THE GLEANER.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY

PARKER & JOHNSON Graham, N. C.

Rales of Subscription. Postage Paid :

$1.50

No Departure from the Cash System.

Transient advertisements payable in advance; yearly advertisements quarterly in advance. Advertising.

1 m. 2 m. 3 m. 6 m. 12 m $2 00 $3 00 $4 00 $ 6 00 $10 00 $ 00 4 50 6 00 10 00 15 00

Transient advertisements $1 per square for the first, and fifty cents for each subse for the first, and fifty cents for each subsequent insertion.

Adver is micros not specified as to time; published until ordered out, and charged accordingly.

All advertisements considered due from first insertion.

One inch to concitute a square. For these of advertisements, than two squares, terms astrono ornable as can be afforded, seconding to special contract, based upon the rates above specially set forth.

ADVERTISEMENT.

Drugs, Paints

GLASS & C.

We keep constantly on hand a good asort-

PERESH DRUGS AND CHEMI-

different brands of white Lead, a large sto

WINDOW GLASS,

which we are now selling for less money than they have ever been sold for in this section. we will supply

Village & country Merchants

a better article than they buy North for the same money. Also we have a large stock of together with a full and complete line of TOILET AND FANCY ARTICLES.

TRUSSES AND SUPPORTERS,

Come and see us inspect our stock and satifay yourself of the truth of what we say. The Senior member of the firm has resumed practice and can always be found at the Drug Sfore when not professionally engaged.

R. W. GLENN & SON.

In the Benbow House, Greenboro, N. C.

J. P. GULLEY,

RETAILER AND JOBBER OF

Dry-Goods, Clething

NOTIONS.

BURT'S HAND-MADE

Boots & Gaiters

MATS AND CAPS, VALISES,

TRUNKS WHITE GOODS

&C. &c

RALEIGH N. .

You know it want pay to make your purchases from old stock, already picked over. Our Mr. Gant has just returned from the North, where he personally selected and purchased a large stock of Hollow-Ware, Willow-Ware, together with a well assorted stock of

READY-MADE CLOTHING, and the most complete line of Nortons

ver offered to the people of this county.

Boots and Shoes

J. Q. GANT, & CO. Company Shops, Nov. 2nd, 1875,

Poetry.

HOW LITTE WE KNOW.

How little we know of each other, We pass through the journey of life, With its struggle, its fears and tempta tions, Its heart-bleaking cares and its strife!

We can only see things on the surface. For few people glory in sin, And an unruffled face is no index To the tumult which rages within.

How little we know breach other! The man who to-day passes by sidesed with fortimes and thenor and ties, tles, And holding his proud head on high May carry a dread secret with him Which makes his bosom a hell, And he sooner or later, a felon, May write in the prisoner's cell.

How little we know of each other! That woman of fashion, who speer At the poor girl betrayed and abandon

And left to her sighs and her tears. May, ere the sun rises to morrow, Have the mast rudely torn from

And sink from the height of her glory To the dark shades of shame and dis

How little we know of each other! Of ourselves too little we know! We are all weak when under tempt All subject to error and woe. Then let blessed charity rule us.

Let us put away envy and spite-For the skeleton grim in our closet May some day be brought to light

THE MISHAPS OF A MIGHT

The district school in the village Hollythorn was taught by Miss Eva Stanley, who "boarded ground" among the scholars, and was cousidered the paragon of teachers.

The last week previous to the holi day vacation she had been boarding and young and pretty, lat this w with a Mrs. Car, enter, who was makshe expected from New York.

"You never met my brothers, Eva," she said. "There's Sam, and Georgie, and Johnny, the youngest; and such times as they have when they get out here and rusticate, as they call it ! But, dear me, I don't get much rest or peace, for they are like a lot of boys let out of school,

"The last time they visited me towether. John and Sam actually cut a pane of glass from the window, and boots, and would have carried his with snow I

"You see, there is always a regular strife for that particular room, for the bed is a spring one, and they say they don't sleep on any other, in the city. But they don't get it this time, that's certain, for I intend to give you that tell." oom; and so end the controversy."

other room, Mrs. Carpenter, and do

"No you shan't, Eva," peremtorily

But without sending any word of this g." thei. intention, they had concluded to "Cried, did she?" repeated George take the train which would land them with a groan.

should not have been here," said pranks." mistake."

who fancied he understood the cut're me-'pon my houer I do." programme. "It is most likely he "And how on earth do you expect took that train on purpose to get Into us to stay and take the consequences?"

you are right. We must contrive to Ler making such fools of ourselves." get him out somehow."

gether and laughed merrily over some way to do is to stay and brave it out, cordingly, when the train reached rudenessial access very stealthy manner.

softly opened the window and obtain- "Hyou two can keep the secret, ed access to the patient, where they demolished a whole mince pie and it is a subject Eva will not care proprietor, and was constantly on and went to another corner of the fence quantity of doughnute. Then, with to have discussed, and fortunately my appetites appeared, they removed husband is away from home. So go nameless attentions; and before the drawers, the legs of which he had their boots and prepared to investigate to bed and rest contented." the "best room," stole along the hall, She showed them to the bed she which was dimly lighted by the moon had intended them to occupy, and ascended the stairs, and reached the the house was once more hustred in door. The faint rays of the moon disclosed a chair pilled up with cloth-

GRAHAM, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1876. about to deposit it into a huge drift, right belonged to him, he being the [Correspondence of the Goldsboro Messen- DESCRIPTION OF THE DISMAI. GOVERNOR RICHARD ness of the night, and oh, horror! it get even with them. was that of a woman! And in their "Good heavens!" exclaimed George, "it isn't Sam, but some women, as I am a sincer! and she has fainted. Run and call Hannah."

With admirable presence of mind. he lifted the limp form of Eva Stauley and carried it into the house, But inmates came rushing into the hall jus as he appeared.

"George! John! for goodness sake what does this mean, and who have you there?" asked Mrs. Carpenter in a breath.

"Blessed if I know," began George; thought it was Sam, so we concluded to give him a douse in the snow for getting into the best bed and trying to euchre us. Quick! I believe she has "Just like you. 1 soulded Hannah, as she assisted in depositing Eva once more in the bed from which she had be n.sp., unceremoniously taken; "beginning your tricks upon each other before you are fairly into the house. Clear out, now !"

Long before she had finished her tirade, her brothers had betaken themselves down stairs, where they went into hysterics oven the joke.

"A pretty kettle of fish! liveald George, rolling over on the flor, and letting off peal after peal of langhter. "I should think it was," replied John, holding his sides. 'Oh my ! But what is to be done about it; and who do you suppose she is, George?"

"Spine guest of Hannah's, of course; don't know how it is with you, but I ing gigantic preparations for guests feel particularly small and cheapwould sell myself at a very low price."

"Cheap," roared John, "cheap! would actually give myself away this blessed minute, and throw something in to boot. What are we to do? can't say. I believe I shall dig out of this place and get buck to the city before morning. I havn't got the courage to face the music." He began hastily putting on his pelted George from my best room threat into execution, but for the appearance of Hannab, who at once asserted her authority. "You are not going a single step.

John: Ldon't wonder you feel ashamed of yourselves. What on earth possessed you is more than I can

"That's right, Han. pitch in, scold away, I'll take any amount of talking just now. I am as meek as a lamb. not wish to incommede your broth- But who is it we've played so shabby a trick on ?"-replied George.

"Trick! I should think it was exclaimed her hostess; "and what is Why, it is Eva Stanley, our school the use of your going home vacation week? You can stay here just as well there. I don't believe the poor girl ble servant and Johny snag in bed, as not, and do your seasing on my will ever get over her fright. It is too bad: I shouldn't woulder if she had make a grand mi take. How do you would have daily access to its health or, the recruit walked into Col. Wance, giving waters. Another peculiarity Kentucky owes $184,5 the morrow the brothers, young, ar dropped into a snow drift in that dent, and full of life, were to be there. fashion. No wonder she cried, poor in H. llythorn about bedtime, George "I should think she did. I just took and John did so, and when seated in her in my arms and let her bave her the cars began to speculate upon the ery but, while I explained to her how abschee of Sain. stie happened to be in staken for Sain, George. "I can't make it out, unless " "That was neat in you, Han,," said he has taken the five o'clock train by George. "I am awful glad you hug- of seeing them behave with some e has taken the five o clock train by George. I am award with you dignity, They appeared never to "Not a bit of it," laughed John, had given her a brotherly squeeze for forget that there was an invalid in the Hannah's parlor bedroom, and make asked John, beginning to look serious. us take up with straw ticks and feath-int am for taking myself off instanter. I had rather tace a masked battery "I didn't think of that, but I reckon than this pretty school teacher, af-

"HI don't care if you had," answered The brothers put their heads to- his sister indigently. "The only well-enough, Han., we shall never Climbing the fence in the rear, they hear the end of it from him."

slumber.

Meanwhile their brother Sam had ing, and they could distinctly trace reached the Depot a few minutes too ded marriage to all of them as the the outlines of a form beneath the late. He found the train he was to only sobering process she was ac bedeloths. A few whispared words have taken already gone, but on conquainted with. It is a piece of adbedeloths. A few whispared words have taken already gone, but on con-quainted with. It is a piece of adwere exchanged, and then, as lightly suiting a time table be found that anvice, however, that they did not apas if shod with down, they drew other train started two hours later, pear inclined to follow, notwithand so decided to take it. He figured standing Sam's happ y lot with the "All ready!" whispered George. to himself, as he impatiently crowded pretty schoolmistress of Hollythorn.

Quick as thought they seized upon into an empty seat, and was being Quick as thought they seized upon the form of the sleeper, bedclothes and all, bore it swiftly down the stairs and out into the snow, and were the snow, and were the sleeper in the best bed, which by shewer-bath given her by Sam.

when a shrill scream broke the still-eldest; and consummated a plan to

Some time after midnight he was consternation they dropped their deposited in Hollythorn, and reachburden plump into the middle of the ing his sister's honse he scouted around until he found a way of entrance into the kitchen, where he deposited his luggage and removed his boots. Then he quietly stole up stair and opened the door of the best room, "Sure enough," thought he "my fine chaps, you are in clover!" For there were not to be mistaken they had already been heard, and the signs of the room, being occupied.

> To think of coping with their united strength by dragging them forth was not practicable, but there stood the pitcher of water, and he knew that a good dousing with the icy fluid would bring them out quick enough.

> He lifted the pitcher, approache the bod, raised it and suddenly dashed the contents upon the sleeper.

Such a torrent of screams as he had never before heard rang through the house, and before Sam could collect his scattered senses the door opened, and Hannah, George, and John rushed in, clothed in scantly apparel-Hannah with a trightened look on her face and a lamp in her hand, that reves ed the entire scene.

There sitting in bed, with her hair dripping like a mermaid, her nightdress deluged, ber face colorless, and looking terror, was the young schoolvery picture of imbecility, staring around like an idiot at the havec he had made. Hannah, George and John instantly understood the simution; stipulation, who was immediately first white man whose footsteps ever scriptions. and the latter, as the command of their sister, dragged Sam away while she assisted thedrenched and terrified, girl to dry her clothing, and then took her to her own room and bed, explaining, for the second time, the nishaps of the night.

"I'll keep you with me, now poor child," said she, though with difficulty keeping back her laughter. Those boys are nicely come up with at any rate; and if it was ut for your being so terribly frightened, and the way my best bed has been used wouldn't care. But you are safe now."

went down to see the boys, who as n they were fairly shut in the regions below, began to appreciate the joke; and now that Sam was had a very great horrer of the poisonthe mire, gave no quarter.

"I'll be blamed if I know it means," said Sam, looking in of private of Co. A. with his recruit whatever, the forest growing clear up confusion at his brothers, who were be was taken down with a very to its boundaries. rolling and kicking in convulsions of laughter.

"Means?" said George, holding stolen like a theif into Miss Eva can't see the joke. It is a most outrageous shame," At this juncture Hannah came in and began rating them soundly there by letting out the whole story. It was Sam's turn to laugh.

Miss Eva wasnot visible next morning, and Hannah announced that she was sick with a servere cold. Hannah had her un- lock. Col. Vance sent for Dr. Hoy. feet. The bottom is generally com- company. ruly crew under her thamb for once in her life, and had the satisfaction of house, and went on liptoe about. Sam, who seemed to take the entire responsibility upon his own shoulders, seut oft slyly to New York for choice truit and flowers, which he induced his sisters to convey to the young lady with the most shires and ogies and regrets.

In a couple of days Eva was able to come down stairs. She was looking quite pale, but lovely, and of course cheme for outwitting Sam, and ac. both of you, and applogise for your divinely, when presented by Mrs. ordingly, when the train reached rudances and applogise for your Carpenter to the three brothers who Hollythorn, about eleven o'clock, they But cam? How the dence are we behaved quite well considering the on the road-side, in a perfectly 1 ude approached the house of their sis er in to get along with him? You know the ampleasantness of their situation, But Sam, who had broken the ice to know what he was deing there, reby means of presents, was most at plied that he was fishing. The officer that could be, for I used one of your ease, and by virtue of his age and asked if he had caught anything when pound bars of some for a weight." proprietor, and was constantly on and went to another corner of the fence hand to offer Miss Eva a thousand week was out John declared that Sam was "done for!"

"Gone under completely!" echaec George, with one of his dismal groans Hannah, singing Eva's praises, commended Sam's choice, and recomen-

ger] WOMAN A NORTH CAROLINA SOLDIER

January 25th, 1879. Dear Bonitz:-A few days since I extract: vas looking over the New York World, found, and read a Surgeon's story, the subject of which was a re- still and silent, that it inspires the General Richard Caswell, the first govmarkable heroine who figured conspic- traveler with a nameless awe and an ernor of North Carolina. Mr. Best uously in the late war, and was con intense fascination. The immense mentions what I did not know before nected with the Sixth New York Reg cypress trees, with bare trunks and that there is not evan a marble slab iment, and who afterwards proved to be the wife of the Colonel of that Regiment. surgeon's story I am unable to wonch yet it called to my mind a true romance which happened in the Confedby many good and brave men now living in the State of North Carolina. The romance wa as follows:

The 26th Regiment N. C. Troops known by the popular name of Zeb. B. Vauce. During the Spring of 1862, e 26th Regiment lay for awhile four he dreamed that he was hunted by tion. had previously received a commissio. from the Cantederate Government to of the Indies, but finding no rest. raise a Legion to be known as Vance's Legion. In the 26th Reg't and in Co. war that a hunter named Drummond mustered into service consistent with fred this unknown land, and he must the arms regulations. I had previous have been terribly frightened, for sugg stion of Mr.Best and his friends, to this time received an apppointment tradition, rumor and superstition had and will thankfully receive contribufrom Col. Vance to drill recruits, consequently this new soldier was placed in my squad for military instructions. warlocks, witches and goblins, and The recruit had the appearance of a such uncanny beings. There were boy about 18 years of age. His voice tales told, too, of vast wild animals was soft and effeminate, and though of surpassing strength and fierceness it did not seem to be that of a man, the like of which mortal eyes never we could not doubt that it was a boy. drilled the new soldier in equal with peopled by only an immortal racemany others for about six weeks, and during the time I would frequently march the squad down to the creek and all that wished would go in bath-Hannah kissed her charge, and ing. The young recruit never participated in the sports confined to the about it as some of the mountaineer as deep in the mud as they were in ed waters of eastern North Carolina, and the recruit was from Ashe or Wilkes county. Soomafter the return four miles wide. There is no beach he was taken down with a very to its boundaries. troublesome affection known to Surgeons as Arthritis or White Swelling, examined in a glass it is the color of and after suffering the most torment light wine. It is tinted and tinetured his sides. "It means that you have ing and severe pain for more than a by juniper and gum leaves, and other month, he was honorably discharged decaying vegetable matter. This wa-Stabley's bed chamber, who is a from military service by Dr. Boykin, ter is considered a flue medicinal that time. The same day and but a pulmonary diseases have often been from the public schools couldn't tell few hours after private Bialock had so benefited by it as to remain several on their own responsibility whether iny husband has been discharged from is, that it keeps pure for a great millitary service on account of disabil- length of time, and is often used by cash in her treasury to pay it with ity, and is going home, now I want ships going on a long voyage, who $1,195,362. A striking contrast to you to discharge me also." Col. have their water casks filled from the States where Radicalism has held Vauce said "your husband, the h-). Lake Drummond. A popular delu- the purse. you must be crazy; boy you are in for sion was that this lake had no bottom the war, my young man, I can't let but Commedore Barron of the United you off." Recruit continued to say States Navy once sounded it, and the a very low-necked dress and bare amirs kin to come and take the case in hand posed of mud, but sometimes of pure as it had proved too much for him. Dr. Boykin being a very able and learned surgeon soon teturned and reported the recruit was a woman who brought her to camp.

E. H. H.

[Dauvile (Va) News. A LUNATIC ARRESTED. A LUNATIC ARRESTED.—Constable N. H. Slaughter of Dan River District of this county yesterday arrested and took in charge as a lunatic a few miles far: from the city a white man whose name we were unable to learn. When discovered by constable Slaughter he was stretched in a tence corner near by and drew out from under, his tied up and filled with small stones. Of the rest of his clothing he could give no account. Constable Slaughter wrapped his overcoat about him and took him to the nearest house for safe keeping uutil some legal disposition could be made of him.

Wefread in the Bible in the 13th throughout all Israel."

A Detroit wife struck et an Indian in a dream, and broke her hubby's

SWAMP.

Alex Huntel, the brilliant Southern correspondent of the Forest and WILLOW GREEN, GREENE CO., N. C., Stream, writes up the Dismal swamp in its last number. We copy a brief

"It was as late as the Revolutionary made this swamp a veritable enchant- tions from all disposed to favor the ed land, within whose realms dwelt patriotic enterprise. saw before. The whole place was One cannot help fancying his feelings constant action and incessant struggles to be lessened by the Legislature." and at last a helpless despair at ever getting out of the labyrinth. and then his ecstacy and delight when he at beauty, and gleaming like gold in the sanlight. Lake Drummond is a splendid shect of water, and is oval in shape. It is seven miles long and

"The water looks black, but when is a fine planist. General Banks once he imitates in make-up. And he's so sure enough, and the wife of the man taught a dancing school, and Thomas chivalric. Jefferson when a young man carried a violin to many a social gathering and played for the dancing. Perhaps it is going too far back to speak of Nero, who said, "Father, I think you who fiddled while Rome was burning. Many a famous leader has been musical. Thou wert so Nero yet so

The country storekeeper said: Here, my friend, those balls of butter as to prevent anybody stealing their I bought of you last week all proved to be just three ounces short of state and when accosted by the officer pound. And the farmer innocently uswered: "Well, I don't see how The late Mrs. Lucretia Creigton, who died in Philadelphia recently is said to have willed $1,500,000 to endow a college in Dayton, Ohio, for the education of indigent young men who desire to prepare themselves for the Catholic ministr /. When a man dectetes a missing button after getting on a clean shirt, no one in the house is aware of the fact. He takes off the shirt and puts ou another, quietly smilling all the chapter of First Samuel, and 19th while. He never, never speaks of it verse, that "there was no Smith to a soul — Danburg News.

"Employment so certainly produce cheerfulness," says Bishop Hall, "that I have known a man to come home i high spirits from a funeral, because he had the management of it."

LETTER FROM JUDGE BATTLE.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 11, 1876. EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL: I saw in your paper of yes'erday an interesting "So unlike any other place, so account of a visit by your corresponweird, strangely solemn. so utterly dent R. W. Best, Esq., to the grave of interlacing boughs, stand like pillars to mark the last resting-place of the supporting a fretted dome in some illustrious dead and suggests that I vast cathedral, and the dim aisles commence a movement to have what Now as to the authenticity of the stretch away off all around you and he calls a reproach to our people taken powerfully excite imagination. One away. Governor Caswell was undoubcan stand and imagine himself in edily the most ditinguished man in Avernus, coudemned to wander North Carolina during the revolutio. erate army, and can be vouched for through a vast unpeopled shade all neoy period of our history. Besides alone; doemed to be seeking some being the comander, or at least one of object sentiment with life, but never the commanders of our little army at fluding it, followed by grim remorse the celebrated battle of Moor's Creek wherever he fled ever by his side, Bridge that broke the power of the nad for its Colonel a man of great and never leaving him, except when Tory party, he was one of our delegats capacity, and that quality of mind his crime was explated De Quincy in the Continental congress was Presi which enable men to encounter dan- in his confession of an 'Opium eater,' ident of the state congress at Halifax. ger and difficulties with firmness, and draws just such a picture. He which framed and adopted the conwithout fear. The Colonel was believed that he had committed such stitution of the state, which made us a great sin that even the procediles an independent nation, and was then shuddered whon they heard it; and chosen the first governor of that na-miles below Kinston, N. C. Col. Zeb. Bramah, the Hindoo god. tarough The 18th day of next November will the forest, the jungles and swamps be the centennial of our North Carolina national existence, and nothing can be more appropriate than to have it colebrated by inaugurating a monument mistress, and there was Sam, with A. was a private by the name of first discovered this lake. It seems to the memory of the illustrious man the empty pitcher in his hand, the Blalock (I think, the not sure as to he went hunting one day, and allured by hose 1 and is so indissolubly con to the memory of the illustrious man name) who received a furlough for 30 by the wounding of a bear, he follow-nected with it. I have no doubt the days, private of Co. A. returned to ed the trail far in the interior, until he amount necessary for the purpose camp with a recruit, according to hopelessly lost his vay. He was the can easly be raised by one dollar sub-

I take pleasure in acting upon the

Yours truly, WILL. H BATTLE,

The Constitution of Pennsylvania, dopted in 1776, had this laudable provision: "Whenever an office, through increase of fees or otherwise, becomes so profitable as to occasion during his three day's wandering, his many to apply for it, the profits ought

"Pa, will you answer me a ques tion." "Certainly, my son." "Well, water, but no one thought anything last discovered the lake, piacid in its pa, is the world round?" "Yes of course." "Well then, pa, if the world is round, how con it came to an end?" "There, now, that'll do; you can go out and play." A worthy old salt remoustrated > speaking of "the sounding brass." 'Any lubber," he remarked, "ought to know that the lead is the thing we take soundings with." Half the people who are making this uproar over the exclusions of the bible with a lecturer the other day for

A wag, seeing a lady at a party with that though a soldier she was a female greatest depth in the middle was only ex, ressed his profound admiration by in male disguise and the wife of Bia- fifteen feet, the average being ten saying that she outstripped the entire

Nicholas Smith, Ida Greeley's husband, is followed in the streets because New York Graphic: Carl Schurz of his likeness to Edwin Booth, whom In the line of "How to Bring up Parents" is the speech of a little boy, > pravers." Ladies are now wearing belts with steel points projecting at intervals so should give up swearing or family arms around the waist. Oscar de Lafavette, elected to the Senate of France, is a grandchild of Lafavette, the benefactor and friend of America.

" I take my tex dis morning," said colored preacher, " from dat portion ob de Scripture whar de Postal Paul point his pistol to the Pessions."

"I am in favor of shooting, as a deserter, any man calling himself a Democrat who plunders the people.' -Samuel J. Tilden.

When Blaine and Conkling get ready to kiss and make up, the Springfied Republican speaks for reserved seats.

Since whisky has gone up to seven-ty-five cents a drink in the Black Hills, the fever has slightly abated.