NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

CONGRESSIONAL.

RICHMOND, Dec. 18.

Nothing of interest in the Senate in open session. In the House Mr. Turner's resolutions and Mr. Barksdale's substitute were taken up.

Mr. McMullen offered another substitute declaring that whilst it is neither expedient or compatible with the dignity of the Confederate States to send Commissioners to Washington to secure a cessation of hostilities, yet it would be eminently proper that the House of Representatives should dispatch, without delay, to some convenient point, a body of commissioners, to confer with such individuals as may be appointed by the Government of the United States to agree, if possible, upon terms for a lasting and honorable peace, subject to the ratification of the respective Governments and the sovereign States respectively represented.

Mr. McMullen addressed the House in explanation of his views, but before concluding, the morning hour expired, and the House resumed the consideration of the currency bill. Mr. Foote occupied the floor till the hour of adjournment.

RICHMOND, Dec. 17.

The Senate passed the House bill increasing the pay and mileage of members of Congress, also the Senate bill regulating the compensation of postmasters, special agents, and also the bill to increase the pay of the marine corps. The Senate then resolved itself into secret session.

In the House the peace resolutions were referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs. The confiscation and currency bills were further debated.

LATER FROM THE NORTH.

NORTHERN ACCOUNTS FROM GEORGIA.

RICHMOND, Dec. 18.

Northern papers of Thursday were received last night.

Official dispatches from Hilton Head, of the 12th says, that Gen. Howard, commanding the right wing of Sherman's army, had communicated with Foster, his chief of scouts having descended the Ogeechee in a small boat and thus made his way to our (Yankee) lines. He left the army on the 9th inst.

A dispatch from Gen. Howard says, we have met with perfect success thus far. Our troops are in fine spirits.

Nothing of importance had occurred at Nashville up to the 13th. Gen. Lyon was moving on Russellville.

YANKEE CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on the 14th, Mr. Chandler offered a series of resolutions denouncing the release of the St. Albans raiders, and authorizing the organization of an army corps for the protection of the northern frontier from the incursions of Rebel raiding parties.

Mr. Chandler also introduced a series of resolutions directing the Secretary of State to demand from the British Government payment in full for all the American vessels destroyed by pirates, ships from English ports. The resolutions were laid over.

In the House the Senate bill authorizing the purchase of six revenue cutters for the lakes passed.

In committee of the whole Mr. Brooks made a long speech in favor of negotiations for peace.

THE CANADIAN FRONTIER.

Gen. Dix has issued orders, in consequence of the release and discharge of the St. Albans raiders, directing the military commander on the frontier, in the event of a similar raid, to pursue the marauders, if necessary into Canada, and, if arrested there, they are under no circumstances to be surrendered.

A Montreal telegram of the 14th says, the St. Albans raiders left the city immediately after they were discharged. The authorities are taking steps to arrest them.

A Toronto telegram of the 13th says, the Lake Erie raiders were again before the court today, but were discharged on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction. The result created much excitement.

LATEST FROM THE NORTH.

RICHMOND, Dec. 19.

Northern papers of the 17th received. Admiral Porter's fleet, with a co-operating force under General Weitzell, left Hampton Roads on Tuesday.

The American says it is the most formidable expedition yet set out. Its destination is not mentioned.

Bulter has accompanied the troops.

Gen. Crittenden and staff have resigned.

Their resignation has been accepted. The Attorney General of Canada was of the opinion that the decision in the case of the St. Albans raiders was wrong, and ordered the re-arrest of the parties.

Private dispatches from Montreal say there is a perfect panic in Canada among the railroad managers, in anticipation of non-intercourse with the United States, which is expected, unless the Government takes prompt action to allay the excitement on the border.

A Washington telegram says, the demand of the Brazilian Government for reparation for the seizure of the Florida has been received and is decidedly important. Seward has sent a reply, and without endeavoring to justify the capture, indicates a desire to have the matter properly adjusted according to international law.

A BATTLE IN TENNESSEE.

YANKEE ACCOUNT.

RICHMOND, Dec. 19.

Northern papers of the 16th received. A Nashville telegram of the 15th says, our lines advanced and engaged the rebels this morning. The left occupies the same ground as in the morning.

The right advanced five miles, driving the enemy from the river and from his entrenchments, and forced back his right and centre.

Thomas' official dispatch says, "I attacked the enemy's left and centre this morning and drove him from the river below the city, very nearly to Franklin, a distance of about eight miles. I have captured Gen. Chalmers' headquarters and train, between eight hundred and a thousand prisoners, with sixteen pieces of artillery. I shall attack the enemy again to-morrow."

LATER FROM TENNESSEE.

RICHMOND, Dec. 19.

Gen. Thomas, in an official dispatch dated the 16th, p. m. claims that the enemy has been pressed at all points in his line of retreat to Brintwood Hill. He also claims the capture of a large number of prisoners and several pieces of artillery, and says, he has ordered the pursuit to be continued at daylight.

The woods and field entrenchments are filled with the enemy's small arms, abandoned in their retreat.

The Federal loss does not exceed three hundred, with very few killed.

The news caused great rejoicing in Yankeeedom.

Gold declined on the 15th. The price at 1 o'clock was 227.

General Sherman's Guide.

A Yankee newspaper has the following:

General Sherman has with him in his Georgia campaign one of the best and most reliable scouts or guides in the Southwest—an old man, a native Georgian, and a wealthy planter and slaveholder at that. It would not be proper, of course, to mention his name, but he is well known to all who were in the habit of visiting headquarters a year ago. When the war broke out he denounced the Southern leaders, and in consequence of his Union sentiments, was compelled to leave his home near Macon, between two days. His neighbors missed him, and suspecting, rightly, that he had gone off to join the Yankees, they followed him so closely that he was obliged to hide in the mountains in the Northern part of his State for several weeks.

They have since organized all kinds of raids for no other purpose than to catch this one man. After being in the service some time, he volunteered his services to General Buell, but that officer didn't need much Southern guidance. Next he received a position as volunteer aid to Gen. Kogerans, to whom he was of great service in the great campaign terminating at Chattanooga. He has been with Gen. Sherman since last June. There is not a highway or byway in the interior of Georgia with which he is unacquainted, and scarcely a town or village in which he is not known.

He used to say that with a brigade of cavalry he could find cotton and negroes enough within a hundred miles of Atlanta to liquidate the national debt. He is one of the few rich men of the South who have remained faithful to the Union cause when they knew that to do so was to lose their property, their homes and their comfort. On his present trip he carries with him a black list of those who took pleasure in persecuting him four years ago.—He thinks he will make it more than even with them before he gets through!

J. L. BURNS.

$100 REWARD.

STOLEN FROM MY STABLES AT SPRING HILL, Lenoir County, N. C., on the night of the 14th inst. a fine bay HORSE, with long black mane and tail, black legs, with small white spot on his neck under the mane, blind at the right eye, a tough saddle horse, last five biggy horse. The thief passed Mosely Hill, on the horse, early in the night, enquiring the way to Snow Hill; from there he was going to Goldsboro and from there to Petersburg to his regiment. He left at Spring Hill a very poor sorrel mare. She had the appearance of a broke down cavalry animal, with sore back.

The thief is described to me to be about 25 or 30 years old, spare built, weighs about 135 or 140 pounds, and has a sharp narrow face. He crossed Neuse River at White Hall, from thence to Spring Hill. I hear of his wearing a leading or driving the mare. On the mare was a cavalry saddle, a bundle rolled in oil cloth attached to the hind part of the saddle and a pair of leather saddle bags. He had on a hat, gray jacket and pants; the pants lighter than the jacket.

Any information in regard to the Horse addressed to me at Mosely Hill P. O. will be thankfully received, and a liberal reward paid for the delivery of the Horse and One Hundred Dollars for the delivery of the Thief, with proof sufficient to convict him.

The Commissioners respectfully suggest that if it be found practical, the producer should be allowed to retain a fourth part of their surplus, to be sold at market rates, to pay for their necessary plantation supplies, which they have to purchase at high market prices. They earnestly call upon the farmers to bring forward their corn now so necessary for the support of the army in their immediate front, and which alone will prevent the loss to the enemy, of all their crops, stock, negroes, &c. The commissioners would also recommend that imprisonment should be universal and uniform, leaving out no one.

For the information of all persons concerned, we publish the following instructions, with the hope that they will be strictly obeyed:

"No officer, or agent, shall impress the necessary supplies which any person may have for the consumption of himself, his family, employees, slaves, or to carry on his ordinary mechanical, manufacturing or agricultural employments."
