Deserters to be shot.
 RICHMOND, Sept. 4.
 The ten deserters from the company, Va., by a party from the command of Adjutant Mallett, who was killed, were executed to-morrow in accordance with the verdict of a court martial, in the presence of Gen. Johnston's command, army Northern Virginia.

From Charleston.
 CHARLESTON, Sept. 4.
 Nothing of special interest has transpired since the despatch.
 Things are getting pretty hot at Wagner. The army here advanced, it is supposed, to within about fifty rods and fifty yards distant from the Fort. Sharp shooting is constantly going on.
 The enemy has not fired at the ruins of Sumter lately.

From the North.
 RICHMOND, Sept. 4.
 The Baltimore papers of the 1st say that the army of the Cumberland crossed the Tennessee river near Stevenson on Saturday, at four different points. It also reports that Gen. Reynolds has captured a large Confederate force at Shermound. Burnside is in the neighborhood of Kingston.
 Intelligence has been received from Mexico up to the 24th July, via San Francisco. The reported invasion of the triumvirate to recognize the Confederate States is continually foreshadowed by the impatient press. The recognition will take place as soon as the news reaches Mexico that Maximilian accepts the crown.
 Five substitutes, deserters from the army of the Potomac, were executed on the 28th in the presence of 2,000 persons, two Protestants and two Catholics, and Hebrew, all foreigners.
 The volunteering in New Jersey is progressing briskly. About five thousand men have been obtained since the Governor's proclamation was issued.
 The HERALD of the 28th announced in flaming epithets the occupation of Sumter and Wagner by the Federal forces.

RAJ.EIGH, N. C., SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 5, 1863.

President Davis to the Absentee Soldiers and the Women of the Confederacy.

We invite special attention to the following address of President Davis to the soldiers absent from their posts of duty and to the women of the Confederacy, and also to the order of Col. Mallett accompanying it:

To the Soldiers of the Confederate States.

After more than two years of a warfare scarcely equalled in the number, magnitude, and fearful carnage of its battles; a warfare in which your courage and fortitude have illustrated your country and attracted not only gratitude at home, but admiration abroad; your enemies continue a struggle in which our final triumph must be inevitable. Unduly elated with their recent successes, they imagine that temporary reverses can dash your spirit or shake your determination, and they are now gathering heavy masses for a general invasion in the vain hope that, by a desperate effort, success may at length be reached.

You know too well, my countrymen, what they mean by success. Their malignant rage aims at nothing less than the extermination of yourselves, your wives, and children. They seek to destroy what they cannot plunder. They propose as the spoils of victory, that your homes shall be partitioned among the wretches whose atrocious crimes have stamped infamy on their Government. They design to incite servile insurrection and light the fires of incendiarism wherever they can reach your homes, and they debase the inferior race, hitherto docile and contented, by promising indulgence of the vilest passions, as the price of treachery. Conscious of their inability to prevail by legitimate warfare, not daring to make peace lest they should be hurled from their seats of power, the men who now rule in Washington refuse even to confer on the subject of putting an end to outrages which disgrace our age, or to listen to a suggestion for conducting the war according to the usages of civilization.

Fellow-citizens, no alternative is left you but victory or subjugation, slavery and the utter ruin of yourselves, your families and your country. The victory is within your reach. You need but stretch forth your hands to grasp it. For this end, all that is necessary is, that those who are called to the field by every motive that can move the human heart, should promptly repair to the post of duty, should stand by their comrades now in front of the foe, and thus so strengthen the armies of the Confederacy as to ensure success. The men now absent from their posts would, if present in the field, suffice to create numerical equality between our forces and that of the invaders—and when with any approach to such equality, have we failed to be victorious? I believe that but few of those absent are actuated by unwillingness to serve their country; but that many have found it difficult to resist the temptation of a visit to their homes and the loved ones from whom they have been so long separated; that others have left for temporary attention to their affairs, with the intention of returning, and then have shrunk from the consequences of their violation of duty; that others, again, have left their posts from mere restlessness and desire of change, each quieting the upbraiding of his conscience, by persuading himself that his individual services could have no influence on the result.

These and other causes (although far less disgraceful than the desire to avoid danger, or to escape from the sacrifices required by patriotism) are, nevertheless, grievous faults, and place the cause of our beloved country, and of everything we hold dear, in imminent peril. I repeat that the men who now owe duty to their country, who have been called out and have not yet reported for duty, or who have absented themselves from their posts, are sufficient in number to secure us victory in the struggle now impending.

I call on you, then, my countrymen, to hasten to your camps, in obedience to the dictates of honor and of duty, and summon those who have absented themselves without leave, or who have remained absent beyond the period allowed by their furloughs, to repair without delay to their respective commands, and I do hereby declare that I grant a general pardon and amnesty to all officers and men within the Confederacy, now absent without leave, who shall, with the least possible delay, return to their proper posts of duty; but no excuse will be received for any delay beyond twenty days after the first publication of this proclamation in the State in which the absentee may be at the date of the publication. This amnesty and pardon shall extend to all who have been accused, or who have been convicted and are undergoing sentence for absence without leave or desertion, excepting only those who have been twice convicted of desertion.

Finally, I conjure my countrywomen, the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the Confederacy—to use their all-powerful influence in aid of this call, to add one crowning sacrifice to those which their patriotism has so freely and constantly offered on their country's altar, and to take care that none who owe service in the field shall be sheltered at home from the disgrace of having deserted their duty to their families, to their country, and to their God.

Given under my hand, and the Seal of the Confederate States, at Richmond, this 1st day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

J. P. BENJAMIN, Secretary of State.

To the voters of the Fifth Congressional District.—The emergency calls for the purest and ablest men to serve the country in her Legislative Councils. The well known character of Captain JOSEPH J. DAVIS, of Franklin, for patriotism, integrity and wisdom, plainly indicated him as the fittest man in the District to represent us in the next Congress. Captain Davis is now leading his gallant company against the invaders of his country, and does not even dream of his friends entertaining the idea of voting for him for Congress or any other civil position, at this time; but we are confident that he will shrink from no responsibility to which his fellow-citizens may call him. Well known and universally respected as he is, Franklin County offers her noble son to the voters of the District in full confidence, and his election, on account of his own untiring herit, and for the good of the country. Patriots, your suffrages are asked for a wise and prudent statesman, and gallant soldier. MANY VOTERS. July 7-41d.

Horses and Mules.
 I have still on hand about twenty horses and six mules, belonging to citizens, which were captured from the Yankee raiders, some of them recently turned over to me. Their owners are respectfully requested to call for them with as little delay as possible. If not claimed before the end of the month they will be taken for the public service. A. GORDON, Quartermaster. Kingston, Aug 8-423.

To the Voters of the Third Congressional District, N. C.—Knowing what a noble and patriotic citizen Mr. E. W. Jones is, and how much he has done to fill the public offices of our government, it behooves us to reason among ourselves coolly and impartially, and to decide upon the man most suitable to represent us in the next Congress. As such, I would most respectfully suggest the name of Thos. J. FAISON, of Sampson county. Mr. Faison has for many years represented his county in the Senate of our Legislature, and has always given general satisfaction to his constituents. In the beginning of this unhappy war his exertions in aiding to keep back the invading foe from our homes and families, were untiring, and not less persevering in the cause, has been his course since, and though unable to shoulder the musket and endure the hardships of the camp and march has sent forth three of his sons to battle with the enemy in a sister State. His sympathies have ever been with the soldier, and for his efforts in his behalf, the soldier need only refer to the records of our last and previous Legislatures to become well acquainted with them.

F. S.—Previous to the death of our much beloved son, the late Mr. Faison it is intended by his executor to donate. He told me his desired communication with Capt. Houston, that they had ever been warm friends, thus leaving me to infer that they would not both be, but the campaign had commenced, death always seeking for its victims the brightest marks of God. Houston from our midst, thus leaving us the alternative of shaming his friends, who I hope will give us his name for the position.

Goldboro', N. C., Aug. 3, 1863.—2m*

To the Voters of the Third Congressional District, N. C.—The existing state of affairs renders it highly essential that our most able and purest men should be selected to serve in legislative councils. The well-known and established character of Captain THOMAS RUFFIN, of Wayne, for nerve, stability, honesty, patriotism, integrity and unflinching courage, eminently qualify him as a suitable person to represent this District in the next Congress. Capt. Ruffin is now at the head of his gallant company over the post of duty to defend his country from the invader of our country, and is unwearily of the desire of his friends to support him in that capacity, but we feel confident that he will shrink from no responsibility or duty which his fellow-citizens may call on him to perform.

THOUSANDS OF BOXES OF THE SOUTHERN Hepatic Pills.

EVERY KNOWN THEIR USE CONTINUES. Without puffing, we have gained ground by their real use, more than five hundred persons are known to have been cured by these Pills.

This excellent family medicine is recommended by the proprietor against all diseases of the Liver. His correspondents say that they also cure Bilious Rheumatism, Pneumonia, Chills and Fevers, Bilious Fevers, Piles and Worms. They are a perfectly safe medicine.

Peter Vaden, Esq., of Dinwiddie county, Va., after describing remarkable cures in his family of Bilious Rheumatism and Piles, says: "My Doctor's bill had been heretofore from $175 to $200 per year. I have used these Pills for my family, which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a Doctor. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered."

Rev. John W. Fottitt, of Orange county, North Carolina, had suffered twice before from a disease of the Liver, which the physicians had not been able to cure. He says:

"I commenced taking the Hepatic Pills with no confidence in them. They acted like a charm on me. From that hour I have improved, I have perspired in my own way until now, by God's blessing, I am well and hearty. When spoken to by a doctor, I felt as if I had been cured from death by a dose of these Pills. My Doctor's bill had been usually from $100 to $200, but I have had no use for a physician since."

The great rise in the price of ingredients and the heavy cost of these Pills, compelled the proprietor to put down their present price or quit the manufacture. They are now more profitable to him than when he sold them at less rates.

Price: $1.50 a box. For $15 a dozen boxes will be sent prepaid to any part of the Confederacy. Three who send less than a dozen boxes, must apply to the Druggist. Great reduction made to Druggists and merchants who pay by the gross. Cash must always accompany orders. GEO. W. DENNIS, Wilson, N. C.

$50 Reward.

RANAWAY on Saturday night, 4th inst., my negro boy RUFUS, about 24 years of age. He is yellow complexioned, about 5 feet 6 inches high and has a scar on the neck caused by a burn when small. When spoken to he has a dogmatic look, and on whom he left a bite checked him and my name. He may be undersharing to get to the Yankees. The above reward will be paid for his delivery to me, or confined in any jail so that I can get him again. J. W. ROGERS, ang. 19-41d.
