

THE ALAMANCE GLEANER.

VOL. 2.

GRAHAM, N. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17 1876

NO. 33

THE GLEANER. PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY E. S. PARKER. Graham, N. C.

Rates of Subscription, Postage Paid: One Year... Six Months... Three Months...

Rates of Advertising: Transient advertisements payable in advance... One inch to constitute a square...

THIS PAPER IS ON FILE WITH THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A FLORENCE Sewing Machine. Will make a rich alike on both sides. It has a reversible feed. It is made of fine case hardened steel...

BICKFORD Sewing Machine. Will make a rich alike on both sides. It has a reversible feed. It is made of fine case hardened steel...

W. R. FOYER & BROTHER. (under the Sewing Hall.) GREENSBORO, N. C.

FURNITURE. W. R. FOYER & BROTHER. (under the Sewing Hall.) GREENSBORO, N. C.

Upholstering. neatly done. Their stock consists of CHAIRS, SETS, &c.

THE MASJON JOURNAL. Greensboro, N. C. The only weekly journal published in the United States...

New York State sure for Tilden and Reform.

INTERVIEW WITH THE CHAIRMAN OF NEW YORK DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

A Sun reporter visited the headquarters of the Democratic State Committee in the Everett House yesterday, to ascertain the condition of the Democratic caucus in the State of New York.

The reports that we have received from the various counties, said Mr. Magone, "are much more favorable than they were at this stage of the canvass in 1874."

"Do your reports indicate that many Republicans will vote the Democratic ticket?" "They show," said Mr. Magone, "very large accessions to our ranks from the Republican party."

"Are these changes general throughout the State, or are they confined to particular regions?" "Our reports indicate that we are receiving accessions from the Republican party in every county in the State," answered Mr. Magone.

"Can you give an estimate of the number of Republicans who will vote for Governor Tilden?" "We have not received complete returns from every election district in the State," said Mr. Magone.

"But in no event can the loss amount to 5,000 votes; and that loss will be more than balanced by the gains that we shall make in the agricultural districts in those very counties."

and that Gov. Tilden, by his exposure of the Ring, saved the people that sum, and thereby lessened their taxes. They will surely vote for the man who did them that service.

of the Ring, saved the people that sum, and thereby lessened their taxes. They will surely vote for the man who did them that service.

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

"Then, in reply to a question as to the effect of the result in Ohio and Indiana on the Presidential election, the Governor said, 'if the Democrats carry both Indiana and Ohio, the battle will be easily won. If we carry Indiana, and the Republicans carry Ohio, there will be a good fight all along the line.'"

The Governor added that Indiana and Ohio should go Democratic. "Advices from Illinois," said he, "indicate that changes similar to those which are going on in this State are taking place there. It is, as so, I should think there ought to be similar changes in Ohio and Indiana."

"The afternoon mail was brought into the room. It contained nearly one hundred letters. As the letters containing reports from cities, towns and villages in the State were opened they were shown to the reporter."

An influential man living in the eastern portion of the State writes: "In this town there are 48 Germans who have heretofore invariably voted the Republican ticket, and who now openly announce their intention to support Tilden and Robinson."

"A farmer living in one of the counties which were formerly controlled by the Canal Ring, writes, 'I have always voted the Republican ticket. I have long felt the want of a change in the administration of public affairs, and with each succeeding election have hoped that reform within the party would be accomplished. But for years I have felt that my taxes were continually increasing while the prices of my produce were growing less. In fact my income was eaten up with taxation, and I saw no steps taken to check the corruption, stop the stealing, or to reduce the expenses until Mr. Tilden was elected Governor. His first move was to break a Ring that was annually stealing more than $2,000,000 from the people of the State, and since that time he has been continually at work cutting down expenses and reducing the tax rate. Two years ago my portion of the State tax was $120. This year at the same valuation, it will not exceed $60. My neighbors see this and they are going to vote with me. We don't advertise that we are going to vote the Democratic ticket, but when the vote is counted, Gov. Tilden will learn that his efforts to serve the people are known and appreciated."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

At this, Gov. Tilden, who had entered the room while Mr. Magone was speaking, said: "I don't see how the majority can be any less; and if those Western States do what we expect them to do, it will be large."

We judge of a tree by its fruits. We judge of a political party by the effects, good or bad, of its administration of the public affairs. The Republican party has had control of South Carolina since 1868. What do we behold there to-day? Overlooking the Charleston riot and other ill results of radical ascendancy, we see the public schools nearly a closed asylum for the insane, and other benevolence institutions, without the means of support, besides being almost hopelessly involved in debt. All money appointed for these uses have been stolen by the carpet-bag and negro thieves, who have all the offices of the State, and who combine to rob the people. In the carpet-bag and negro party in this State any better than that in our sister State? Set the damning record of their publishing racial lies in 1868-1869 answer, Raleigh News.

Another Radical Lie Exposed. (Charleston Observer.) When the joint canvass of the two gubernatorial candidates was opened in Rutherfordton, Judge Settle accused Governor Vance of having made a statement, while Governor during the war, to the effect that if the war was only prosecuted with vigor and the independence of the Confederate States was gained there was nothing to hinder him from being President and the successor of Jefferson Davis. This Governor Vance denounced as absolutely and unqualifiedly false, and demanded the author of the report. Judge Settle stated that Col. J. P. H. Russ, who was ultimately associated with Gov. Vance at that time was the person to whom Gov. Vance had confided about his aspirations. Nothing more however was said about the matter until the two candidates for Governor met in discussion at Law's House Wake county where Col. Russ happened to be present. Judge Settle and Gov. Vance both united in a request that he should ascend the stand and declare publicly as to the truth or falsity of the subject under consideration. A reporter of the Raleigh Sentinel who was at the discussion, says that Col. Russ indignantly came forward and took the stand and said: "I have never been guilty of the charges alleged by my friend Settle. He has been incorrectly informed. It amounts to a falsehood in toto. I say on my honor as a gentleman and with my hand on my heart and in the presence of my God, that I never said what is attributed to me. Three days ago I would have seen Vance at the devil before I would have voted for him, but yesterday we compromised our difficulties; he met me like a white man, and I am now a Vance man."

King Alfonso. It is giving the Garrels a lively time, and A. B. TATE & CO. would you have saved from $50,000 to $100,000 per annum in the Legislative expenses? Vote for the Amendments restricting the session to sixty days and the per diem of the members to four dollars.

RALEIGH Boot & Shoe Store. GENTS' LADIES' MISSES' and Childrens' Shoes, in all styles, and of the best quality as made at the LOWEST PRICES.

R. A. NOELL Tailor. Cutting and making done in the latest fashions and most desirable manner. We keep constantly on hand samples of latest style goods for alterations, made up and order according to customer's wishes.

North Carolina College. Will commence its next annual session SEPT. 6TH 1876. The thoroughness of its course of instruction; its moderate fees; the excellence of its grounds, and the healthfulness of its location, commend this Institution to all seeking a liberal education.

Mt Pleasant N. C. Will commence its next annual session SEPT. 6TH 1876. The thoroughness of its course of instruction; its moderate fees; the excellence of its grounds, and the healthfulness of its location, commend this Institution to all seeking a liberal education.

WOMAN IN BATTLE. AGENTS WANTED to canvass every town and county in the State for "Woman in Battle" one of the most interesting books ever published. Being the life and exploits of a woman who lived in the most trying times of our history.