FRESH DRUGS—for the Cash. at the Southwest corner of Court House Square.

Read the ad. of Maj. W. B. Lynch, and note the opening of his school at High Point. As a teacher Maj. Lynch needs no commendation from us.

Mr. D. W. Klapp and Miss Emma Klapp, those and grand-daughter of our townsman, Mr. John H. Klapp, returned from Alabama last Sunday. They had been absent for some time.

TAXPAYERS will do well to read the advertisement of the Board of Commissioners in this issue, and govern themselves accordingly.

We return thanks for a complimentary pass over the North Carolina Railroad and return; to attend the North Carolina Press Association to be held in Beaufort on the 20th of Aug. We regret our inability to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Denny, of Reidsville, were on a visit to his father's Mr. John Denny's of this place, last week. Mr. Denny returned to Reidsville Monday morning, but Mrs. Denny will remain a few weeks.

The Americans lead the world in everything and especially in fast eating; this has made Dyspepsia our national disease, though now under perfect control by the use of Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills. Sold everywhere. Price 25 cents.

We see it stated by the Wilmington Star that Mr. Moore is to revise his school history of the State. The Star has pointed out errors in the present edition, and by its friendly criticism has doubtless done much to satisfy Mr. Moore of the necessity of this revision.

MISTAKEN.—In our notice of the departure of Rev. A. Currie for Reidsville in our last issue, we were mistaken in saying he was to take charge of the Presbyterian church at Reidsville. He went there to take charge of a school, and will fill appointments at two Presbyterian churches in the country near by.

SCRATCH YOUR HEAD IN ANOTHER PLACE.—Lucien Crater, the barber, may always, that is nearly always, be found at his shop in room No. 19 in the Graham Hotel. The location is quite convenient and Crater is a good barber; keeps everything nice and clean, and does his work well.

W. F. Prather has opened art gallery, in Grange Hall, Company Shops, where he will be glad to serve all who wish pictures of themselves or friends, of whatever description. There are so many different "types" now that we can't begin to call all their names, but he takes them all. Read his ad. in another column.

PLEASANT LODGE ACADEMY.—We are glad to learn that this school is to be revived. The fall term will begin the 2nd of Sept., and continue for twenty weeks. Mr. N. C. English, the founder of this school, returns to infuse new life into it. It will be remembered that Mr. English is the present member of the House of Representatives from Randolph. He is a graduate of Trinity College, has had large experience as a teacher, and will doubtless very soon bring Pleasant Lodge Academy back to its former prosperous condition.

POPULAR MONTHLY.

The August number is even more than usually interesting; it is filled with highly entertaining and instructive matter, and many of the articles are replete with valuable information—as, for instance, "Sights in Southern China," by W. T. Knox; "The Lakes of Italy," by Lady Blanche Murphy; "The Arms of the Mediaevals," by F. H. Norton; and "The Metamorphoses of the Sphinx," which are admirably and profusely illustrated. "The Summer Amusements of the American People," "The Race for the Blue Ribbon of the Derby," and "Eina and its Erupitions," will repay the reader. The department of fiction is peculiarly rich this month. A new serial by the author of "Dora Thorne," entitled "A Golden Dawn," promises to be a story of deep and stirring interest. There are several short stories by M. T. Caldwell, Annie Thomas, Eleanor Kirk, and other popular writers; poems of genuine merit, sketches, etc., etc., and a carefully selected miscellany, including History, Science, Travels, Witticisms, etc., etc., occupying, together with handsome embellishments, 128 quarto pages. If you desire to enjoy delightful summer reading don't fail to obtain this number of the FORGOTTEN MONTHLY. The illustration number quite one hundred, and there is a very beautiful chromo frontispiece "On the Pier at Trouville." Single copies are only 25 cents, and the annual subscription $3, postpaid. Address, FRANK LESLIE'S PUBLISHING HOUSE, 53, 55 & 57 Park Place, New York.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF JUSTICES.

The magistrates of the county met with the Board of Commissioners, last Monday, for the purpose of levying the county tax for the next fiscal year. This had been done in May, but there being doubt as to the legality of the levy made then, the order making it was rescinded. The question then was what should be the county tax on one hundred dollars worth of property. There was considerable debate in which Esquires J. L. Scott, T. G. Foust, G. D. Cobb, William Stafford and Commissioner A. Wilson indulged. Mr. Scott moved that the tax be 10¢ cents on the one hundred dollars in valuation of real and personal property. Mr. Foust moved to amend by making the levy 32 1/2 cents on the hundred dollars. Mr. Scott supported his argument with quite an array of figures. Dr. Cobb took the position that our Board of Commissioners knew best what amount was necessary, and while he recognized that crops were short and times very hard, he favored making a levy sufficient to meet the actually necessary demands of the county. Mr. Foust took substantially the same position. Dr. Wilson, of the Board of Commissioners, showed that by Mr. Foust's amendment the actual needs of the county could be met, and if there was no unusual demand upon the county, something could be also applied to the diminution of our interest bearing county debt. All expressed themselves as being individually sensible of the scarcity of money, and favoring the reduction of taxes to the lowest possible figures.

Mr. William Stafford then came in with an amendment to the amendment of Mr. Foust making the tax on one hundred dollars valuation of property 27 1/2 cents, which after discussion was adopted. This, it was estimated, would raise a fund sufficient to pay the ordinary current expenses of the county, and the interest on the county debt, but would provide nothing for a sinking fund. So the tax-payers of this county will have to pay on each hundred dollars valuation of property, for State and county purposes, sixty cents, unless the "School Bill" about which there is at present litigation should become a law, and if it should then the State tax will be two cents more, which will make sixty-two cents on the hundred dollars in valuation.

BY HIS FRUIT YE SHALL KNOW HIM.—Dr. Blackball has a wonderfully fine melon patch. It is broken out all over with watermelons and canteloupes. Although a benevolent man, he doesn't grow his fruit for the community, but for the especial use of his family and the guests of his hotel. In order to make sure of his crop, his servant man, who is as faithful as servants get to be, has watched the patch for seventeen consecutive nights, without closing his eyes. But even patch-watching has limits, and to relieve the faithful sentinel a spring gun was set. They knew that the spring gun would keep quiet unless it went off, and when it went off that visitors would retire.

Wednesday night a bag got over the fence and laid itself down between the rows, and some of the melons becoming detached, crept into it. The guard who was off duty, heard a report and he knew the bag had gone off, so he repaired to the field to reconnoitre. He found there the bag full of melons but nobody to claim it. He walked to the fence and there he found some red stains very much like a very red watermelon heart. He came back and thanking the bag for gathering the melons and saving him the trouble, he shouldered it and walked back to his couch. He says if anybody was there with that bag he carried off a bigger load than when he came, and if he will only bring him back his shot to reload his night watch with that he will give him melons enough to last him all the summer.—The Observer.

GRAHAM, N. C., July 29, 1879.

MR. EDITOR: DEAR SIR, Permit me through your columns to tender my thanks to our many kind friends, who have so abundantly in their liberality towards us.

On going around to our new home last Friday I found the floor literally covered with a profusion of gifts, consisting of the most necessary articles for housekeeping. We were particularly touched too to find some beautiful presents from friends who do not even members of our congregation.

Both of us feel profoundly grateful to our friends, and pray that God will liberally reward them with rich spiritual gifts for their generosity to us. We have found it blessed to receive their tokens of love; we trust they may have found it more blessed to give them.

Very Truly Yours, B. W. MENARD.

The foregoing communication was intended for the last issue of this paper, but was handed in just a little too late.—Ed.

KILLED BY FUGITIVES.

A letter from Shelby gives the following account of a tragedy in Cleveland: Deputy Sheriff Wm. Suttle, of Rath-erford county, summoned a posse of men last Sunday night for the purpose of arresting two negroes who had stolen some horses in South Carolina, and who were at that time hiding around the village of Burnt Chimney. While the officer and his men were attempting to arrest the horse thieves, they commenced cutting and shooting. Mr. John Butler, a very worthy citizen was shot, from the effects of which he died soon afterwards, and some others of the party were slightly wounded by the negroes. The officers returned the fire and a general fight ensued, which resulted in one of the negroes receiving several wounds before his capture. The negroes are now in jail at Rutherfordton.—Charlotte Observer.

YELLOW FEVER.

While the fever continues, and each day brings its new cases and deaths yet the situation for the past week has not been so disheartening as the week before. That the disease is epidemic there is no doubt, but that so far it is held in some sort of check is equally clear. There are some seven or eight new cases reported each day and some few deaths each day. The authorities will as specifically as possible put the poor people, such as are unable to provide for themselves, outside of the city into camps and thus they hope to effect much in staying the disease. Taken all in all the condition of Memphis is not altogether so gloomy as it was a week or two ago, apprehended it would be. Some refugees from Memphis have died in different places over the country, but the disease cannot be said to really exist elsewhere.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Commissioners of Alamance county will meet at the Court House in Graham, on the 4th Monday in August, it being the 25th day of the month, and remain in session for one day and longer if necessary, for the purpose of revising the Tax-List and valuation of property reported to them for the year 1879; at which time and place any and all persons, objecting to the valuation of their property, or the amount of taxes charged against them, will be heard in regard thereto.

All persons who have failed to list their property or polls may list at that time. All persons failing to list their property and polls will be charged with double tax, and besides, be liable to criminal prosecution for the omission.

A SOURCE OF MUCH BODILY EVIL.

If the habit of body becomes irregular much evil is inflicted on the system. The stomach becomes dyspeptic, bilious symptoms develop themselves, the circulation is contaminated, and the most acute forms of general disorder. It is of the utmost importance that the bowels should be thoroughly and speedily regulated when they grow derelict. The corrective agent best adapted to this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a wholesome non-purging vegetable laxative, worth all the rasping cathartics invented since the time of Paracelsus. People who have been in the habit of using blue pill, calomel, and other drugs and cheap nostrums for constipation, should abandon such hurtful and useless medicines, and substitute for them this pleasant and gentle aperient, which not only produces a purgative effect naturally, but also strengthens while it regulates the bowels, stomach and liver. It moreover cures and prevents intermittent and remittent fever, rheumatism, debility and urinary troubles.

George H. Gerham's enlistment papers in the Bill's Democratic combination are fully executed, and he seems to have recovered his old step to Democratic music very readily. Well, he makes his own bed, and no one has a right to object to his occupying it. The change has been made with such precipitancy that he has had scarcely time to lay aside his republican costume or forget his familiar Republican phrases. Verily this is a changing world.—Washington Republican.

Mr. J. H. Burns, of Selma, Alabama, was at the National Hotel yesterday, on the way to Chatham, the land of his nativity, which he has not seen for more than thirty years. The population of Raleigh has more than quadrupled since Mr. Burns lived here. He was a resident of Raleigh as far back as the burning of the Capitol in 1835, and the improvements in the place struck him with more force than anything he has witnessed on his journey from the South. Mr. Burns will spend some time with his relatives in Chatham.—The Observer.

Preceot G. Pillsbury, cashier of the Lawrence, Mass., National Bank is a defaulter to the amount of $64,000, having used that sum of the Bank's money to speculate in mining stocks. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

Frank Beamish, a printer, was shot yesterday afternoon in Memphis; by C. B. Hammer. The wound is not serious. Beamish had reported his kissing an aunt of Hammer and refused to contradict it, which caused Hammer to shoot him; Hammer was arrested.

Mr. Welsh, Minister from this country to England has tendered his resignation. He is from Pennsylvania, and his successor will likely come from that State.

E. L. Ernest, a sleeping car conductor, on the Richmond & Danville Railroad, leaped from the platform of his car, and his head came in contact with a fence, resulting in injuries from which he died.

Why let your Baby suffer and perhaps die, when a bottle of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup would at once relieve it and effect a cure. Price 25 cents.
