SECOND DISPATCH.]

RICHMOND, Sept. 8.

Advices from Port Royal state that 'the Yankees fired on the gunboats several hours yesterday from the opposite shore with six pieces of candon. They damaged the upper works of the Reliance. No casualties on our side. It is believed that a Yankee officer and several privates were killed and wounded by the fire from our side. In the afternoon, the enemy withdrew, having failed in the attempt to destroy the gunboats.

'All quiet at Fredericksburg. The Yankees are erecting batteries and giving other indications of a purpose to occupy Stafford county in force.

From Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 3. All perfectly quiet to-day. No firing whatever; but the enemy is reported closer to Wagner. Last night was the quietest known here for three weeks past. Scarcely a gun was fired, except a few shots from Battery Wagner. The enemy is reported tinkering at the monitors as if repreparing the damages sustained on Tuesday night.

CONSCRIPT OFFICE. CAMP HOLMES, Aug. 27th, 1863.

THOSE persons enrolled or liable to enrolment who can furnish horses will, for the present, be accepted with their herses, and receive cavalry pay, to be temporarily employed as mounted men while the necessity continues, remaining for the time on duty in this State, for purposes of guard and patrol. It is desired that they report with their horses without delay at this Camp of Camp Vance, near Morganton, as may be most convenient.

II. Citizens who desire to promote the safety and interests of the army by discouraging desertion, or who desire to save their neighborhoods from the inevitable mischiefs of marauding, terror and insecurity that must grow out of the presence of lawless deserters and skulkers, can be made useful by tendering their aid to the enrolling officers. They can render service as guides and in swell ing the numbers of patrols sent out by authority. A few days absence, at most, only would be required of them ---There is no provision of law under which pay can be given them, but all their expenses of subsistence, lodging and forage will be paid, and a liberal hire allowed for the use of their horses. alleventers all is poster water grasp it. For this end, all that is necessary is, that those who are called to the field by every metive that can move the human heart, should promptly repair to the post of duty, should stand by their comrades now in front of the fee, and thus so strengthen the armies of the Confederacy as to ensu e success. The men now absent from their posts would, if resent in the field, suffice to create numerical equality between our force and that of the invaders-and when with any approach to such equality, have we failed te be victorious ? I believe that but few of those absent are actuated by unwillingness to serve their country ; but that many have found it difficult to resist the temptation of a visit to their homes and the loved ones from whom they have been so long separated; that others have left for temporary attention to their affairs, with the intention of returning, and then have shrunk from the consequences of their vielotion of duty ; that others, again, have left their posts from mere restlessness and desire of change, each quieting the upbraidings of his conscience, by persuading himself that his individual services could have no influence on the general result.

These and other causes (although far less disgraceful than the desire to avoid danger, or to escape from the sacrifices required by patriotism) are, nevertheless, grievous faults, and place the cause of our beloved country, and of everything we hold dear, in imminent peril. I repeat that the men who now owe duty to their country, who have been called out and have not yet reported for duty, or who have absented themselves from their posts, are sufficient in number to secure us victory in the struggle now impending.

1 call on you, then, my countrymen, to hasten to your camps, in obedience to the dictates of honor and of duty, and summon those who have absented themselves without leave, or who have remained absent beyond the period all lowed by their furloughs, to repair without delay to their respective commands, and I do hereby declare that I grant a general parden and amnesty to all officers and men within the Confederacy, now absent without leave, who shall, with the least possible delay, return to their proper posts of duty; but no excuse will be received for any delay beyond twenty days after the first publication of this proclamation in the State in which the absentce may be at the date of the publication. This amnesty and pardon shall extend to all who have been accused, or who have been convicted and are undergoing sentence for absence without leave or desertion, excepting only those who have been twice convicted of desertion.

Finally, I conjure my countrywomen, the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the Confederacy-to use their allpowerful influence in aid of this call, to add one crowning sacrifice to those which their patriotism has so freely and constantly offered on their contry's altar, and to take care that none who owe service in the field shall be sheltered at home from the disgrace of having deserted their duty to their families, to their country, and to their God.

To the voters of the Fifth Congressional Dis-L trict.-The emergency calls for the purest and ablest men to serve the country in her Legislative Councils. The well known character of Captain JOSEPH J. DAVIS, of Franklin, for patriotism, integrity and wisdom, plainly indicates him as the fittest man in the District to represent us in the next Congress. Captain Davis is now leading his gallant company against the invaders of his coun-try, and does not even dream of his friends entertaining the idea of voting for him for Congress or any other civic position, at this time; but we are confident that he will shrink from no responsibility to which his fellow-citizens may call him. Well known and universally respected as he is, Franklin County offers her noble son to the voters of the District in full confidence of his election, on account of his own unpretending merit, and for the good of the country. Patriots, your suffrages are asked for a wise and prudent statesman, and gallant soldier. MANY VOTERS. july 7-dtd.

To the Voters of the Third Congressional District N. C. Knowing what a trial our country is now undergoing, and the great demand for men competent to fill the public offices of our government, it behooves us to reason among ourselves coolly and impartilly, and to de-cide upon the man most suitable to represent us in the next Congress. As such, I would most respectfully suggest the name of THOS. I. FAISON, of Sampson county. Mr. Faisen has for many years represented his county in the Senate of our Legislature, and has always given general satisfaction to his constituents. In the beginning of this unboly wer his exertions in aiding to keep back the invading foe from our homes and firesides, were untiring, and not less perse-vering in the cause, has been his course since, and though unable to shoulder the musket and endure the hardships of the camp and march has sent forth three of his sons te To the Voters of the Third Congressional the camp and march has sent forth three of his sons to battle with the enemy in a sister State. - His sympathies have ever been with the seldier, and for his efforts in his behalf, the soldier need only refer to the records of our last and previous Legislatures to become well acquainted with

P. S.-Previous to the death of our much beloved Houston, I asked Mr. Faison if he intended becoming a can-didate. He told me he desired a communication with Capt. Houston, that they had ever been warm friends, thus leaving me to infer that they would not both run, but ere the campaign had commenced, death, always seeking for its victims the brightest marks, took Capt. Houston from our midst, thus leaving us the alternative of chosing his friend, who I hope will give us his name for the position.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE THIRD CONGRESSION-AL DISTRICT.— The emisting state of the country renders it highly essential that our most able, best and purest men should be selected to serve in legislative coun cils. The well-known and established character of Captain THOMAS RUFFIN, of Wayne, for nerve, stability, honesty, patriotism, integrity and unflinching devotion to duty, eminently qualify him as a suitable person to repre-sent this District in the next Congress. Capt. Ruffin is now at the head of his gallant company ever at the post of duty to assist in driving back the enemy from our beloved country, and is unaware of the desire of his friends to support him in that capacity, but we feel confident that he support him in that capacity, but we feel confident that he will shrink from no responsibility or duty which his fellow-citizens may call on him to perform.
