

THE CLEANER

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23 1876

E. S. FAHRENZ, Editor.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

On Wednesday last week, the returning board of this State, was guilty of the most revolutionary conduct, that perhaps could ever have truthfully been charged against any civil officer, or set of officers in any State in this Union.

And here is a bit of the opinion of Gen John A Logan in regard to it, expressed in the Senate in March 1873. "The government or pretended government now set up [with Kellogg, Brown, and Gov Wells is] a fraud, without returns, without votes, without anything except a mere desire on the part of a combination to establish a government."

LOUISIANA AND FLORIDA.

No material change in the situation in these two States. Gov Stearns has concluded to ignore the returning board, and court the electoral vote himself, but the courts were applied to and a restraining order issued, with an order to show cause why he should not be perpetually enjoined from so doing.

Gov. Brogden sent in his last message to the General Assembly last Tuesday. It is quite a long document, and upon the whole we think quite creditable.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Gov. Brogden sent in his last message to the General Assembly last Tuesday. It is quite a long document, and upon the whole we think quite creditable.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

There was quite a lively contest in the Democratic caucus of the members of the House over the nomination for Speaker. There were a number of aspirants, and their respective friends stuck to them faithfully.

RALEIGH SENTINEL.

This ably conducted paper, which for thirteen years has boldly and successfully fought the hosts of radicalism, in recognition of the hard times, has reduced the subscription price of its daily to six dollars a year.

TROOPS.—There is a concentration of troops at Washington city and much speculation in regard thereto.

Various conjectures, as to the reasons, and purposes of this massing of troops, are indulged, and even grave apprehensions are expressed, but the President, and those nearest to him, have given assurance that there is no political significance properly attachable to it.

GOV. HAMILTON'S ADDRESS.

To the people of South Carolina: The Board of Canvassers have by their unprecedented action to-day shown not only their contempt and defiance of the Supreme Court of the State but their utter disregard of their own official duty.

WADE HAMILTON.

Columbia, S. C., Nov 22, 1876.

MYSTERIOUS OCCURRENCE ON THE HIGHWAY.

A few nights ago, Himan Keith, who lives in New Light Township, this county, was found on the road near his residence, in a terribly mangled condition.

DEATH ON A RAIL.

A white man named Henry Perkins, came to tragic end at Kirtland, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, Monday night. He was addicted to drink, and being under the influence of liquor that night laid down and went to sleep on the railroad track.

IRREGULARITIES.—In the return of the votes for Presidential electors there are numerous irregularities.

There being no further business the County Lodge adjourned to meet at the time and place to be designated by the County Deputy.
