THE AGRICULTURAL BUREAU. - The Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic, late the official organ of the State Agricultural Department, is indulging in friendly criticisms upon the management of the Agricultural Bureau. It disclaims any hostile feeling, personal or otherwise to wards the Department, or towards Col. Polk, its head, but it declares woeful mismanagement has marked the admin-istration of its affairs, and that the results are nothing compared with the cost, and what the people had a right to expect. The distribution of the work the Bureau into other hands leaves ol. Polk a mere figure head, with nothing to do, with Mr. Robinson, his secre-

SUNDAY MAGAZINE

AUGUST.

Presents manifold attractions, and the powerful claims of the periodical to ex-tensive patronage campot possibly be gainsaid. It is probably the most pleas-ing magazine published, containing a greater variety of choice reading matter and more illustrations than any of its co-temporaries. Its literature is pure and healthful, inculcating exalted sentiments; it is always vivacious, and edifies and instructs while it entertains. The opening article is a deeply interesting one, by Prot. W. Wells, on "Emigration to the Holy Land"; and Mr. Guernsey furnishes a second one on the Persecutions, treatsing of the "Crusades against the Albigenses and Waldenses." There is a charming memorial sketch, with portrait, of the late Miss King of Georgia. A story entitled "Lady Vasart's Ward," by Edward Garrett, is deeply interest us. There are several short stories, some of them adapted to children—they all have interesting incidents and instructive morals, and are admirably written. The poems are more than ordinarily merincrious, and are by Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Kidder, Miss Nellie C. Hastings, and other talented writers. There is the Popular Exegesis by the Editor; and in At Home and Abroad he gives a full summary of want is passing in the rement he treats of timely topics—"Put-ting on Airs," "Clergymen's Vacatious," 'Vox Populi,' etc, etc., The 128 quarto pages are, in fact, crowded with good things, and the embellishments number nearly 100. The price is only $3 per an-num, post paid, and subscriptions are received for six months, $1.50; four months, $1. The price of a single copy is 25cents. Address Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53,55 & 57 Park Place New York.

BIG EXCURSION TO NORFOLK.—The merchants of Eastern Carolina went on a big excursion to Norfolk last week. From the lengthy accounts we see in the papers a large time was enjoyed. There was a large crowd. The excursion ists were the guests of the city. A number of speeches were made, all good of course. A big dinner was given, toasts were drunk, and happy responses made. Among the distinguished speakers we notice Col. Wharton J. Green, Judge Cox and Dorsey Battle, editor of the Tarboro Southmer, from our own State and Congressman Goode, Col. Starks and Judge Hilliard, the latter recently of our State, now of Virginia. The number of excursionists was est mated at 2,500. Everything was done on the part of the merchants and citizens of Norfolk to insure a glorious old time, and it appears they had it.

Mr. J. A. Cox and several other young men, of this town, went deer hunting last week, and they were caught out in a storm and took retuge in a rock cliff near Table Rock in this county, and while in the cliff Mr. Cox observed a pile of snakes, the remainder of the crowd beat a hasty retreat, Mr. Cox stood his ground and fired at the bulk of the snakes-and they scattered in every direction, singing the well known tune of the rattlemake as they went. Mr. Cox upon examination, found that he had killed four large rattlesnakes at the one shot, and as he did not fancy the music around him, he did not remain to hunt up the wounded .- Blue Ridge Blade.

The Cincinnati Enquirer publishes interviews from all parts of Ohio; showing the feeling among the nationalists as to the probable vote of their party. MEBANEVILLE LODGE No. 272
Aug. 2, 1879.
Whereas the Grand Master of the Universe has seen fit to remove our Brother, Moses Shaw, from the Lodge below to the Temple above, from labor to refreshment, from earth to heaven, Resolved 1st. That we bow in submission to the Almighty Grand Master's action.
2nd. That our Lodge has suffered the loss of a true friend, a good citizen, an earnest christian and the most zealous Mason among us, and that our loss is irreparable.
3rd. That we offer to the bereaved family of our deceased brother our tenderest sympathies in this great affliction, reminding them at the same time that they sorrow not as those without hope.

same time that they sorrow hot as the conthope.

4th. That we imitate our deceased brother's virtue, and revive his memory as that of one who was in all respects an upright man and mason, whose exemplary life so well illustrates the principles of our order.

5th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, and to the ALAMANCE GLEANER, with the request that they be published.

I hope the Farmers will not think I am boastful by continuing to say I can show the h ghest AVERAGE of any House in Durbam, but thanks to the liberal buyers that sustain me so faithfully, you can depend on your interest being looked after, and whenever your prices are not satisfactory I will send your Tobacco to any market you may prefer, and if it nets you more money, on the average, I will pay all cost of shipping. How can you fail to try Reams on these terms? Respectfully,

SMORD OBACCO  A SOURCE OF MUCH BODILY EVIL

H. A. REAMS, Prop'r.

If the habit of body becomes irregular much evil is inflicted on the system. The somach becomes dyspeptic, billious symptoms develop themselves, the circulation is contaminated, and the neaves share in the generil disorder. It is of the utmost importance that the bowels should be thoroughly and speedily regulated when they grow derelict. The corrective agent best adapted to this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a wholecome non-riping yegatable laxative, worth all the rasping cathartics invented since the time of Paracelsus. Pouple who have been in the habit of using blue pill, calomel, and other drugs and cheap nostrums for constipation, should abandon such hurtful and useless medicines, and substitute for them this pleasant and gentle aperient, which not only produces it e purgative effect naturally, but also strengthens while it regulates the bowels, stomach and liver. It moreover cures and prevents intermittent and remittent fever, rout, rheumatism, debility and urinary troubles.
