

The only matter of importance transacted by this body yesterday, was its disposition of a series of Buffalo peace resolutions, manufactured by Buffalo peace resolutions, manufactured by Buffalo peace resolutions...

The introduction of these resolutions was an attempt to commit the State to a disgraceful, slavish subservience to Yankee rule. They are no secret from this truth. The men who originated the peace movement in this State insist that we are "whipped"—that we must be conquered—and that our true policy is to "make the best terms we can."

Mr. Waddell promptly moved to indefinitely postpone these resolutions, and trusted the State might be saved the disgrace of their passage. Dr. (late Captain) Grissom, however, sprang forward to the rescue. He approved the resolutions in the main, (of course he did.)

On the heels of the cheering rumor that Burnside had capitulated to Gen. Longstreet at Knoxville, surrendering his troops to our General, we have the excessively unpleasant tidings of the defeat of our army under Gen. Bragg and the withdrawal of our forces to the old battle-ground of Chickamauga.

Mr. Cabb from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported favorably on the resolution authorizing the Public Treasurer to issue to Wm. E. Pope duplicates of coupon bonds destroyed by the enemy.

Mr. Waddell moved they be indefinitely postponed, and hoped that no such paper writing would pass this House. Mr. Grissom hoped the motion would not prevail and preferred to have the matter postponed to some future day.

A "Conservative" Caucus! The fate of the Buffalo resolutions yesterday in the House of Commons led to the whipping in order a caucus with a view to bring to "stave" the refractory of the fold.

ALMANAC FOR 1864.—We are indebted to the publisher, J. C. Clarke, Esq., of Mobile, for a copy of the "Compendate States Almanac for 1864."

News from Below. We welcome once more to our columns the letters of our faithful Kinston Correspondent. He has resumed his correspondence, and our readers may now have the old assurance of being promptly and faithfully kept advised of the Yankee movements about Kinston and neighborhood.

In his letter of yesterday we regret to find a rumor that most of the command of Capt. White, (Col. Whitford's battalion,) have been captured in a skirmish at Black Jack Meeting-house, Pitt county. Our correspondent gives this as the rumor, merely, and we trust, and believe that rumor is exaggerating once more.

We learn that the War Department has decided against those taken as conscripts from the Orange Factory, on the ground that the company have exacted more than seventy-five per cent profit in violation of the act of Congress.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

[Second Extra Session.] SENATE. THURSDAY, Nov. 26.

SENATE met pursuant to adjournment.—Present, Mr. Speaker, and a majority of the members.

Prayer by Rev. R. S. Mason, of the Episcopal Church. Journal of yesterday read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Pitchford the rules were suspended, and the Senate passed an order for the public Printer to furnish fifty extra copies of the Treasurer's Report for the use of the members.

Mr. Warren, a bill to explain and amend section 68, chapter 107 of the Revised Code. Referred to the committee on judiciary.

A message was received from the Commons accompanied by a list of nominations for Magistrates of the different counties in the State, which was concurred in after the addition of several names by the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Wright, the communication of the Legislature of Virginia on the currency was referred to the committee on finance.

The resolution instructing our Senators and Representatives in the Confederate Congress to vote for an increase of pay of our soldiers, was taken up and referred to committee on propositions and grievances.

On motion the Senate adjourned till tomorrow morning, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

House called to order at 10 o'clock. Prayer by Rev. Dr. Mississ.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS. Mr. Lyle introduced a resolution authorizing the Agent of the State to sell certain vacant Cherokee lands.

Mr. Cobb from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported favorably on the resolution authorizing the Public Treasurer to issue to Wm. E. Pope duplicates of coupon bonds destroyed by the enemy.

Mr. Burgin, from the Committee on Claims, reported favorably on a resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Duplin county. Passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Avera, introduced a series of peace resolutions. Mr. Waddell moved they be indefinitely postponed, and hoped that no such paper writing would pass this House.

Mr. Grissom hoped the motion would not prevail and preferred to have the matter postponed to some future day. He was in favor of the resolutions generally but preferred time to deliberate.

Mr. Allen was not prepared to vote upon the resolutions at present, and moved they be laid upon the table. The motion prevailed. Mr. Avera and one other voting in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Carpenter the House adjourned till tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

We find the following suggestion in the Miscellaneous Reports of the country of consideration on the part of our own Legislature:

The Legislature of Mississippi is now in session. The States of Missouri, Kentucky and Maryland, whose gallant troops have given imperishable lustre to many a battle-field on our soil and in our cause, cannot make appropriations for the relief of the thousands of needy and worthy soldiers from those States who are in hospitals, or in circumstances of great need in our ranks.

Our State and many others have made large and handsome appropriations for the relief and comfort of soldiers in affliction from their own States, and have thereby done incalculable good. Now, while the Legislature is in session, I beg to inquire if it would not be a becoming and worthy act for that body to appropriate, as a sort of loan, a sum sufficiently large to meet, in part, the wants of the soldiers of those States who often feel the relief a few dollars would procure. Our State might set apart $50,000 and divide it properly between the three States named, and place it in the hands of the Senators and Representatives of Missouri and Kentucky, and the committee of Marylanders in Richmond, to be used as deemed best by themselves for the relief of the soldiers from the State.

In forming relief to the soldiers of Mississippi, I have often come in contact with the needy, sick or distressed soldiers of those States, and a hundred times wished for means to relieve their necessities. Can this mode be adopted? Other States would follow the example, and Missouri, Kentucky and Maryland would never forget it.

From our Kinston Correspondent. KINSTON, Nov. 25th, 1863.

Editor State Journal: I shall resume my correspondence with the Journal as usual, and, if possible, keep your readers posted with such news of interest as may transpire in this quarter, as I endeavored to do prior to the destruction of your office by the Tories.

I have nothing worthy of note to communicate this morning. All is comparatively quiet in front. The enemy's forces at Newbern and Washington are not supposed to be very large at this time, nevertheless, we anticipate stirring times down here this winter.

The Holdentics appear to be very much displeased with the resolution of Hon. R. R. Bridges to Congress from this District. They resorted to all manner of political trickery and wholesale lying to defeat his election.

It is, really, a wonder to everybody that Mr. Bridges was not defeated, for all manner of lies were retailed by Holden's strikers, throughout the District, against him. But, notwithstanding all his good qualities, he has suffered himself to go astray and become Holden's candidate for Congress, which I am sorry to say, will be an everlasting stigma upon his political reputation, even unto death.

It is, really, a wonder to everybody that Mr. Bridges was not defeated, for all manner of lies were retailed by Holden's strikers, throughout the District, against him. But, notwithstanding all his good qualities, he has suffered himself to go astray and become Holden's candidate for Congress, which I am sorry to say, will be an everlasting stigma upon his political reputation, even unto death.

Yes, Mr. Holden, Mr. Bridges will accept of his seat, and so would other true and loyal Confederate Administration men have done, likewise, such as Lander, Ashe, Arrington, Erwin and McLae, had your friends (the Yankees) invaded, plundered and pillaged the people of their Districts as they have the one represented in Congress by the Hon. R. R. Bridges.

KINSTON, Nov. 26th 1863. Editor State Journal: There is some stir down here this morning in the military line, and a considerable excitement prevailed here at the most of last night. It is the first upsur of the kind we have had in this locality for some time past.

Capt. White's Company of Lt. Col. Whitford's battalion, that were out on picket duty had a skirmish with the Yankees on yesterday at Black Jack meeting house, in Pitt County near the Beaufort line, which resulted in the falling back of our men, and the capturing of the most of the Company.

This is the news that came to town last night, and I am really fearful that there is some truth in the report, however, I shall try and investigate the matter more fully to-day, and let you know all about it to-morrow.

Three Abolition deserters came into our lines on yesterday; they represent the enemies forces at Newbern as being quite small, but an old Beas Butler has arrived there, and is making preparations for a vigorous winter campaign in this State.

I give you this as Yankee news, I place but little reliance in anything these Yankees deserters tell; they are coming into our lines more or less every day.

THE HEALTH OF NAPOLEON.—A correspondent of the New York Herald, in speaking of the late appearance of Napoleon, to witness a balloon ascension, says: "He wore an ordinary looking brown overcoat, and the inevitable yellow kids, with which he always covers his hands. I was within five feet of him as he passed, and kept as near as propriety and a detachment of the Garde de Paris, which immediately gathered about him, would permit me, during the hour that he remained upon the ground. It seemed to me that a great change for the worse had come over him within the last year. His head, which he always carries toward the right side, seemed to incline more than ever to the shoulder, and his face always that of a careworn man, seemed to bear, more than ever before, the marks of physical pain as well as great mental anxiety. The Emperor is a very ungraceful man on foot. His body is long, but his legs very short, and if walking he has a sidling, crab like motion. His difficulty is not yet fully developed as "spinal disease," but will probably turn out to be that. At present it is a disease of the kidneys, and a surgical operation performed when he was president of the Republic which he smothered in a night. He is liable to die at short notice, and then there will probably be a commotion here.

The new C. S. Senator from Mississippi, J. W. O. Watson, is said to be one of the ablest men in the State. He is not gifted with much of what is popularly denominated eloquence, but a diarrhea of words—but in all the higher manifestations of intellect—a sound judgment, rapid conclusions, and that very uncommon quality which our legislators should possess, he is said to be unexcelled. What Mississippians have seen assure us that he will soon take his place among the leading men of Congress, if there be any value placed in that "congregation of politic worms," on the clear sighted and manly qualities possessed by the new Senator.—Mobile Tribune.

The cup and chest of Alexander Selkirk the world famed Robinson Crusoe of Defoe have now become the property of Mr. James Hutchinson, of the Scotch warehouse, 38 Warwick street, Regent street, London. These interesting relics have, up to this time, remained in the possession of Selkirk's descendants, in Largo, Fife, where he was buried, by Sir Walter Scott. It is made out of silver, by Sir Walter Scott. The chest of a compass and rudder, and the chest of a very heavy, and is very curiously decorated. It is Mr. Hutchinson's intention to exhibit the articles in London.

Gov. Ramsey, of Minnesota, in his treaty with the Indians, succeeded in purchasing a tract of land of them of one hundred and eighty miles in length, and from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and twenty-five in breadth.

BLACK vs. WHITE.—A republican Judge (Judge Gray, of Des Moines, Iowa.) has decided that a negro can sue a white of abetors corpus, though a white man cannot.

Letter writers say that a portion of the Federal army are busy in erecting winter quarters at Charleston, Va.

Another Yankee Lie Nailed to the Counter.

The Yankee papers are making a howl over our alleged refusal to receive rations for their prisoners. The following is an editorial in the New York Herald of the 19th instant, which the Herald gives double-headed and with great prominence:

"BRUTAL ACTION OF THE REBELS.—A NEW CRUSADE FOR THE SOUTH.—A telegram from Richmond, Va., tells us that the steamer 'The Union' was captured Saturday, carrying 100 prisoners. The Union prisoners at Richmond are obliged to return with her. The rebel authorities refuse to permit the supplies to the rebel capital.

"The war began with the refusal of the rebels to allow us to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. It ought to end with their refusal to allow us to relieve our poor starving prisoners at Richmond. We cannot relieve them, and we release them. The rebels will not exchange them, and with barbarous brutality, they will neither feed these poor prisoners themselves nor permit us to supply them with food. This announcement must be made the signal for a new crusade, the object of which is the immediate capture of the rebel capital."

"Let President Lincoln at once call upon the loyal States for a special volunteer force of two hundred thousand men for this express purpose. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for the call—let this force advance upon the peninsula while the army of the Potomac co-operates by a rapid forward movement. Let there be no delay for strategic or other reasons, but forward this force to relieve the starving garrison of Fort Sumter. The men are ready for