"Our people are committing an act of great folly to te buying property of all kinds at ten times that it will bring when the war is over, white Poreigners are buying their 6,7 and 8 per cent. bonds and carrying them abroad. Theese bonds will bring more in specie then peace comes than tey are bringing how in currency, and we will have whit or not; *hereas, if we kept the bonds it howe, we would get buck all the taxes at hyme twe Hould get gack all the ase collested to pay the interest." - Eximact from Letter of Sectretary Trenhiolm.
A maehine for spading fields for grain, instead of plonghing, has been invented in Michigan. It is worked by four horsestakes a width of three feet, and performs three times as much as a plow, cutting up nue leaving it in a condition for plantiog, The expense, too, is less by ope half than The cost of plouging. So states the Prairie Small Pox. - About fifty cases of this loathconfing to negroes, not more than four or five, unites, as we learn, having had it-vong them Capt. Abishh Slade. Only three Chron.
We mentioned some time since that Major had been inspired to collect and store up provisions against the fumine. We have seen more corn during onr sojorirn in this eity than in our litatiue before. And notwithstanding the inmmense quatutitios sent forward to our armies, it absolutely looks as if there were no'end to it. Like the widow's ktore of oil and menl. using dios not diminish

Fing wide each fold, brave flag! unrolled In all thy breadth and lengt

 Float out unfurled, and show the world A new born nation's strength ; In hosiddy attire,Ifd canwon chimes a thousand times Baptized in bloed and fire.
Wheniken toy to flaunt in joy,
When careless shouts are heard, When thou art borne and scathed and torn A nation's heart is stirred;
Where half clad groups of toi Are marching to the wars, What greatful tears and heartfelt cheer

Thon ne'er has seen the pomp and sheen
The pageant of a court, Or masquerade of war's parade Where fields are fought in sport;
But thou know'st well the savage yel ut thou know'st weil the savage yel
From which the Yankees reel, When down the steens resist When down the steeps resis
A sea of Southern steel Thou knuw'st the storm of balls that swarm In denge When thy crossed bars a-blase with stars, Plunge headlong through the figlit.
When thou'rt unfurled are thickest hurled When thou'rt unfurled are The thunderbolts of war, And thont art inet by lou Uf cannon from afar.
F: whe is told the merchant's gold
The planter's harvests fall; Thine platerers harvests fand brain of hand and brain Anl the heart's wealth of all For thee each he hrt has borne to part With what it holds most dear, Throngth all the land no woman's hand Though from thy birth outl br alder nations spurned Their full-grown name might dread the name Thy infancy has earned; Thy infancy has earned; Fnd weep the seas with fire.
Anl all the earth applauds the worth Thy stairiless fieid shall etmpire wield And proudly shine the of peailie yet to be of perite yot to be: Whe nations grudge thee now, Nu hind shall show to friend or foe

The Tenkees in Atlanta, - From a gentleman who lefi Atlanta several days atier ihe Than who left Atlanta several days atier the city foll, the Macon Telegraph laarns some city foll, the Macon Telegraph laarns some interesting particulars of the doings of the Yankes and the condinct of the people Yankees and the conduct of the propile of the city. Two or three days afier the enemy entered, the officers gave a gravd ball at the Trout House and invited many of the cilizens to attend. To their shame be it snid, the invitation was accepted in many instances, and women, we cannot coll them histances, and women, we cannot protestataties, who were loudest in their whe tions of loyally to the South; were " hand in glove" with the Yinkees on the night of the ball. It is represented to have been quite a drank in honor of the success achieved by The Federal arms, and the party ended at a late hotr in the morning, after great glorifications.
One of the first orders issued by the Yan kees informed the negroes that they were no longer slaves, but "free Americaa citizens of Afriean descent." There were many ne groes in the enty, and we should not be surPrised if some of the "colored ladie tended the Yankee celebration ball We regret to learn that among the first eitizens who took the oath of allegiance to the Federals was Mr. J. E. Buchanan. formerly " husiness maniger" of the Intelligencer.
This gentleman remained in Atlanta with th Fire Battallion, during the investment of the city. We trust the statement is city. We trust the statement is incoureet, as a personal acquaintance with Mr. Duchan an, made us expect, better things of him. There is but little or no business carried on in the city, except by a few traitors who on in the city, except by a few traitors whi concealed tobacco for the express purpose of scling it to the enemy shoald they enter the town. Theso creatures, we learn, are doing town. Theso creatures, we learn, are doing a b brisk business with the Yankee sutlers. of one brigade on duty in tbe city; all th other troops are encamped outside of the city.
Of the nearly 40,000 Yankee prisoner ceeding $1 \overline{5}, 000$ whese term of service ha not expired. That is a correct solution of ail the points involved in the question of exSherman has lost 60,000 men during the eampaign from Ciattanoogn to Atlanta. At this rate, how many men will it take to capture the whole of Georgia?
