CASWELL COURT.

We spent Monday and Tuesday of last week at Caswell court, Judge Kerr presiding. His Honors charge to the grand jury furnished matter for thought and sober reflection.

FAIRS.

Last week was a fair week in more senses than one. The weather was not only fair but beautiful. The Fair at the Carolina Association at Charlotte proved a success beyond what its promoters had dared hope.

SOMETHING NEW--A RARE OPPORTUNITY.

We have had lately brought to our notice a new kitchen utensil, the real merit of which entitles it to something more than a passing notice which we can give it. We allude to the PEERLESS FLOUR AND MEAL SIFTER.

THE SOUTH ATLANTIC.

Mrs. Harris indeed given her patrons and the public a treat in the November number of this excellent magazine.

AN UNDENIABLE TRUTH.

You deserve to suffer, and if you are miserable unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your fault and there is only one excuse.

STATE NEWS.

Carolina Fair opened at Charlotte Monday, the 12th of this month.

On Saturday night, the 9th of this month, a white man and a negro in Ruthertordton got into a drunken quarrel, when the white man drew a pistol and shot the negro, inflicting a dangerous if not fatal wound.

A negro giving his name as Whit Feron was in Charlotte offering a young horse for sale so cheap as to lead to the belief that he had stolen the animal.

An old man named Calvin Harris of Paw Creek township in Mecklenburg county, and two of his neighbors, James McCall and his son Jake, were in Charlotte, and in going home the McCalls rode in Harris's wagon.

Wesley Wycoff, of Catawba county, living near Catawba Station was shot dead in his own yard, last Thursday night a week ago.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. Meeke and Mr. MacKeezie, both brothers-in-law of the Miss Linkhaws, who shot and killed Hartman last month, were up for trial at Wadesboro, Friday.

The N. C. Conference of the M. E. Church South will meet in annual session in Charlotte on the 27th inst.

Solicitor Strudwick had a negro in his employ named Towms. He became dissatisfied at the wages he received and to gratify his ill feeling took a fine ox belonging to Mr. Strudwick into the woods.

Chatham Record: A little daughter of J. E. Perry, between two and three years old was left alone a few minutes in a room where there was a fire when suddenly she was heard to scream and came running to the door all ablaze.

The Baptist church in Pittsboro is undergoing repairs which will make it one of the neatest churches in the county.

The Charlotte Democrat learns that Rev. Dr. N. H. D. Wilson refuses to surrender the office of Trustee of the N. C. R. R. to Mr. John W. Graham, elected by the directors, claiming that the Board had no right to displace him.

There will be a meeting of the Guilford County Grand Jury, in Greensboro tomorrow at 11 o'clock A. M.

Joseph A. Hoskins Jr., of Summerfield, Guilford county, has been appointed Mail Agent on the Richmond & Danville Railroad.

The store of Mr. Joseph Hoskins & Sons at Bruce's Cross Roads in Guilford county, with the entire contents was destroyed by fire, last Sunday night, a week ago.

Two marriages in Durham last Wednesday evening. Mr. H. L. Jordan, of Granville to Miss Annie Ingo Wynne of Durham and Mr. Charles Howerton, of Durham to Mrs. Sallie Duce, late of Petersburg Va.

Mr. W. D. Shaw was riding with a lady in a buggy in Fayetteville. The horse became frightened, overturned the buggy and threw both out, breaking Mr. Shaw's arm--lady unhurt.

The News says, among the best performers with the great London Circus, is William Gorman, a son of William Gorman, who some years ago moved from Raleigh to Kentucky.

The editor of the Wilmington Sun has been presented with a fourteen pound potato. It was raised by Matt. R. Lee of Goldsboro, and took two years to grow to its enormous size.

Salisbury Watchman: We record the presence in this old burgh of a distinguished visitor in the person of Sir George Campbell, a Scotch member of the British Parliament, and for many years a Governor of one of the East India Presidencies.

Raleigh News: Gov. Vance received a letter yesterday from Hon. Jesse J. Yeates, democratic candidate for Congress from the First District, stating that Martin's majority had been reduced to thirty-nine voters, and that he would be able to show fraud practiced on the part of Martin and his friends, sufficient to overcome Martin's alleged majority.

RE-OPENING A THOROUGHFARE.

In order to guard against results utterly subversive of health, it is absolutely essential that the grand thoroughfare or avenue of the system, the bowels should be re-opened as speedily as possible when they become obstructed.

The North State: The following statement shows the aggregate collections in the Fifth Internal Revenue Collection District of North Carolina during the six months ending October 31, 1877, and for the same period in 1878:

Table with 3 columns: Month, 1878, 1877, Increase. Rows for May, June, July, Aug, Sept, Oct, and Total.

All the world over, baby governs. Yet often disease will overcome the baby and then it is that Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup proves its worth by conquering the disease.

In Louisiana and South Carolina the negroes voted the Democratic ticket largely, many hundreds of the more prominent standing at the polls and working for the Democrats, all election day.

Common sense. For all cases of coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Everything is right with the Governor thus far, and all hands--urgents, friends and family and the Governor himself--are in high hopes of a speedy recovery.
