

THE GLEANER

Local, State and General
GRAHAM, N. C., Oct. 29 1878

CHURCH DIRECTORY--GRAHAM, N. C.

Pastor--Rev. B. W. Mebane, Supply
Services at 11 o'clock A. M. every Sabbath, except the 3rd in each month, and services every Sabbath evening, except the first and third, at 8 o'clock.

Read the advertisement of J. W. Harden in this issue. He asks you to trade with him. One feels a little better to go where he is asked, you know, and is apt to be treated better.

A week ago to-night was rather a rainy stormy time here, but further north, on the coast, quite a severe storm prevailed, and much damage was done to shipping and other property.

THE WILMINGTON SUN.--This new daily paper, published in Wilmington in this State, made its appearance last week. It is a good paper, well printed, well arranged and well edited.

FUNERAL SERMON.--On next Sabbath, in the Presbyterian church, in this town, the funeral sermon of the late James Madison Elder, of this county, will be preached by the Rev. B. W. Mebane.

We thank Mrs. Alys King for a lot of very fine sweet potatoes, and are sorry that we cannot follow her advice to catch a fat possum to eat with them.

Mr. B. F. Long, of this county has removed to Statesville, where he has formed a copartnership with Hon. W. M. Robbins, in the practice of law.

We call attention to the new advertisement of P. R. Harden, to be found in this issue. His stock is large, and comprises as nearly everything that our people want and need as can perhaps be found in one store.

Last Friday was one of the most delightfully pleasant days of the season, and as we thought of its brightness, and that it was Friday, we hoped no unfortunate was to be hanged on so beautiful a day.

We call attention to a condensed abstract from the election law, which we publish for the guidance of Registrars and Judges.

One of the Judges must be elected to bring the vote to the county seat, the Registrar will not do. These Judges, when assembled at the court house, form the county board of canvassers.

Read carefully the abstract from the law.

We return thanks for a complimentary ticket of admission to an annual fair, in Charlotte, on the 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th days of next month, under the auspices of the Carolina Fair Association.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY.--At the recent meeting of this venerable body, at Haywood, it adjourned to meet at the Presbyterian church, in Graham, on the Saturday before the second Sabbath in November for the purpose of ordaining and installing licentiate, B. W. Mebane, who was recently called to the pastorate of this church.

Rev. C. Miller, of Madison, is appointed to preside and preach the ordination sermon; the Rev. J. C. Alexander, of Guilford, to charge the people, and Rev. A. Currie, of this place, to charge the pastor.

On the same Sabbath the communion of the Lords Supper will be celebrated. All are cordially invited.

BLOODY TRAGEDY.

Miss Anelia Linkhaw, a pretty modest young lady of Lumberton, in Robeson county, noted for her gentleness and retiring disposition, had been for six or eight months receiving the attentions of Mr. E. Hartman, a well known young man, also a resident of Lumberton, but lately a traveling salesman for a Baltimore house.

EXTRA LIABILITY TO MALARIAL INFECTION.

Persons whose blood is thin, digestion weak and liver sluggish, are extra liable to the attacks of malarial disease. The most trifling exposure may, under such conditions, infect a system which, if healthy, would resist the miasmatic taint.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

The disease is abating, but in only a very few places there is an absence of new cases. Those who fled their homes have been too eager to return, and the result is that many of them have gone back too soon, and have introduced fresh material for the scourge, and have paid the penalty of their over-anxiety with their lives.

LENOIR COURT HOUSE BURNED.

On the morning of the 21st of this month, the court house in Kinston was discovered to be on fire. It was about three o'clock when the fire was discovered, and it had made such headway, that all efforts to put it out were too late.

THE LUMBERTON TRAGEDY.--From the Wilmington Sun we learn additional particulars of the shooting of the young man by the young woman in Lumberton. He was shot by her because he had seduced her, is one story, that she led him into a snare and foully victimized him is another.

Later news from the storm on the coast, a week ago, shows it to have been very destructive. Shipping all along the coast suffered much, and in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk chimneys and steeples were blown down, and quite a number of lives were lost.

MARRIED.--At the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. W. W. Amick, on the evening of the 24th inst., Mr. G. M. Thompson of Comp. ny Shops, to Miss R. A. Braxton, daughter of J. H. Braxton, of this county.

At the residence of the officiating magistrate on the 24th of last month, by Alvis King Esqr., Mr. Thomas H. Turner, of Caswell county, to Miss Margaret Shanahan, of Alamance county.

By Alvis King Esqr., at his residence, Mr. Thomas Foster, and Miss Leah Ray, all of Alamance.

DIED.--At his home, in the Haw Fields section in this county, last Thursday night, Robert Dixon, Mr. Dixon was an old man, having past his three score and ten, and a joyed in an eminent degree, the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

Andy Whitmore, colored, a tenant of J. A. McCauley, in Pleasant Grove township, had a barn burned filled with tobacco burned.

Col. Duncan K. McRae will return to North Carolina and settle in Wilmington to practice law.

AN UNDENIABLE TRUTH.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you--your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism that has killed thousands.

The Rev. Mr. Reiley, a Presbyterian preacher of Lynchburg, Va., was walking down the tow path, on the river, to an appointment he had to preach when he was fired at three times by a desperado on the deck of a freight boat.

A. M. McEntire had a boy who married against his wishes and the old man would not admit the pair within his doors. This exasperated the young man and he went and burned up his father's store, with all the contents, save possibly the money drawer.

Among the disasters from the storm last Tuesday night, is the loss of the ship A. S. Davis, which ran ashore on the coast of Virginia. The cargo was lost, and all of her crew of sixteen men save one.

Mr. Henry Harrison Poe, a white man hailing from Salem in this State, was arrested in Danville, charged with stealing a cow. The Mayor upon his conviction ordered him to receive thirty-nine lashes, which were duly laid on, with a cowhide.

Some while ago Jefferson Davis Jr., only son of the Confederate ex-President, died of yellow fever. Save his father there is now no male member of the family living, so that the name, so far as that family is concerned, will very soon become extinct.

We notice as an item of news in our exchanges that Judge Tongue proposes to locate in Philadelphia after the election. We expect the Judge will say that he has not authorized the publication of his future plans.

The annoyance occasioned by the continual crying of the baby, at once ceases when the carter is (as it should be) promptly removed by using Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price 25 cents per bottle.

Arrests are being made in South Carolina, and parties bound over to the Federal court, upon the affidavits of negroes that they have been interrupted with in their political rights.

The announcement that Hon. Samuel J. Tilden is soon to be married will again be made. This time to a St. Louis belle. It is time the old fellow was married and settled down.

Genl. Wiley D. Jones, of Wake, has been brought to the front by the Republican campaign committee as a candidate for Congress. He takes the place that Judge Reid refused to occupy.

Mr. Harry Loeb, a prominent merchant of Wilmington, was married in Raleigh on the 22nd, to Miss Bessie B. Batchelor, daughter of Hon. Joseph B. Batchelor.

Be on time; for prevention is better than cure. All Coughs and Colds and such affection of the throat and lungs as lead to consumption are cured by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.

There is a revival in progress in the Methodist church in Greensboro. A Miss Painter, sister of Mrs. Moon who preached effectively there some time ago, is taking an active part.

The King of Spain was fired at while driving in the streets of Madrid. The man who fired the shot was seized and sent to prison. He avowed his purpose to be assassination.

Dr. Worth, State Treasurer, had his room entered and a gold watch and some money taken from under the pillow on which his head rested.

Jefferson Fisher, a wealthy and prominent citizen of Raleigh, is dead. He had built up fine properties in Raleigh, and was a very successful farmer.

Person Superior court will not open until Wednesday the 6th of Nov., on account of the election the 5th.

The Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina met in Goldsboro, on the 23rd of this month.

ADVERTISEMENTS. Iron & Steel Shovels, Bull Tongues, Side Shovels, Heel Bolts & Single Traces at SCOTT & DONNELL'S.

AT LAST

There is a tobacco market in this county.

McCauley & Smith

of COMPANY STORES, are buying TOBACCO, and paying for it in cash or barter at the very highest prices. And also RAW-HIDES, for which they pay the highest prices.

THEIR STORE

is the Jim Moore old store house, and is filled with a general stock, such as the people need, which they will sell as cheap as anybody. They keep everything and buy everything, and their purpose is to show the people that if their interest is given them a liberal share of patronage. They are just starting in business, and they hope to succeed by strict attention and fair dealing. They ask the people to try them and then of course they can judge for themselves. Notwithstanding they make a specialty of yet they buy all kinds of country produce. They wish all to remember that while they are specially anxious to buy Raw-hides and Tobacco, yet they desire to buy all kinds of produce. They intend by frequent orders to keep their stocks always full, and by turning over often can afford to make small profits. Oct. 15 1877. J. J.
