CORNWALLIS' SURRENDER.—The 98th anniversary of the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, was celebrated last Thursday. Besides volunteer military companies from different places in Virginia there were present five companies of artillery from Fort Monroe under Genl. Getty, a battalion and three companies of marines from the Fourth Atlantic Squadron. There were also present a number of prominent gentlemen from different States. Genl. Tallafiero was orator of the day, but there were quite a number of speeches from other gentlemen, among them a Frenchman and an Englishman. Col. J. N. Staples, of Greensboro, was there as the representative of our State, and made a speech.
Two years hence there will doubtless be a grand centennial celebration there.

A Miss Morton, near Minonk Ill., was indecently assaulted by a man named Hannis Deboro, and left for dead.
She was found twenty hours afterwards, Deboro was arrested and identified by her. He was at his work, no doubt thinking he had killed her.

HALLS VEGETABLE SCALP HAIR RENEWER is a scientific combination of some of the most powerful restoratives agents in the vegetable kingdom. It restores gray hair to its original color. It makes the scalp white and clean.
It cures dandruff and humors, and falling-out of the hair. It furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a hair dresser.
It is the most economical preparation ever offered to the public, as its effects remain a long time, making only an occasional application necessary. It is recommended and used by eminent medical men, and officially endorsed by the State Assayer of Massachusetts. The popularity of Hall's hair renewer has increased with the test of many years, both in this country and in foreign lands, and it is now known and used in all the civilized countries of the world.
FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.
Don't Know Half Their Value.
"They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint as recommended. I had a half a bottle left which I used for my two little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters.
They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."

PLEASE READ AND HEED.—Since we commenced the publication of THE GLEANER we have asked very few of our patrons to see them, or send to them, and with many it is next to impossible.
Our need for money, just now, is unusually great and pressing. There is quite an amount due us in the aggregate. So far as each one is concerned the sum is small, and, in many instances, is not paid because it is too small to command attention. We trust our subscribers will consider that our income is made up of small amounts, and that each one will put himself to the trouble to send us what he owes. If he does not know just what it is, he can send something like the amount, and he will be credited for what he sends. We can't afford to employ a collector. We will in all cases where an amount as one year's subscription is forwarded, bear the cost of registered letter which may be deducted from amount.

Highway Robbery Near Wadesboro.
As Mr. Gaston Huntley was going home from Wadesboro, about two miles from town his wagon was stopped by three men, and his money demanded. He pretended to be getting the money, but drew a pistol and fired on the man nearest to him, fell, one of the others fired on Huntley, and then the meeting appears to have broken up.
A woman near by heard the wounded man call to his comrades to take him away before some one came.
The people of Winston and Statesville seem fully alive to the project of the proposed extension of the Virginia & Midland Railroad from Danville Va., by way of Winston to Statesville in this State. Meetings are being held, the route inspected and other things done which indicate an earnest purpose on the part of those concerned to make this connection between Statesville and Danville, and by supplying this link to make a shorter route from Charlotte north.

Scratch Your Head in Another Place.
—Lucien Crater, the barber, may always, that is nearly always, be found at his shop in room No 19 in the Graham Hotel. The location is quite convenient and Crater is a good barber; keeps everything nice and clean, and does his work well.
Hale's Weekly: The N. C. State Agri-

LAND SALE.
By virtue of an order of the Superior Court, of Alamance county, I will sell, at the residence of the late William A. Walker, in Alamance county on MONDAY, 3rd of NOVEMBER 1879.
The following real property, to wit: The tract of land whereon the late William A. Walker, lived up to his death, situated in Alamance and Caswell counties, adjoining the lands of Garrison Walker, J. M. Shaw and others containing 151 ACRES, the whole of which is encumbered by the widow's dower.
One tract in Caswell county, known as the Wilder land, including the Rauey lot, adjoining the lands of A. Page, J. M. Shaw and others, containing
ONE HUNDRED ACRES.
One tract known as the James Walker place, in Caswell county, adjoining the lands of J. C.
Anderson, William McVitt, and others, containing
352 ACRES
a portion of which is covered by the dower of the widow.
These lands are admirably adapted to the growth of fine tobacco, and to the growth of grains as well.
The location is healthy and the water excellent.
Said tract of land will be sold upon the following terms: One third of the purchase money cash; one third in six months, and the remaining third in one year, secured by bonds, carrying interest from day of sale.

A little fight in town Saturday night.
The Charlotte Fair opens next Tuesday. A big time is expected.
The annual Conference of the Methodist Church of the State, convenes in Wilson, December 3rd.
Big frost last Saturday morning. Tobacco folks are ahead of it. Pretty weather again.
We are sorry to hear that Mr. A. A.
Thompson, near Mebaneville, lost one of his children last week, from diphtheria.
Mr. James E. Boyd, Master Tommy Boyd, and Mr. E. R. Harden left last Monday for the Richmond Fair.

THE OLDEST BAPTIST CHURCH.
The oldest Baptist church now in existence in North Carolina is the church at Shiloh, in Camden county, which was organized in 1727, with Elder Paul Palmer as pastor. The church now numbers several hundred communicants, and has sent off many colonies to start other churches in northeastern North Carolina and southeastern Virginia.—Fayetteville Gazette.
THE SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA.— This body met in Statesville last Wednesday, and was opened by a sermon from the retiring Moderator, Rev. Dr. Wilson, of Wilmington, Rev. E. F. Rockwell, of Concord Presbytery was elected Moderator. The First Presbyterian Church in Raleigh was selected as the place of meeting. Time to be hereafter determined.
Capt. T. W. Battle, of Edgecombe county, had two gins, and gin houses, and their contents burned. The two gins were close together and run by steam.
There were about 150 bales of cotton in them, all of which except about thirty bales were burned. Whether the burning was the result of an accident, or the work of an incendiary is uncertain.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and Hop Bitters are highly recommended for purifying the Blood and renewing the System. You can find them at Company Shops Drug Store.
The Republican State Convention, of Louisiana, met last Monday, and nominated a full ticket with Hon. Taylor Beattie as its head for Governor. A resolution was adopted in favor of Grant for President.
Indian Queen Perfume is the most delightful, fragrant and lasting of all

Two hundred armed men surrounded the jail in Martinsburg, Elliott county, Kentucky, and took therefrom John W.
Kudall and William McMillan and hanged them. The hanged men were known to have belonged to a band of outlaws.
Mr. Jacob Michael, has moved to the village, and will take boarders, furnishing washing, fuel and lights, at $8.00 per month, payable monthly.
Bethany College, in Bethany county, West Virginia, was partially destroyed by incendiary fire. The Societies lose their libraries. The wing burned was valued at $30,000.
WHEAT—FERTILIZER.—Those wanting wheat fertilizer can be supplied by applying to S. A. White, Mebaneville, who is agent for Anchor Brand.
Mebaneville, Sep. 2nd 1879.
Mr. Claude William Smith, son of Hon. William A. Smith, of Johnston county, and Miss Zedee Jones, a half sister of Hon. Samuel J. Tilden, were married at the church of the Good Shepherd, in Brooklyn, N. Y., on the 1st instant.
If you have chills go to Company Shops Drug Store and there you will find a cure.
The cotton compress at Charlotte, up to Saturday night, had compressed 10, 000 bales of cotton this season. The Observer says this is more than it compressed last season, all told.
The distress in Hungary on account of bad harvest is very great. Famine and starvation stare the people in the face.
Mr. Thomas Wilson, near Charlotte had his barn burned with all his wheat, rough feed and harness. The work of an incendiary.
Mr. John Fowler of Hillsboro died on the 20th of this month from paralysis.
