DECLINED .- The lines of "P. H. L." from Chapel Hill, do not near come up to our standard. They are respectfully declined.

Capt. Wiley D. Jones was elected to the vacant Senatorship in this county, on Thursday last. The vote was very small. No interest whatever was taken in the election. THE SOUTHERN FIELD AND FIRESIDE. - We invite attention to the prospectus of the new series of this most excellent Southern Journal. The proprietor deserves all the patronage he may receive.

RECEIVED .- A large number of communications, lists of casualties, &c., from our Army Correspondents. have ceen received, and will be published as rapidly as we can find room for them. Amongst the communications is a detailed, well-written account of the late abolition advance on Goldsboro. This is written by a gentleman thoroughly, aequainted with the subject and may be regarded as reliable. It shall appear to-morrow.

THE MAILS AGAIN.

FORESTVILLE, Dec. 24, 1862. MR. SPELMAN .- Dear Sir : The State Journal did not come to this office last week, nor has it come to-day. Consequently we are very much disappointed,-Who is to blame?

We assure our friends at Forestville that the State Journal has been mailed to them regularly from this office. The Post Office at Raleigh, or the Rout Agents on the Raleigh & Gaston road, are to blame. The conduct of those concerned in this matter is shameful and must be remedied. We will at once communicate with the authorities at Richmond to see if a remedy cannot be applied.

STILL MORE -Our paper has not reached Leachburg, Johnston county, for the last two weeks.

THE NEWS,

Our telegraphic news is very interesting to-day -First, the Brute Butler has been removed. We shall regret this if he be not put in an active field command. Should he be, then God grant that he may fall into the hands of our troops that he may die the death of a dog, to which President Davis has con-

Greely, it seems, has given up the war as too big a job. - He calls for the recognition of the Confederacy. He says the rebels can't be whipped, and he whines for peace as the only means of ending the job. Poor Greely! If the devil gets his due he will get you,

A fight seems to be going on at Vicksburg. At the time we write, Sunday evening, nothing definite is known. Our telegraphic columns may give something additional before we go to press. .

REPORTED ABOLITION ADVANCE FROM NEW

The following is from our regular Kinston correspondent. The news is startling, if true, but it wil be seen that our correspondent gives it cautiously. When he asserts a matter as a fact we rely upon him. He was the first to announce the last advance of the Abolitionists, That news was doubted by wiseacres, as was that of the revolt among the Yankee troops at Newbern, yet both were true;

KINSTON, Dec. 28th, 1862. Editor State Journal: The news from below this morning, is startling in the extreme. A report has just reached town, said to come from the picket lines, to the effect that the Abolitionists are in heavy force and are moving in this direction from towards New-

Many believe the report to be true, whilst others say it is incorrect.

I cannot wouch for the correctness of the rumor myself. I send you the news as I receive it. You shall hear from me again on to-morrow.

The following is a sailor's description of a dance "Haven't had any fun with the land lubbers till Thursday night at a dance. When I arrived in the cabin I found them under headway of a Spanish dance. Took my station in line with Suke Tuekerfell back and filled, then shot ahead two fathoms hauled up on a starboard tack to let another craft pass, and then came stern on another sail-spoke her and then bore round against the sun and fell in yith another sail in full chase. Passed twenty sail on same course, and when half way across to the other shore, dropped astern, fell back-couldn't fill, so let go anchor, and hauled up for repairs."

CHAPEL HILL, Dec. 25, 1862. Mr. EDITOR: I am a refugee from the low counone of the many who have been driven from their homes, with the loss of what they possessed -On my way here, I was frequently told, that the people up the country had no sympathy for the refugee. cannot speak for other places, but I am happy to state, that, as far as Chapel Hill is concerned, it is not true. Houses are scarce, and rents high; and provisions are very high, but this is not the fault of the people. Refugees do not expect the people here, who are poorly provided for the support of their own families, to divide the food needed, by those dependent on them. But I know the people have done and are doing all they can to alleviate the sufferings of the refugees and, are now, manifesting their sympathy, in a substantial manner. I would not make an inviduous distinction, but I may be permitted to name two persons. A. Mickle Esq., is one of nature's noblemen and well deserves the enviable name he has acquired of "public benefactor" Mrs. Anna Ashe, after havangel of mercy, contributing of what she has, to the comforts of the refugee. She, like many others here, is remarkable, not only for the goodness of her acts, but the kind manner in which she does them. S.

Thy will; Strike, Lord, till the infidel tyrants be still."

WHAT HAS OUR LEGISLATURE DONE?-The only thing we have heard of this grave body doing that tends to advance the interest of the people, is to extend the law against distilling corn into whisky .-For this humane act we give the members credit, But they have adjourned over the 19th January, and have left some things undone that they ought tohave done, and have done some things that they had better left undone, this is especially true in so far as it regards proscribing good public Officers merely because they were original secessionists. We would not have touched a hair on their heads for "a mint!" Why? Because it could not be done without a display of partizan spirit, and that is a spirit the times just now cry trampet-tongued against. Ill-betide the man who panders to "party" to times like these, for party reward-better he a dog and bay the moon, We have been asked the question, if there was not a "reconstruction" element at work in our Legislature? Some people profess to see it, while many more fear it. We confess that the question took us with surprise. Reconstruction! No. sir! Woewoe betide that man who dares to propose it or advocate it. And wee betide the man who seeks to array the people of this State into two hostile parties, one founded on factious opposition to the Confederate Government, the other predicated on its support.

Judging the residue of the session by that which has passed, we lean to the opinion that this Legislature will consult the interest of the State by standing adjourned, sine die,
