DAILY STATE JOURNAL.

JOHN SPELMAN AND PROPRIETORS.

Nothing from Hood or Sherman.

A party of rebels from Canada attempted to burn the Watertown of Cantlon, but were driven off by the garrison.

Seward has informed the Mayor of Boston that information has been received at the War Department that the rebels in Canada have a committee in that city to burn the principal cities on the border on the day of the Presidential election.

Gov. Seymour has issued a long proclamation, urging efforts by all to discountenance strife and disorder in the coming election, and directs the Sheriff's and other officers whose duty it is to keep peace, to take care that every voter shall have a free ballot, and see that no military or other organized force shall be allowed in the vicinity of places where elections are held, with the view of menancing or intimidating voters. Against such interference they must exercise the full force of their districts.

A general prayer meeting is to be held at Utica, on Monday, for prayer, that Almighty God may direct the people of the land in exercising the elective franchise, and to restrain their passions that they may be delivered from violence and blessed by a continuance of their liberties.

Similar prayer meetings will be held in other cities.

PRICE NOT WHIPPED.

MOBILE, Nov 5.

A special to the Advertiser via Senatobia of the 4th, says Memphis papers of the 2d say nothing about Price.

The Chicago Times of the 29th pronounces the dispatches claiming a victory over Price, Marmaduke and Fagan as the wildest lying purposes, and says the Shenandoah Valley is laid in the shade by Missouri telegrams.

Nothing important from other points.

Guerrilla operations continue active on the Mississippi.

Outlawed—General Sherman of the Federal Army, has outlawed Col. G. W. Lee, Col. A. M. Wallace, Capt. G. W. Anderson, and Lieut. Hunnicut. The Atlanta Intelligencer contains a letter from Col. Wallace, [illegible] at Athens Ga., on the subject. This [illegible] thinks the order was inspired by one [illegible], to whom Col. Wallace also refers, [illegible]: We trust this act of Gen. Sherman will not be overlooked by our authorities at Richmond, nor by Gen. Hood, that [illegible] measures may be adopted as will be required in their enforcement. The man [illegible], referred to by Col. W., is properly described. He is a mean, vindictive man; [illegible] known in Atlanta to be traitorous to the cause of the South, and yet he and his partner, Scofield, both Yankees, made large fortunes during the war from contracts [illegible] with the Government."

We know nothing of Markham, as the Constitutionalist says, but we are satisfied there are many Yankee Markham's lying around loose, only waiting the golden opportunity. If our Provost Marshals would keep a steadier eye upon such characters, and not make a show of business by interrupting every citizen as he passes in his daily occupation, they might be of some advantage to the country.

Northern Methodists.—The late General Conference of the Northern Methodist Church elected three Abolitionist bishops, about eight Abolition editors, excluded all [illegible] from the South, [illegible] authority of the law, extended the term of the presidency to three years, created eight new conferences, made a new ritual and remodeled the Discipline, made trustees of churches members of the quarterly conferences, re-enacted the rule making attendance upon class meeting a test of membership, and provided for the organization of the baptized children of the church into classes.

Do right, though you have enemies. You cannot escape them by doing wrong, and it is little gain to barter away your honor and integrity, and divest yourself of moral courage, to gain what? Nothing. Better abide by the truth—frown down all opposition, and rejoice in the feeling which must inspire a free and independent man.

The Paris correspondent of the London Star says the Jockey Club, before whose decree the fashionable world bend, have decided that the English custom of shaking hands is henceforth to be considered the correct thing, and furthermore, in order to protect ladies from the annoyance of having to remove the glove of any man who may choose to take off his hat to them in public, the [illegible] fashion is to be adopted of ladies [illegible].

POETRY.

"What will you have for supper, dear?
To-day the market's full
Of all the delicacies
That heart could ever wish to pull."

"Ah! I must tell you, wife, at once,
Without the least delay,
One thing I cannot have to-night;
I'll take—my—choice—you say."

"The angel took a sapphire pen,
And wrote in rainbow dew,
'The man would be a boy again,
And be a husband too!'

"And is there nothing yet unsaid
Before the change appears?
Remember, all their gifts have fled
With those dissolving years."

"Why, yes, for memory would recall
My fond parental joys;
I could not bear to leave them all,
I'll take—my—girls—and—boys!

"The smiling angel dropped his pen:
'Why, this will never do:
The man would be a boy again,
And be a father too!'

"And so I laughed—my laughter woke
The household with its noise—
And wrote my dream when morning broke,
To please the gray haired boys"

The Commissioners of Agriculture of Virginia, Messrs. Mann Page, Jr., Wm. H. Ruffner and Jas. H. Skinner, have published a circular, in which they call attention to the fact that the Legislature of Virginia has made an appropriation of $100,000 to be expended in the purchase of provisions in the country, and it only remains for the proper authorities to adopt measures to obtain our wise and patriotic Commissary, Mr. Tyncholm—in his efforts to procure supplies, in putting our financial matters on a sound footing, will sustain the Government of their choice. The Commissioners also congratulate themselves and the country that they have been aided by a combination with one of the Virginia Commissioners, by whose aid, and that of Mr. Gen. W. The Commissioners respectfully suggest that if it be found practical, the producer should be allowed to retain a fourth part of their surplus, to be sold at market rates, to pay for their necessary plantation supplies, which they have to purchase at high market prices. They earnestly call upon the farmers to bring forward their corn now so necessary for the support of the army in their immediate front, and which alone will prevent the loss to the enemy, of all their crops, stock, negroes, &c., &c. The commissioners would also recommend that impressment should be universal and uniform, leaving out no one.

For the information of all persons concerned, we publish the following instructions, with the hope that they will be strictly adhered to:

"No officer or agent, shall impress the necessary supplies which any person may have for the consumption of himself, his family, employees, slaves, or to carry on his ordinary mechanical, manufacturing or agricultural employments."

The next meeting of the Board will be held in the Senate Chamber, in the City of Raleigh, on Monday, the 5th day of December next, unless sooner changed. Impressing agents must furnish good and satisfactory reasons for disapprovals on appeals, or the award of local appraisers will be approved. All communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Board, Raleigh, N. C.
