The paper before us contains the first of January emancipation proclamation of Abraham 1., which we annex as part of the history of the times :- Richmond Enquirer.

WASHINGTON, Man. 1st, 1863.—By the President of the United States of America A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS. On the twenty-second day of Septemher, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, a Proclamation was issued by the President of the United States, containing among other things, the following, to-wit:

"That on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, all persons held as slaves within any State or design nated part of a State, the people whareo shall be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward and forever free, and the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no actor acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any effort they may make for active freedom,

That the Executive will, on the first day of Jan-"nary aforesaid, by proclimation, designate the States and parts of States, if any, in which the people there-in respectively, shall then be in bellion against the United States, and the fact that any State and the people thereof shall, on that day, in good be faith represented in the Courses of the United States, by members chosen thereto at elections wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be d emed conclusive evidence that such State and the people thereof are not then in rebellion against the United States.'

Now, therefore, I Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, by virtue of the power in me vested as Commander in-Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States in time of actual armed rebellion against the authority and government of the United States, and as & St and necessary war measure for suppressing the said rebellion, do, on this the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousa d eight hundred and sixty-three, and in accordance with my purpose so to do, publicly proclaim, for the full period of one hundred days from the day first above mentioned, order and designate as the States and parts of States wherein the people thereof respectively are this day in rebellion against the United States, the following, to wit:

Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, (except the parishes of St. Bernard, Plaquemines, Jefferson, St. James, Ascension, Assumption, Terrebonne, Lafourche, St. Martin and Orieans, including the city of New Orleans,) Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia (except the forty-eight counties designated as West Virginia, and also the counties of Berkeley, Accomac, Northampton, Elizabeth City, York, Princess Anne and Norfolk and Portsmouth,) and which excepted parts are for the present left precisely as if the proclamation

And by virtue of the power and for the purpose aforesaid. I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves within the said designated States and parts of said States, are, and henceforward shall be free; and that the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of said persons.

And I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared to be free, to abstain from violence, unless in necessary self-defence, and I recommend to them that in all cases, when allowed, they labor faithfully for reasonable wages. And I further declare and make known that such persons, of suitable condition, will be received into the armed service of the United States, to garrison forts, positions, stations, and other places, and to man vessels of all serts in the said service. And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice, warranted by the Constitution, upon military necessity. I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind and the gracious favor of Almighty_God.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affix-

[L. S.] Done at the city of Washington, this the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the eighty-ABRAHAM LINCOLN. seventh.

FROM OUR KINSTON CORRESPONDENT.

KINSTON, Jan. 6th. EDITORS STATE JOURNAU: The news from this locality is very important to-day. I cannot give you the details of things as they now stand down here. It would be indiscreet in me to do so. I will say, however, that we have just heard from below, and things are startling in the extreme, and no mistake about it, in the least. The enemy are in heavy force at Newbern; and may be on the move in this direction to-day. I cannot write more at this time, peradventure I may say too much.

RICHMOND, Jan. G. The Chicago Times justifies President Davis' retaliatory proclamation.

The Enquirer's dispatches say telegraph communication with Nashville is destroyed. Advices from Murfree boro', state that the Federals are advancing and the rebels falling back across

Gen. Rosencrantz's dispatches say that the rebels are whipped terribly; that the Federals are at Chereega, 9 miles from Murfreesboro'. The dispatch says the loss of Federal officers is heartrending. Rosencrapz, with the 44th U. S Cavalry, attacked Wheeler's Cavalry and cut them to pieces and routed

A dispatch from Cairo says, but one gunboat is at Vicksburg. The Benton engaged, lost commander and several of the crew.

Banks' force and Farrigut and fleet were expected. The aid did not arrive. Grant claims that Forest and Van Dorn are badly whipped, with a loss of several pieces of artilery. The lo ses at Prarie Grove is (4000) four thous-

Gov. Seymour's Inaugural.

FREDERICKSBURG, Jan. 6. Philadelphia papers of 4th received to-lay by flag

Gov. Seymour was inaugurated on the 1st. His inaugural says: I have solemnly sworn to protect the Constitution of the U.S., with all its grants, restrictions and guaranties, and I will support it. 1 have sworn to support the Constitution of New York, with all its powers and rights. I have sworn to support the duty of the office of Governor of the State.

and with your aid it shall faithfully be performed. These Constitutions and laws are meant for the guidance of our official condu t and our protection and our wellfare. First I w, second observance. It shall be the duty of the Governor to maintain and defend the sovereigh jurisdiction of State. A strict injunction of the Constitution is that the Governor shall take care the law be faithfully executed, and so help me God it shall be. I would not dwell on the present occasion on our national affairs. Our position as a State has been happily attended to by my predecessor. My views on the subject were laid before the legislature.

While knowining his position gave him little contrid over national affairs he ventured to trust before the end of his service, the country would be again great, glorious and united as once it was.

Seymour had ordered the police commissioners to appear before him to answer complaints for arbitrary arrests and imprisonments in violation of the Con-

From the West.

Mobile, Jan. 4. The Arkans is legislature has imposed a fine of not less than five thousand, nor more than ten thousand dollars, and imprisonment in the penitentiary, from five to ten years, upon parties caught trading with Yankees. Hindman's scouts bring infarmation of Grant having sent six thousand troops, from Holly Springs to Memphis. It was believed that a large portion of his force would join McClernand's expedition.

Blyth's cavalry drove the Yankees into their trenches at Memphis, captured and brought off two hundred head of cattle Rosencranz wrote North that he was about giving Bragg a terrible thrashing. Our troops are elated at Bragg's success.

Potash,-The scarcity of this article in the Southern Consederacy is a crying shame, when the material for making it is so abundant in the milst of the broad domain of our productive country. It is stated that corn stalks will produce from one thousand pounds, nearly eighteen pounds of potash. Oak and forest leaves twenty-four pounds from the same quantity. The process is simple-Collect the material in a dry, shady place, protected from the wind, and burn to ashes; carefully collect the same and make the ley in the usual way, letting the water remain on the ashes for not less than twelve hours; then evaporate in an iron kettle, till a mass of the consistency of soft soap begins to form; continue the heat, occasionally stirring with ar iron ladle, until the mass begins to fuse and ussume the color and appearace of metal. It is then ready to be set aside to cool and break into pieces. A little practice will enable any one to become expert in the manufacture of it. At the present price, about $8 per pound for petash, this is an enterprise which commends itself to some of our farmers during the winter months .- Danville Regis-

INDICATIONS OF SALT IN ROWAN .- Mr. Jesse Ribelin left at our office, last week, the production of two gallons of water then from a pit near his residence, which closely resembles, in taste and appearance, salt and lime. There is an extensive "cow lick" running across several plantations 12 miles south of this place, on a part of which some of the neighbors have sunk a pit of 12 or 15 feet in depth, hoping to strike a salt spring. Mr. Ribelin took two gallons of the water which collected in this pit, and boiled it down, and obtained a substance as described above-resembling salt and lime. Would it not be worth while for the State Geologist to visit this place, and make such an examination as to determine the probable value of the discovery?-Watchman, PROGRESS OF FREE NAVIGATION-ANOTHER GUN-BOAT DESTROYED .- It is reported in our city that several gunboats, accompanied by a transport, came up the Yazoo river a day or two since, and while attempting to raise the guns from the wreck of a boat destroyed on the 12th instant, a topedo exploded under the transport, shivering it into a thousand pieces. The Yazoo is a hard river for navigation, and it will be impossible for Yankee boats to effect insurance in Cincinnati. - Mississippian.

"STONEWALL JACKSON'S WAY." The Boston Courier says: "The following stanzas were found on the person of a rebel sergeant of the "Stonewall Brig de," eccently captured by our troops near Winchester, Virginia :"

Come, s ack arms, men! pile on the rails-Stir up the camp fire bright, No matter if the canteen fail .. We'll make a roaring night!

Here Shenandoah brawls along. There burly blue Ridge echoes strong, To swell the brigade's ronsing song. Of "Stonewall Jackson's way."

We see him now-the old slouched hat Cocked o'er his eyes askew .-The shrewd dry smile-the speech so pat, So calm, so blunt, so true. The "Blue Light Elder" knows 'em well, Lord save his soul !- we'll give him"-well, That's "Stonewall Jackson's way." Silence! ground arms! kueel all! caps off! Old Blue Light's going to pray. Strangle the fool that dares to scoff!

Says be, "that's Banks, he's fond of shell,

Attention! it's his way! Appealing from his native sud In forma pauperis to God,-"Lay have thene arm, stretch forth thy rod, Amen!" That's "Stonewall's way!"

He's in the saddle now! Fall in! Steady! the whole brigade! Hill's at the ford; cut off; we'll win His way out, ball and blade What matter if our shoes are worn?

What matter if our feet are torn? "Quick step! we're with him before morn," That's "Stonewall Jacks m's way !" The sun's bright lances rout the mists Of morning-and by George!

Here's Longstreet, struggling in the lists, Hemmed in an ugly gorge. Pope and his Yankees, whipped before, Bay'nets and grape!" Hear Stonewall roar, "Charge, Stuart! pay off Ashby's score," I. "Stonewall Jackson's way."

Ah! maiden, wait, and watch, and yearn, For news of Stonewall's Jound! Ah! widow read with eyes that burn That ring upon thy hand. Ah! wife, sew on, pray on, hope on! Thy life shall not be all forlorn!

The foe had better ne'er been born,

That gets in "Stonewall's way."

LOST.

NEGRO boy, aged about 8 years, named A ALECK, the property of James D Franks, of Wake county. He left Mrs. Franks' on Monday morning, January, 5th inst. When last heard from he was making his way towards baleigh. The boy is quite likely; has large, white eyes and thick lips. A 'half wit,' he may not be able to give his master's name, but can tell the name of his father and mother. His mother is named Harriet, his father Sam-the woman is the property of Mrs. Franks, and the man belongs to Barnabas Jones. He is very black. Had on an old fur hat, cut down and basly worn. The finder of said boy will be liberally rewarded by bringing him to Mrs. Franks or to myself.

Economy in House-Keeping. PERSONS WISHING TO ECONOMISE WILL DO well to send the subscriber two dollars, for which he will send them three receipts, the most useful to House-

Keepers ever used.

First, I will send a receipt for doubling the ordinary country-made or turpentine soap, at a cost of not more than two cents per pound in addition to the cost of the than the ordinary soap, and makes them much whiter, soap. This article washes clothes with much less rubbing I have sold a great many of these receipts, and so far, I have not heard a single complaint.

Second, One for making an excellent article of washing fluid.

In using this preparation very little rubbing will be necessary. The ingredients for making the same are kept in most Drug and Grocery Stores. By using this preparation, clothes can be prepared for the starch and iron chyaper, and with more eyes, than the ordinary way of washing. The article can be made in a very short time:

Third, One for making patent starch polish.

The use of this polish will enable the most ordinary Ironer to give linen the appearance of just having left the hands of the most experienced finisher. Very beautiful.
