NEALEY A. PREACHER.
An official of one of the railroads centering in Detroit was yesterday beset by an old man for a railroad pass to Grand Rapids. The stranger entered the office with a big cane in his hand and a "woody" air. He looked as if he had entered town after an all-night's wrestle with a bad dirt road, and he had no sooner stood his cane up in the corner than he briskly inquired:

"Are you the free-pass man?"
The official hesitated a little, and the stranger amended his query by asking:
"Would you give a preacher a pass to Grand Rapids?"
"Are you a preacher?"
"Kinder."
"You give me your word that you are a preacher, do you?"
"N—ot exactly," stammered the stranger. "I don't say I am regularly ordained."

"We can give passes to clergymen occasionally but we must know that they are active dispensers of the gospel."
"That hits me," cheerfully replied the old man, rubbing his hands. "I calculate I dispense more gospel than any one man in Antrim county!"
"But you just admitted that you weren't a preacher," said the official.
"Not a regular 'quire. I'm what you might call an assistance to regular preachers. I'm sexton of a church, I lead at prayer meeting and I've started all the hymns that have been sung in Antrim county for five years past."

The official smiled faintly, and the stranger was encouraged to go on:
"I'm nearly a preacher. Folks send for me when they are dying. I keep order at camp-meetings, and if anybody's to be dragged out of the school-house for snapping beans during prayer-meeting I'm the one who does the dragging."
"That's hardly being a regular preacher," replied the official.
"No, of course; but its mighty close on it. It's so near that I hate to walk to Grand Rapids. I'm on call, judge. If our preacher should suddenly give out I'd be the only man within fifteen miles who could stand behind his pulpit and take his place they all know it, and I'm respected accordingly. More'n half the people call me 'parson' or 'deacon' and fellows who have got into a jaw about Daniel in the lion's den or Moses in the bullrushes have walked five miles to have me set 'em right."

The official made out the trip 'pans and, as the stranger returned thanks and picked up his cane he added:
"I won't take up any more room than I can help, and I'll leave my hat if you think the car'll be loaded too heavy. You have le't this pass to the poor, and its treasure laid up in heaven for you, where I hope some day I felt to roll along in your cars after jogging for eighty-five miles on foot."—Detroit Free Press.

"Was the crowd tumultuous?" inquired one man of another who had just come from a mass meeting. "Too tumultuous," replied the other. "Oh no, just about tumultuous enough to comfortably fill the hall."

A FLORENCE

Sewing Machine
Will make a stitch alike on both sides. It has a reversible foot. It is made of fine case hardened steel. It has no cogs, cams or wire springs to get out of order, has a self-regulating tension. It will sew from light to heavy fabric, and is adapted to all family sewing. It is the prettiest machine made, and runs very light—is almost noiseless, and is just what every housekeeper ought to have. The use of it can be learned from the book accompanying each machine. And it can be had on monthly installments if desired. We also have a new
MANUFACTURING MACHINE
for very heavy work, which can also be used on fine work. This machine will make 2500 stitches per minute. Manufacturers will do well to order a Florence B. at once.
The hundreds of the Florence now in use in North Carolina prove its merits, and that our people appreciate a good thing. Needles, oil, thread and silk constantly on hand for all machines and sent by mail to any part of the State. We are also agent for the

BICKFORD
Family Knitting Machine
upon which 20,000 stitches may be knit per minute, and from thirty to forty pairs of socks may be knit per day, completely without seam, and perfect heel and toe.
Hoods, Gloves, Shawls, Scarfs, Headings, &c., may be knit upon the "Woman's Help," and the price is less than half the common knitters, only $30.
Correspondence solicited in relation to either the Knitter or Sewing Machine and samples of work sent when requested. All orders by mail will receive prompt attention. And machines shipped to any part of the State. Agent wanted in every county. Address which has been published weekly for the last thirty years, does this, to an extent beyond that of any other publication. In fact it is the only weekly paper published in the United States, devoted to Manufacturers, Mechanics, Inventors, and New Discoveries in the Arts and Sciences.

Every number is profusely illustrated and its contents embrace the latest and most interesting information pertaining to the progress of the world, descriptions, with Beautiful Engravings, of New Inventions, New Implements, New Processes, and Improved Industries, and the best weekly illustrated paper devoted to Engineering, Mechanics, Chemistry, New Inventions, Science and industrial progress, published in the world.
The practical receipts are well worth ten times the subscription price. And for the shop and house will save many times the cost of subscription.
Merchants, Farmers, Mechanics, Engineers, Inventors, Manufacturers, Laborers, and all people of all professions. will find the Scientific American useful to them. It should have a place in every family, library, office, and counting room; in every reading room, college and school. A new volume commences January 1st, 1876. A year's number contains 600 pages and several hundred engravings. The volume is preserved for binding and reference. Terms, $5.00 a year by mail, including postage. Single copies 15 cents. Special circulars giving club rates sent free. Single copies mailed on receipts of 10 cents. May be had of all news dealers.
In connection with the Scientific American, Messrs. Munro & Co. are Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, and have the largest establishment in the world. More than fifty thousand applications have been made for patents through their agency.
Patents are obtained on the best terms, models of new inventions and sketches examined and advice given. A special notice is made in the Scientific American of all inventions patented through the agency, with the name and residence of the inventor. Patents are offered in part or whole, to persons attracted to the invention by such notices. Send for Pamphlet, containing full details for obtaining Patents, and a bound volume containing the Patent Law, Census of the U. S., and 143 Engravings of mechanical inventions. Paper or covering Patent. MUNN & CO., 37 Park Row, New York Branch Office, Cor. F & 7th Sts., Washington D. C.
AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
Gilmore & Co., successors to Chyman Hosmer & Co., Solicitors. Patents procured in all countries. No fees in advance. No charge unless the patent is granted. No fees for making preliminary examinations. No additional fees for obtaining and conducting a hearing. By a recent decision of the Commissioner all rejected applications may be revived. Special attention given to interference cases before the Patent Office. Extensions before Congress. Obtaining Patents in different States, and all litigation pertaining to Inventions or Patents. Send stamp to Gilmore & Co. for pamphlet of sixty pages.
Land Cases, Land Warrants, and Scrip.
Contested Land cases prosecuted before the U. S. General Land Office and Department of the Interior. Private Land claims. Mining and Preemption claims, and Homestead cases attended to. Land Scrip in 40, 80, and 120 acre pieces for sale. This Scrip is redeemable, and can be located in the name of the purchaser upon any Government land subject to private entry, at $1.25 per acre. It is of equal value with Bounty Land Warrants. Send stamp to Gilmore & Co. for pamphlet of instructions.
Awards of Pay and Bounties.
Officers, Soldiers, and Sailors of the late war, or their heirs, are in many cases entitled to money from the Government of which they have no knowledge. Write full history, of service, and state amount of pay and bounty received. Enclose stamp to Gilmore & Co. and a full reply, after examination, will be given you free.
PENSIONS.
All officers, soldiers, and sailors wounded, ruptured, or injured in the late war, however slightly, or a obtain a pension by addressing Gilmore & Co.
Cases prosecuted by Gilmore & Co., before the Supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims, and the Southern Claims Commission.
Each department of our business is conducted in a separate bureau, under charge of the same experienced parties employed by the old firm. Prompt attention to business entrusted to Gilmore & Co., thus secured. We desire to win success by deserving it.
