MEETING!

The members of the Democratic Ex ecutive Committee for Alamance county are earnestly requested to meet in my office, in Graham, on Saturday, the 21st day of August, 1886. It is important for all to be present for consultation. The time of holding the convention to nominate a candidate for the legislature, and candidates for Sheriff, Clerk and other county offices will be then appointed; and other matters connected therewith will be considered and determined upon.

Ireland is still in a state of unrest Home rule may be better for her than her present government; but just at this time her rule at home is not good. Mobs are the order again, and it is not known where or what the end will be.

Members of the Democratic Executive committee for Alamance county should not fail to be present at the meeting to be held here next Saturday. See call at head of first column on this this page.

The old committee can discern sufficiently to understand that it will be useless to go to the trouble and expense of conducting a State campaign this fall. Prolonged Balloting.

Congressional Conventions in the Third and First Districts.

The Democratic convention of the 3rd district met at 12 o'clock, Aug. 12, at Clinton, in the court house grove, the court house not being large enough to hold it. Before the committee on credentials had reported, the proceeds ings were interrupted by a beavy rain which eventually forced the convention to retire to the Academy, about a half mile distant. This was accomplished in the midst of the rain, but every-body crowded into the hall, which was too small, the room was cleared with he view of admitting only delegates. In the meantime the rain held up and the convention went to work in the Academy grove, where it was in session until 7 p. m. It then adjourned to the court house grove and remained in session all night until the nomination was reached at 7:30 a, m. The delegates strewed along on the ground in he court house grove presented picuresque scene.

The friends of Col. Green were very strong in the convention, but the first trouble was to the detriment of their andidate.

Moore County held neither primaries nor county convention, the delegates being appointed by executive com-mittee. The majority understood to be against Col. Green, and the com-mittee on credentials divided in its report, the majority reporting against admitting the delegation, and the minority in favor of admitting them. The discussion of this matter occupied much time and coused a good deal of feeling. Eventually Col. Green's friends withdrew opposition and the minority report was adopted, but the bitterness of that contest was subsequently felt. It took 226 to nominate. The vote stood for Green: Sampson,50; Onslow, 26; Cumberland, 50; Moore, 9; Duplin, 33; Pender, 14; Bladen, 16; For Dortch, 97. For McLean, Har-

The Cutting Case.

Important Documents in the Case Text of the Decision.

CITY OF MEXICO, August 13, via Gaiveston.—The Diario official to-day contains important documents re-garding the Cutting case, including the full text of the decision of judge Zubla at Paso del Norte, which show clearly and unmistakably that the court held Mr. Cutting for a crime be gun on Mexican soil and contined sim ultaneously in Texas and Mexico. This puts a new phase on the case, as it shows that judge Zubla regarded the WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—In relation to the statement telegraphed from here to a New York paper that the cabinet had accepted an offer from the Mexican government to have the Cutting affair looked into by a special envoy from this country, with a view to arbitration, secretary Bayard said to-night that there was no truth whatever in the report. He added that he had not heard from minister Jackson on the Cutting affair since the adjournment of Congress, and all his dispatches on that subject had been published. The story about a special envoy is claimed to be only one of many similar rumons set affort to embarrass the State department. It is broadly asserted that Mexican money is being freely used to defeat the administration in the Cutting affair by creating public sentiposition assumed by secretary Bayard. A prominent Republican diplomatist, who has criticised the action of the State department, is said to be an agent of the Mexican government, and a strong effort is being made to work up a feeling in favor of arbitration, so as to pave the way for action on part of the administration which would afterwards be construed by its opponents as a "back down." Mexican rascibility and venality are claimed to be the elements of danger in the Present situation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 18.-

Secretary Bayard, speaking of the ac-cusation made against him, that he had proceeded with undue haste in the Cutting affair, and had placed this country in the attitude of bullying a weaker neighbor, said to-night that he had acted with all possible considera-tion towards Mexico. Cutting had been in prison for more than a month when he made the demand for his release, and ever since then be had been doing everything in his power to effect a peaceful settlement, short of conceding the point that Mexico could try an American citizen for an offense committed in this country. There he had stopped short, and there he would remain. tion is a fundamental one, involving the right of American citizenship, and and not one which can be disposed of by arbitration. It is not a question of pecuniary loss or damage, but of personal liberty and possibly of life itself. Secretary Bayard is evidently anxious to help the Mexicans out of the difficulty without infringing on their sensitive national pride, but he has no idea of giving up the principle for which this government contends. From his expressions on the subject it may be state I that the question of arbitra tion has not been considered, and the State department has no idea of modifying its demand which is the unconditional release of Cutting. The chief difficulty in the way of a settlement is the peculiar relation of the various States to the federal government of Mexico. Their condition is pretty much that of our own colonies before the adoption of the federal constitution ; all acting independently and intense ly jealous of one another. The federal ooth in mind and body.

The late Sam'l J. Tilden left property or the between seven and ten millions or one another. The federal government of Mexico is powerless in some instances as against an individual State. The state of Chihushua now holds Cutting, and until the federal can do nothing. Unless the passions of the Mexicans are inflamed to such a of the Mexicans are inflamed to such a point as to render it dangerous for the federal government to make conces-sions, Cutting will probably be releas-ed as soon as practicable, and the mat-ter amicably adjusted. There can be no doubt however, that there is a very ugly feeling in Mexico against our peo-
