible, the wicked system of speculation which is blighting the land, and prevent the production of famine in the midst of plenty, the Legislature of North Carolina, by a joint resolution thereof, ratified on the 22d day of this month (November) have authorized me to lay an embargo upon the exportation from the State of certain articles of prime necessity, except to certain persons and for certain purposes:

Now, therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my proclamation, forbidding all persons, for the space of thirty days from the date hereof, from carrying beyond the limits of the State any salt, bacon, pork, beef, corn, meal, flour, potatoes, shoes, leather, hides, cotton cloth, any yarn and woolen cloth. The following persons are alone to be exempted from this prohibition, viz:

All Quartermasters and Commissioners, Agents of the Confederate Government and of any State of the Confederacy, exhibiting proper evidence of this official character; also all Agents of any county, district, town or corporation of other States, who shall exhibit satisfactory proof of their authority to purchase such articles in behalf of such towns, counties, districts or corporations for public uses, or for distribution at cost and transportation, and not for re-sale or profit; also, all persons who may make oath before the nearest Justice of the Peace that the articles purchased are for their own private use, and not for re-sale, and that they are removed; also, all persons, non-residents who may have bought such articles before the date hereof. The exception is to persons who may be non-residents on the sea coast and in their own works, and to cargoes entering any of our ports from abroad.

Any said articles that may be stopped in transit from our borders are to be confiscated to the use of the State.
Until further orders the Colonels of Militia in the different counties, are enjoined to see that this proclamation is enforced.

Not intending or desiring to prevent the people of our sister States from sharing with our own citizens whatever we can spare, but to repress speculation so far as may be possible, I earnestly appeal to all good citizens to aid and sustain me in the enforcement of this proclamation for the common good.

In witness whereof, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor, Captain General, and Commander-in-Chief hath signed these presents, and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.
Done at the city of Raleigh, this 26th day of November, 1862, and in the year of our independence the 57th.
Z. B. VANCE.

By the Governor:
R. H. BATTLE, Private Secretary. 32

BY TELEGRAPH.
[Reported expressly for the State Journal.]

From the Southwest—Advance of the Federals.
RICHMOND, Nov. 28.
A letter in the Advertiser & Register dated 23d Quarters Cavalry Division, ten miles north of Holly Springs, 23d, says, no doubt, the enemy intend advancing in this direction. Fifty to sixty thousand abolitionists are in front at Grand Junction, Davis Mills, and LeGrange. Reinforcements are joining them daily from Memphis and Jackson.

The enemy are rapidly repairing the Memphis and Charleston Rail Road to Grand Junction; also the Mississippi Central towards Holly Springs. All the stations and bridges are heavily guarded.
Their armed foraging parties, composed of the v-1st robbers and murderers on the face of the earth, ravage the country round, for miles on every side. Davis Mills to Moscow seems to be their base.

Capt. Mitchell's cavalry company attacked a Yankee forage train comprising forty wagons, guarded by eighty cavalry and two companies of infantry, killing and wounding twenty-nine Federals. They captured eleven prisoners and forty-eight mules without loss. The prisoners and captured property were brought in last night.

Another Yankee Gunboat Captured.
RICHMOND, Nov. 28.
A Federal gunboat was captured in New River, Onslow county, N. C., on the 26th inst., by Captain Newkirk's cavalry. The crew escaped, after setting the steamer on fire. Considerable property has been saved. She had been up to Jacksonville and broken open the Court-House and Post Office and carried off all the papers and records they could find. No allusion to their burning the town made by couriers or letters.

Casualties Wilmington & Manchester R. R. Accident.
RICHMOND, Nov. 28.
The casualties on the Wilmington & Manchester Railroad, on Wednesday evening, five miles west of Florence, were: killed, the two Misses Newbold, of Charleston; Wounded: Sarah J. Fullam, of Richmond, Va., skull fractured; T. J. Swann, of Ga., shoulder dislocated; J. M. Brantly, of S. C., arm broken; Battle of G. A. arm broken; Anonim, of Charleston, badly bruised; Mrs. Newbold and Miss Warwick, of Charleston, badly bruised; Thomas F. Gurse, of Wilmington, ditto; Mrs. C. P. Hawkins, of Ga., James Dawson and A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, severely. Others slightly bruised.

Economy in House-Keeping.
PERSONS WISHING TO ECONOMISE WILL DO well to send the subscriber two dollars, for which he will send them three receipts, the most useful to House-Keepers ever used.
First, I will send a receipt for doubling the ordinary cost of soap, or turpentine soap, at a cost of not more than two cents per pound in addition to the cost of the soap. This article washes clothes with much less rubbing. I have sold a great many of these receipts, and so far, I have not heard a single complaint.
Second, one for making an excellent article of washing fluid.
In using this preparation very little rubbing will be necessary. The ingredients for making the same are kept in most Drug and Grocery Stores. By using this preparation, clothes can be prepared for the starch and iron cheaper, and with more ease, than the ordinary way of washing. The article can be made in a very short time.
Third, one for making patent starch polish.
The use of this polish will enable the most ordinary laborer to give linen the appearance of just having left the hands of the most experienced finisher. A very few articles of No Savings Bank notes taken in payment.
Address, P. A. PIERCY, P. M., Mount Hope, P. O., Mecklenburg Co., Va.

Certificates.
We hereby certify that we have fairly tested Mr. Piercy's Receipts for making Soap, and believe it to be every thing he represents.
L. E. FINCH, of Clarksville, Va. DOBELL & LAWRENCE, Do. R. H. BARTLEY & Co., Do. S. W. LINDSAY, Do. W. T. CHAFFIN, Charlotte, Va. W. H. BLANCH, Mecklenburg, Va.

This will certify that I have given Mr. Piercy's Receipts a fair trial, and that it is no humbug.
O. M. SMITH, Lenoirburg.

This is to certify that I have used the above receipt for making Soap, and think it is the best and cheapest method of making it, I have ever seen. I would not be entirely without it for ten dollars.
ELISHA ANDREWS, Lenoirburg, Va.

I would advise every family to purchase a Receipt. They could not spend a dollar to turn them out more.
W. A. BARTY, Lenoirburg, Va.

No House-keeper should be without these useful receipts.

Medical College of Virginia, at Richmond—Session of 1862-'63.
THE NEXT ANNUAL COURSE OF LECTURES will commence on the first Monday in November, 1862, and continue until the 1st of March ensuing. It is intended by the Faculty to abandon permanently the session of five months, but in consideration of the state of the country, and the increased expense of living, it has seemed to them advisable to reduce it, for the present, to four months. The course will be conducted on the same plan, and with the same advantages to the student, as heretofore.
