Bad colds, epizootic as some call the ailment, are afflicting our people, and the Gleaner office has its share, and this fact must apologize for any shortcomings this week.

The store of E. D. Patterson in the western part of Chatham county was broken into and goods of the value of $100, were stolen.

Josh Billings' Almanac says: "About this time look out for cold weather." And should have added:—Keep Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup in readiness.

SEWING MACHINES.—J. W. Harden has in store and for sale the American Sewing Machine, a first class article, of different qualities, at the low price of $20.00, $30.00 and $35.00 as per style. Let all who want a machine call and examine.

DIME SOCIABLE.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a Dime Sociable on the evenings of the 17th and 18th of this month, for the benefit of the Foreign Mission fund, and to buy a bell for the church. The note we got authorizing the announcement did not say just where the Sociable would be held, but we suppose it will be at some point in our town, and can be hunted up without great trouble.

The Globe Comedy Company concluded to defy the law and the county authorities by giving theatrical exhibitions without paying the required tax. The members were brought before Esquire Scott and muled in the penalty of twenty dollars, which amount was after awhile paid over. Wiley Holt and Frank Wagner, both colored were committed to jail by Esquire Scott for an affray but the next day gave bail for their appearance at court.

OBITUARY

Died in Alamance county, on the morning of the 28th ult. Mrs. Cassandra Hancock, in the forty-ninth year of her age, after long and painful illness which she bore with great christian fortitude. On the morning before she died, she called her husband and children to her bedside, and told them that she was going to die, and that she was going Home to her Blessed Redeemer; and that she wanted them to prepare to meet her in Heaven. After bidding them farewell, she shouted until she was exhausted, when her spirit winged its flight to its mansion of Rest. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." Our loss is her gain.

DEATH OF ALBERT MURRAY.—To all who knew him it will be sad news to learn of the death of Albert Murray, a man of many hearted and obliging, and a good many warm friends, and will be missed and regretted as few men would. His death was sudden as that met in the shock of battle. On Saturday evening he was behind his counter waiting on customers who were in the store, when he fell, as one shot, to the floor. Though he continued to breathe for some hour more afterwards, no gleam of consciousness again returned. We knew he was well, and can truly say that a larger, kinder heart, tender in its affections and sympathies, blessed no man. He had been a member of his county for four years, and was at his death a justice of the peace. He was about forty years of age, and leaves a widow to mourn him.

LETTER FROM DR. MEBANE.

To my fellow citizens of Alamance County.

The General Assembly having passed a joint resolution to go into an election of Magistrates, to fill the places of those whose term expires at the end of two years from the time they were appointed, I would respectfully, and earnestly request you to meet and consult together, and agree in selecting good, capable and clear minded men for this important position. All political power is vested in and derived from the people; all government of right originates from the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole. You have the inherent, sole, and exclusive right to assemble together to consult for your common good, to instruct your Representatives and to apply to the Legislature for redress of grievance.

Then meet together and consult for the common good, without regard to party or race. Select your best men, only inquiring who are the capable, upright, clear-minded and just. It is very important that you should recommend the best men, as this General Assembly, will no doubt, very greatly and materially enlarge the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace in criminal matters.

Never lose sight of the fact that all government originates from the people and founded upon their will only, and that we your representatives are but your servants, to enact laws, and use delegated power, only in accordance with your will and instructions properly expressed; and when this will is not so expressed, to act in accordance with their best judgment, for the best interest and common good of the whole people.

I earnestly ask you to communicate to me and with me on any measure that may be for the good and welfare of our county. Our utmost endeavor shall be to curtail expenses and to prevent a misappropriation of the public funds. Send in your recommendations for Justices of the Peace before the 18th of February.

Very Respectfully
Your obedient servant
BENJ. F. MEBANE.
Raleigh Jan'y. 27th 1879.

A REMARKABLE PUBLICATION.

THE FEBRUARY NUMBER OF FRANK LESLIE'S SUNDAY MAGAZINE

is remarkable for the abundance and the varied character of its attractive features. It is impossible to convey, in an ordinary notice any idea of the richness of its contents, literary and artistic; we heartily commend it to those of our readers who desire to obtain a highly entertaining, instructive and edifying publication. The aim of the editor (Rev. Dr. Deems) is to inculcate morals and religion—not by dry, hard homilies, but by every style of literature, which can make the truth attractive and pleasing. Each number contains serial and short stories, essays, biographical sketches, poems, music, anecdotes, a sermon, and a comprehensive miscellany abounding with valuable information and entertainment. The present number opens with a profusely illustrated description of a visit to that singular community, the Lebanon Shakers; it is very graphic and exceedingly interesting. "Hints for a Sunday-School" will be worthy of the consideration of all denominations of Christians. A number of characteristic anecdotes of the late Bishop Early of Virginia will command especial attention. "The admirable serial 'David Fleming's Forgiveness,' is continued, and the juvenile story 'In Mischievous Again' concluded. There are several excellent short stories, sketches, essays, etc., poems by celebrated writers, sermon, or the editor on the topic, 'The Kingdom of God,' etc., etc., filling 123 quarto pages, the illustrations numbering nearly 100. The price is only 25 cents a number, the annual subscription $3.00, postpaid. This is the time to subscribe, either for the year or for six months, $1.00. Address, FRANK LESLIE, 53, 55 & 57 Park Place, New York.

HOSTS OF PEOPLE ARE MARTYRS

To sick headache, that infallible symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. They do so needlessly, for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by toning the digestive organs and regulating the bowels and liver removes the cause, and dispels the painful symptom. The intimate sympathy between the brain and the abdominal region causes the slightest disorder affecting the latter to be reflected, as it were, in the organ of thought. The reform instituted by the Bitters when the digestive, secretory and excretory functions are in a state of chaos, has other and more beneficial results, viz., the complete nutrition of the whole physical economy, the restoration of appetite and repose, and increase in the power of the system to resist diseases of a malarial type.

NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN.

This organ of the North Carolina Presbyterians, always orthodox and ably edited, has been improved by the addition of departments of Church and General Religious Intelligence. Its Family and Miscellaneous reading is both attractive and instructive. An epitome of Secular News is furnished every week. The ablest writers write for it, among whom are the following: Rev. Drs. Drury, Lacy, J. Henry Smith, J. B. Adger, and A. W. Miller; Rev. Messrs. Jos. M. Atkinson, E. M. Harding, D. E. Jordan, J. Randle, E. F. Rockwell, P. H. Dalton, L. C. Vass, H. G. Hill, W. S. Lock, W. W. Pharr, F. H. Johnston, P. T. Penick, R. Z. Johnston, S. H. Chester, J. W. Primrose, S. M. Smith, A. F. Dickson, J. M. Wharey, Prof. J. R. Blake; Mrs. Cornelia Phillips Spencer, Mrs. Mary Ayer Miller ("Luola" Mrs. H. M. Irwin, and many others.

Price $2.65 a year. Send for Premium List. JOHN McLAURIN, Address, Editor and Proprietor, Wilmington, N. C.

Genl. Sherman visited Atlanta last week for the first time since the war. Considerable crowd at the depot out of curiosity. No demonstration of any kind.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES.

NEWS NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The printers of Raleigh had a grand reunion and supper at the National Hotel, on the night of the 28th ult.

Toasts were prepared and responded to, and a general good time was enjoyed. Letters from invited guests who could not attend were read, and some of these, notably the one from Gov. Holden, were highly interesting in the information they contained concerning the progress and improvement in everything pertaining to printing within the past forty years.

Two brothers named Mixon, fought over a horse trade in Georgia, and one shot and killed the other.

Mrs. Bruce, the wife of Senator Bruce colored, of Mississippi is, according to newspaper accounts, the rage in Washington society.

Deputy Collector Worth, arrested a still in the smoke house of a man named Holt in Guilford county.

The North State tells of two young candidates for the penitentiary, both white, one named Harrell and the other White. Harrell stole a pocket book from a Mr. Coe, both together got a pair of boots from Mr. Yates, in Greensboro, one wishing to show to his father and the other standing surety that they would be returned, and both robbed the house of a Mr. Eckel, gaining admission on the pretense of warming themselves, and while the negro boy in charge of the house slept they took a double barrel gun and fiddle and perhaps other articles. Harrell has been arrested but White is at large with a warrant after him.

Riley Tedder was killed and Lige Church and Alf Edmundson were wounded in fight about a pistol near Wilkesboro.

On the 13th of this month the people of Johnston county vote upon the removal of the court house. Between the friends of Smithfield and their opponents there is a warm time.

Hon. K. P. Battle, President of the University, delivered a lecture in common hall in Raleigh last Thursday night, showing the benefits of good education to the farmer and mechanic, as well as to the professional man. The lecture was well spoken of by The Observer.

Senator Thurman is to deliver the address at Chapel Hill in June.

Ex-Judge Sam W. Watts has arrived in Wilmington and will make that city his home.

Genl. R. E. Coldston, for a number of years an officer in the Khedive's army in Egypt, has returned to his old home, in Wilmington and will deliver a course of lectures on the manners of the Khedive's people.

A Mecklenburg county negro went to Cabarrus county and getting his leg broken was put in the poor house of the latter county. Soon afterwards the authorities of Cabarrus sent the negro to the Mecklenburg poor house, and on the trip, during very cold weather, his leg was broken over again and had to be cut off. He will sue Cabarrus county for the loss of his leg, and the result of his action will be looked for with interest.

The jury in the Arlington case gave the property to the plaintiff, G. W. Custis Lee. It will be remembered this property was sold during the war for direct taxes, and bought by the United States. This suit was for the recovery of it, and the tax title has been held to be bad.

VARIOUS CAUSES

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary disposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light and red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action, and removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brassy, weak, or sickly hair, to which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous.

Prepared and Sold by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

I am also prepared to convey families, drummers, and others, any where, at any time. My vehicles are good and my teams active, and driver prompt and attentive. Shall be glad to serve those wishing transportation on moderate terms. Jan'y. 14th 1879. JOHN HUTCHINSON
